Toledo Hall-of-Famers

Roger Philip Bresnahan

(Elected in 1945 as a catcher)

Debuted with the Mud Hens in 1898 as a catcher. With Toledo as Owner/President from 1916-23. Managed the Mud Hens from 1916-20 (283-362). "The only native Toledoan enshrined in the Hall of Fame. "Battery mate of Christy Mathewson with the New York Giants, he was one of the game's most natural players and might have starred at any position. The "Duke of Tralee" was one of the few Major League catchers fast enough to be used as a leadoff man."

Charles Dillon "Casey" Stengel

(Elected in 1963 as a right fielder)

With Toledo as manager/player from 1926-31 (490-498). Led Hens to pennant and only Junior World Series win in 1927. "Managed New York Yankees 1949-60. Won 10 Pennants and seven World Series with New York. Only manager to win five consecutive World Series 1949-53. Played outfield 1912-25 with Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New York and Boston (N.L.). Managed Brooklyn 1934-36, Boston Braves 1938-43, New York Mets 1962-65."

William "Billy" Evans

(Elected in 1973 as an umpire)

Served as Toledo's General Manager in 1932. Served as President of Toledo from 1949-51. "Employed by American League in 1906 at age 22, making him youngest umpire ever in Majors. Served on A.L. staff through 1927. Officiated in six World Series. General Manager of Cleveland Indians. 1927-1935, farm director of Boston Red Sox 1936-40. President of Southern Association, 1942-46. General Manager of Detroit Tigers, 1947-51."

Toledo Hall-of-Famers

John Bertand "Jocko" Conlan

(Elected in 1974 as an umpire)

Batted .290 in 69 games for Toledo in 1930. "Sunny disposition, accuracy and hustle earned him rating as standout umpire and he won the respect of players and managers with his fairness. Only arbiter to work in each of first four N.L. Pennant Playoffs. Chosen for six World Series and six All-Star Games."

Oscar McKinley Charleston

(Elected in 1976 as outfielder/first baseman/manager)

Managed and played first base for the 1939 Toledo Crawfords. "Rated among all-time greats of Negro Leagues. Versatile star batted well over .300 most years. Speed, strong arm and fielding instincts made him standout center fielder. Later moved to first base. Also managed several teams during 40 years in Negro Baseball." Managed and played first base for the 1939 Toledo Crawfords. "Rated among all-time greats of Negro Leagues."

Frederick "Freddie" Lindstrom

(Elected in 1976 as a third baseman)

With Toledo as a 16-year-old in 1922. Batted .272 in 165 games with Mud Hens. "Compiled lifetime .311 batting mark, including seven seasons of .300 or better. One of only three players to amass 230 or more hits in a season twice. As youngest player (18) in World Series history, he tied record with four hits in game in 1924. Equaled Major League record by collecting nine hits in 1928 doubleheader."

Norman Thomas "Turkey" Stearns

(Elected in 2000 as a centerfielder)

Captained the 1945 Toledo Cubs of the United States Baseball League (Negro). "One of the Negro Leagues' most feared hitters, he hit better than .300 in 14 of 19 seasons, collecting six home run titles and led the league in triples four times. A graceful center fielder as well, he played in four East-West All-Star Games. Played 11 seasons for the Detroit Stars, also excelling with the New York Lincoln Giants, Kansas City Monarchs, Chicago American Giants and Philadelphia Stars.

Kirby Puckett

(Elected in 2001 as a center fielder)

Batted .263 in 21 games with Toledo in 1984. "A proven team leader with an ever-present smile and infectious exuberance who led the Twins to World Series titles in 1987 and 1991. Over 12 seasons hit for power and average, batting .318 and 414 doubles and 207 homeruns. Also a prolific run producer, scored 1,071 runs and drove in 1,085 in 1,783 games. A six time Gold Glove winner who patrolled center field with elegance and style, routinely scaling outfield walls to take away home runs. The 10-time All-Star's career ended abruptly due to irreversible retinal damage in his right eye."

Toledo Hall-of-Famers

William "Billy" Harold Southworth

(Elected in 2008 as a manager)

Appeared in 37 games with the Mud Hens as an outfielder in 1913. Won two World Series titles with the St. Louis Cardinals on three simple tenets that made him one of the greatest managers in baseball history: Be patient, platoon players and bunt all the time. Overall, Southworth, who also captured the 1948 pennant with the Boston Braves, compiled a brilliant resume in a 13-year managerial career. He finished with a 1044-704 record and fashioned a .597 winning percentage, fifth on the all-time list and third best among managers with 1,000 wins, trailing only Hall of Famers Joe McCarthy and Frank Selee.

Henry M. "Hank" O' Day

(Elected in 2013 as an umpire)

At Toledo for a championship (1883) and for a major league (1884) season. He was a solid pitcher and a capable fill-in both the infield and outfield. Though more famous as an umpire, O'Day pitched for seven years in the majors. He managed two years in the major leagues as well but was an umpire for much longer than he was a player or a manager. As an umpire, he was involved in the famous Merkle bonehead play. He was also the home plate umpire in the first World Series game in 1903 and would go on to officiate in 10 World Series.
