Home For the Week

The Fightin Phils remain home for their third-to-last home series of the season, welcoming the Chesapeake Baysox, Double-A affiliate of the Baltimore Orioles, for a six-game set. It is the fifth-of-six matchups between the teams this season, with all six at FirstEnergy Stadium. The teams met 12 times in 2025 with Chesapeake taking the season series 7-5. The teams split the series in Bowie, and the Baysox took four-of-six in Reading last season.

Baysox Take Battle of Top Prospects

The Reading Fightin Phils (25-18, 55-57) fell 5-2 to the Chesapeake Baysox on Friday night, evening the six-game series at two wins apiece. MLB's No. 33 prospect and Phillies No. 1 prospect Gage Wood matched his longest professional outing, tossing five innings with six strikeouts while allowing three earned runs, including two solo homers. Chesapeake's Anthony Eyanson, ranked No. 49 overall and No. 2 in the Orioles system, limited Reading to one hit through the first three innings and finished with seven strikeouts over 5.1 innings to earn his second straight win since joining the Baysox. The Baysox built a 3-0 lead on home runs from Thomas Sosa and Aron Estrada before Reading finally broke through in the fifth. Pedro León delivered an RBI double and Raylin Heredia followed with an RBI single to pull the Fightins within one, but Dom Keegan's solo homer in the sixth restored Chesapeake's two-run advantage. Frederick Benscome added an insurance run in the seventh after walking, stealing second and third, then scoring on a throwing error. Reading's bullpen kept the game within reach, with Jack Dallas and Tristan Garnett each tossing scoreless innings, but the offense finished just 2-for-14 with runners in scoring position and left seven men on base. León and Heredia each collected two hits and an RBI.

Fightin For the Postseason

Entering play tonight, the Fightin Phils hold a two-game lead for first place in the Eastern League's Northeast Division and have the second-best record in the Eastern League since the season flipped to the season half on June 23. Reading is also seven games above .500 since the season reset. Reading holds a two-game lead on second place Portland and the teams meet one more time from Aug. 18-23 in Portland. This marks the latest in the season that the Fightin Phils have been in first place since they finished the 2019 second half with a 41-31 record, which clinched the second half division title that season.

Binelas Bashes

Alex Binelas turned in a career night on Tuesday, as the 26-year old hit two home runs and drove in a career-high six RBI. Tuesday marked the sixth multi-homer game of Binelas' career and his third with Reading. He also launched his second grand slam of the season and has matched a career-best with 25 home runs in a season. Binelas is the first Fightin Phil to hit 25 home runs in a season since Mitch Walding hit 25 in 2017. Binelas is five home runs away from being the first R-Phil to hit over 30 long balls in a season since 2016, when Dylan Cozens (40) and Rhys Hoskins (38) both surpassed the mark.

Hammering Homers

Entering play tonight, the Fightin Phils have hit 144 home runs this season, which is 26 clear of their total for all of 2025 (118). Reading is third in the Eastern League in home runs, trailing only Somerset (161) and Portland (146). The Fightin Phils are currently on pace for 177 home runs this season, which would be their most since slugging 185 in 2016. Alex Binelas leads Reading with 25 home runs, while Raylin Heredia (20) and Bryan Rincon (18) are shortly behind him. Five different Fightins hitters have slugged at least 10 homers, with Bryson Ware (13) and Pedro Leon (12) and being the other two.

One Year Turnaround

The Fightin Phils finished the 2025 season with a 55-81 record, which was the lowest win total under Al Pedrique (since 2023). Entering play tonight, Reading has matched its win total through the first 112 games of the 2026 campaign. Reading won 59 games in 2024 and 2023, while 2019 (80-53 overall record) is the last time the Fightins eclipsed the 60-win mark. Reading lost the first four games of the season and is 55-53 since. After starting the second half off 0-2 in Altoona, the Fightins are 25-16 over a 41-game span.

Mr. Doubles

Raylin Heredia knocked his 32nd double of the season on Friday. This is the second-straight season that a R-Phil had over 30 doubles, as Felix Reyes had 34 in 2025. The last time Reading had a player with over 30 doubles in back-to-back seasons was Brock Stassi (32) in 2015 and Dylan Cozens (38) in 2016. Heredia is the 24th R-Phil in franchise history to have over 30 doubles in a single-season and currently ranks as tied for the 17th most doubles in a single-season in team history. Greg Jacobs (2007) and David Doster (1995) hold the franchise record in single-season doubles with 39. Heredia currently leads the Eastern League in doubles, is tied for second in Double-A and tied for ninth amongst all full-season minor league players.

This Day in Baseballtown History

August 15, 2023: At Reading, the R-Phils beat Somerset 6-5 in a game that was completed after being suspended on July 9. Reading, playing as the road team, scored two runs in the tenth to give Tristan Garnett his first Double-A victory in relief. Reading would fall 4-3 to Somerset in the originally-scheduled contest.

Checking On Chesapeake

The Baysox enter tonight with a 53-58 overall record and 24-19 mark in the second half, which is five games back of first place Erie in the Eastern League's Southwest Division. Chesapeake was at home last week against Harrisburg, taking four-of-seven games. Following this week, the Baysox return home and host Richmond for a six-game series. The Baysox roster features eight of the Orioles' top-30 prospects: Anthony Eyanson (2), Joseph Dzierwa (3), Caden Hunter (4), Wehiwa Aloy (8), Aron Estrada (13), JT Quinn (14), Ethan Anderson (16) and Braxton Bragg (22).

Quinn's Double-A Lid Lifter

Righty, and Orioles No. 14 prospect, JT Quinn makes his Double-A debut tonight. Over 21 appearances (20 starts) with Frederick (A+), Quinn was 4-3, with a 3.75 ERA (39 ER, 93.2 IP), along with 106 strikeouts. Quinn actually made his final High-A start on Aug. 7 against Jersey Shore, firing 5.2-scorless innings, with seven strikeouts. The 22-year old was drafted by the Orioles in the CB-B Round of the 2025 draft out of Georgia and bypassed Single-A to make his pro debut with Frederick this season. Quinn pitched at Ole Miss from 2023-24 and then for Georgia in 2025 prior to being drafted by Baltimore.
