PNC Field was originally known as Lackawanna County Stadium when it opened on April 26, 1989. The artificial turf stadium was used as a multipurpose facility. Under the Phillies umbrella, the SWB Red Barons called Lackawanna County Stadium home from 1989-2006.

A new affiliation with the New York Yankees took hold and the SWB Yankees opened a new era at the stadium in 2007.

The club began a new era as the RailRiders by opening a freshly renovated PNC Field in 2013. The inaugural season of the RailRiders saw over 430,000 spectators pass through the gates, the highest turnout since 2008.

PNC FIELD GROUND RULES

1. Any batted or thrown ball that enters the dugout or strikes any equipment inside the dugout area is considered to be a dead ball and one base will be awarded.
2. Any thrown ball that strikes the protective screen in front of the dugouts will be considered a live ball. Should it enter the dugout area and return to the field of play or become lodged it will be considered a dead ball and one base will be awarded.
3. Any batted or thrown ball that becomes lodged under a bullpen area bench is considered to be a dead ball and one additional base will be awarded.
4. Any batted or thrown ball that becomes lodged in the tarp or enters the tarp cylinder shall be considered a dead ball and one additional base will be awarded.
5. No defensive player shall be permitted to place any footing on the tarp or tarp cylinder. A player may lean on the tarp.
6. A fairly batted or thrown ball lodged in the protective padding on the outfield wall shall result in two bases awarded.
7. A batted ball that hits the padding and bounces over the wall shall result in two bases awarded.
8. Any batted ball that becomes lodged in or beneath the outfield gate will be considered a dead ball and two bases shall be awarded.
9. A fly ball that hits the yellow line on the outfield wall and then goes over the wall is a home run. A fly ball that hits the yellow line on the outfield wall and then goes back on the field is in play. Any ball that strikes a sign above the yellow line and returns to the field of play is deemed a home run.

MEDIA POLICIES AND INFORMATION

PRESS CREDENTIALS

If eschewing the online credential request form, requests on official company letterhead should be:

-E-Mailed to amarco@swbrailriders.com and/or sgranado@swbrailriders.com

-Faxed to (570) 963-6564

-Mailed to: Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders Media Relations, PNC Field
235 Montage Mountain Road, Moosic, PA 18507

HEALTH AND SAFETY

By receiving a media credential, a media member agrees to observe all MLB, MiLB and Club rules; any applicable government orders in a local market; and other precautionary steps that are in place to preserve health and safety. Guidelines and protocols are subject to change and advance notice will be given whenever possible. Failure to comply with any health and safety initiatives will result in a loss of access to the ballpark.

ACCESS

Members of the media can show proof of vaccination and receive a special designation on their credential. Vaccinated members of the media will have access to the field and dugout during approved access times. Vaccinated members of the media are not required to wear a mask on the field, while unvaccinated members of the media are required to wear a MLB-approved face covering.

No members of the media have access to Restricted Areas (clubhouse) at this time, per guidelines from the New York Yankees. All access is subject to change per policy changes by Major League Baseball or the New York Yankees.

VIRTUAL/ IN-PERSON INTERVIEWS

Pregame interviews can be conducted in person or virtually. Interviews shall be coordinated by Club Media Relations/Communications personnel.

Pre-game interviews can be conducted following RailRiders batting practice on game and practice days. While access to Restricted Areas is prohibited, post game Zoom opportunities will be available, starting approximately 10-15 minutes after home games conclude.

This policy is subject to ongoing review by Major League Baseball and its Clubs, based on the advice of medical experts and the applicable local guidance in each host city.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers and camera crews may access the camera wells on the first and third base side. Field access is restricted to use only to enter camera wells. Any secondary use of any picture, audio description, film/ tape or drawing of an event at PNC Field (including, but not limited to: the use in delayed editorial or non-editorial, advertising, sales promotion or merchandising) by a holder of a media pass is prohibited without prior specific written approval of the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders.

PRESS BOX

The press box is located behind home plate with seating for media. You are required to have an official credential on your person at all times. Seating is limited and may be assigned. Additional seating is available upon request.

MEDIA NOTES

Game information and statistics are available in the press box approximately two hours before game time. Additionally, game notes will be available online at www.swbrailriders.com.

MEDIA GUIDES

The 2022 Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders Media Guide will be provided by a media relations representative upon request in addition to being posted on the official SWB RailRiders website (www.swbrailriders.com).

ALL GUIDELINES SUBJECT TO CHANGE

All guidelines listed above are subject to change without advance notice per Major League Baseball, the New York Yankees, Minor League Baseball, state and local officials and the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders.

RAILRIDERS RADIO BROADCASTS

The flagship of the RailRiders Radio Network is The Mothership; Bold Gold's oldies station that hit the airwaves in 2020 and added a frequency to expand the coverage. Scranton/Wilkes-Barre games can be heard locally on 1400 AM, 1440 AM, 93.5 FM, 106.7 FM and 107.9 FM. This array of frequencies for The Mothership gives the RailRiders coverage across both Lackawanna and Luzerne Counties, as well as into Wayne and Pike Counties in the Pocono Lake Region.

Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders broadcasts are also available online at swbrailriders.com and with the video feed on MiLB.tv when the team plays at PNC Field.

Bold Gold Media Group's family of stations has been the home of RailRiders radio broadcasts since 2007.

In addition to the over-the-air broadcast, MiLB.tv and the webstream, broadcasts will be streamed through Bold Gold's state-of-the-art RadioBOLD Mobile App, available for free in the Apple Store and GooglePlay Marketplace.

Adam Marco and Steve Granado will serve as the broadcast voices of the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders during the 2021 season.

Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders Broadcasters

ADAM MARCO: Marco took over as "Voice of the RailRiders" prior to the 2018 season.

A product of Western Pennsylvania, he graduated from Mercyhurst College in 2001. After seven years on the radio professionally, Adam began his career in Minor League Baseball as a promotions intern and broadcaster for the Williamsport Crosscutters in 2007. In 2008 and 2009, he was the Assistant Media Relations Director and number two broadcaster for the Oklahoma City RedHawks.

In 2010, Adam joined the West Virginia Power, handling the team's radio broadcasts, media relations and serving as an account executive. In 2014, he was honored as the South Atlantic League's Media Relations Director of the Year. Over the final four years with the Power, he also handled all the team's marketing in addition to promotions, corporate sponsorship sales and his other responsibilities.

STEVE GRANADO: Granado joins the broadcast team 2022.

He graduated from Cal State Fullerton in 2015 and spent three seasons in Minor League Baseball as a media relations intern with the California League Champion Rancho Cucamonga Quakes in 2015, the Director of Broadcasting for the Boise Hawks in 2016 and as a Broadcast Assistant for the West Virginia Power in 2017.

Outside of his Minor League broadcast career, the California native has covered multiple prep and collegiate sports. Granado's play-by-play work includes nationally-recognized high school baseball at JSerra Catholic, UCLA athletics and USA Hockey. In 2021, he was featured on MLB Network and MLB.com during the Arizona Fall League Fall-Stars Game.
