

2020 Bourbon and Brewfest Postponed: New Tasting Series to begin

Bourbon and Brewfest has officially announced the postponement of the 2020 Bourbon and Brewfest due to the COVID-19 pandemic. "While this decision was difficult, it is in the best interest of our patrons, vendors and partners that we postpone the festival until 2021", said Kyle Wolz, Director of Sales with the Bowling Green Hot Rods. Due to the postponement, Vette City Catering has created a new tasting series that will take place instead of this year's festival beginning on October 24th in the Reinhart Stadium Club. The tasting sessions will be hosted once every two months! Those who purchased tickets to 2020 festival, will have three options regarding their tickets they purchased.

Bourbon and Brewfest goes who purchased tickets for the 2020 festival have three options regarding their tickets below:

____ Please credit my Bourbon and Brewfest GA Tickets to the FIRST TWO Bourbon and Brewfest Tastings (October 24th / Second Tasting – TBD)

____ Please credit my Bourbon and Brewfest VIP Tickets to the FIRST FOUR Bourbon and Brewfest Tastings (October 24th / Second Tasting – TBD)

____ Please credit my Bourbon and Brewfest Tickets to 2021 Bourbon and Brewfest
