SOMERSET PATRIOTS NOTES

- The Somerset Patriots dropped the series finale to the New Hampshire Fisher Cats 5-3 at Delta Dental Stadium in Manchester, NH on Sunday afternoon.
 - After avoiding a series loss in seven straight series, the Patriots have now dropped two series in a row for the first time this season.
 - With the result, Somerset slipped to 5-7 against the Fisher Cats this season after splitting a six-game set at TD Bank Ballpark to end May. Dating back to 2025, Somerset is 27-9 against the Fisher Cats.
 - The Patriots struck for three runs off three hits in the first inning. It was the first time the Patriots have scored a first inning run since June 19 at Portland and the most first inning runs the Patriots have scored in a game since scoring three runs in the first on June 12 vs. Binghamton. Somerset's 57 first inning runs lead the Eastern League and are tied for second in Double-A at the time of the game's conclusion.
 - The 5-3 loss marked the 11th time Somerset has played a game decided by two or fewer runs in its last 16 contests, dropping to 18-20 in two-run games this season.
 - Somerset's offense pummeled four XBH in the game. Since snapping an MiLB-leading 69-game streak with at least one XBH to start the season, the Patriots pounced for 18 XBH in their final five games to end the series with the Fisher Cats.
 - With Coby Morales' first inning home run, the Patriots have hit homers in nine of their last 12 games, 18 of their last 22 games, 34 of their last 41 games and 58 of 75 games this season. Their 113 home runs this season lead Double-A and trail Somerset's 115 HR in 2023 as the second-most through 75 games in Double-A during the Research Tool Era (since 2005).
 - The Patriots' 207 HR pace through 75 games is on track to beat the Double-A Research Tool Era record set by Somerset in 2022 with 205 home runs.
 - Somerset's pitching staff tallied 10 K with only one walk. The Patriots' 10 K were tied for the third-most this season when issuing one or fewer walks.
