FRANCHISE HISTORY

FRANCHISE HISTORY

Akron RubberDucks Baseball Club is a privately owned franchise. Mike Agganis originally purchased the franchise which began play in 1981 as the Lynn Sailors in Lynnfield, Mass., and the team then moved to Burlington, Vermont after the 1983 season, where it became an affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds and later the Seattle Mariners. The club won three straight Eastern League titles from 1984-1986 while serving as a Reds farm team.

The club moved to Thurman Munson Memorial Stadium in Canton, Ohio for the 1989 season and became the Canton-Akron Indians, the Cleveland Indians Double-A affiliate. The “Little Indians” earned a berth in the Eastern League playoffs in each of their first five seasons and featured the best record in the league in 1992 (80-58).

The organization moved again to newly constructed Canal Park in Akron for the 1997 season to become the Akron Aeros but remained an affiliate of the Indians. Aeros was chosen as the name to honor Ohio’s contributions to aerospace innovations. The Aeros were named Minor League Baseball’s “Team of the Year” by Baseball America in 2002 after posting a 93-48 record. In 2003, Akron took its success one step further by sweeping New Haven 3-0 to earn the Ohio based franchise’s first Eastern League Championship. The Aeros repeated this success in 2005 by beating Portland 3-1 in the finals. 2009 and 2012 marked the third and fourth championships since the move to downtown Akron. After the 2012 season, Ken Babby of Fast Forward Sports Group purchased the club from Agganis.

On October 29, 2013, Ken Babby and General Manager Jim Pfander stood before a capacity audience at the Akron Civic Theater and announced that the team would be known henceforth as the Akron RubberDucks to honor Akron’s long history as the “Rubber Capital of the World.” The franchise’s success on the field remained through the name change as the RubberDucks captured an Eastern League Championship in 2016 and the first Double-A Northeast League Championship in 2021. Akron’s six championships place the RubberDucks in third place for most championships in the current league trailing Binghamton (14) and Harrisburg (9). Off the field the RubberDucks were honored with the Larry MacPhail Award in 2015 for most outstanding and creative marketing and promotional efforts. In 2016, Canal Park and the Akron RubberDucks were chosen to host Akron’s first Eastern League All-Star Game and Home Run Derby. In 2021, the RubberDucks were honored with the Pillar Award for Community Service by Cleveland Smart Business. In 2022, Leadership Akron honored the RubberDucks with The Read Family Difference Maker Award. During the 2025 season, the RubberDucks and 7 17 Credit Union announced Canal Park will be renamed 7 17 Credit Union Park starting in 2026, marking the ballpark’s first naming rights deal.

On December 9, 2025, Prospector Baseball Group, founded by John Abbamondi and Ben Boyer, purchased the franchise from Babby. The 2026 season will mark the 37th year of the franchise as Cleveland’s Double-A affiliate.

RUBBERDUCKS REBRANDS

While the RubberDucks are known for their creative and fun one-night only rebrands every year, there are two special rebrands that are now a multiple night part of every RubberDucks season.

The Akron Black Tyrites and Los Perros Calientes de Akron are two special rebrands that started during the 2021 season and will continue for many seasons to come. The Akron Black Tyrites rebrand is the RubberDucks salute to the Negro Leagues. The Akron Black Tyrites only played 10 games in Akron during the 1933 season but remain an important part of Akron baseball history.

Los Perros Calientes de Akron are the RubberDucks Copa de la Diversión identity. Unique and fun promotions have always been synonymous with the Akron RubberDucks, and the “Los Perros Calientes” identity continues that tradition with a nod to the Hispanic community in the Greater Akron area. With hot dogs being a ballpark favorite among all fans, “Los Perros Calientes” pays homage to the tremendous atmosphere of superb food and affordable, family fun at Canal Park, the home of the RubberDucks.

In 2026, the RubberDucks will continue to honor Akron and Northeast Ohio with two new region-specific rebrands as part of the Only in Akron series. The RubberDucks will rebrand to the Akron Chip Dippers on June 19 and 20, and the RubberDucks will become the Akron Creamstick Donuts on July 24 and 25

Around 1939, J.J. Lawson started his Lawson's Milk Company in Cuyahoga Falls. As his business expanded, Lawson started offering more products including his famous French onion chip dip. The popularity of Lawson's chip dip inspired other Ohio companies like Toft Dairy and Smith's Dairy to launch their own French onion chip dips throughout the state.

Over 80 years after chip dip came to Northeast Ohio, no barbeque, picnic or party is complete in Akron without a creamy bowl of French onion chip dip.

Cream stick donuts are long rectangular-shaped donuts top coated with cake icing and filled with cream. While the ingredients and design of the donuts are similar throughout the country, each region has a different name for the delicacy.

The donuts are commonly known as Long Johns throughout the Midwest, finger donuts in the South or bars on the West Coast, but in Northeast Ohio, these donuts are known as cream sticks.

These two rebrands join the Barberton Fried Chicken & Hot Rice, Akron Galley Boys, Cheese Salads, White French, Sauerkraut Balls, Devil Strips, JoJos, Homers and Screamers as part of the RubberDucks created Only in Akron series, which honors the food, terms and baseball history that make Akron unique.

7 17 CREDIT UNION PARK FACTS AND INFORMATION

This beautiful facility was designed by Hellmuth, Obata & Kassabaum, Inc. out of Kansas City, Missouri. The steel-framed edifice was built in 14 months, between January 1996 and March 1997. HOK is the same company that designed other baseball gems like Progressive Field in Cleveland and Oriole Park at Camden Yards in Baltimore. Since the 2012 off-season, over $18 million of private money has been invested into 7 17 Credit Union Park. These investments include the installation of a new video board in 2013 and 2025, a complete renovation of luxury suites which was completed in 2022, and through a partnership with the City of Akron, a complete seating bowl renovation in 2022 and concourse bathrooms in 2025. The ballpark has evolved to offer fans new ways to enjoy affordable family fun at 7 17 Credit Union Park with the construction of the Game Grill & Bar, the Duck Club, Tiki Terrace and Duck Row in 2014 and by unveiling the Championship Club in 2022.

2025 SEASON RECAP

The RubberDucks went 77-60 in 2025, which was the third best record in the Eastern League. Despite finishing the overall regular season 17 games above .500, the RubberDucks did not qualify for the Eastern League playoffs after going 34-35 in the second half, which was five games back of Altoona. Akron missed the first half playoff spot by just a game and a half after being eliminated from the division race by Erie on the second to last day of the first half. Akron's 77 wins were second to only the Guardians 88 wins for most in the organization. Akron's pitching staff was third in the Eastern League in ERA (3.63 ERA) while the offense led the EL in walks (583) and triples (43). On defense, the RubberDucks turned the only triple play in the EL in 2025 to close out a win in Somerset on May 31. After the season, Cooper Ingle was named an Eastern League postseason All-Star at DH after batting .273/.391/.441 with 55 runs scored, 29 doubles, nine home runs and 45 RBI in 92 games. CJ Kayfus opened the season with the RubberDucks before going on to make his MLB debut on August 2. On September 27, Kayfus was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded to give the Guardians a postseason berth clinching win. Kayfus was one of seven former RubberDucks to debut for the Guardians in 2025 joining Doug Nikhazy, Nic Enright, Parker Messick, George Valera, Petey Halpin and Chase DeLauter.
