OMAHA STORM CHASERS

2025 SEASON IN REVIEW

2026 MEDIA GUIDE

2025 SEASON NEWS AND NOTES

2025 IN REVIEW: The Omaha Storm Chasers finished with a 62-86 overall record, tying for 9th in the International League West Division and 17th overall out of 20 teams in the International League – 26.0 games behind the first-place Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp (Marlins Triple-A) and 2.5 games ahead of the last-place Rochester Red Wings (Nationals Triple-A). Omaha peaked at two games above .500 twice – with a 4-2 record after April 4 and 10-8 after April 18 – but from April 23 through the end of the season, the team's record remained below .500. The Chasers went 31-43 in both the 1st and 2nd halves, and also 31-43 at home and on the road. For the first time since 2023, Omaha posted a negative run differential (-102), scoring 759 runs while allowing 861.

ROSTER RECALL: The Storm Chasers' roster on the final day of the season looked very different from Opening Day, with only three players active for the entire season: pitcher Chandler Champlain, catcher Luca Tresh and first baseman Nick Pratto. Including those three, eight players were on Omaha's roster on both Opening Day and the final day: Champlain, Tresh, Pratto, pitcher Jacob Wallace, infielders Harold Castro and Nick Loftin, and outfielders Tyler Gentry and Drew Waters. Omaha used 78 players in 2025, up from 59 in 2024 – the most since 2022 (80 players). The 2023 team used 76. The 78 players ranked 9th-most in the International League, with the league average at 77. Norfolk and Syracuse led the league with 95 players, while Memphis used a league-low 60. The Storm Chasers made 204 transactions in 2025, up from 158 in 2024 – their most since 2022 (223). Since 2021, the average Omaha team has made 191 transactions per season.

CONSISTENCY IS KEY: The Storm Chasers posted identical records in the 1st and 2nd half (31-43) and at home and on the road (31-43). However, the splits tell a different story. The 1st half was stronger on the mound, while the 2nd half was better offensively. In the 1st half, Omaha hit .247 (598-for-2419) with 379 runs scored and a .755 OPS, compared to .250 (627-for-2503) with 380 runs scored and a .779 OPS in the 2nd half. The pitching staff posted a 5.23 ERA (372 ER in 639.2 IP) and 1.51 WHIP (318 BB + 645 H) in the 1st half, versus a 5.75 ERA (410 ER in 641.1 IP) and 1.62 WHIP (329 BB + 708 H) in the 2nd half. Omaha hit better at home, but pitched better on the road. At Werner Park, the team hit .253 (603-for-2383) with 385 runs scored and a .794 OPS, while on the road they hit .245 (622-for-2539) with 374 runs scored and a .742 OPS. At home, the Chasers pitched to a 5.94 ERA (428 ER in 648.0 IP) with a .162 WHIP (348 BB + 700 H), while on the road working a 5.03 ERA (354 ER in 633.0 IP) with a 1.50 WHIP (299 BB + 653 H).

SERIES SPEAKING: The Storm Chasers went 6-12-9 across 27 series in 2025, including 3-5-6 at home and 3-7-3 on the road. Series wins came April 15-20 vs. Norfolk (3-2), June 10-15 @ Toledo (6-0), July 18-20 @ Buffalo (2-1), August 5-10 @ Indianapolis (5-1), August 12-17 @ Columbus (5-1), and September 9-14 vs. Charlotte (5-1). Four of the six series wins were full six-game series. The Chasers never won back-to-back series but took 2 of 3 series from August 5 to 24, going 13-5 over 18 games – the 3rd-best record in the International League during that stretch. Omaha split seven of its first ten series (March to May) but dropped six of seven between June and July, including five straight from June 17 to July 13 – a 24-game span where they went 5-19, the 2nd-worst record in the Minors over that stretch.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR: Omaha had one representative among International League award winners and All-Stars: Cam Devanney, named the IL All-Star shortstop. This was Devanney's first career MiLB All-Star selection. Traded by Kansas City to Pittsburgh for Adam Frazier on July 18, Devanney appeared in 103 IL games (69 with Omaha, 34 with Indianapolis), slashing .266/.353/.493 (101-for-379) with 20 doubles, 20 homers, 66 RBI, and an .846 OPS. 18 of his 20 home runs came with Omaha (.565 SLG) compared to a .361 SLG with Indianapolis; 55 of his 66 RBI also came with Omaha. Devanney is the first Omaha hitter named to the IL All-Star team since Ryan McBroom was the Triple-A East DH in 2021. While the Royals selected his contract on July 8, Devanney did not appear in a Major League game with Kansas City before being traded. He made his MLB debut with Pittsburgh on August 30, appearing in 14 games with the Pirates.

BE LIKE MIKE: In 2025, manager Mike Jirschele returned for his 17th season managing Triple-A Omaha and the 3rd year of his 3rd stint with the club, finishing with an all-time Omaha record of 1,214-1,240. This marked his 38th and final season in the Royals organization. On October 10, 2025, it was announced that "Jirsch" was retiring after a 48-year professional baseball career, all spent with the Royals as a coach, manager, and front office member (1990 to 2025). The all-time winningest manager in Omaha history (1,214 wins), Jirschele managed 2,454 games – 31% of the franchise's total – and captured four division titles, three league championships, and one national championship. He previously managed Omaha from 1995-97, 2003-13, and 2023-25. In his 17 Triple-A seasons, 95 players were promoted from Omaha to Kansas City for the first time under his watch – including Zack Greinke, Eric Hosmer, Mike Moustakas, Yordano Ventura and Jac Caglianone.

HOMER HAPPY: The Storm Chasers hit 199 home runs in 2025, tied for the most of any Minor League team. Omaha ranked tied for 1st in the International League, at the Triple-A level, and across MiLB – alongside Charlotte (IL) and Albuquerque (PCL). The 199 homers rank 4th-most in franchise history (since 1969), surpassing the 2024 team (193). The franchise record of 231 is shared by the 1999 Omaha Golden Spikes and the 2021 Storm Chasers. The 2021 Chasers led Minor League Baseball with 231 homers – the only time in the modern era (since 2005) Omaha has led its league, Triple-A, or all of MiLB in home runs. The Las Vegas Aviators (Athletics Triple-A) led the Minors in 2024 with 232 home runs. The 2025 season marked the first since 2016 in which no Minor League team surpassed 200 homers; in 2016, the Reading Fightin Phils (Phillies Double-A) led MiLB with 185.

NEVER GONNA GIVE YOU UP: A constant for the 2025 Storm Chasers was significant Major League experience on the roster. Sixteen active players had 2 or more years of MLB service time, and 13 had 4+ years. Veterans included Rich Hill (14.131 years), Dallas Keuchel (10.030), Michael Fulmer (7.157) and Luke Maile (7.148). MLB rehabber Mark Canha entered 2025 with 9.092 years of service and surpassed the 10-year mark while active with the Royals. Despite 33 players entering the season with no MLB service, the average Storm Chaser in 2025 had 1.5 years of MLB service time.

RIDING THE CYCLE: Two Storm Chasers hit for the cycle in 2025 – the first Omaha cycles in over a decade. Drew Waters hit for the cycle on April 2 vs. Louisville, recording a single in the 1st inning, triple in the 3rd, inside-the-park home run in the 4th and double in the 8th. It was the first cycle featuring an inside-the-park home run in the Minors since Jim Haley (Montgomery, August 23, 2019 @ Chattanooga) and Galli Cribbs Jr. (Jackson, April 18, 2018 vs. Birmingham). The last MLB instance came over 80 years ago – Leon Culberson, Boston Red Sox, July 3, 1943. MJ Melendez hit for the cycle on September 11 vs. Charlotte, tripling in the 1st inning, homering in the 3rd, singling in the 5th, and doubling in the 7th. He had come one hit shy of a cycle 13 times in his career, including three earlier in 2025. Waters and Melendez were 2 of 6 players to hit for the cycle in the International League in 2025. There were 11 cycles in Triple-A and 24 across the Minors. Two others were recorded by former Storm Chasers: CJ Alexander (Las Vegas, May 10 @ Reno) and Rodolfo Durán (El Paso, September 13 vs. Albuquerque). Prior to 2024, Omaha had 3 cycles in its modern era: Jimmy Paredes (May 12, 2014 vs. New Orleans), Lorenzo Cain (May 14, 2011 @ Colorado Springs) and Scott Thorman (August 29, 2010 vs. Iowa). Omaha is one of 17 full-season Minor League teams with multiple cycles since 2021, and one of just five with more than one in the same season – joining Greenville (2022), Oklahoma City (2022), Pensacola (2023), and Vancouver (2023).

PUSHING 20: Outfielder MJ Melendez completed a 20/20/20 season with his 20th steal in the 1st inning on September 20 @ Columbus. In 2025, Melendez hit 33 doubles, 20 homers and stole 20 bases. He is the 5th Triple-A Omaha player to accomplish the feat, joining Bombo Rivera (1982), Dwayne Hosey (1994), Dee Brown (2000) and Brewer Hicklen (2022). Melendez became the 9th International League player to record a 20/20/20 season since 2021 and the 3rd in 2025, joining Louisville's Rece Hinds (26 2B, 24 HR, 21 SB) and Columbus' Milan Tolentino (20 2B, 21 HR, 20 SB). Since 2005, he is the 5th Royals Minor Leaguer with a 20/20/20 season, following Alan Moye (2005), Alex Gordon (2006), Bobby Witt Jr. (2021) and Brewer Hicklen (2022).

TOGETHER FOREVER

Omaha has been the Triple-A affiliate of the Kansas City Royals since 1969, the first year in the history of both franchises. Their ongoing relationship is the longest at the Triple-A level and the third-longest in all of Minor League Baseball. Only the Reading Fightin' Phils (Philadelphia Phillies) and Lakeland Flying Tigers (Detroit Tigers) have been affiliated with their parent clubs longer, both beginning their relationships in 1967.

FROM OMAHA TO THE HALL OF FAME

George Brett played 133 games for the Omaha Royals between the 1973 and 1974 seasons before enjoying a prolific Major League career. Over 21 Major League seasons – all with the Kansas City Royals – Brett compiled 3,154 hits, 1,596 RBI, 317 home runs and a .305 lifetime batting average. A 13-time All-Star, three-time batting champion and American League MVP, Brett's extraordinary career earned him induction into both the Royals Hall of Fame and the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

Brett was the lone alum of the current franchise to be enshrined in Cooperstown until 2026, with the election of Carlos Beltrán. Beltrán appeared in 5 games with the Omaha Golden Spikes in 2000 during a Major League rehab assignment, going 6-for-18 (.333 average) with 2 home runs, including one at Rosenblatt Stadium on September 2. Selected by Kansas City in the second round of the 1995 MLB Draft, Beltrán went on to enjoy a 20-season Major League career highlighted by 435 home runs, 312 stolen bases and a .279 lifetime average.

Two other National Baseball Hall of Famers also played in Omaha, though not for the current franchise. Charles "Kid" Nichols suited up for the Omaha Omahogs in 1889, while Bob Gibson – immortalized with a statue outside Werner Park – played for the Omaha Cardinals from 1957 to 1959.

Brett is one of 12 former Omaha players inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame, along with Kevin Appier ('89-'90, '98, '04), Steve Busby ('72, '78, '80), Alex Gordon ('09-'10, '15-16, '18), Mark Gubicza ('91), Dennis Leonard ('74-'75, '82), Jeff Montgomery ('88, '97, '99), Dan Quisenberry ('79), Paul Splittorff ('69-'71), Mike Sweeney ('96-'97, '02-'03, '06-'07), John Wathan ('72, '75-'76) and Willie Wilson ('77).

Automatic Runner Rule: Implemented by MLB into the Minor Leagues, the 2018 season began with the new rule in place for all MiLB games. The Minor League Baseball Extra Inning Rule states the following: Extra innings will begin with a runner on second base. The runner at second base will be the player in the batting order position previous to the leadoff batter of the inning (or a substitute for that player). By way of example, if the number five hitter in the batting order is due to lead off the 10th inning, the number four player in the batting order (or a pinch-runner for such player) shall begin the inning on second base. Any runner or batter removed from the game for a substitute shall be ineligible to return to the game, as is the case in all circumstances under the Official Baseball Rules.

Scorigami: A portmanteau of score and origami, a scorigami is a scoring combination that has never happened before in a team, sport or league's history. The term was originated by SB Nation writer Jon Bois for NFL scores.

Above is a matrix of every final score that has happened in a Triple-A Omaha game since 2000. Green squares represent Omaha wins, while red squares represent Omaha losses. The number inside the square refers to the number of times that result has occurred. Empty squares represent a scoring combination or result that has not happened.

Since 2000, there are 60 results in Triple-A Omaha games that have only happened once, those games are bolded in the table on the next page. 36 of those results (wins or losses) are a true scorigami, a scoring combinations that have only happened once, and those games have an N/A in the column next to them on the next page.

MOST FREQUENT WINNING SCORE: 3-2 (83 times)
MOST FREQUENT LOSING SCORE: 3-2 (100 times)
MOST FREQUENT SCORE: 3-2 (183 times)

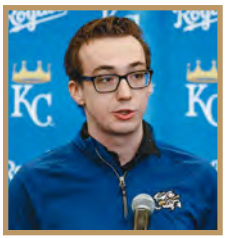
BROADCASTER



Nick Badders joined the Storm Chasers ahead of the 2023 season and enters his fourth year as the team's play-by-play broadcaster. 2026 marks Nick's 10th season on the air in professional baseball and his 6th in the Royals organization. In September 2023 and August 2025, he served as a fill-in broadcaster for the Royals Radio Network. In March 2025, Badders received the Matt Minker Award, which annually recognizes an outstanding Royals Minor League affiliate employee.

Prior to his role with Omaha, Nick called games for the Northwest Arkansas Naturals, Kansas City's Double-A affiliate, in 2021 and 2022. He has held similar roles with the Melbourne Aces (Australian Baseball League) from 2019 to 2021, the Elizabethton Twins (Advanced Rookie, Minnesota Twins) in 2019 and the Sonoma Stompers (independent, Pacific Association) in 2018.

In addition to his work on the air in Minor League Baseball, the Livermore, California native has called games for the Arkansas Razorbacks and Creighton Bluejays. Nick began his broadcasting career at Arizona State University's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism and Mass Communication, where he called a variety of Sun Devil events for the Pac-12 Networks digital platform and Blaze Radio ASU, the student radio station, until graduating in May 2020. When not broadcasting games at Arizona State, he worked as a student photographer and was recognized as the Cronkite School's 2019 Greg Crowder Memorial Photojournalism Award winner, awarded annually to the school's top student photojournalist.

An Omaha resident, you can reach Nick via e-mail at nicholasb@omahastormchasers.com or follow him on X @BaddersUp and Instagram at @BadderUpSports.
