OIL PAN CUP UPDATE: The Sod Poodles and RockHounds continue their season-long rivalry for the Oil Pan Cup. Through the first 14 games of the 2024 season, Midland holds a 10-4 advantage taking both series the two teams have played so far. In order to keep the Oil Pan Cup in Amarillo for another off-season, the Sod Poodles will need to win at least eight of the remaining 10 games. The Sod Poodles have won the season-long rivalry in three of the first four years (2019, 2022, and 2023). Amarillo currently owns a 64-55 record all-time over the RockHounds and are 32-31 in games at HODGETOWN entering this week. The two teams will play the first three games at HODGETOWN before moving the series to Midland and Momentum Bank Ballpark for the last three. Amarillo has gotten the better of the RockHounds at their place, owning a 32-24 record on the road.

THE DYLAN FILES: Dylan File will make his fourth appearance of the season against the RockHounds when he takes the ball on Wednesday night. Through his first three appearances, File is 0-2 with a 6.00 ERA against Midland, allowing 18 hits over 12.0 IP with six strikeouts and two walks. The right-hander comes into Wednesday having spun quality starts in each of his last two starts, including allowing just one earned over six innings last Thursday in Tulsa. His two straight quality outings give him five on the season, second-most by Amarillo pitchers this year. Midland will send LHP Domingo Robles to the mound. The left-hander is a seasoned vet when it comes to pitching in Double-A. Since 2019, Robles has made 77 starts in Double-A with four different organizations. He spent some time with Springfield during the 2021-2022 seasons, and is 1-0 with a 7.20 ERA against Amarillo with both starts coming during the 2022 season when he was in Springfield.

FIVE OR FEWER: Tuesday night marked the 19th Amarillo had been held to five or fewer hits in a game this season. The Sod Poodles finished with three hits coming from Matt Beaty, Caleb Roberts (double), and Ivan Melendez. Melendez drove in the lone run for Amarillo, giving him a hit in 13 of his last 17 games played. Tuesday was the sixth time the Sod Poodles offense had been held to three or less hits in game.

A DOUBLE MACHINE: Tim Tawa ended last week in Tulsa tied for the most doubles by any Double-A player, hitting five in six games against the Drillers. Tawa carried over his hot bat with another double and multi-hit performance to start the series against Midland. From June 25-July 1, Tawa is hit .393 (11-for-28) with six doubles, three RBI, a walk, and eight runs scored. Monday night marked his 20th multi-hit effort in 69 games played. He had one of just two XBH for Amarillo who ended the game with 10 hits. Jesus Valdez collected the second double for Amarillo on Monday night to give him his second double of the year in 39 games.

A CASE OF THE MONDAYS: Amarillo dropped their only Monday game of the season. Since 2019, Amarillo is 8-12 all-time on Mondays and an even 2-2 since the series moved to six games - generally starting on Tuesdays - ahead of the 2021 season. The 19 hits and six home runs allowed by Amarillo to start the series are both single-game highs in 2024. Midland owned the previous single-game hit record against Amarillo this season with 18 back on April 14th at Momentum Bank Ballpark. The six home runs hit by the RockHounds were the most Amarillo has allowed since Frisco tagged Amarillo for eight on September 2, 2022. It was the 11th time in franchise history that Amarillo had given up 6+ home runs in a game. Frisco has contributed to five of those while Tulsa has three. Springfield, Corpus Christi, and now Midland have combined for the other three.

TWO THREE PIECES: After being held hitless through his first three games against the Drillers, A.J. Vukovich put together back-to-back three-hit games to end the week in Tulsa. He finished 3-for-4 with a double and run scored the series finale on Sunday. Vukovich is the current team-leader in AVG (.272), hits (73), doubles (19), and RBI (41). Sunday was his eighth overall three-hit game this year, joining Tim Tawa for the most on the team.

MORE BATER TATERS: Matt Beaty homered in back-to-back games on Friday and Saturday night in Tulsa. It was the first time this season he had homered in consecutive games and the first time since October 1 & 3rd when he was with the Los Angeles Dodgers. He is the fifth different Sod Poodle to leave the yard in consecutive games, joining Ivan Melendez (4x), Deyvison De Los Santos (3x), Tim Tawa (2x), and Jancarlos Cintron, who did it last homestand against the San Antonio Missions. In 24 games during the month of June, Beaty hit .310 (26-for-84) with three home runs, a double, and had nine RBI and nine walks with 11 runs scored. He ended the week against Tulsa with six RBI in six games played.

PARTY FOR TWO: Amarillo hit four more doubles on Sunday in Tulsa to give them 17 for the series. Tawa led the way with five doubles for the week while Kevin Graham added two on Sunday to finish the series with four two-baggers. A.J. Vukovich pitched in with three while Jancarlos Cintron and J.J. D'Orazio each added a pair of doubles for the series. Amarillo's 20 doubles in the second half lead the Texas League, are 2nd in Double-A, and T-6th in all Minor League Baseball.

THE GREAT GRAHAMBINO: Kevin Graham delivered a three-hit game for Amarillo coming a triple shy of the cycle on Friday night. It was his third three-hit game this year and first since April 20th. His third-inning solo homer was his third of the season and second in his last seven games after also leaving the yard last Thursday against San Antonio. He delivered another multi-hit game on Sunday, finishing the week with six hits, five of them for extra bases (4 doubles and a home run).

FIRST HALF RECAP: As a team, Amarillo ended the first half of the Texas League season hitting .242, the fourth best team AVG in the Texas League. The 73 home runs hit were the second most among Texas League foes behind the Tulsa Drillers (77). Amarillo finished 10th in team ERA at 5.19 and 7th with 590 strikeouts as a pitching staff and was sixth with 274 walks allowed.
