THIS WEEK'S STARTERS (SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

SPENCER SCHWELLENBACH NEBRASKA | SAGINAW, MI

BIO

CURRENT NOTES: Opening day starter, went 1.2 innings with no hits, 2 walks, and a strikeout in his first professional action of his career. Pitched two innings the next week, giving up one run (unearned due to E4). Took loss in his third start after struggling with command at Myrtle Beach...best outings came on 4/27 and 5/4, going 7.1 outings and allowing one run in that time...

CAREER: Spencer Schwellenbach was a 2nd round pick of the Braves out of Nebraska in 2021, falling despite being a projected first rounder due to reports of a potential injury during workouts. The Braves were thrilled that he fell to them, and signed him despite knowing he would likely need the Tommy John surgery which sidelined him for the entire 2022 season. Out of Saginaw, Michigan, Schwellenbach was a 34th round pick of the Guardians in 2018, but elected to fulfill his commitment to the Cornhuskers. In college, Schwellenbach was a dominant two-way player his senior year after featuring solely as an infielder his first three years. He held opponents to a .198 batting average with a dominant fastball, recording 10 saves and a remarkable ERA of 0.57. He also hit .284, with 9 stolen bases and 9 home runs. Those stat lines led to him being named as the Big 10 2021 Player of the Year, a first-team All-American, the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year, a Golden Spikes semifinalist, and more. He is expected to feature as a pitcher.

OWEN MURPHY

BIO

CURRENT NOTES: Dazzled in his season debut, going 4 scoreless innings with 6 strikeouts...picked up first decision (L) on first game of doubleheader 4/28...

CAREER: Murphy was a two-sport standout, also playing QB and WR for his high school team. During his senior year, he gave up just 10 hits in 58.1 innings while striking out 137 – more than 2 batters per inning. He tossed four no-hitters and two perfect games, while also hitting .548 with 10 homers. He was a projected top-100 pick as a two-way player, but his pitching elevated him to first-round status. He was named the 2022 Illinois Gatorade Player of the Year and was originally committed to Notre Dame, but after being selected 20th overall by the Braves he elected to sign for $2,560,000. He pitched 5 scoreless innings in the FCL, striking out seven, before giving up six runs in seven innings on just five hits with ten punchouts in three Augusta starts late in the season.

THIS WEEK'S STARTERS

ADAM SHOEMAKER CAMBRIDGE, ON, CANADA

BIO

CURRENT NOTES: Was stellar in his debut, going 3 innings of no-hit ball with 4K and 1BB...picked up 9-out save while facing the minimum (1H allowed, GDP) his next game vs MB...smoked in one inning of work on 5/2 at KAN, giving up 3 runs on 3 hits in one inning...

CAREER: Adam Shoemaker was drafted in the 11th round of the 2021 draft out of St. Benedict High School in Cambridge, Ontario. He was touching 95 miles an hour on his fastball, which made him a projectable target as a LHP despite needing some physical development. In 3 games in the Complex his draft year, he held opponents to a .158 average, before starting the 2022 season in Augusta. In three starts, Shoemaker went just 5 innings, exiting his third start with an injury. After a month on the IL, he returned to the FCL, where he spent the rest of the season putting up solid numbers. He's expected to rejoin the Augusta starting rotation to start this spring.

DIDIER FUENTES

CURRENT NOTES: Became youngest player in last 6 years to play for any affiliate when making start on 4/11...also became youngest GreenJackets pitcher of all time...struck out 4 in 2.2 innings. Struggled in next two outings, coming in relief on Tuesday 4/17 and 4/25...gave up 5 runs on 5 hits including first homer of the year in last two outings of April...

CAREER: Signed as an international free agent out of Columbia for $75,000 in January of 2022. He struck out 50 batters in that time, with a WHIP of 1.02 and limiting opponents to a .217 batting average. At the age of 17 years, 9 months, and 17 days old on Opening Day, Fuentes becomes just the fifth 17 year old to appear on an opening day roster in affiliated baseball since 2017, and the youngest player since Eguay Rosario in 2017 to feature for an affiliated club. He will turn 18 in June. Known for an "outlier" fastball that can touch 93 as a 17-year old.

2022: Started season with Augusta, making two appearances before being sent down to the FCL Braves. Following 8 dominant starts in the complex, Bautista returned to Augusta, where he recorded wins in the final three starts of the season and two straight quality starts to end the year. Opponents hit .383 against him in Augusta, the highest of any GreenJackets pitcher, arguably inflated by his second start of the year, when he gave up 8 runs on 9 hits in one inning of work. However, he was dominant in the FCL, holding opponents under .200 and fanning 45 batters in 37.1 innings of work. In 2022, he had a 1.83 ground-out to air-out ratio, the highest of his career. CAREER: Spencer Schwellenbach was a 2nd round pick of the Braves out of Nebraska in 2021, falling despite being a projected first rounder due to reports of a potential injury during workouts. The Braves were thrilled that he fell to them, and signed him despite knowing he would likely need the Tommy John surgery which sidelined him for the entire 2022 season. Out of Saginaw, Michigan, Schwellenbach was a 34th round pick of the Guardians in 2018, but elected to fulfill his commitment to the Cornhuskers. In college, Schwellenbach was a dominant two-way player his senior year after featuring solely as an infielder his first three years. He held opponents to a .198 batting average with a dominant fastball, recording 10 saves and a remarkable ERA of 0.57. He also hit .284, with 9 stolen bases and 9 home runs. Those stat lines led to him being named as the Big 10 2021 Player of the Year, a first-team All-American, the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year, a Golden Spikes semifinalist, and more. He is expected to feature as a pitcher.
