NEWS AND NOTES

HARD WAY: Brewers no. 16-rated prospect Tyson Hardin will make his fifth Triple-A start and second against the Durham Bulls when he takes the mound for Nashville to start the series on Tuesday. Hardin earned his first career Triple-A win against Durham on May 23 after working 5.2 IP with four hits allowed an one earned run with his Triple-A high seven strikeouts. He has tossed two quality starts since joining Nashville and allowed four earned runs over his first 22.1 IP since a promotion from Double-A Biloxi.

POWER HOUR: Luke Adams hit his second home run over a three-at-bat span with his fourth-inning solo shot to give Nashville a 1-0 lead on Sunday. His three go-ahead home runs on the season are tied for the most on Nashville's roster along with Eddys Leonard. Adams is the first Sounds player to homer in back-to-back games multiple times this season after also leaving the yard in consecutive games on April 3-5 vs. Charlotte. Over his last nine minor league games, Adams is hitting .300 (9-for-30) with six home runs and a double. It's the 10th time in his minor league career with home runs in back-to-back games including hitting a home run in three straight games June 5-7 last season with Double-A Biloxi. June has been good to the Brewers' no. 11-rated prospect who has hit 13 of his 42 career home runs in the month of June for his career.

STEADY EDDYS: Eddys Leonard clubbed his team-leading ninth home run of the season with a ninth-inning solo blast on Sunday. It was his first home run since May 20 on the road in Durham. Leonard entered his ninth inning at-bat just 2-for-33 over his last 10 games since hitting his last home run. Despite not having an RBI or XBH during his quiet nine-game stretch, Leonard is remains tied for the team-lead in RBI along with Jeferson Quero at 34 after his home run on Sunday and has five more XBH than anyone on the Sounds roster along with the team lead in doubles (12) despite not hitting one over his last 12 games.

SUNDAY SPLIT: The Sounds won two straight to secure the series split in Jacksonville and avoid dropping the first series since April 21-26 in Charlotte. The Sounds were able to keep pace in the standings with Rochester and Memphis, who also each won on Sunday. Nashville enters the final 12 games of the first half in a tie with Memphis and 0.5 GB Rochester. The Sounds and Memphis will close out the first half of the International League schedule against one another June 16-21 at AutoZone Park. In the two wins over the Jumbo Shrimp over the weekend, Nashville pitching held Jacksonville to 1-for-17 with runners in scoring position and stranded 20 base runners.

STALL BALL: Garrett Stallings pitched five scoreless innings with five strikeouts and five hits allowed on Saturday to lower his ERA to 3.40 (18 ER/47.2 IP) through 13 appearances (9 GS) this season with Nashville. It was his fifth scoreless start of the year and third of at least 5.0 IP with his last coming on May 16 when he worked a 6.2 IP quality start against the Iowa Cubs. It was just the fifth scoreless start of at least 5.0 IP in his Triple-A career (45 GS).

DON'T CRY BECAUSE IT'S OVER: Cooper Pratt and Luis Matos saw their long on-base streaks come to an end on Saturday night. Pratt went 0-for-4 with a strikeout to bring an end to his 25-game on-base streak. Matos also went 0-for-4 and failed to reach base for the first time in his 19-game tenure with the Sounds.

HOW THE TURNTABLES: After suffering just the second loss of the season when entering the eighth inning with a lead on Friday night, the Sounds flipped the script on the Jumbo Shrimp Saturday night. Nashville earned their third win of the year when trailing after the eighth inning and now sit at 3-20 on the year. The first two late inning wins for Nashville came in back-to-back games on May 17 vs. Iowa in the series finale when the Sounds scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to walk off Iowa 4-3. Nashville then used five runs in the top of the ninth on May 19 in Durham to pick up a 6-5 win over the Bulls.
