LAST GAME

Back-to-back one-run wins have been rare for the Bowie Baysox this season, but they have come to pass at a key moment, as Bowie kicked off their six-game series with the Erie SeaWolves by taking Tuesday's game 6-5. Erie had themselves ahead 4-1 early, but Connor Norby uncorked another big game to help lead the charge. Norby went 3-for-4 at the plate, with his third multi-home run game of the season, as well as a triple. While Erie did tie the game twice from a pair of one-run leads, Bowie took the lead in the ninth inning after a Cody Roberts double and two wild pitches.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Every series is important, but in terms of potential impact, this week of games between Bowie and Erie is the most instantly impactful. Erie has had the best full season in the Southwest Division this season, led mostly by a high-ranking pitching staff. Their 3.78 ERA as a staff is the second-best in the league, but the numbers from their starting rotation have been even better, with a league-leading 3.29 ERA, the best in the league. Despite playing in a park that favors more pitchers, Erie's offense has still been able to display power, with the second-most home runs in the league, despite only scoring the fourth-fewest overall runs in the league.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Left-hander Brant Hurter has been working a ton through his first pro season after being drafted in 2021 out of Georgia Tech. Starting the year at Single-A, Hurter hit 10 appearances with Single-A and High-A before jumping up to Erie for his Double-A debut against Harrisburg. The debut for Hurter did not go well, as he allowed an early two-run home run, but then had no control in the fourth inning, allowing five-consecutive batters to reach before being lifted. His fastball sits in the low 90s, while he also sports a sinker, slider and a changeup.

IN A RUSH TO GET SOMEWHERE?

Bowie has scored in the ninth inning in consecutive games, a rarity this season. Bowie has not had many late game offensive runs this season. Despite having the best team batting average in the Eastern League, Bowie is the worst team in the league for offense in the ninth inning. Bowie's batting average (.171), runs scored (29), and OPS (.563) are all the worst in the league.

NORBY KNOWS HOW TO HIT

Connor Norby is taking on all pitches lately, after leading off for most of his Bowie tenure, Norby shifted to the second and third roles in the lineup starting on 8/18, and has gone 20-for-45 (.444) since, with two multi-home run games, and six home runs total. Combined with his time spent at High-A, Norby has 22 home runs this season, the most in the Orioles minor league system.

SLIM MARGINS

Bowie has had a love-hate relationship with one-run games this season six of Bowie's last 10 losses have been by only one-run. One-run games have been one of the most common outcomes for Bowie this season, as their 44 one-run games leads the Eastern League. Their .432 winning percentage in one-run games (19-25) is the second-lowest in the Eastern League, trailing only Binghamton.

SLIPPING THROUGH THE CRACKS

Bowie pitching had been the largest factor in their successful second half. From the start of the second half into the start of this most recent homestand (6/27-8/12) Bowie pitchers were running with 3.16 ERA, the best in all of Minor League Baseball. Since the start of that homestand, however, Bowie has been saddled with a 5.07 ERA, the highest in the Eastern League over the span.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Cade Povich has allowed three home runs in ten innings since joining Bowie. See Page 2 for more.

WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN - After a one-year pause, MiLB has reinstated the well-known league names across the country, returning Bowie to the Eastern League

NEW RULES FOR ALL - In 2022, Double-A features larger bases (15 in. > 18 in.), new limits on pick off attempts (Two step-offs per PA), and a faster pitch clock

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

COACHING STAFF

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their two daughters reside in Sarasota, FL. He is a Type-1 Diabetic.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina.
