WINNING AINT FOR EVERYONE: With the Sounds win in game two of the series Wednesday afternoon, Nashville secured a winning record in the second half of the 2025 season. Since going to the split-season format in 2023, Nashville is the only International League team to have a winning record in all six halves. Triple-A Oklahoma City has the chance to match the Sounds, as the Dodgers top affiliate has posted a winning record in five straight halves, and currently sits at 37-35 in the second half with three games to play.

HEATING UP: The Nashville Sounds offense put together one of their best performances of the season on Thursday against the Louisville Bats. Nashville posted a season-high 18 hits and tied their season-high in runs with 15. This included the offense working nine walks collectively and adding on three multi-hit games with three multi-RBI games. This is the most hits Nashville has recorded since notching 16 on July 6 against the Memphis Redbirds. They also scored the only other 15-run game this season in the July matchup at Memphis. Thursday night was the most hits for the franchise in a single game since earning 19 in a 14-3 win against the Bats on June 9, 2024. The 15-run outburst also matches the most runs scored in a game for Nashville over the last two seasons - also plating 15 on April 9, 2024, vs. Memphis.

FANTASTIC FOUR: There have been nine Sounds hitters to collect four-hit games this season, and after Thursday night, Brandon Lockridge has two of them - and has done so over his last six games. Lockridge ended Thursday night 4-for-5 with a double, and tied his career-high with four RBI. He now has six career 4-RBI games with his last coming on June 23, 2024, when he was with Scranton/Wilkes-Barre. Thursday night was his 642nd career game (Incl. Postseason). He has eight career 4-hit games and set his single-game career high with a five-hit game on September 4, 2024, playing for Triple-A El Paso. Over his 11 games since joining Nashville, Lockridge is hitting .340 (16-for-47) with three doubles, seven RBI, six walks, 10 runs scored, and has added four steals.

THE HAMMER: Eric Haase posted a season-high three hits, finishing Thursday night 3-for-6 with double and a pair of RBI. The 32-year-old had posted just three multi-hit games in 47 games this year between Nashville and Milwaukee. His last three-hit game was September 15, 2024, with Milwaukee on the road against Arizona. Thursday night was his 20th career MLB/Triple-A game with 3+ hits and he matched his single-game Triple-A career-high with his three hit performance. His last 3-hit game in Triple-A happened on June 9, 2024, also against Louisville with four of his nine career 3-hit games in Triple-A coming against Louisville. His multi-RBI performance Thursday night give him six in eight games in the month of September.

TOP 5 FOR A REASON: Jeferson Quero showed why he is the Brewers No. 4 prospect on MLB.com with a booming performance at the plate on Thursday. The 22-year-old went 2-for-4 with a homer, three RBI, and three runs. Quero's three runs are a season-high and his first game with three runs scored since August 13, 2023 with Double-A Biloxi - one of three games with three runs scored during his time with the Shuckers that season. His three-run home run in the second inning on Thursday night ended a 15-game drought between home runs for Quero since he hit his last on August 22 at First Horizon Park when the Bats were in town. Quero is up to 11 home runs on the year after hitting his sixth of the season with Nashville. The 11 round trippers are the second-most he has had in a season over his young career. He posted a career-high 16 for Double-A Biloxi during the 2023 season in 90 games.

THREE HUNDO: With their double steal in the top of the fifth inning Wednesday, the Sounds got to 300 steals on the season - the most in Triple-A this year. Daz Cameron added another steal in the seventh inning for good measure. The Sounds currently lead Jacksonville (301) and are three steals clear of ending the season with the most steals in Triple-A. Nashville has already shattered the previous single-season team record for steals which was 205 set in 1981. In Sunday's series finale against Gwinnett, Raynel Delgado joined Jared Oliva with 40+ steals this year, making them the first pair of Nashville teammates to reach 40+ steals in the same season since Otis Nixon (72) and Ted Wilborn (43) did it during the 1981 season. Nashville is one of seven teams to have 300+ steals during the 2025 season. High-A Beloit (Miami) and Low-A Fayetteville (Houston) ended the season tied for the most in Minor League baseball with 334 steals on the year.
