The dream of one native son that began decades ago has not only become a reality, but is about to enter its 14th season in 2012. The story of the Altoona Curve begins in 1979. Area native Bob Lozinak, a successful McDonald's franchisee, knew his hometown was a baseball haven and always dreamed of what it would be like to have a professional sports team in his hometown. He had a chance to make a dream of many come to fruition, so as the 1970s were about to come to a close, a series of meetings and preliminary discussions took place to put the plan into motion. However, there was enough opposition that thwarted the idea as an initial fear from natives was that a professional team would hurt the successful youth teams in the region. Professional baseball, for the time being, was put on the back burner.

In the meantime, that same year, Bob and his family went across the country and bought what became one of the most successful franchises in the entire country - the Albuquerque Dukes, the long-time Triple-A affiliate of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Fast-forward 16 years.

Like many other decisions in baseball, the latest round of major league expansion had a domino effect on the minor leagues. In 1995, Arizona and Tampa Bay were awarded major league franchises to play their inaugural season in 1998. To keep pace, baseball's rookie level added two teams in 1996. The following year, Class 'A' and Class 'AAA' each increased by two teams.

That left only Class 'AA' in need of expansion to match the number of teams in the big leagues. In 1997, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, as it was then called, decided the Eastern League would receive the two new franchises to start play in 1999. Erie was an easy first choice of the NAPBL's expansion committee. After all, the SeaWolves had established short-season attendance records in the new Jerry Uht Park as part of the New York-Penn League from 1995-98.

Groundbreaking ceremonies, March 7, 1998

The awarding of the second franchise wasn't easy. For months, it seemed Springfield, Mass. would land the team. However, an inability to finalize land and stadium finance deals left the NAPBL looking for another option. Enter Altoona. City native Bob Lozinak and a group of Pennsylvania lawmakers put together an 11th hour stadium financing package and site plan. The proposal was presented to the expansion committee at an October 5, 1997 meeting in Las Vegas. It received unanimous approval and Double-A baseball was on its way to Altoona.

Ballpark ground breaking ceremonies took place on March 7, 1998 and the franchise was officially awarded the following month. In June of that year, the team selected "Curve" as its nickname. The combination railroad/baseball moniker beat out several choices like "Lake Monsters," "Ridge Runners" and, believe it or not, "Fish!"

The next step for the Curve was affiliating with a major league team. Erie seemed to have an inside track on becoming the Pirates' new Double-A club, as the SeaWolves had served as Pittsburgh's short-season club from 1995-98. However, after a series of meetings with potential major league parent clubs, the Curve landed the coveted affiliation with the Pirates. The September 1998 announcement took the franchise to another level as the U.S. Route 22 pairing seemed an ideal fit. Central Pennsylvania fans, with their strong Pirates' roots, could now cheer for the Bucs' top prospects on their way to Pittsburgh.

New Curve owner Bob Lozinak sports his Pirates jacket at the press conference announcing what has become one of the longest and most successful affiliations between a minor league franchise and a major league parent club.

The long-awaited first game in Curve history took place on April 9, 1999 in Reading, Pa. The game against the Phillies' affiliate was suspended by rain and completed the next day as part of a double-header. For the record, the Curve lost their first contest, 6-2, but recorded their first win hours later with a 6-4 decision in game two of the twinbill.

Finally, the Curve christened Blair County Ballpark on April 15 with a triumph over the Bowie Baysox. A huge crowd of 6,171 attended the history-making contest despite cold, rainy weather and nearly a one-hour delay.

After three remarkable seasons, the Lozinak family sold the franchise to a group headed by Pittsburgh attorney Chuck Greenberg on April 2, 2002. Among the limited partners in Greenberg's collective: Pittsburgh Penguins' owner, star center and NHL Hall of Famer Mario Lemieux; Pittsburgh Steelers' all-pro running back Jerome Bettis; Altoona-based businessmen Steve Sheetz and Don Devorris. Todd Parnell would be tabbed as the team's new General Manager.

On August 5, 2002 the Curve announced a new four-year affiliation agreement with Pittsburgh, securing one of baseball's strongest affiliations through 2006. Despite the ownership change, the Curve franchise enjoyed its most successful season to that point, drawing 363,871 fans to Blair County Ballpark.

Between the 2002 and '03 seasons, Blair County Ballpark underwent its first major capital expansion project, as a new third-base Picnic Area, left-field Party Deck and outfield reserved seating section were constructed. The additions of the new areas brought the seating capacity of the ballpark to just over 7,200 and created enough room to hold nearly 10,000 fans on any night.

During the 2003 season, the Curve, led by third-year manager Dale Sveum, took the franchise to new heights on the field, posting a 78-63 regular season record and securing the club's first-ever Eastern League postseason berth. The Curve would lose to the eventual E.L. Champion Akron Aeros three-games-to-one in the first round of the playoffs. The playoff run helped fuel yet another franchise attendance record as 365,376 fans came through the gates at Blair County Ballpark.

In 2004, the Curve, managed by Tony Beasley, finished with a league-best 85-56 record and not only returned to the playoffs, but took the next step and advanced to the Eastern League Championship Series for the first time in club history before losing to the New Hampshire Fisher Cats. The '04 season also turned out to be a banner year at the gates as the Curve added a fifth consecutive franchise attendance record after drawing 394,062 fans to Blair County Ballpark. Among those fans who attended Curve home games in 2004 was Vice President Dick Cheney, who attended the club's Fourth of July game against Harrisburg. Following the season, Curve General Manager Todd Parnell was honored as the Eastern League Executive of the Year, while the franchise was presented the prestigious Larry MacPhail Trophy symbolizing the top promotional effort, both on and off the field, in all of baseball.

Vice President Dick Cheney addresses the crowd on his visit to CCB on July 4, 2004.

The 2005 edition of the Curve reached postseason play in dramatic fashion, sweeping a four-game road series from Bowie during the final weekend of the season to reach the playoffs for a third consecutive season. Despite losing in the first round of the playoffs, the Curve won big earlier in the season when the franchise was named the host of the 2006 E.L. All-Star Game.

Altoona would have a banner year in 2006. The highlight of the season, and arguably the top moment in the first eight seasons of Curve baseball, came on July 12th when Altoona played host to the 2006 Eastern League All-Star Game. A Blair County Ballpark-record crowd of 9,308 were on hand to witness Curve All-Star Brett Roneberg take home MVP honors in a 5-3 win for the Southern Division All-Stars.

In the fall of 2006, the franchise won two prestigious awards, most notably the John H. Johnson President's Trophy, which is given annually to Minor League Baseball's top club on the basis of long-time franchise stability, contributions to and promotion of the baseball industry and the financial success of the team. Also, the Curve were honored by Baseball America as the 2006 winner of the Double-A Bob Freitas Award.

The 2007 season proved to be a year in which the Curve continued their winning ways, as the club marched on to its sixth consecutive winning season. However, it wasn't enough to qualify for post-season play, as the club finished with an overall mark of 73-68. That season, plenty of the Pirates' top prospects passed through Blair County Ballpark. In addition to third-baseman Neil Walker and outfielder Andrew McCutchen, first basemen Steve Pearce enjoyed one of the finest seasons in club history en route to being named the 2007 Topps/Minor League Player of the Year.

In 2008, the Curve celebrated their storybook 10th anniversary season welcoming back plenty of former stars, including Adam Hyzdu and Josh Bonifay, among many others. The Curve also unveiled their 10th Anniversary All-Time team.

On June 17, Jimmy Carter, the 39th President of the United States attended the Curve versus Reading game while on a fishing trip in nearby Huntingdon.

The Curve captured the John H. Johnson Award in 2006 as the top franchise in the country.

TEAM HISTORY

As for the team, though, the Curve underachieved as they suffered their first losing season since 2001, finishing with a mark of 65-77 and a fifth place finish in the Eastern League's Southern Division.

However, 2008 will be remembered not for what happened during the season, but rather what happened following the season. On Dec. 1, 2008, President and Managing Partner, Chuck Greenberg announced that his group was selling the Curve back to original owner and visionary, Bob Lozinak. Greenberg announced that he was forming a sports consultation service and that many members of the Curve upper management would join his endeavor, including General Manager Todd Parnell.

Shortly after the announcement of the sale, it was made public that David Lozinak would be appointed as the team's Chief Operating Officer, overseeing the day-to-day functions of the ball club.

December 1, 2008: Outgoing President and Managing Partner Chuck Greenberg (right) announced he was selling the team back to Bob Lozinak, the visionary who brought baseball to Altoona.

The final block to the organization's new foundation was laid on December 5, 2008 when the Lozinak Family announced that they would bring back an old friend to steer the Curve into the future -- Rob Egan. Egan was the original play-by-play broadcaster for the team from 1999-2004. He left baseball for four years, but returned to the minors to become just the fourth General Manager in the club's 11-year history.

On December 30, 2008, Minor League Baseball approved the sale of the Curve from Greenberg's group back to Lozinak and the second chapter of the Lozinak era officially began.

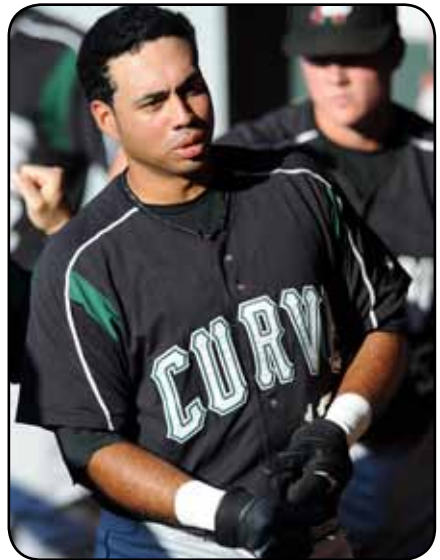

The new 2009 season saw the Altoona Curve stumble under first-year manager Matt Walbeck as the team got off to a franchise worst 0-8 start and was never able to recover, finishing the year 62-80. However, the team did see one of the most prospect-laden lineups ever assembled in team history. As Pirates General Manager Neal Huntington traded away many valuable players at the major league level, an influx of talent came back in return. However, no one expected the fanfare that Pirates' 2008 top draft pick and top-rated prospect Pedro Alvarez would get when it was learned the New York native was being promoted from Lynchburg (A) on June 23. A throng of media attention ensued, and Alvarez lived up to all his hype. The third baseman hit .333 with 13 home runs and 40 RBIs in just 60 games with the Curve. He was named the 2009 Curve M.V.P. not only for those staggering numbers, but primarily for the impact he had in the team's overall success. In games in which Alvarez played, the Curve were 34-26 (.567) while going just 26-51 (.338) in games where Alvarez did not play.

An outstanding partnership with the Pittsburgh Pirates became even stronger during the 2009 season when, on May 23, the Curve and Pirates signed a four-year extension to their Player Development Agreement, which will extend through the 2014 season.

With a solid affiliation under their belt, the Curve embarked on what would be their most magical season during its time in Altoona in 2010. From the outset, the 2010 Curve had the swagger and winning attitude that would carry the club to its second division title and its first-ever Eastern League Championship.

The cast of the 2010 club pretty much came as a cohesive unit from High-A Lynchburg, where they won the Mills Cup (Carolina League championship) in 2009. On Opening Day 2010, Altoona was greeted by a prospect-laden roster that included four of the Pirates Top-10 prospects according to Baseball America and eight of the Top-30 overall prospects. It was also a roster that had veteran talent, and it proved to be the perfect mix to get Altoona off to a nearly perfect start as the club started the season 7-1, a drastic turnaround after starting 2009 0-8.

Altoona Curve third baseman Pedro Alvarez was the most heralded prospect in franchise history and delivered on the field. He was named the 2009 Altoona Curve M.V.P.

Included in those first eight games was one day where everything seemed to fall into place for a memorable afternoon at BCB. After the first three games of the season were played under dreary cold conditions, mother nature opened the skies for a perfect 67-degree day on April 11th when the national spotlight turned to Altoona for the first professional start of Harrisburg Senators phenom Stephen Strasburg. More than 70 media members from around the country and upwards of 7,800 people came to watch the professional debut of the heralded Strasburg on the picture-perfect day in Curve, Pa. The game was also carried live on ESPN360.com and had parts of it aired on ESPNNews.

It would be the first of two national exposure days for Blair County Ballpark and the city of Altoona during 2010 as Andy Pettitte would later start against Altoona in the first game of the Eastern League Championship series. Pettitte's start brought the MLB Network and some of the New York spotlight to BCB as Pettitte's Thunder met the Curve for the first time in a playoff series.

All told, Altoona finished the regular season 82-60 to win its second division title and first since 2004. The 82 wins were second most in franchise history behind the 2004 club's 85 victories under manager Tony Beasley. After dispatching of Harrisburg three games to one in the divisional round, the Curve forged on to the ELCS to meet Trenton.

Pettitte's Thunder did take Game One but Altoona once again sprung back to take the final three games of the series. Curve closer Daniel Moskos was able to get the final out via the strikeout at Waterfront Park in Trenton on September 18th to bring the first-ever E.L. Championship to Altoona.

A few short months after the first-ever E.L. title was won, the Curve as a franchise took another step forward by unveiling the team's new logo set, which paid homage to the railroad engineers that helped put Altoona on the map. Along with the fresh new look came a new addition to the mascot family with the team bringing "Tenacious" into the fold.

Armed with a fresh new look for 2011, the Curve were also given a makeover in the coaching staff assignments as P.J. Forbes became the sixth manager in Altoona Curve history. Forbes, who had piloted the Reading Phillies of the Eastern League for three seasons from 2006-08, was coming off of back-to-back playoff appearances with High-A Lynchburg and High-A Bradenton in 2009 and 2010 (he led the '09 Hillcats to a Mills Cup title) before joining Altoona.

The 2011 Curve didn't get off to as fast of a start as the 2010 championship-winning club but did come out and compete on a nightly basis. A strange streak occurred during the season's first month as Altoona went on an unprecedented streak of 19-straight games of alternating wins and losses. The streak ran from April 10th through May 1st and was snapped on May 2nd, when Altoona won its second-straight game.

Altoona remained right around the .500 mark and in the thick of things in the Eastern League's Western Division until mid-June, when a nine-game losing streak slid the Curve from third to last place in the division. Despite the streak and an eventual 64-77 finish to the season, many positive things happened on the field in 2011 and they began with center fielder Starling Marte.

Marte, a native of Santo Domingo, D.R., was on the Curve roster from the get-go in 2011 and never ceased to impress. The 22-year-old proceeded to tear through the Eastern League en route to an Eastern League batting title and Eastern League Rookie of the Year honors. It was the first time in franchise history that a member of the Curve had won the Rookie of the Year award and it was also the first time that an active Curve player won the batting title (Jeff Keppinger won it in 2004 but spent the final months of the season as a Binghamton Met).

The speedy outfielder also set a few Curve single-season records along the way in 2011, posting franchise bests in outfield assists (18) and hits (178). In addition to his other accolades, Marte was both a mid-season and post-season E.L. All-Star, an XM Futures Game Selection, an Eastern League August Player of the Month and a Topps' Double-A All-Star.

Season number 13 in Curve, Pa. also saw nine different former Curve players make their Major League debuts, bringing the running total to 90 since 1999. Many of the nine played for the 2010 Eastern League Championship club (Mike Crotta, Daniel Moskos, Josh Harrison, Tony Watson, Chase d'Arnaud, Jared Hughes and Jeff Locke) while some were first-year Curve players that cracked the Pirates' 25-man roster (Eric Fryer and Aaron Thompson).

Off the field, the Curve received much national notoriety for the first-ever, on-field reversible cap, which was introduced in 2011. The cap featured the new Curve engineer on the regular side and a "Rally Cap" on the inside fashioned after rally mascot Al Tuna. The Curve's Summer Cruise Night Series, which combined a cruise giveaway with the stupendous films of Tom Cruise, was also a finalist for a Golden Bobblehead for one of the best promotions in Minor League Baseball. Average attendance at Blair County Ballpark also rose for the first time since it climbed from 2005 to the 2006 seasons.

The offseason leading into the club's 14th year of existence was also no quiet one as the Curve forged a partnership with Peoples Natural Gas that renamed the ballpark at 1000 Park Avenue Peoples Natural Gas Field. The partnership not only includes a naming-rights deal but looks to help spur economic development at the park and surrounding areas with the use of green energy.

Bob and Joan Lozinak on Opening Night 2009, their first game back as owners of the team since 2001.

Bob & Joan Lozinak, Managing Members

Bob and Joan Lozinak, both Altoona natives who always had dreams of bringing professional baseball to their hometown, were finally able to realize that dream in 1999. The original owners of the franchise from 1999-2001, Bob and Joan along with their three sons, Mike, David and Steve, reacquired their hometown team on December 30, 2008.

The Lozinaks had visions of bringing professional baseball to Altoona in the late 1970s, but public opposition thwarted the idea. They then proceeded to buy the Triple-A Albuquerque Dukes from former Los Angeles Dodgers owner Peter O'Malley and over the next 20 years (1979-2000), the Dukes captured six Pacific Coast League titles and numerous awards for club operations. Lozinak is among only a handful of minor league baseball owners to have been awarded the prestigious John H. Johnson Trophy twice.

The Johnson Trophy is awarded annually to the top franchise in Minor League Baseball in the U.S. and Canada. The Dukes were presented the honor in both 1984 and 1991. Additionally, Albuquerque also captured the Larry McPhail Trophy for the country's top promotional effort in 1987.

Lozinak sold the Dukes in 2000 so he could focus his efforts on his new franchise, the Altoona Curve.

After selling the Curve in 2002, the family purchased the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx and would enjoy Double-A affiliations in the Southern League with both the Chicago Cubs and the Seattle Mariners before the team was sold in the early months of the 2008 season.

Bob was born in Altoona on June 4, 1937. His college education was interrupted by five years of service in the Army during the 1960s. Lozinak completed Officer Candidate's School in Lawton, Okla. and was honorably discharged as a 1st Lieutenant. Upon his departure from the Army, Lozinak returned to finish his education at St. Francis College in Loretto, Pa. and graduated with a Bachelor's Degree in History.

After college, Bob and Joan became McDonald's franchisees in 1969 and their role as an owner-operator continues with stores in Hartford County, Maryland.

Since the purchase of their first McDonald's franchise, Joan has been actively involved in many phases of the operation of the restaurant, whether it means balancing the restaurant budget or appearing at numerous functions within the community.

Joan, a graduate of Altoona Catholic High School, currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Bishop Guilfoyle Catholic High School in Altoona. She is actively involved in long-term planning, policy development, financing, capital improvements, public relations and marketing, development and alumni relations and budgetary management.

Joan has always been actively involved in the Catholic church serving as either a Eucharistic Minister or singing in the choir.

The couple can often be found somewhere inside Peoples Natural Gas Field on game days enjoying Curve baseball with fellow fans and enjoying the fun, affordable family atmosphere they always dreamed of providing through the game of baseball in their hometown.

Lozinak (left) poses for a picture with Pat McKernan. McKernan was the former President of the Eastern League from 1974-81. He also served as Lozinak's General Manager of the Albuquerque Dukes from 1979-99. Together the duo won a pair of John H. Johnson Trophies (1984 and 1991) as the top franchise in the country along with the Larry McPhail Trophy in 1987 for the top promotional effort in the minors. The two are shown pictured in Altoona together in 1999. McKernan was named the "King of Baseball," at Baseball's Winter Meetings in 2000. McKernan passed away in 2001.

David enters his fourth year as the Chief Operating Officer of the Altoona Curve. His day-to-day responsibilities are to oversee the entire operation of the franchise.

Prior to his family reacquiring the team in December 2008, Lozinak held the same position with the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx of the Southern League.

Lozinak also spent three years working in the Accounting and Concessions departments for the Albuquerque Dukes, a team that his family owned and operated from 1979-2000.

David is a 1987 graduate of Widener University with a degree in Business Administration. He resides in Hollidaysburg with his wife, Aimee, daughter, Katie and son Will

The team's radio voice for the first six seasons (1999-2004), Rob Egan was named the fourth General Manager in Altoona Curve history on December 5, 2008. Egan returned to the Curve after spending nearly four years as the Secretary for Communications for the Catholic Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown (2005-08). Egan also created and hosted the daily sports talk show "Front & Center" on the ESPN Radio affiliates in Altoona and State College in 2006, hosting it for three years.

Egan enters his 14th season in professional baseball, spending the majority of his career in the fields of communications and public relations. Prior to his first stint with the Curve (1999-2004), he worked for minor league clubs in Charleston, S.C. (1997-98), Johnstown (1996), and Salinas, Calif. (1995). In addition to his broadcasting responsibilities, Egan was extensively involved in the marketing, promotions, and sponsorship sales of all the teams for which he previously worked.

During his first three years as General Manager, the franchise has achieved several firsts. In November 2010, the Curve unveiled entirely new logos and uniform designs which redefined the team's brand for the first time since the club's original marks were revealed in 1998. The new logos embrace the region's railroad history by incorporating an engineer character as the centerpiece with the iconic Pennsylvania keystone also used in the backdrop. Even the riveted lettering and the introduction of new colors like "Railroad Red" and "Boiler Bronze" are tied more closely to those of the Pennsylvania Railroad (PRR).

In 2011, for the first time since 2006, the Curve's average home attendance increased. An enhanced promotional and marketing effort including more giveaway events, increased social media interaction with fans, and more ticket and food value programs, produced the increase. In fact one of the promotions that helped drive attendance in 2011 - the innovative "Summer Cruise Series" - helped earn the Curve a finalist nomination for Minor League Baseball's Golden Bobblehead Award for the first time.

This past January, the Curve announced another first as the franchise prepared for its 14th season. Peoples Natural Gas, a marketing partner since relocating its headquarters in Pittsburgh two years ago, agreed to acquire the naming rights to Blair County Ballpark with a long-term pact. In addition to renaming the facility "Peoples Natural Gas Field", the region's natural gas provider has commissioned a study that will help the Curve become more efficient and environmentally friendly with all of their energy use. The study is doing the same for neighboring Lakemont Park, Galactic Ice, The Casino, and Lakemont Park Office Village and will find out if a single energy source for the entire footprint of properties is possible in the future.

Before getting into baseball, Egan was afternoon news and sports director for WGHN-FM and AM Radio in Grand Haven, Mich. from 1992 to 1995. A 1991 graduate of Central Michigan University, he has performed various play-by-play duties for three Division I schools: Central Michigan, College of Charleston, and St. Francis (Pa.) University.

Egan serves on the boards of Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown and the Allegheny Mountains Convention and Visitors Bureau. He is also a member of the Blair County Chamber of Commerce Attractions Committee and enjoys volunteering as a "buddy" for Miracle League of Blair County. A native of Grand Blanc, Mich., Egan resides in Altoona with his wife, CK, and four children: Drew, Gabriel, Caroline and Regina.

P.J. Forbes returns to Curve, Pa. for a second season in 2012 after becoming the sixth manager in Altoona Curve history when he was named skipper on December 22, 2010. The 2012 season will be his ninth season overall as a minor league manager and his fifth in the Eastern League.

Last season, Forbes led Altoona to a 64-77 record in his first season back in the Eastern League since 2008. Under Forbes' direction, the 2011 club produced Eastern League Rookie of the Year Staring Marte as well as Pirates' Minor League Pitcher of the Year Kyle McPherson. In addition to the standout campaigns of Marte and McPherson, Forbes also oversaw the development of LHP Jeff Locke, RHP Jared Hughes, LHP Aaron Thompson, and C Eric Fryer, all of whom made their Major League debuts last season with Pittsburgh.

The former infielder piloted the Marauders to a Florida State League playoff appearance in 2010 after leading the Lynchburg Hillcats to a Carolina League Mills Cup title in 2009. The Marauders, in their first season of existence, won the second half of play and finished with an overall record of 76-62, which was the second-best overall record in the FSL. Bradenton lost to the Charlotte Stone Crabs in a best-of-three series in the first round of the playoffs.

Forbes, 44, played 12 games in the Major Leagues and made his Major League debut on July 21, 1998 as a member of the Baltimore Orioles. He played in nine games for the O's in '98 and singled off Scott Service for his first big-league hit on July 31, 1998. All told, Forbes played 13 seasons after being drafted in the 21st round of the 1990 draft by the Anaheim Angels.

He spent seven seasons (1990-96) in the Angels organization before signing on with Baltimore. He spent time in the Texas Rangers farm system in 1999 before making his way back to Baltimore. He spent the last two years of his playing career with the Philadelphia Phillies organization, reaching the Majors for three games in 2001.

The Pittsburg, Kan. native began his managerial career in 2004 as the skipper of the Lakewood BlueClaws of the South Atlantic League. He guided the 'Claws to a 70-67 record and a second-place finish in the second half. In two seasons with Lakewood, Forbes went a combined 126-150. He then spent the next three seasons as the manager of the R-Phils, where he was a combined 194-229.

Forbes resides in Wichita, Kan. with his wife Stephanie, his three daughters Ashton, Kendall and Landon, and his two sons, Trip and Brandt. He earned a degree in marketing from Wichita State.

FASTFACT™ THE STORY BEHIND THE NAME

The name "Curve" was officially chosen as the team nickname on July 2, 1998. The name was selected by fans in a name the team contest. Other finalists included "Fish," "Ridge Runners" and "Lake Monsters." Curve was selected for two reasons: one for the baseball connotation but also as a tribute to the historic Horseshoe Curve, located just outside the city of Altoona. The landmark Horseshoe Curve was built in the 1850s as a means to make it easier for incoming trains to navigate through the Allegheny Mountains. The first train went around "the Curve" in 1854.

FASTFACT™FIRST GAME IN ALTOONA

Altoona

The first-ever home game in Curve history took place on April 15, 1999 when a crowd of 6,171 (a sellout) braved rainy conditions and a one-hour rain delay for the home opener against the Bowie Baysox. The Curve defeated the Baysox, 6-1, as Bronson Arroyo tossed 5.1 scoreless innings to notch the first of his 15 wins -- a club record -- which remains intact entering the 2011 season. Garrett Long hit the first home run at BCB, a two-run shot in the fourth inning to give the Curve an early, 2-0, lead. Altoona broke the game open by scoring four runs in the seventh inning, highlighted by a Craig Wilson two-run homer.

HISTORY / RECORDS

It didn't take long for the city of Altoona to show the critics who said the area was too small to support a professional baseball team that it has as knowledgeable and caring fans as anywhere minor league baseball is played. It didn't take Adam Hyzdu long to discover that fact either.

When the minor league veteran signed as a free agent with the Pirates shortly after being released by the Red Sox organization early in the 1999 season, Curve fans were just getting used to their new team and its beautiful new ballpark. Few probably even knew the names of the players they were cheering for. But soon, everyone knew about Hyzdu.

He was the club's Most Valuable Player during the inaugural 1999 season, batting .316 with 24 home runs and 78 RBI in just 91 games, before earning a late-season promotion to Triple-A. Most people thought they had seen the last of Hyzdu in a Curve uniform.

However, after a less-than-intent look from the Pirates in major league spring training, and much to the surprise of the fans of Altoona, Hyzdu returned to the Curve for the 2000 season. Although perhaps initially upset about returning to the Double-A level for the fifth time in his career, Hyzdu tore up Eastern League pitching and in return won the hearts of Curve fans. In 142 games for the 2000 Curve, he batted .290 with team records for home runs (31) and RBI (106) and earned the Eastern League's Most Valuable Player Award. By the middle of the season, the entire city of Altoona was campaigning for Hyzdu's promotion to the major leagues.

And just when it appeared as though Adam Hyzdu's 11th season as a professional baseball player would end without a major league at-bat, he had the week of his life. On September 4th, following a season-ending loss to Akron, his number 16 jersey was retired by the Curve—an honor not normally bestowed upon a minor league baseball player. Then, just four days later, Hyzdu received the call he had been waiting for—he was heading to the major leagues with the Pittsburgh Pirates! He singled in his first major league at-bat on September 8th and 12 days later hit his first major league home run against the Philadelphia Phillies at Veterans Stadium.

After returning to the minor leagues to open 2001, he was recalled by the Pirates in May and spent the majority of the season with the major league club. On July 4th that season, in his hometown of Cincinnati, Hyzdu hit two homers against the Reds, bringing his baseball playing career full circle from the days when he was belting home runs at Moeller High School.

After spending parts of the 2002 and 2003 seasons with Pittsburgh, Hyzdu left the Pirates' organization to join the Boston Red Sox system in 2004. After hitting .301 with 29 homers and 79 RBI for Triple-A Pawtucket, Adam was rewarded with a September call-up to the playoff-bound Boston Red Sox and had a chance to remain with the club as the Sox did the unthinkable and won the franchise's first World Series title since 1918.

In 2005, despite spending most of the season in the minor leagues with both the Padres and Red Sox' organizations, Hyzdu appeared in 29 big league games between San Diego and Boston, marking the sixth season in which he had seen action in the major leagues. 2005 also brought a milestone in Adam's career as he appeared in a major league postseason game for the first time.

The 2006 season saw Hyzdu appear for his fourth major league team as he played in two games for the Texas Rangers after signing with the club as a minor league free agent in November 2005. Hyzdu spent the 2007 season in Japan before announcing his retirement at the end of the year, capping off an 18-year playing career. Currently, Adam lives in Arizona and works for the Children's Miracle Network.

EASTERN LEAGUE

The Eastern League All-Star Game shifts to Baseballtown in 2012 as the Reading Phillies will host the annual summer classic at FirstEnergy Stadium in Reading, Pa. The Baseballtown All-Star Classic will take place July 10-11, 2012 in the newly renovated facility with the actual game itself being played on Wednesday, July 11. Leading up to the event on Tuesday, July 10 will be the Baseballtown All-Star Home Run Derby & Autograph Party to benefit the United Way of Berks County. The Baseballtown All-Star Gala will immediately follow the Home Run Derby and Autograph Party on Tuesday night.

An usual twist will be placed on this year's All-Star Home Run Derby when the event takes place in Reading the night before the All-Star Game. It in fact won't be like a home run derby at all but more like a batting challenge, with all the players from the game competing to score the most points. There will be targets laid out on the field, which can range from a target based on a golf-ball retriever that will be strolling around the outfield to an intern hanging from a crane in the left-field with a baseball glove, and the more targets that are hit, the more points the player will earn.

This is the first time that Reading has hosted the Eastern League All-Star Game since July 22, 1974.

FASTFACT™ CRAZY EIGHTS

Altoona

In 2010, Curve outfielder Alex Presley had an unprecedented day at the plate on May 24 in Akron. The Monroe, La. native exploded for eight RBI to surpass Curve legend Adam Hyzdu for the most RBI in one game in franchise history. Presley tripled in his first at bat and cleared the bases for his first three RBIs. In the third inning, Presley homered to center field to bring home another three runs to bring his total to six. His show continued in the fifth when he homered for the second time in the game to bring in his final two runs.

FASTFACT™ GOING, GOING, GONE

Led by Josh Bonifay's 25 home runs, the '05 Altoona Curve established the single-season franchise record by clubbing a total of 141 big flies in 142 regular-season games. The 25 home runs hit by Bonifay are the second-most in club history, trailing only Adam Hyzdu's 31 hit during the 2000 season. Team MVP Jose Bautista was second on the '05 club with 23 homers, while three other players, Craig Stansberry (18), Tom Evans (15) and Brad Eldred (13), also reached double figures. By contrast, the lone championship Curve team in 2010 only slugged 80 regular-season home runs, but hit 14 in their eight playoff games.

FASTFACT™ GLITZ AND GLAMOUR IN CURVE, PA.

Altoona

The nation's eyes turned to Blair County Ballpark on April 11, 2010 when Washington Nationals prospect Stephen Strasburg made his professional debut in front of a record crowd at Blair County Ballpark. The game, which was broadcast on ESPN360.com and had live look-ins taken by ESPNNews, brought a crowd of 7,887 to BCB on Sunday afternoon. It was the largest single-game crowd to take in a Curve game in the month of April in franchise history.

“A minor league ballpark is one thing. An amusement park is another. But tucked in the Allegheny Mountains is a place where there’s really no difference.”

--USA Today, August 8, 2002

Opened on April 15, 1999, Peoples Natural Gas Field is widely considered by fans, players, baseball executives and media as one of the finest minor league baseball facilities in America. Located just off Interstate 99 in Altoona, the ballpark features a beautiful brick exterior and the design is modeled after a railroad roundhouse to tie in the industry which helped found the city of Altoona and is still very much present to this day. The inside of Peoples Natural Gas Field features more than 7,200 fixed seats between two levels. The double-deck layout of the seating section allows for expansive lower and upper concourses, giving fans plenty of space to walk around the ballpark without having to fight through a stationary crowd of people. The “Skyliner” roller coaster from neighboring Lakemont Park and the scenic Allegheny Mountains add to the overall beauty of Peoples Natural Gas Field.

Mike Passanisi (Third Season)

Mike Passanisi enters his third season with the Curve in 2012 and his second as the Director of Communications. Panini for short, Mike has been in his current role since taking over the broadcast duties just before the end of the 2010 season.

Prior to his time in Altoona, Passanisi was the Director of Media Relations and Creative Services for the Savannah Sand Gnats (New York Mets) of the South Atlantic League for two seasons. He worked with the San Diego Surf Dawgs of the Golden Baseball League before his time in the South and had the privilege of providing color analysis for one of Jose Canseco's last comeback attempts in 2006, which was carried live on ESPNNews.

A product of San Diego State University with a degree in journalism and a minor in history, it's no secret that Panini enjoys warm weather and often wears gloves in the office during the offseason due to the coldness outside. During his time at San Diego State he interned in the San Diego State Media Relations Department and has worked at the NCAA Tournament, McDonald's High School All-American Game and the AFLAC All-American Game.

Passanisi is a native of Penngrove, Calif., which is located about an hour north of San Francisco near the wine country, but has also lived in San Diego and Savannah, Ga. This past October he took his travelling talents outside the USA and traveled abroad in Europe for 11 days getting a feel for the European culture with stops in Amsterdam, Munich, London, Paris, Venice, Austria and Switzerland.

This Apple aficionado currently resides in Duncansville and is feverishly working on the next best "Jump to Conclusions" mat in his spare time.

Tyler Maun (First Season)

Tyler Maun joins the Curve for the 2012 season after three years with the Myrtle Beach Pelicans (Advanced A, Texas Rangers), the last two of which saw him serve as the team's Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations and lead radio voice. Prior to his start in baseball, the Denver native worked in sports talk radio in his hometown, first serving as an update anchor and producer for a show hosted by current Pirates' broadcaster Tim Neverett before hosting his own daily morning drive sports news show. While regularly covering Denver's four major sports teams, Tyler also worked as a member of the broadcast crew for the Arena Football League's Colorado Crush and as pregame, intermission, halftime, and postgame host for University of Denver hockey and basketball. This past offseason, Tyler resumed his work with DU as a fill-in play-by-play voice for Pioneers basketball broadcasts among other things.

In addition to his duties with the Curve, Tyler works with the Australian Baseball League as media relations coordinator, staff writer, and manager of the league's website. From October of 2010 to February of 2011, Tyler lived Down Under, working as Media Director for the Sydney Blue Sox during the ABL's inaugural season. He coordinated the national television broadcast of the league's first championship series with Fox Sports Australia and served as public address announcer for the series, as well.

A product of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Tyler's alma mater is his first and only collegiate sports love. He is a firm believer that Bo Pelini only screams like an abject lunatic to convey his affection and approval. Denver sports rule Tyler's professional cheering loyalties, though since the departure of Jake Plummer and the good days and mustaches that went with it, he's had a brutal time pulling for his Broncos. Tyler prides himself on being oddly addicted to sports logos and uniforms, his collection (read: "massive waste of money") of over 60 New Era 59fifty MLB and MiLB caps, and attending random sporting events like two of the last three NFL Europe World Bowls, the 2006 and 2009 World Baseball Classic semifinals and championship games, a New South Wales vs. South Australia cricket match, and a Mexican League baseball game. He's traveled to over 20 foreign countries and plans to fly fish outside the Rocky Mountains for the first time in Central PA.

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials for the 2012 season will only be issued to legitimate news gathering organizations that cover the Curve on a daily basis. The Curve will contact media outlets on an individual basis regarding season-long credentials. Other media organizations that would like to request a season credential can do so by sending that request on company letterhead via fax (814-283-3129) or as an e-mail attachment to mpassanisi@altoonacurve.com.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: Daily credentials will be issued to those individuals or organizations who do not qualify for season credentials, including freelance writers and weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to radio and TV stations when the need arises for extra pre/post-game personnel and to newspaper reporters providing extra coverage. The Curve Media Relations Department should be notified at least 24 hours in advance of the game in which daily credentials are being requested. Requests should be faxed or e-mailed. Once approved, the credentials can be picked up at the Media/Handicap Gate (see below).

CREDENTIAL PICKUPS: Season Credentials can be picked at the Curve's annual Media Day activities. Media can make other arrangements with the Curve Media Relations Department to pick up credentials after that date. Daily credentials will only be available for pickup on the day they are issued at the Media/Handicap gate.

MEDIA ENTRANCE TO Peoples Natural Gas Field: All credentialed media should enter the ballpark through the Media/Handicap gate located at the top of the stairs halfway between the Front Office and the Upper Ticket Plaza on the third base side of the ballpark. No credentialed media are permitted to enter the ballpark through either the Curve Front Office or one of the ticket gates.

OTHER ACCEPTABLE CREDENTIALS: The Curve will also honor credentials from the Pittsburgh Pirates, National and American Leagues, the Baseball Writers Association of America and Minor League Baseball.

PRESS BOX SPACE: Though Peoples Natural Gas Field's Press Box is spacious, the Curve still gives preferred seating to those media outlets that cover the club most frequently. If your media organization needs special space requirements please contact the Curve Media Relations Department at least 24 hours prior those dates.

PHOTO WELLS: Photo wells are located at the end of both dugouts. Photographers are welcome to use this space throughout the course of the game. Photographers are not permitted in the actual dugout area or on the field once the game begins. Please wait until the end of the inning to move to or from these areas.

PARKING: Media members holding season credentials are permitted to park their vehicles in the VIP parking lot by presenting their credentials to the attendant. Please be aware that parking is available on a first-come basis. Those holding daily credentials that need to be picked up at the Media/Handicap gate will have their name placed on a VIP parking list, as long as they give at least 24 hours notice.

INTERVIEW POLICY: The Curve Media Relations Department will be glad to assist members of the media in procuring interviews with Curve players and coaching staff members. Media members wishing to do an off-site interview or a feature story should contact the Curve no later than 48 hours prior to the scheduled interview time. The media is asked to be respectful of the players' pre-game schedule when requesting an interview with a player. Please consult the Curve Pregame Schedule listed on page 104 of this publication. No one will be permitted to interview starting pitchers on the day of their start.

CLUBHOUSE POLICIES: In accordance with the regulations designated by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Major League Baseball, both clubhouses will open to credentialed media from 3 1/2 hours prior to game time until 45 minutes before game time. Following the game, the clubhouses will be closed for a period of five minutes to allow the team ample time to return to the clubhouse. The clubhouse areas are also closed when the teams are on the field, unless previously approved by the Curve Media Relations department. Clubhouses are also closed between games of a doubleheader.

FIELD ACCESS: Credentialed media are permitted access to the field and dugout areas, but are not permitted to cross the foul lines, particularly when the team is taking batting practice. Media must leave the field and dugout areas no later than 45 minutes prior to game time.
