

BASEBALL COLOR BY READING

---

Teachers, give your students an added incentive to read over spring break! For every student that completes the color by reading page, they will receive a voucher for dippin' dots at their next Indianapolis Indians game.

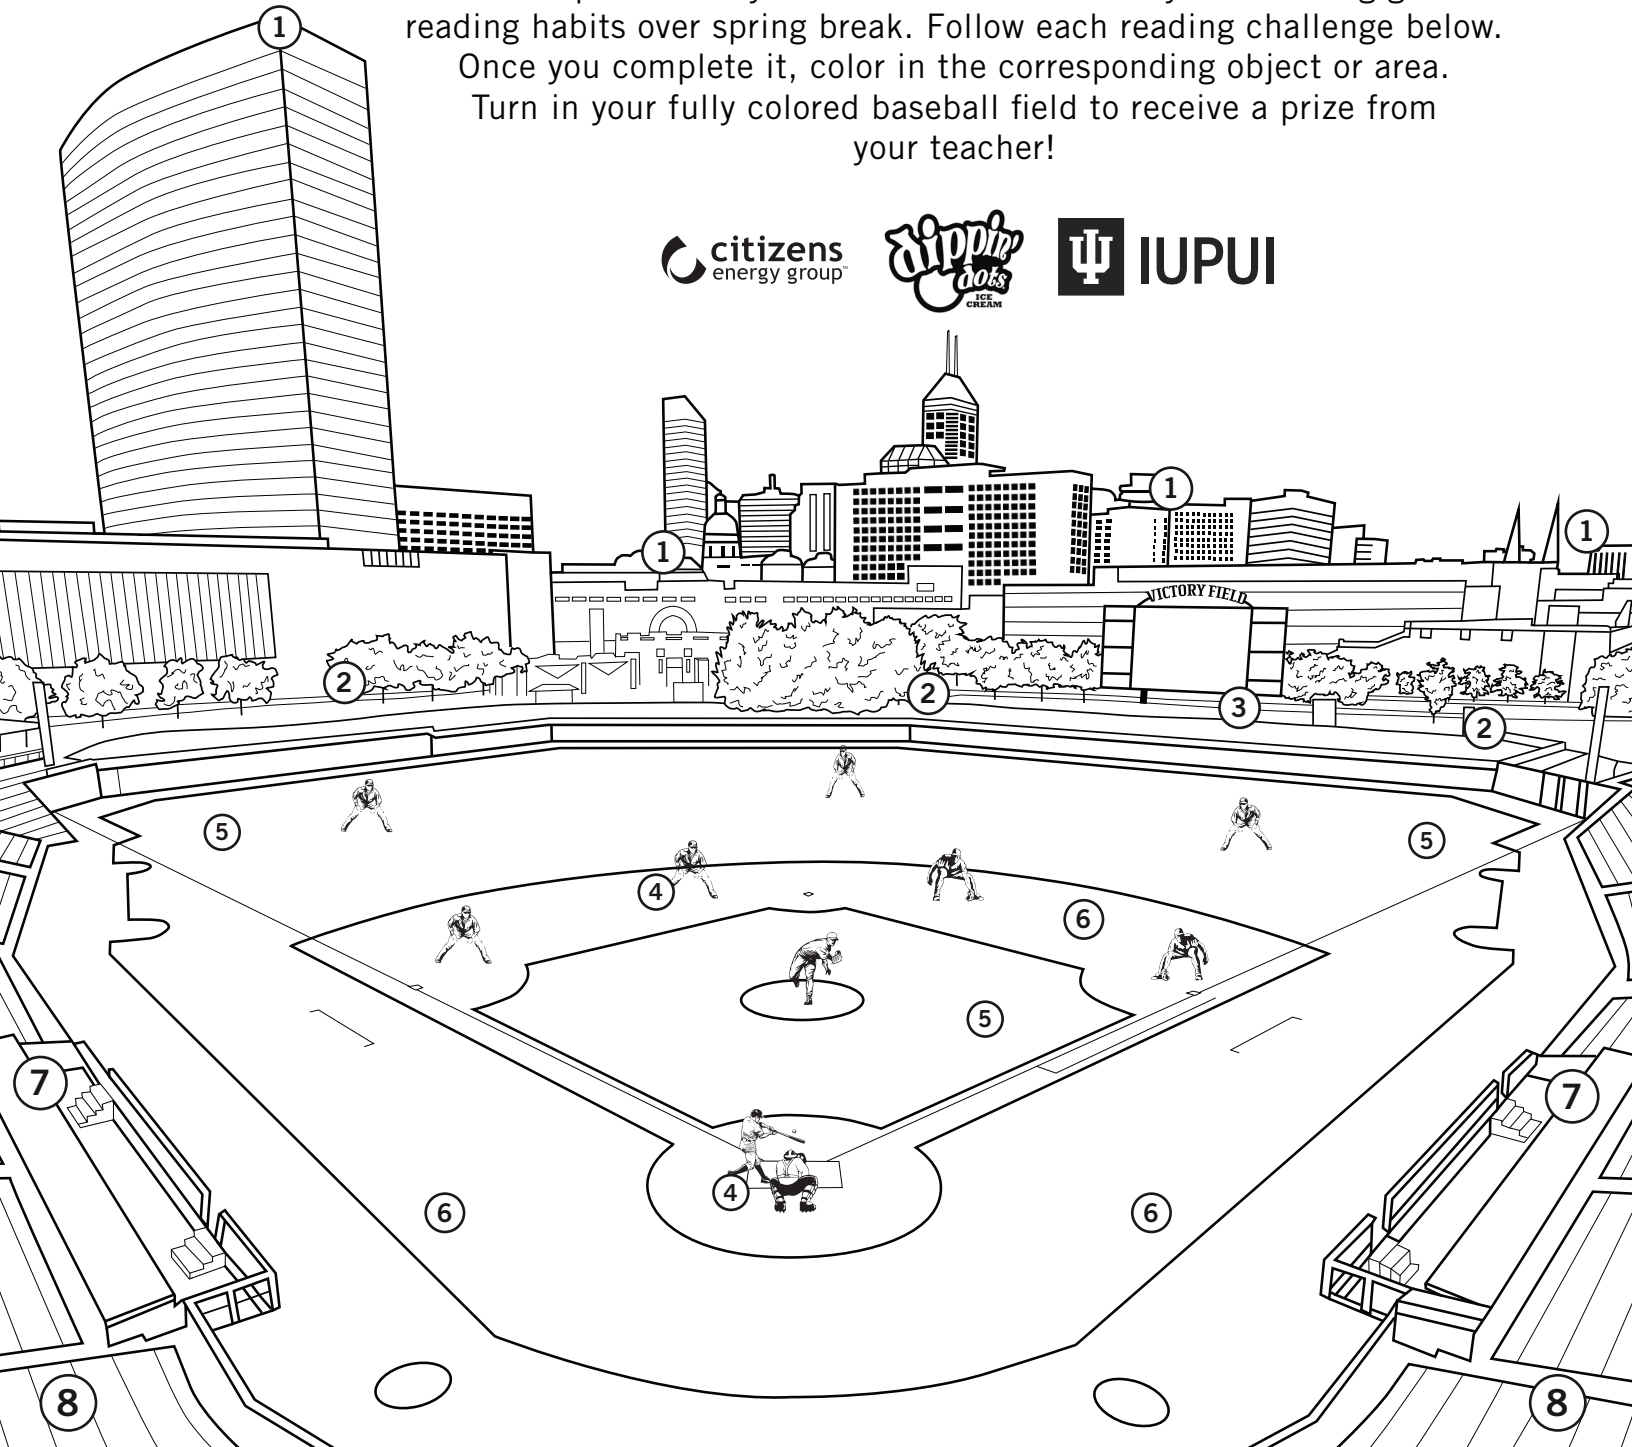

- Print off the Baseball Color by Reading page and send it home in each student's folder
- To receive prizes, email the number of completed coloring pages along with your school and classroom mailing address to Hayden Barnack at HBarnack@IndyIndians.com by Monday, April 5

BASEBALL COLOR BY READING

Batter up! Get ready for the baseball season by maintaining good reading habits over spring break. Follow each reading challenge below. Once you complete it, color in the corresponding object or area. Turn in your fully colored baseball field to receive a prize from your teacher!

1. City Buildings

Read an article about baseball

2. Trees & Lawn Area

Write a letter to a friend

3. Videoboard

Read a chapter of a book outside

4. Players

Look up the meaning of "doubleheader"

5. Field Grass

Read to an adult or family member

6. Field Dirt

Read twice in one day

7. Dugouts

Read in your favorite jersey

8. Stadium Stands

Tell a family member about a book you read