LETTER FROM THE President and General Manager

Baseball is back! We are incredibly excited to bring the Round Rock Hairy Men to life by hosting a temporary expansion team in the Texas Collegiate League, the state's first major collegiate summer wood bat league. We are so thrilled that you are joining us at Dell Diamond and we sincerely thank you for your support.

Although this won't be the traditional Round Rock Express roster full of affiliated, professional players that we're all used to, our inclusion in the TCL allows us to bring baseball back to our community this summer. We have worked hard to build a talented roster full of local student-athletes. You'll see many Central Texas high schools, colleges and universities represented on this year's team.

We are thrilled to be part of the first sports league in the county to offer live baseball with fans in the stands. As you'll see, Dell Diamond capacity has been capped at 25% so that we can properly implement a comprehensive social distancing policy. While we've spent several weeks developing our plan to keep fans, staff, players and coaches safe during their time at Dell Diamond, we need your help. Please respect your fellow fans throughout the stadium by practicing social distancing. Keeping our community safe is a team effort.

In addition to the Hairy Men and their quest to conquer the Texas Collegiate League, Dell Diamond is set to play host to a variety of other special events throughout the summer. Our Express Camps continue through mid-August, offering major league quality baseball and softball instruction to our next generation of athletes.

We are also gearing up to host movie nights and concerts as we strive to continue to provide live entertainment to Central Texas in a safe and responsible manner. Stay tuned to RRExpress.com and Round Rock Express social media channels for updates on all the exciting events coming to the ballpark in 2020.

Our calling is to bring joy to others through the game of baseball. While there will not be Round Rock Express baseball in the traditional sense this summer, we couldn't be more excited for this new opportunity to take part in the Texas Collegiate League. Nothing can fully replace the games we have lost, but we truly hope we can bring some joy and entertainment to our community through the Round Rock Hairy Men and other special events at Dell Diamond.

As we continue to venture through these unprecedented times together, we sincerely hope that your time at the ballpark is as safe and enjoyable as possible. If there is ever anything that either of us or any member of our staff can do to enhance your experience at Dell Diamond, please let us know.

Chris Almendarez
PRESIDENT

Tim Jackson
GENERAL MANAGER

This publication is the exclusive gameday program of the Round Rock Hairy Men. It is our sincere hope that this publication enhances your experience at Dell Diamond for Hairy Men games during the 2020 season. If you have questions or comments, or if you would like to advertise in a future edition, please contact us at (512) 255-2255 or feedback@rrexpress.com.

MEET THE "HAIRY MAN"

Round Rock's Texas Collegiate League moniker for 2020 is a nod to the area's infamous "Hairy Man" urban legend in which a young boy became separated from his parents as early settlers headed west through Round Rock, eventually growing into a rather hairy hermit. The Hairy Man would frequently chase away strangers and hide in trees to scare passersby, sometimes sitting in a tree canopy that grew over the road while dragging his feet on the top of the stagecoaches. One day, he fell in front of a stagecoach and was unfortunately trampled to death, doomed to haunt the shady road that bears his name to this day.

Round Rock Hairy Men logos, uniforms and hats were originally designed by Brandiose to be used for the annual Round Rock Express "What Could Have Been Night" in which the club explores alternate worlds where "Express" was not chosen as the team's nickname.

THE LEGEND LIVES ON

Round Rock Hairy Men Join Texas Collegiate League for 2020 Season

Baseball is back! The Round Rock Express are incredibly excited to be fielding a temporary expansion team in the Texas Collegiate League (TCL) this summer!

Dubbed the Round Rock Hairy Men, the team features both a nod to this area's local urban legend and a roster stacked with some of the most talented and accomplished players representing high schools, colleges and universities from throughout Central Texas and beyond.

New in 2020, the TCL has expanded to field 10 teams, each made up of collegiate players competing in a 30-game regular season that runs from June 30 until August 2. Dell Diamond is playing host to 15 of those games during the regular season. Stadium capacity has been capped at 25% to ensure a comprehensive social distancing plan can be implemented properly.

"The Texas Collegiate League provides us the opportunity to host live baseball games in front of fans during the absence of Round Rock Express baseball," President

Chris Almendarez said. "We are excited to give our fans the opportunity to come out to Dell Diamond and cheer on some of the best collegiate players from around the state this summer."

The TCL is made up of 10 teams from across Texas and neighboring states. Four current members of the TCL are competing in 2020, the Brazos Valley Bombers (Bryan, TX), Acadiana Cane Cutters (Youngsville, LA), Texarkana Twins and Victoria Generals. Five MiLB clubs also formed teams that temporarily joined the TCL, including Amarillo (Double-A affiliate of the San Diego Padres), Frisco (Double-A affiliate of the Texas Rangers), Tulsa (Double-A affiliate of the Los Angeles Dodgers), Round Rock (Triple-A affiliate of the Houston Astros) and San Antonio (Triple-A affiliate of the Milwaukee Brewers). Amarillo will be fielding two teams.

"As we all cope with the changing landscape in sports in 2020, it is a true honor for all of our ownership groups to team up with these great operators from Triple-A and Double-A Minor League Baseball to help propel the TCL forward as one of the best summer wood bat leagues in the country," Texas Collegiate League President Uri Geva said.

The league features two divisions, North and South. The North Division includes Amarillo's two teams, Frisco, Texarkana and Tulsa while the South Division includes Acadiana, Brazos Valley, Round Rock, San Antonio and Victoria. The 30-game schedule includes a three-game home and away series against each divisional opponent as well as a three-game home and away series against one cross-divisional opponent for a total of 15 home games and 15 away games. The postseason consists of a three-game divisional series played by the top two teams in each division, followed by a one-game, winner-take-all championship for the Gerald Haddock Trophy.

Each team's rosters are composed of active collegiate players from colleges and universities at all levels across the United States. Teams are limited to 35 active players for home games and 30 active players for away games. Unlike traditional settlers headed west through Round Rock, eventually growing into a rather hairy hermit. The Hairy Man would frequently chase away strangers and hide in trees to scare passersby, sometimes sitting in a tree canopy that grew over the road while dragging his feet on the top of the stagecoaches. One day, he fell in front of a stagecoach and was unfortunately trampled to death, doomed to haunt the shady road that bears his name to this day.

Round Rock Hairy Men logos, uniforms and hats were originally designed by Brandiose to be used for the annual Round Rock Express “What Could Have Been Night” in which the club explores alternate worlds where “Express” was not chosen as the team’s nickname in 2000. A great selection of Round Rock Hairy Men merchandise is available through the Railyard Team Store.

“We had been planning to host a Round Rock Hairy Men night for several years, so we are excited to expand upon those plans and share the local legend with baseball fans in Central Texas and beyond with our TCL team this season,” Jackson said. “By using our Hairy Men marks, we also want to be clear that although our staff is treating each and every Hairy Men game as they would a normal Express game, these are not the traditional, affiliated players that come through Round Rock each season.”

The safety and well-being of guests, staff and the community is of the upmost importance. All guidelines from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the State of Texas are strictly followed and enforced during the TCL season and all other events at Dell Diamond. Round Rock Express staff are also working closely with Williamson County and City of Round Rock officials to ensure Dell Diamond meets or exceeds all recommended standards. Social distancing protocols are followed at all TCL games, including a reconfiguration of the seating bowl to provide a safe and comfortable atmosphere for fans. For more information about the safety measures being taken at Dell Diamond, please visit RRExpress.com/Safety.

Fans are encouraged to follow @RRHairyMen on Twitter and visit RRHairyMen.com to stay up to date with the latest news and information.

Round Rock Express rosters, the players in the TCL are amateur collegiate athletes and therefore not employees of MLB clubs.

“The Texas Collegiate League is consistently chock full of some of the best collegiate baseball players from our state,” General Manager and TCL Alumnus Tim Jackson said. “Traditionally, TCL rosters are made up of players from around the country, but we have fielded a team nearly exclusively comprised of talent from Central Texas. We are honored to allow these athletes the opportunity to play at professional venues like Dell Diamond and hope our community rallies around these guys this summer.”

Round Rock’s roster features a distinctly Texas feel, with 30 of the 33 players originally hailing from the Lone Star State. A total of 21 different colleges and universities are represented on the team’s roster, including programs from NCAA Division I, II and III, as well as the NJCAA. The squad features student-athletes from 13 different NCAA Division I programs, such as Baylor, Dallas Baptist, Houston, Incarnate Word, Rice, TCU, Texas State and UTSA, just to name a few. Other local programs represented on the roster include Southwestern and St. Edwards.

All 30 native Texans on the team’s roster attended high school in the state, with 23 different schools represented. At least one student-athlete from nearly every major high school in Central Texas is listed on Round Rock’s roster, including Austin, Cedar Park, Cedar Ridge, Georgetown, Hendrickson, Hyde Park, Lake Travis, Liberty Hill, Mason, Round Rock, Rouse, Salado and Stony Point.

Since the league was established in 2004, more than 500 TCL players have been drafted by MLB clubs, with nearly two dozen ultimately making it to the bigs. Notable TCL alumni include Jake Arrieta, Brandon Belt, Clay Buchholz, Matt Carpenter, Chris Davis, Paul Goldschmidt and former Express stars Brett Nicholas and Hunter Pence.

Round Rock’s TCL moniker for 2020 is a nod to the area’s infamous “Hairy Man” urban legend in which a young boy became separated from his parents as early

CHASE ALMENDAREZ MANAGER

#24

Chase Almendarez currently serves as the Manager of Baseball Operations for the Round Rock Express, overseeing all baseball-related aspects of the organization, including team travel, umpire coordination and all amateur baseball events, such as the annual UIL State Baseball Championships at Dell Diamond. He also serves as the Director for Express Camps and is an active coach in the Express Select program.

The Round Rock native returned home after two years at the University of Houston-Victoria, where he played two seasons for the Jaguars. In 2018, he was named to the Google/CoSIDA Academic All-American team and was also recognized as a finalist for the Arthur Ashe Jr. Sports Scholar Award. He earned his undergraduate degree in Communications from UHV in May 2018.

Almendarez played two seasons of junior college baseball at Cisco College and Eastfield College, earning his associates degree from Eastfield in May 2016. Prior to college, Almendarez attended Round Rock High School, where he was a two-year letterman on the varsity baseball team.

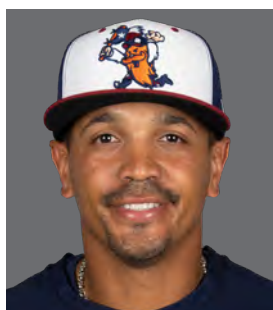

TANNER DRISKILL PITCHING COACH

Tanner Driskill is currently a pitcher within the Washington Nationals organization after being selected in the ninth round of the 2018 MLB Draft. He has pitched professionally for the GCL Nationals and Auburn Doubledays in his young career. Prior to signing with the Nationals, Driskill pitched collegiately for the Lamar Cardinals, where he was named an All-Southland Conference Honorable Mention in 2017 before Perfect Game tabbed him as a 2018 Pre-Season First Team All-Conference selection.

He began his collegiate career at Weatherford College, pitching for the Coyotes for two seasons prior to transferring to Lamar. Like Almendarez, he also attended Round Rock High School, where he was a three-time District and Bi-District Champion as well as a two-time Area Champion. He garnered First-Team All-District and Third-Team All-State honors during his senior season. Tanner is the son of former Round Rock Express and Houston Astros pitcher Travis Driskill.

OSCAR RODRIGUEZ BENCH COACH

Oscar Rodriguez currently serves as the Manager of Season Memberships and Service for the Round Rock Express after joining the club in 2016 as an Account Executive. While he has found success throughout his professional career in the front office, Rodriguez has a rich baseball background. He is the cousin of Tampa Bay Rays Third Base Coach Rodney Linares. Rodriguez dedicates time each summer coaching the next generation of players through Express Camps and Express Select.

A native of San Pedro, Dominican Republic, Rodriguez spent time within the Washington Nationals organization in his home country. He also played at Western Nebraska Community College for two years before transferring to Huston-Tillotson University, where he continued to play baseball. He graduated Magna Cum Laude from Huston-Tillotson University in 2013 with a degree in Marketing.

JACKSON RYAN STUDENT ASSISTANT

Jackson Ryan is currently a Student Volunteer Assistant for the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, where he assists with the Cru's pitching staff. In his role, he helps collect video during bullpen sessions, acts as the main point of communication between the team's bench and the bullpen during games and assists with the management of relief pitcher usage. He fills this same role with the Hairy Men. Ryan pitched for the Cru in 2019 before transitioning into a coaching position.

A two-year varsity pitcher for Second Baptist School in Houston, Ryan was coached by six-time MLB All-Star Lance Berkman, five-time World Series Champion Andy Pettitte and legendary University of Houston skipper Rayner Noble. Ryan is an active coach at Express Camps and is currently studying Sports Management at UMHB. Jackson is the son of Round Rock Express Founder Reid Ryan and the grandson of MLB Hall of Fame Pitcher Nolan Ryan.

When it comes to diverting waste, we knock it out of the park.

At Texas Disposal Systems, we are proud to team up with the Round Rock Express at Dell Diamond to make it one of the greenest ballparks in Texas. One major way we make it happen is our Eco Stations, which you can see all around the park.

After you dispose of your waste, we'll take those discarded items and turn them into things like compost and mulch to be used in your community. Together with the Round Rock Express, we create a winning lineup!
