About Diamond Baseball Holdings

The Albuquerque Isotopes announced in October 2023 its new ownership partner Diamond Baseball Holdings (DBH), an organization that owns and operates select Minor League Baseball clubs affiliated with Major League Baseball (MLB).

Founded in 2021 and led by Executive Chairman Pat Battle and CEO Peter Freund, DBH is committed to elevating fan experiences, creating "centers of energy," fostering dynamic engagements for brands and highlighting the evolution of the MiLB environment through professional management, best practices, innovation and investment. It is grounded in a deep-rooted appreciation for traditions, community and the sport of baseball.

Entering the 2025 season, the Isotopes are one of 42 teams across MiLB that make up DBH:

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

What Is An Isotope?

Since the team's inception in 2003, the nickname "Isotopes" has become one of the most popular and unique monikers in all of baseball.

Webster's Dictionary and Nuclear Scientists define an Isotope as:

i·sō·topēl n : any of two or more species of atoms of a chemical element with the same atomic number and position in the periodic table and nearly identical chemical behavior, but with differing atomic mass and different physical properties.

Homer Simpson and baseball fans, on the other hand, define "Isotopes" as the nickname of a fictional Minor League baseball team in the popular animated sitcom "The Simpsons". In the 2001 Simpsons episode "Hungry, Hungry Homer," the Springfield Isotopes threatened to move to Albuquerque until Homer went on a hunger strike, ultimately preventing the team from moving.

The name Isotopes was chosen for its originality and popularity after it won a "Name the Team" contest, garnering 57% of over 120,000 votes. Other suggested names in the contest included Atoms, Dukes, Roadrunners, and 66ers. The extensive amount of nuclear research in the Albuquerque area provides another great link to the team name.

The distinctive "A" logo and the "Isotopes" wordmark incorporate both the nickname's scientific and fictional inspirations, creating a brand that is unique and fun. Both logos were originally conceived by Kevin Kierst, who at the time was working as the clubhouse manager for the Norfolk Tides and now serves as the Head Equipment Manager for the New York Mets. After the design's conception, both logos were then tweaked by local designer Vaughn Weeden to create the brand that has become a favorite throughout the Land of Enchantment and beyond.

Fans across the nation seem to agree, making Isotopes merchandise annually one of the top 10 sellers in Minor League Baseball since the team began in 2003.

Who/What Is Orbit?

Ask most Albuquerque kids (and adults, for that matter) who their favorite Isotope is and invariably the answer you'll hear is Orbit, the Topes' loveable mascot. Orbit came to planet Earth after arriving through a trade with alien visitors from outer space in April 2003. Orbit's duties include playing games with fans, making people laugh, wreaking havoc on the concourse, and racing kids around the bases. Although he can eat six times his weight in Dion's Cheese Pizza, his eating habits have not adversely impacted Orbit's ability to dance, a skill at which he is exceptional.

In addition to his myriad duties in and around the ballpark, Orbit can frequently be spotted around Albuquerque. Each year, Orbit makes around 300 appearances throughout the community, including 20 visits to area schools promoting the Club Read literacy program the Isotopes undertake in conjunction with Dion's.

OPENING DAY AGE: 26

BIRTHPLACE: Turlock, CA

SCHOOL: Washington

ACQUIRED: Selected by the Rockies in the 16th round (470th overall) of the 2021 MLB Draft

QUICK HITS

- 5th professional season, all with the Rockies organization
- Since the start of the 2022 season, is 151-for-172 in stolen base attempts, sixth among all Minor and Major League players during that timeframe
- Started the 2024 season with High-A Spokane, slashing .340/.426/.550 with seven doubles, four triples, two home runs, 17 RBI and 18 stolen bases in 32 contests
- Stole six bases on May 3, 2024 vs. Eugene (including a straight steal of home), a feat that had not been accomplished in MiLB since 2005; the last Major League player to swipe six bases in a game had been Carl Crawford (Tampa Bay) on May 3, 2009
- Produced his first career two-homer game on May 17, 2024 vs. Vancouver

2024 SEASON IN REVIEW

The Albuquerque Isotopes completed their 21st season in 2024, a memorable campaign that saw exciting moments on the diamond, tremendous fan support and new events hosted at Rio Grande Credit Union Field at Isotopes Park.

For the second straight year, Isotopes Park welcomed the highest cumulative total of fans in the Pacific Coast League, as 503,525 walked through the turnstiles in 2024. The cumulative attendance was also fifth-most in all of Minor League Baseball, tied for the highest Albuquerque has finished in 21 seasons (2023). Additionally, the Isotopes paced the PCL in average attendance for the third consecutive year with 6,714 per contest. Albuquerque welcomed a five-figure crowd for six of their 75 home dates. The Sunday evening Cinco de Mayo Fiesta at "The Plaza" drew 12,011 fans, the eighth-largest crowd in MiLB. The club has now welcomed a cumulative total of 11,520,367 fans over 21 seasons.

The Savannah Bananas brought their world-famous brand of "Banana Ball" to Isotopes Park April 20-21. The Bananas played two games against their rival the Party Animals as over 25,000 fans attended the two contests. Party Animals pitcher Drew Gillespie — an Albuquerque native, 2017 Sandia High School graduate and University of New Mexico baseball alum — pitched in both games and closed out a Party Animals victory in game two Sunday afternoon.

A few months later on August 23, Major League Baseball brought its Home Run Derby X competition to Albuquerque, an exciting 3-on-3 home run derby featuring power hitting and defensive hustle. The event was headlined by former MLB stars Manny Ramirez, Ian Desmond, Jonny Gomes and Ryan Zimmermann that also featured local stars Jared Mang, Andrew Howard, Gene Trujillo, and former Isotope Rob Stratton.

The Isotopes also held their annual Albuquerque Professional Baseball Hall of Fame ceremony as Mike Scioscia, former Albuquerque Dukes catcher (1979-80) and manager (1999), was inducted Saturday June 29 prior to Dukes Retro Night.

On the field, Albuquerque set a franchise record with 186 stolen bases, surpassing the previous standard of 178 set in the 2003 inaugural campaign. Outfielder Zac Veen swiped second base Sept. 10 vs. Las Vegas to set the new bench mark. Additionally, the Isotopes stole a base in 12-straight games from April 18-May 1—setting a new team-high. The club then equaled the record from August 25-Sept. 7.

Nine Isotopes players made their Major League debut with the Colorado Rockies (Jordan Beck, Drew Romo, Seth Halvorsen, Jeff Criswell, Aaron Schunk, Luis Peralta, Greg Jones, Tanner Gordon and Jaden Hill), two shy of the team record set in 2016.

The club also tallied nine walk-off wins, the third-most in team history behind the 2006 and 2015 teams that both recorded 11. Four of those nine walk-off hits were homers (Romo, Jones, Hunter Stovall and Elehuris Montero), tying a franchise record (also: 2015 and 2021).

University of New Mexico alums Jared Mang (left) and Andrea Howard (right) both competed in Major League Baseball's Home Run Derby X on Friday, August 23 at Isotopes Park. Mang took home MVP honors while Howard's Team Lobos won the event.

In one of the most memorable games in Isotopes Park history, Albuquerque overcame a 9-0 deficit to beat Las Vegas, 16-14, Sept. 13—which tied for the second-largest comeback victory in team history. Montero blasted a walk-off, two-run homer to complete the triumph.

In his fourth season with Albuquerque, outfielder Sam Hilliard broke the Isotopes all-time career home run mark with his 67th blast in an Isotopes uniform May 1 vs. Round Rock. He hit 14 dingers for the Isotopes in 2024, bringing his career total to 76.

Isotopes outfielder Greg Jones swiped 46 bases over 86 contests, finishing second on the club's all-time single-season stolen base ledger, three behind Dee Gordon who set the mark in 2013. He had 12 games with multiple stolen bases and was caught stealing second just once.

Zac Veen, the Rockies number three ranked prospect, according to MLB.com, became the second Isotope to pull off one of the rarest plays in baseball: a straight steal of home. On September 7 at Tacoma with a lefty on the mound, Veen raced home as the frantic throw from the pitcher sailed to the backstop, joining Eric Reed (June 20, 2007, at Oklahoma) as the only other Isotope to have a straight steal of home.

Staying in Tacoma, Tanner Gordon delivered one of the best starts in Isotopes history Sept. 4, spinning 8.0 scoreless innings in a 3-0 win. It was just the 11th time an Albuquerque pitcher has finished an outing with 8.0+ scoreless frames.

Michael Togli showed off his prodigious power as he homered from both sides of the plate May 8 at El Paso, becoming the second Isotope to do so after Joe Borchart completed the feat August 19, 2007.

Hunter Stovall connected on a walk-off home run to leadoff the bottom of the ninth inning to complete a 4-3 win over Reno on August 31.

Lost best of five-game series to Nashville 3-1

The Isotopes capped their first year of existence with a playoff berth against Nashville in the Pacific Coast League's American Conference Finals. The series got underway in Nashville, where Albuquerque would drop the first game after Sounds slugger John Barnes belted a two-run homer in the bottom of the eighth off of reliever Vladimir Nunez to give Nashville a 6-5 win. The Isotopes would draw even in Game 2 thanks to a four-run first that paced the Isotopes to a 7-5 win. The series shifted to Albuquerque for a Game 3 that would quickly go down in the annals as a classic, as both teams swapped leads until Nashville catcher Chris Snusz delivered a 12th-inning RBI single to give the Sounds an 11-10 lead. Dave Doster then added an insurance run with an RBI single to give the Sounds a 12-10 win, ending a contest that featured 15 pitchers, 22 runs, and 34 hits. The Sounds closed out the Isotopes in Game 4 thanks to a masterful pitching performance by starter Matt Guerrier, who held Albuquerque's potent lineup to one run on three hits. More than 17,000 fans attended Albuquerque's two home playoff contests.

Lost best of five-game series to Memphis 3-0

The Isotopes rolled into their second playoff appearance in franchise history having defeated the Memphis Redbirds 10 out of 16 times during the regular season, but the post-season turned out to be a completely different affair, as the Redbirds combined excellent pitching with timely hitting en route to a three-game sweep. The series got off to a strange start as Memphis took Game 1, 6-2, at Isotopes Park in a game that was notable for a two and a half hour rain delay and a triple play. With runners on first and second in the sixth, Chin-lung Hu scooped a grounder in the hole at short, tagged the lead runner, stepped on second and threw to first to complete just the third triple play in franchise history. The Isotopes looked poised to even the series the next night by building a 6-3 lead on the strength of three hits by Blake DeWitt and a solo homer in the sixth by Xavier Paul, but things unraveled in the ninth. With the PCL regular season leader in saves Scott Strickland on the mound, the Redbirds scored five times to earn an improbable 8-6 win and take a 2-0 series lead. The set then switched venues to Memphis, where Birds third baseman David Freese connected for a solo homer in the second inning that stood up thanks to some stellar pitching by Evan MacLane for a 1-0 Redbirds victory and a three-game series sweep. Memphis would then go on to sweep the Sacramento River Cats to claim its second PCL crown in team history.

Lost best of five-game series to Omaha 3-2

The Isotopes rode monster seasons by Dodger Minor League Pitcher of the Year, John Ely, and Jerry Sands into the 2012 playoffs against the Omaha Storm Chasers. The Isotopes took three of the final four games of the season at Rio Grande Credit Union Field at Isotopes Park against the Storm Chasers gearing up for what would be a seesaw post-season series. The Isotopes and Storm Chasers split the first two games at Werner Park. Following an 8-4 loss in Game 1, the Isotopes bounced back behind Stephen Fife in Game 2. Albuquerque trailed 3-0 entering the sixth inning when the club scored five unanswered runs over the next three frames. Trent Oeltjen legged out a triple scoring Josh Fields and Sands on the play cutting the Storm Chasers lead to one. Fields' two-run single in the seventh put the game away and evened the series at 1-1 heading to Albuquerque. The Isotopes rallied late in Game 3, but it wasn't enough to overcome an early 5-0 deficit. Facing elimination in Game 4 at Rio Grande Credit Union Field at Isotopes Park the Isotopes looked dead in the water falling behind the Storm Chasers 10-3 entering the home-half of the seventh inning. Elian Herrera tripled twice in a nine-run seventh inning explosion handing the Storm Chasers a shocking 12-10 loss. The Isotopes racked up eight hits in the frame including a Tony Gwynn Jr. home run in the frame, setting up a decisive Game 5. History wouldn't repeat itself as Omaha scored in each of the first five innings for 11 runs on the way to a 16-7 route. Mitch Maier collected five hits and four RBI. Omaha went on to lose to the Reno Aces in the Pacific Coast League Championship series in four games.

ISOTOPES HILL 2003-2022

Known by many names, Isotopes Hill in center field was one of the most unique features in professional baseball. During construction in 2002, longtime Minor League Baseball executive Dave Rosenfield suggested to Isotopes owner Ken Young the new ballpark should have a signature element. The Hill featured a 4.5-foot incline and a length of 126 feet. Some outfielders showcased their athleticism with memorable circus catches. Others were helpless victims, literally falling in pursuit of a long flyball. After 19 seasons, however, Major League Baseball told the Isotopes to remove The Hill for player safety. Albuquerque won its final game with Isotopes Hill, a 4-3 victory over El Paso on Sept. 28, 2022. Whether you called it Topes Slope, Hoffman's Hill, Bernard's Berm, or simply The Hill, it was the last professional ballpark to feature an uphill slope on the playing field.

The Hill undergoes construction in mid-2002.

Isotopes Hill circa 2021 and 2022, respectively.

Isotopes players pose for a picture (Left) on Topes Slope at the conclusion of the final game of the 2022 season. The day after the season finale, construction crews begin demolition of Isotopes Hill.

HISTORY

ALBUQUERQUE PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL HISTORY

On April 11, 2003 the Albuquerque Isotopes played the first professional baseball game in the Duke City since the Albuquerque Dukes left following the 2000 season. The return of baseball was met by 12,215 enthusiastic fans on Opening Day at beautiful Isotopes Park. The excitement did not end there, as over 575,000 fans passed through the gates in 2003, a season that culminated with the Isotopes winning the Central Division title and earning a berth in the Pacific Coast League Playoffs. That auspicious inaugural year marked a continuation of a rich and varied tradition of professional baseball in Albuquerque, one that dates back over 100 years.

The first known professional baseball team in Albuquerque was founded in 1880 by W.T. McCreight. Games were played at the New Mexico State Fairgrounds, at the large oval space inside the Fairgrounds racetrack facing the grandstands. Since the State Fair was held after the Big League season was over back east, McCreight was able to entice pro players from those leagues to play for him for $100 plus expenses. McCreight, a former Major Leaguer with the St. Louis Browns, still owned one of his jerseys with "Browns" embroidered on it, so he decided to name his team the same.

It's not clear how many years the Browns played, but in 1915 the first recognized professional baseball team in Albuquerque took the field. The "Dukes" played in the Class-D Rio Grande Association against teams from Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso, and nearby Las Cruces. The Dukes finished in third place with a 32-25 record. They also had the league leader in home runs, as Frank Huelman hit 10 long balls.

Albuquerque didn't field a pro team again until 1932, when the Albuquerque Dons took first place in the Class-D Arizona-Texas League, compiling a 57-42 record. The Dons' Dick Gyselman led the league in batting average, runs, and hits. The league was disbanded in late July.

Professional baseball returned again to the Duke City in 1937, as Rio Grande Park, later renamed Tingley Field, was opened by the Albuquerque Cardinals. The Cardinals were an affiliate of the National League's St. Louis Cardinals. Cards' General Manager Branch Rickey called the new ballpark "one of the finest Minor League parks in America." The Cardinals finished the season that year at 56-59 to wind up in third place, but won the Arizona-Texas League Championship Series, defeating the El Paso Texans four games to three. The Cardinals continued playing in the Class-D League through 1941.

Albuquerque fielded another Dukes team in 1942, this time in the Class-D West Texas-New Mexico League, where the Dukes went 25-30 before withdrawing in June. With World War II taking place, baseball bats went silent from 1943-45. In 1946, play resumed for the West Texas-New Mexico League, now reclassified as a Class-C League, only to be reclassified again in 1955 to Class-B.

In 1956 the Dukes started play in the Class-A Western League as a New York Giants affiliate. The team switched in 1958 to a Cincinnati Reds farm team, but the Western League folded after the '58 season, leaving Albuquerque without a ball club for the first time in 14 seasons.

Baseball returned to Albuquerque in 1960 after a one year hiatus when the city accepted an offer from the Kansas City A's to field a team in the Class D Sophomore League called the Dukes. They played in this league for two years before Kansas City moved the team to the Double-A Texas League for the 1962 season. Kansas City dropped the club following that season.

In 1963, the Dukes and the Los Angeles Dodgers struck up a relationship that allowed the team to stay in the Texas League. The Dodgers purchased the team from then-owner Tom Bolack in 1964 for $20,000. In 1969, the Dukes moved from Tingley Field to the new Albuquerque Sports Stadium. The first game played there was an exhibition game between the San Francisco Giants and the Cleveland Indians. Willie Mays was the first batter to stand at the plate at the new ballpark.

The Dukes continued to play in the Texas League until the end of 1971. When the 1972 season began, the Dodgers had moved their Triple-A Spokane franchise to Albuquerque and the team started playing in the Pacific Coast League. With future Dodgers manager Tommy Lasorda at the helm, the team amassed a 92-56 record and won the PCL Championship, the first of eight PCL Championships the team would win over the next 28 years.

In March 2000, it was announced that Dukes owner Robert Lozinak, who had purchased the team from the Dodgers in 1979 for $340,000, was selling the franchise to Marshall Glickman and Mike Higgins from Portland, Ore. The estimated price of the sale was $10-12 million. The team was moved to Portland for the 2001 season, renamed the Beavers, leaving Albuquerque without a professional baseball team for the first time since 1959.

In January 2001, a group led by Tampa businessman Ken Young and Chicago-based entrepreneur Mike Koldyke, entered into a tentative agreement to purchase the Calgary Cannons with the intention of moving the team to Albuquerque. A major condition of moving the team was that either a new stadium be built or that Albuquerque Sports Stadium be renovated. In May 2001, city voters approved a $25 million renovation of the existing stadium. Young and Koldyke completed the purchase of the Cannons, moving them to Albuquerque for the 2003 season as the Isotopes.

After 22 years of ownership, Young sold the club to Diamond Baseball Holdings, an organization that owns and operates select Minor League Baseball clubs affiliated with Major League Baseball (MLB) in October 2023.

ISOTOPES PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE GENEALOGY

The Pacific Coast League added the Dallas-Fort Worth Rangers to the 10-team circuit in 1963, before the club changed their name to the Dallas Rangers in 1964. The franchise moved to Vancouver, British Columbia in 1965, playing as the Vancouver Mounties until 1969. Following the 1969 campaign, the Mounties relocated to Salt Lake City, Utah, where they were known as the Bees (1970), Angels (1971-74) and the Gulls (1975-84). The franchise moved north of the border once again in 1985, emerging as the Calgary Cannons. The franchise played in Calgary for 18 years before relocating in 2003 to their current home in Albuquerque and became the Isotopes.

*General Manager, Albuquerque Dukes (1972-74)
Pacific Coast League
General Manager, Albuquerque Dodgers (1969-71)
Texas League, Dixie Association*

Affable General Manager Charlie Blaney was primarily responsible for bringing Triple-A baseball to Albuquerque, convincing the Dodgers to move their top affiliate from Spokane, WA to the Duke City. Once here, Blaney held a contest to decide the team's name, Dukes or Dodgers, which was easily won by the Dukes. Presided over one of the greatest teams in Minor League Baseball history, the 1972 squad that was managed by Tommy Lasorda and won the PCL Championship. Named Double-A Executive of the Year in 1969 and Pacific Coast League Executive of the Year in 1974.

ALBUQUERQUE PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

Terry Collins - Inducted in 2014

Infielder, Albuquerque Dukes (1977-78, 1980, 1984)

Pacific Coast League

Manager, Albuquerque Dukes (1983-88)

Managed the 2nd most number of games (780) in the history of the Triple-A Albuquerque Dukes, earning a 388-392 cumulative record from 1983 through 1988. Led the Dukes to three post-season appearances (1983, 1987, 1988) in his five-year tenure at the helm of the Dodgers' Triple-A club. His 1987 club won the Pacific Coast League Championship with a 77-65 record. Won 163 games in his final two seasons as the Dukes' manager.

Charlie Manuel - Inducted in 2015

Outfielder, Albuquerque Dukes (1974-75)

Pacific Coast League

In his two years with the Dukes, Manuel combined for 221 hits and a .327 batting average in 210 games played. He also recorded 166 RBI and 122 runs scored during his time in Albuquerque. Manuel belted a career high 30 home runs in 1974, followed by a 16-homer season in 1975. His .601 slugging percentage in 1975 was tops in the Pacific Coast League. Manuel played six seasons at the Major League level, before going on to enjoy a 12-year managerial career that included a World Series title with the Philadelphia Phillies in 2008.

Paul Konerko - Inducted in 2016

Infielder, Albuquerque Dukes (1996-98)

Pacific Coast League

Konerko played in 158 games over parts of three seasons with the Dukes from 1996-98, compiling impressive totals of 44 home runs, 155 RBI, and a cumulative .334 batting average. The most prolific season in his Minor League career came in 1997, when he was named the PCL's MVP after hitting 37 home runs and knocking in 127 runs, the 3rd highest single season total in Albuquerque Professional Baseball history. Konerko is best known for his 16 seasons spent with the White Sox where he was a six time AL All-Star, captaining Chicago from 2006-14. He was a key contributor to their 2005 World Series Championship, earning ALCS MVP honors.

Stu Walker - Inducted in 2016

Public Address, Albuquerque Isotopes (2003-15)

Pacific Coast League

Walker was the voice of Isotopes Park from the franchise's Inaugural Season in 2003 until he passed away in 2015. His voice was synonymous with professional and amateur sports in the Land of Enchantment. Not only was Stu a fixture at nearly 700 Isotopes games, he announced UNM football, basketball, and soccer games for two decades and also was the voice for high school championship games for the New Mexico Activities Association. Despite his success in his seasonal job as public address announcer, Stu was most proud of the work he did with students at Manzano High School.

Ramon Martinez - Inducted in 2017

Pitcher, Albuquerque Dukes (1988-89)

Pacific Coast League

The eldest of the Martinez brothers, Ramon was also the first to pitch in Albuquerque, appearing for the Dukes during the 1988 and 1989 seasons. The 1989 season was a breakout year for Ramon, going 10-2 with a 2.79 ERA en route to being named a PCL Mid-Season and Post-Season All-Star. His 10.1 strikeouts per nine innings in 1989 are the best in Albuquerque Triple-A history among pitchers with at least 18 starts. 176 strikeouts in 28 games.

Pedro Martinez - Inducted in 2017

Pitcher, Albuquerque Dukes (1991-93)

Pacific Coast League

Martinez appeared in parts of three seasons with the Dukes, toeing the rubber in Albuquerque from 1991-93. After making his Triple-A debut in 1991, Pedro was named a PCL All-Star in 1992, leading the Dukes with 20 starts and 124 strikeouts that season. He started Opening Day for the Dukes in 1993, however, that was his last appearance in the Minor Leagues for the next 17 years. Pedro Martinez was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2015.

Jesus Martinez - Inducted in 2017

*Pitcher, Albuquerque Dukes (1995, 1993)
Pacific Coast League*

Jesus, the youngest of the Martinez brothers, played in Albuquerque for two non-consecutive seasons in 1995 and 1997. After appearing for the Dukes in two games in 1995, he spent the entire 1997 season in Albuquerque. His .875 winning percentage (7-1) was the highest among Dukes pitchers in 1997 and was good for 4th best in the PCL.

Dean Treanor - Inducted in 2018

*Manager, Albuquerque Isotopes (2003, 2005-08)
Pitching Coach, Albuquerque Dukes (2000)
Pacific Coast League*

Treanor is the all-time winningest manager in Isotopes history, leading the club to a 362-353 (.506) record during his five years at the helm (2003, 05-08). In 2003, the club's inaugural season, Treanor led the Isotopes to their first division title. His 715 games managed are the most in Isotopes history. A fixture in the community during his time in Albuquerque, the San Luis Obispo, Calif. native was named the Most Community-Minded Isotope in 2008. The Isotopes were not Treanor's first assignment in Albuquerque as he served as pitching coach of the 2000 division champion Albuquerque Dukes (86-58) which saw the pitching staff compile a 4.48 ERA.

Dave Stewart - Inducted in 2022

*Pitcher, Albuquerque Isotopes (1977, 1979-80)
Pacific Coast League*

One of the dominant starting pitchers in Dukes history, "Smoke" won 27 games in 2+ seasons, including a Pacific Coast League-leading 15 victories in 1980, the third-most in Dukes single season history. He compiled a 27-22 record with 16 complete games, 230 strikeouts and a 4.40 ERA in 60 games (56 starts) in his Albuquerque career. His 202.0 innings pitched in 1980 were the second-highest single season in franchise history, as he led the Dukes to the PCL championship that season. He went on to enjoy an illustrious 16-year Major League career with the Dodgers, Rangers, Phillies, Athletics and Blue Jays, winning 168 games and becoming a three-time World Series champion (LAD – 1981, OAK – 1989, TOR – 1993). Was named World Series Most Valuable Player in 1989 and twice was the MVP of the American League Championship Series (1990, 1993).

Ron Cey - Inducted in 2022

*Third Baseman, Albuquerque Dodgers (1969-70)
Texas League (Double-A)
Third Baseman, Albuquerque Isotopes (1972)
Pacific Coast League (Triple-A)*

A cornerstone of the longest-tenured infield in Major League history, he honed his skills as one of the most productive players to ever play in Albuquerque. He led the 1970 Dodgers with 22 doubles and ranked first on the 1972 Dukes in games played (142), hits (163), home runs (23), RBI (103) and walks (117). His .331 average in 1970 and .329 average in 1972 both ranked second on the respective clubs. "The Penguin" enjoyed a prolific 17-year Major League career with the Dodgers, Cubs and A's, belting 316 home runs with 1,139 RBI in 2,073 games. He was a six-time National League All-Star and was named co-Most Valuable Player of the 1981 World Series when the Dodgers defeated the New York Yankees in six games. (LAD – 1981, OAK – 1989, TOR – 1993). Was named World Series Most Valuable Player in 1989 and twice was the MVP of the American League Championship Series (1990, 1993).

Richard "Dick" Moots - Inducted in 2022

Graphic Designer

Designer of the iconic Albuquerque Dukes logo, which quickly became synonymous with one of the most successful Minor League Baseball Triple-A franchises in the country. The Dukes' friendly conquistador graphic remains an important part of Albuquerque culture and has been a symbol for the Duke City itself for generations. An award-winning artist, Mr. Moots also designed the Dukes mascot, uniform lettering and program covers, as well as the first official logo for the Albuquerque International Balloon Fiesta.

ALBUQUERQUE PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL HALL OF FAME

John Ely - Inducted in 2023

*Pitcher, Albuquerque Isotopes (2010-12)
Pacific Coast League*

John Ely played parts of three seasons with the Isotopes (2010-12) and is the franchise's career leader in victories (26), tied for the most innings pitched (381.0), complete games (4) and shutouts (2). His 320 career strikeouts as an Isotopes pitcher ranks second all-time and his 65 starts is third on the career ledger. His dominant 2012 season remains the best season ever by an Isotopes hurler. Ely registered just the third Triple Crown by a pitcher in Pacific Coast League history with his 14 wins, 3.20 ERA and 165 strikeouts. That year the right-hander earned mid-season and post-season PCL All-Star Team laurels and was named the Isotopes and Los Angeles Dodgers Minor League Pitcher of the Year as well as PCL Pitcher of the Year.

Gary Herron - Inducted in 2023

Official Scorer

Gary Herron began his tenure as an official Minor League Baseball scorekeeper with the Albuquerque Dukes in 1983 and has scored nearly 1,700 games, including 1,004 contests for the Dukes (1983-1999) and 650-plus games and counting for the Isotopes (2003-present). Additionally, he was the scorekeeper for both the 1993 and 2007 Triple-A All-Star Games held in Albuquerque. Herron, a local journalist, has also authored two books detailing the rich history of baseball in Albuquerque and throughout the state of New Mexico. His journalism career began at the Valencia County News-Bulletin in 1979 and he has served as the Sports Editor for the Rio Rancho Observer since 2000. The Albuquerque native spent time in the KOB-TV newsroom and has over a decade of radio experience.

Mike Scioscia - Inducted in 2024

*Catcher, Albuquerque Dukes (1979-80)
Manager, Albuquerque Dukes (1999)
Pacific Coast League*

Mike Scioscia, a 1st round selection (19th overall) in 1976 by the Los Angeles Dodgers, played parts of two years with the Albuquerque Dukes from 1979-80. Over 195 games with Albuquerque, he tallied a .334 batting average, 45 doubles, 208 hits and 101 RBI. His 143 games played in 1979 for the Dukes is tied for second-most in a single season in Albuquerque Triple-A history. After his promotion to Los Angeles in 1980, Scioscia spent 13 years with the Dodgers (1980-92), winning the World Series in 1981 and 1988. A two-time All-Star in 1989 and 1990, Scioscia registered a .259 career batting average with 1,131 hits. As a manager, Scioscia guided the Dukes in 1999 (65-74) before spending 19 years (2000-18) as manager for the Anaheim/Los Angeles Angels.

Email: fstulting@abqisotopes.com

Only Isotopes, MLB, and Colorado Rockies-issued working media credentials will be recognized. Credentials are non-transferable and can be picked up with a valid photo ID at the Will Call window at Isotopes Park. Credentials must be worn and visible at all times.

ACCESS TO CLUBHOUSE

The Isotopes and Visitors clubhouses are closed to the media.

ACCESS TO FIELD AND DUGOUTS

The field and dugouts must be cleared 30 minutes prior to each game. Access is limited to credentialed media and Isotopes staff only. No media will be allowed in fair territory or beyond the first and third base lines.

ACCESS TO STADIUM

All credentialed media must enter the stadium through McKernan Hall, located behind home plate.

AUTOGRAPH POLICY

Under no circumstances are any credentialed media members permitted to seek autographs, personal photographs, baseballs, bats, etc. on the field of play. Violation of this policy will result in the dismissal of the media member from Isotopes Park and confiscation of the violator's media credentials.

DRESS CODE

The media should dress in an appropriate and professional manner proper for a business casual work environment when in dugouts, press box, and on the field.

INTERVIEWS

All interviews should be arranged with Isotopes Public Relations Department. The field staff and players are usually available before and after batting practice, as well as after each game. All pre-game interviews must be completed 60 minutes prior to game time. No one is permitted to interview starting pitchers pre-game on the day of their start.

MEDIA GUIDES

MEDIA NOTES

Pre-game notes and statistics will be available in the press box. Box scores will be available immediately following the game. Anyone needing more information should contact the Isotopes Public Relations Department.

PARKING

Press passes are not to be used as parking passes. Parking passes will be issued on an individual basis, subject to Isotopes approval.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Still photographers may work from either stationary locations adjacent to both dugouts, on the main concourse or from the working press box. Television cameras are also permitted to film in both areas, provided permission has been granted from the Isotopes. All photographers must have credentials showing at all times.

PRESS BOX

The press box is open to all credentialed working members of the media. It is located behind home plate on the fourth level of Isotopes Park, accessible from the center elevator and staircase. The press box phone number is: (505) 222-4093.

Audio of all 150 Isotopes games are streamed live on www.abqisotopes.com. Isotopes games can once again be heard live on Sports Radio 610 KNML as well as on 95.9 FM.

Carrying Isotopes games since the team's inception in 2003, KNML previously served as the flagship station for the Albuquerque Dukes during the 1997 and 1999 seasons. Sports Radio 610 KNML carries national programming such as the Jim Rome Show and Infinity Sports Network as well as all-local fare with the Opening Drive, hosted by J.J. Buck and Jeff Siembieda, in the morning and Two Men On in the afternoon, hosted by Van Nunley and Fred Slow, two sports talk shows dedicated to local sports. The Cumulus Radio Group, which owns KNML and seven other stations, has been the radio home of Albuquerque Baseball since 1982.

Isotopes broadcasts will start 20 minutes before game time with the Isotopes pre-game show. Before weekday night games, Josh Suchon will do a cross talk with Fred Slow and Van Nunley from Two Men On to discuss topics involving the Isotopes, Rockies, and Major League Baseball.

THE VOICE OF THE ISOTOPES, JOSH SUCHON

Josh Suchon became the third lead radio play-by-play announcer in Albuquerque Isotopes' history when he took over in March 2013. He brings extensive baseball experience and a unique multi-media background to the Isotopes radio booth.

Suchon was the co-host of "Post Game Dodger Talk" on 790 KABC in Los Angeles and the reporter on the Dodgers Radio Network from 2008-11. Suchon and co-host Ken Levine were named the second best local sports talk show by the LA Daily News in 2008 and the third best in 2009 and 2010. Suchon also broadcasted Dodgers spring training games on radio and TV in those years as well.

His career began as a newspaper reporter at The Oakland Tribune, where he worked from 1997-2007, including the final seven years as a traveling Major League Baseball writer who covered the Oakland Athletics (2004-06) and San Francisco Giants (2000-2003).

Suchon switched from writing to broadcasting in 2007. His first stop was the play-by-play announcer for the Modesto Nuts in the High-A California League for AM 970 ESPN Radio. He also did morning sports updates, the high school football game of the week, and co-hosted an afternoon show, "JJ, Josh and the Mouth."

When the Rockies played an exhibition game at Isotopes Park in 2019, Suchon was the play-by-play announcer, along with analyst Ryan Spilborghs, on AT&T Sports Rocky Mountain. His play-by-play credits include Dodgers spring training games, UNM Lobos women's basketball, college and high school sports on ESPNU and ESPN3; and men's basketball on Mountain West Digital and WCC Digital.

Suchon is the author of three books: "This Gracious Season: Barry Bonds & The Greatest Year in Baseball" about Bonds' record-breaking, 73-homer season in 2001; "Miracle Men: Hershiser, Gibson and the Improbable 1988 Dodgers" published in 2013; and "Murder in Pleasanton: Tina Faelz and the Search for Justice," a true-crime book where he revisits his childhood home to uncover the story of a disturbing crime.

Suchon studied Radio-TV journalism at San Diego State University, working at campus newspaper The Daily Aztec and campus radio station KCR. Suchon interned at ESPN in the Summer of 1995 in Bristol, CT. When he remembers to record episodes of his podcast, "Life Around The Seams" explores unique baseball stories from on and off the field.

Josh is available to speak to civic, business, and other community groups. Please contact our Community Relations Department via e-mail to book him for your upcoming event.

Video of all 150 Isotopes games are streamed live for free via the Bally Live app. Fans only have to provide a phone number to watch, no account creation is required.

Isotopes games are also streamed live at www.abqisotopes.com via a monthly or yearly subscription to MLB At Bat, which also allows you to watch every out-of-market MLB game, or MiLB.TV. Fans can watch live or on-demand via MLB.TV, MiLB.TV, MiLB.com and the First Pitch app.

Windfire Productions – a video production, engineering and consulting company – has produced all Isotopes games since the inaugural season in 2003. The company was founded by Gary Williams and is now co-owned by Gary and his son, Stephen Williams.
