LAST GAME

The Bowie Baysox fell one run short of collecting their second-consecutive win on Thursday night, falling to the Richmond Flying Squirrels 5-4. Bowie trailed 3-0 after the first inning, but recovered to tie the game at three by the third inning, thanks in part to Andrew Daschbach's third home run of the season. Richmond used single runs in the fifth and seventh innings to push back ahead, while holding Bowie to just 1-for-16 at the plate with runners in scoring position. Richmond strung together five-consecutive base hits against Drew Rom in the first inning to plate the first three runs of the game. Rom would only be able to finish three innings thanks to an inflated pitch count.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Richmond and Bowie meet for the second time this month, after the Squirrels took two out of three at Prince George's Stadium over the opening weekend of the season. Richmond has only managed .500 ball since Opening Weekend, however, after taking four-of-six from Altoona in their first homestand of the year, but having the inverse happen on their recent road trip to Erie. While they did play fewer innings because of a doubleheader, Richmond struggled with Erie's league-leading pitching, scoring only 20 runs over the course of the six-game series.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Right-hander Gray Fenter makes his second start of the season for Richmond, and fifth appearance overall. Very familiar with the Orioles organization and the Bowie Baysox, Fenter is a former top-30 prospect in the system, and spent all of the 2021 season on the Baysox roster, pitching mostly in the rotation. With Bowie, Fenter went 6-4 on the mound with a 5.47 ERA, striking out 86 batters, walking 48, and giving up 12 home runs. Fenter faced the Baysox in a relief role on April 9, when he walked three batters and allowed two hits with a run in one inning pitched. Fenter was notable for his fastball that could touch 97 in high school, which drew the Orioles to draft him in 2015, but Tommy John surgery in 2016 cut a couple of ticks off of the speedometer.

DASCH-ING THROUGH THE SNOW

Bowie first baseman Andrew Daschbach swatted his third home run of the season on Thursday evening in Richmond to break a four-game hitless skid, and plating two runs to cut into Richmond's 3-0 lead. Despite going only 1-for-16 over his previous six games entering Thursday, he still drew nine walks against 11 strikeouts. Both of Daschbach's previous home runs this season came in the Binghamton series. Sandwiched between the home runs, Daschbach struck out 11 times at the plate, including a five-strikeout day on Thursday. Daschbach was known for his strikeouts in 2021, his 144 strikeouts were the second-most in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers (171)

SLIM MARGINS

Bowie had an early handle on one-run games this season, but have dropped their last two. With four of their last seven games coming down to just one run, the Baysox are 3-2 overall on one-run games. It's looking like the Baysox may see plenty of one-run games this season, as their five one-run games are the fewest in the Southwest Division. Despite just under half of their games being decided by three or fewer runs, Bowie's +20 run differential is the second-highest in the league, mostly thanks to their 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19 and their 10-0 win over Richmond on 4/27.

INTO THE GROUND

Bowie's patience at the plate has been a constant pain for opposing pitchers. Three of Bowie's main infielders have seen more pitches than almost every other player in the Eastern League. Andrew Daschbach currently leads the League with 347 pitches seen, Jordan Westburg is sixth with 310, and Gunnar Henderson is seventh with 305.

BUSY BATTERIES

This series between Bowie and Richmond should stand to see plenty of strikeouts as it continues through the week. Richmond is second in the Eastern League with 205 strikeouts at the plate, Bowie is not too far behind at 201, the third-most in the League. Bowie has been climbing the charts recently, however, as they lead the League with 107 strikeouts since April 18, including two different games where they struck out 17 times.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Antonio Velez only used 38 pitches across his first five innings on 4/23. See Page 2 for more.

GROUND BALL HALL - Bowie outfielder Adam Hall has a higher rate of ground balls than any qualified batter in the League, hitting it on the ground 5.5x as often

WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN - After a one-year pause, Minor League Baseball has reinstated the well-known league names across the country, putting Bowie back in the Eastern League

NEW RULES FOR ALL - In 2022, Double-A features larger bases (15 in. > 18 in.), new limits on pick off attempts (Two step-offs per PA), and a faster pitch clock

Notes

- Full trade: Orioles trade RHP Cole Sulser and LHP Tanner Scott to Miami in exchange for OF Kevin Guerrero, LHP Antonio Velez, and a Competitive Balance Round B draft selection
- This is his second season of pro ball after catching on with Miami in 2020 as a reliever. Eight of his first nine appearances were out of the bullpen, but his following 14 appearances to close the season were starts.
- Began his career at Florida State in the bullpen, had begun the transition into a weekend starter for the Seminoles at the urging of his pitching coach when the coronavirus pandemic forced the season to be shut down.
- Earned his promotion to Double-A after silencing opponent for High-A Beloit. Fired 26 innings in four starts, allowing only one run, a solo home run, while striking out 20 batters and only walking two.

What They're Saying:

Mike Elias, Orioles EVP and GM: "[He's] had nothing but success in the minor leagues thus far, and we'll see where the dust settles exactly. [He] could be in Triple-A very quickly if continues what he did last year in Pensacola"

Notes by Outing

- Apr 10 v RIC Orioles organizational debut. Only hit allowed was a one-out single in the first inning. Struck out six of his first eight batters faced.
- Apr 17 @ BNG Struck out the side in the first inning (including an auto-strike three on the leadoff batter) When Bowie had jumped to a 4-0 lead, Velez allowed a solo home run in the second inning before tossing a perfect third. Was chased in the fifth inning after allowing five consecutive batters to reach base, as well as four runs, with a two-run home run mixed in by top Mets prospect Francisco Alvarez. All four runs were scored with two outs.
- Apr 23 v AKR Worked heavily on pitching to contact. Only struck out one batter over the first 4.2 innings. Only run over first five innings was due to a leadoff triple followed by a single in the fifth. Only used 38 total pitches over the first five innings. Was the first pitcher for Bowie this season to pitch into the sixth inning, but allowed a string of four hits and a sacrifice fly on the third trip through the order that knocked him out of the game. Spent the game going toe-to-toe with Akron's Daniel Espino while the top Gaudians pitching prospect struck out the first 11 batters of the game, and 14 total.

Second pitch thrown in his Double-A career was served to left field for a solo home run by Binghamton's Ronny Mauricio. Loeprich would go on to allow a career-high three home runs to the Rumble Ponies in a 9-4 Bowie loss on 4/12. // In 2021, made 11 appearances for High-A Aberdeen, and three for Rookie-Level Orioles Black. // Made six appearances (four starts) with the Mesa Solar Sox in the Arizona Fall League in 2021. 2-1 / 8.38 ERA / 15 K / 18 BB / 19.1 IP // Traded to Baltimore on September 20, 2020 from Pittsburgh in exchange for cash and International bonus pool capacity. // Initially drafted in the 20th round of the 2018 draft by Pittsburgh out of Saint Mary's College of California // Torn meniscus in his left knee kept him from making his start in 2021 until late June // Only a part-time starter at Saint Mary's, made 11 starts in 38 career appearances // After initially being drafted as a reliever for the Pirates, began the transition into more starting roles in May 2019. Made 33 appearances out of the bullpen before making his first career start // Return to High-A after recovering from his torn meniscus was tough, allowed 17 earned runs over eight innings, including five home runs. Allowed only 18 earned runs over his following 38 innings to complete the season.

Took a blown save, but earned the Baysox first win of the season in their third game, thanks in part to a six-run seventh inning for Bowie. // In 2021, appeared in eight games for Bowie, and 22 games for Aberdeen. // His 30 appearances in 2021 were the seventh-most in the Orioles organization. // Prime numbers came after his promotion to Bowie, as he only allowed runs in one of his eight outings, and collected 12 strikeouts against no walks over his last six appearances. // Spent his freshman year at Wake Forest in the bullpen, but transitioned to a starting role for his sophomore and junior seasons before being drafted.

Was critical in both of Bowie's walk-off wins against Akron in April, scoring the winning run on April 21 against Akron, avoiding a tag at home in the tenth inning, and collecting the game-winning hit on April 22 against Akron, allowing Zach Watson to score from first base on the hit and an error. // Made his Double-A debut against Akron on 4/19, and went 3-for-4 at the plate, including an RBI double in his first plate appearance, and a solo home run in his last PA in the eighth inning. Scored a career-high four runs and tied a career-high with three hits. Bowie won 20-6. // Added to the Bowie Roster from the FCL Orioles on April 16 to replace Toby Welk, who had collided with the left field wall while making the final out of Bowie's win over Binghamton the previous day. // In 2021, appeared in 49 game for Aberdeen, and 29 games for Delmarva. // Hit exactly .224 at both stops in 2021. // Played at least 15 games at all three outfield positions in 2021. // Was the starting center fielder for the Tar Heels in his two seasons at UNC.

Player Notes

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Hit his first home run of the season on 4/22 against Akron after 11 games, measured at a 112 MPH exit velocity, which was as fast as any ball in play by Orioles Major Leaguers by that point in the season. Hit another 105+ MPH home run the following day, breaking a string of 11 consecutive strikeouts by Daniel Espino of Akron. // Ranked as the Orioles #3 prospect and Minor League Baseball's #64 overall prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline. Listed as #4 for the Orioles and #57 in MLB by Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at third base by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // 105 games in 2021 was tied for tenth-most in the Orioles system, 28 doubles was good for the second-most behind Robert Neustrom's 31, 17 home runs was sixth-most, and 74 RBI was fifth-most. // Appeared in all three games of the Double-A Northeast Championship Series against Akron, going 3-for-10 overall with a solo home run in game two. // Originally committed to Auburn, but signed for an above-slit $2.3M to join Baltimore. // In 2021, played 62 games at shortstop, and 35 games at third base. // Was named the Low-A East Offensive Player of the month in May 2021, when he hit .313 in 20 games with six home runs. // Started only 1-for-31 at High-A Aberdeen, but followed with a .325 mark over his next 20 games. // Orioles Director of Player Development Matt Blood: "It was a great experience for him to have to navigate those struggles and once he came out of them, he took off. He's got well-above-average power. He's just really young and just learning how to play."

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #33 prospect entering the 2022 season according to Baseball America. Also listed as the best defensive outfielder in the organization. // 21 home runs in 2021 ranked fourth in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers, Adley Rutschman, and Patrick Dorrian. Despite the high home run number, his .768 OPS was only good for 39th in the organization. // When combined with his 24 stolen bases, Watson was the only player in the system with a 20-20 season in 2021, and the first since DJ Stewart in 2017. // First selected by Boston in the 40th round of the 2018 draft, but elected not to sign. // Played 49 games in Bowie, 56 in Aberdeen. In 2019, played 16 games in Delmarva, 20 in Aberdeen.

Player Notes

Collected two doubles in the first inning of Bowie's 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, also drew a career-high three walks during the 6 PA day. // Hit the Baysox first home run of the season in the second game of the year, a game-tying solo home run in the eighth inning against Richmond. Richmond scored seven runs in the following half inning. // Followed with a home run on the third day of the season, the third time in his career that he'd homered on consecutive days. He had homered on three consecutive days with High-A Aberdeen, and homered on consecutive days with Bowie against Somerset on 9/2 and 9/3/21. // Ranked as the Orioles #6 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline and Baseball America. Also listed as the best athlete and the best defensive infielder in the organization by Baseball America. // Played at least 20 games at Low-A, High-A, and Double-A in 2021, primarily with High-A Aberdeen, where he hit .286 with eight home runs in 62 games. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at shortstop by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Finished second in the system with a .380 OBP and 74 runs scored, while his 79 RBIs, 121 hits, 27 doubles and five triples ranked third and his .479 slugging percentage and .868 OPS ranked fourth. // Highest drafted shortstop in the history of Mississippi State, and the 17th player to be drafted in the first round. // Along with Justin Foscue (14th overall pick, Texas), became the second set of teammates chosen in the first round in program history, joining Will Clark and Rafael Palmeiro from the 1985 MLB Draft.

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their daughter Madilyn reside in Sarasota, FL.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
