Charleston RiverDogs (16-21) at Columbia Fireflies (19-17)

LHP Chris Villaman (1-0, 0.00) vs. LHP Hunter Patteson (2-2, 2.84)

Today's Game: The Charleston RiverDogs (affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays) head to the state capital of South Carolina for the first time this season to meet the Columbia Fireflies (affiliate of the Kansas City Royals). The Fireflies won three of five games in the team's first meeting in Charleston. Tonight is the rubber match in this seven-game series. RiverDogs-Fireflies Season Series in 2024: Overall: Fireflies 6, RiverDogs 5. At Segra Park: RiverDogs 3, Fireflies 3.

Last Time Out: The Charleston RiverDogs blew a 6-0 lead late in Saturday's game but rebounded to secure a 9-6 win that evened the series. The scoring opened with one of the RiverDogs most explosive innings of the season in the second. Blake Robertson opened the inning with a single and was joined on base by Woo Shin, who walked. Noah Myers put the first run on the board by rolling a double past the second baseman and into center field. Odalys Peguero made it 2-0 with an RBI infield single in the hole at short. A wild pitch added to the lead and Narciso Polanco put an exclamation mark on the frame with an RBI double. Robertson's first home run of the season, a two-run shot in the top of the fifth, increased the advantage to 6-0. Austin Charles homered for the third time in the last two games to put the Fireflies on the board against Drew Dowd in the home fifth. That was all Columbia would get against the starter, but when the bullpen took over in the seventh, the game changed. Will Stevens walked the leadoff hitter in the seventh and then hit Charles with a pitch. A throwing error, four straight singles and an RBI groundout tied the game. The RiverDogs regained the lead on Adrian Santana's two-RBI double in the top of the ninth and added to the advantage with a Robertson sacrifice fly. Jhonalbert Rumbol closed out the win with a scoreless bottom half of the inning.

Worth the Wait: The RiverDogs bullpen currently features two relievers who have not been scored upon at the outset of their professional careers. Chris Villaman was injured after being selected in the 2022 MLB Draft and has tossed 7.0 scoreless innings in his first three outings in Charleston. Tonight, he makes his first start. Jhonalbert Rumbol was signed as a 24-year-old out of Venezuela, not long after working in a warehouse. He earned the win on Saturday and has tossed 7.1 scoreless innings to start his career.

King of Thieves: The RiverDogs have been one of the most prolific base stealing teams in Minor League Baseball this season. The team's total of 98 stolen bases is atop the Carolina League and second in MiLB as a whole, 12 behind the Aberdeen Ironbirds. 13 different players have stolen a base this season and seven of them have nabbed eight or more. The Dogs have stolen eight bases in two different contests and seven in another. Noah Myers leads the team and is sixth in the league with 14.

Scary (Good) Gary: 19-year-old Gary Gill Hill has been a pleasant surprise on the mound for the RiverDogs early this season. Following his eight-strikeout performance over 6.0 innings on Tuesday, Gill Hill lowered his ERA to 2.70 through six starts. Opponents are hitting .214 against him and he has struck out 34 in 30.0 innings of work. The upstate New York native briefly appeared with the RiverDogs at the end of the 2023 season before an injury ended his year early.

King of the Hill: RiverDogs starting pitcher Chandler Murphy was honored as Carolina League Pitcher of the Week for May 7-12. In two outings against Fredericksburg, he allowed just one run on one hit over 7.0 innings. Murphy retired 21 of the 23 batters he faced in the series. For the season, the right-hander from the University of Missouri is 1-0 with a 1.31 earned run average.

Prized Pups: The RiverDogs opening night roster contains four members of MLB Pipeline's Top 30 Rays prospects list entering the 2024 season. The highest-rated is 18-year-old shortstop Adrian Santana who slots in at #6. Sitting at #9, pitcher Santiago Suarez returns to the Holy City after making his full-season debut with the RiverDogs late last season. Finally, former LSU standout Tre' Morgan (#14) figures to be a regular at the top of the lineup after a brief appearance with the Dogs following the 2023 draft. Finally, pitcher Andrew Lindsey rounds out the list at #29.

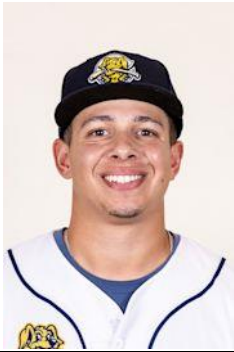

Running it Back: Nine players who played a part in last year's championship run are currently on the team's roster. The pitching staff features returnees Gary Gill Hill, Samuel Mejia and Santiago Suarez. Catchers Bryan Broecker and Raudelis Martinez are on the Opening Night roster after suiting up in the Holy City for the second half last season. Two infielders (Carlos Colmenarez and Odalys Peguero) and two outfielders (Christopher Barete and Angel Mateo) are also back to defend the Carolina League title.

RIVERDOGS FIELD STAFF

Manager: Sean Smedley

Smedley's coaching career began when he was the video coordinator for the rookie-level Princeton Rays in 2016. In 2017, he returned to Princeton, this time as the bench coach. For the next two seasons, Smedley was part of Blake Butera's staff as the bench coach for the Hudson Valley Renegades. The native of Colorado was announced as the manager in Princeton for the 2020 season, but COVID-19 canceled the season and, when play resumed, he joined Butera in Charleston. During his playing days as a catcher, Smedley was a prep standout at Desert Vista High School in Phoenix, Arizona. He played one year of junior college ball at Yavapai College before transferring to Division II Texas A&M International. He went undrafted at the end of his college career but was signed as a free agent by the Rays shortly after the draft's conclusion. In three professional seasons, he appeared in 24 games total between the Gulf Coast League Rays and Single-A Bowling Green. This is Smedley's second season managing the RiverDogs.

Pitching Coach: Levi Romero

Romero returns for a second year as the RiverDogs pitching coach after serving in the same role with the FCL Rays in 2021. Romero was the pitching coach for one of the Rays two entries in the Dominican Summer League in 2021. His professional career began in 2003 when he was signed out of Venezuela by the Houston Astros. In all, he pitched for five years in Minor League Baseball with the Astros and Texas Rangers before embarking on a seven-year international career that included stops in Venezuela and Japan and ended in 2015.

Hitting Coach: Brett Schneider

Schneider heads to the Lowcountry as the RiverDogs hitting coach in his first year as a member of the Rays organization. He spent the previous four years as a hitting coach in the Seattle Mariners farm system, including with the Arizona Complex League Mariners in 2023. His roster in the ACL finished with the most home runs in the 17-team circuit and hit a combined .263. Prior to coaching in the professional ranks, Schneider was a volunteer assistant coach at Florida Atlantic University. He also served as hitting coach for the Green Bay Bullfrogs of the Northwoods League in 2016 and managed the Great Lakes Collegiate League's Richmond Jazz in 2017.

Coach: Ronnie Richardson

Richardson is embarking on his fourth season with the Rays, and second with Charleston, following two years in the Florida Complex League. Richardson previously coached in the Miami Marlins organization, with Hillsborough Community College and in the Northwoods League with the Madison Mallards and Wisconsin Woodchucks. He was selected out of Central Florida University in the 16th round of the 2012 MLB Draft by the San Diego Padres. He played three seasons in their farm system, posting a .262 career batting average.

Athletic Trainer: Halee Williams

Williams begins her fifth year with the Rays and second with the RiverDogs. She served in the same role with the Florida Complex League Rays in 2022. Williams graduated with her bachelor's degree in athletic training from Indiana Wesleyan University. While in school, she interned with the Arizona Diamondbacks and, after graduating, spent a season with the Oakland Athletics. She began working with the Rays in 2019 while completing her Global master's degree in Sports Management and Legal Skills through Instituto Superior de Derecho y Economía and FC Barcelona in 2020. This winter, Williams worked for the Bravos de Margarita of the Venezuelan Professional Baseball League.

Strength Coach: Gio Caraballo

This will be Caraballo's first season as the RiverDogs Strength & Conditioning coach after a brief stint working in Charleston last summer. Caraballo was hired by the Rays in late 2022 and spent last season in the same role with the Florida Complex League Rays at their facility in Sarasota. A New Jersey native, Caraballo began his career with the Houston Astros after graduating from Montclair State University with a Bachelor of Science with a major in Physical Education.
