GAME RECAP:

For the second-straight game, the Reading Fightin Phils and the Portland Sea Dogs (Red Sox) traded blows in a close game. The Fightin Phils scored first in Thursday's contest but the Sea Dogs responded and took a two-run lead over the next two frames. Despite putting several runners on base, Reading couldn't bring across more runs in the tight contest and fell 3-1.

SERIOUS SCHULTZ:

Right-handed pitcher Andrew Schultz hurled another scoreless inning on Thursday against Portland. He was called upon to keep the Sea Dogs off the score board to set Reading up for a rally in the ninth inning. He did just that in throwing just 11 pitches with nine strikes. He faced the minimum, inducing two groundouts and striking out the third batter he faced. In five relief appearances and six innings in Double-A, Schultz hasn't allowed an earned run and struck out five. He was called up from High-A Jersey Shore on August 5. The righty pitched 30 frames in relief, posted a 4.80 ERA and 48 strikeouts. The Phillies selected Schultz in the sixth round of the 2019 MLB Draft after he played three years at Tennessee.

PLAYOFF HUNT:

The Reading Fightin Phils took the first two games of a six-game series against the Portland Sea Dogs (Red Sox). With the two victories, Reading now trails the Eastern League leading by just four and a half games. The Fightins sit in third place behind Somerset and Portland, who sits a half game behind the Sea Dogs. Somerset clinched a playoff spot when they finished atop the division in the first half of the season. Should Somerset take the top spot in the second half, the team with the best overall record would take the final spot. Portland has a 25-17 record in the second half and a 55-56 overall record. Somerset clinched a playoff berth with a league-best 44-25 record in the first half. The Patriots have a 25-16 second-half record and a 69-41 overall record. Reading has a 50-61 overall record and a 21-21 second-half record. The R-Phils finished the first half at 29-40.

OUTFIELD ASSISTS:

The Reading Fightin Phils continue to defeat opposing runners from the outfield. Reading added two more outfield assists in Thursday's game against Portland to bring the 2022 season total to 37. Johan Rojas gunned down a Sea Dogs runner for center field yesterday for his fourth in Double-A. He has two in center and two in left field. Jhailyn Ortiz threw out a runner from right field on Wednesday. Though he was called up to Triple-A Lehigh Valley on August 9, Jack Conley remains the leader in outfield assists with 10.

SNAG 'EM:

The Reading Fightin Phils added one stolen bases last night against Portland. Wendell Rijo snagged a career high 19 bases. Johan Rojas checks in at second with 16. Between stints in High-A Jersey Shore and Reading, Rojas has 49 stolen bases and has only been caught twice, once at each level. Through 70 games with the BlueClaws, Rojas swiped 33 bags

PROSPECT CENTRAL:

The Fightins roster boasts many top prospects in the Phillies farm system. Griff McGarry (#4), Johan Rojas (#5), Jhailyn Ortiz (#18) and McKinley Moore (#25).

BIG LEAGUE CLUB WATCH:

After having Thursday off, the Phillies begin a three-game series at home against the Mets on Friday at 7:05 PM. Aaron Nola and Chris Bassitt are set to start on the rubber as the Phillies look to improve upon their 4-11 record against the National League East foe. Bryce Harper was transferred to the 60-day injured list, though he's expected to return to the team next week, while Brandon Marsh was placed on the 10-day injured list. To fill the hole in center field, the Phillies claimed Bradley Zimmer off waivers from the Blue Jays. He is set to make his debut this evening.

ON THIS DAY IN BASEBALLTOWN HISTORY:

August 19, 2016: At Erie, in the completion of game suspended from July 31, Dylan Cozens homers twice and drives in 3, equaling Ryan Howard for second on the all-time list with 37 home runs as Reading wins, 9-1. The Fightin Phils complete the sweep with a 10-6 win in game 2. Cozens has another historic effort in that one, going 3-for-4 with a double, 3 RBIs, a run, and a stolen base. The run is his 100th, making him the first player in franchise history to drive in and score 100 runs in the same season. The steal is his 20th, making him the first Reading player since Marlon Byrd in 2001 to have 20 homers and 20 SBs in the same season. Jorge Alfaro also has a solid second game, going 2-for-4 with a HR, double, 4 RBIs and 2 runs.
