LAST GAME

The Bowie Baysox walloped the Akron RubberDucks on Tuesday night at Prince George's Stadium, knocking around the Southwest Division foe, 20-6. Bowie cracked four home runs, including three consecutive homers in the eighth inning. Most of the excelling offense came in the first inning and the eighth inning, as Bowie plated eight runs in both frames. The 20 runs scored is the most by one team in a single game in all of baseball so far this season, majors or minors. Bowie scored 18 of their runs with two outs, including all eight runs in the first inning. Maverick Handley launched his first home run of the year, a two-run shot in the first, and Bowie got back-to-back-to-back shots in the eighth from Hudson Haskin, Shayne Fontana, and Dylan Harris. Haskin's home run was a grand slam.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Akron has relied heavily on their pitching staff to bounce back from their own 2-3 start to open this series with a 5-4 record. Ending their homestand with a doubleheader against Reading, Akron allowed only one run in the 14 innings to sweep the twin bill. Entering this series, Akron's 3.17 ERA as a staff is the third-best in the Eastern League, and their 109 strikeouts lead the league. Offensively, Akron sits in the bottom half of the league in multiple categories, including only three home runs and 86 total bases, fewer than ten per game.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Left-handed pitcher Joey Cantillo enters his second season in the Cleveland organization and has dealt throughout the minor leagues. Acquired on August 31st, 2020, in a nine-player trade with the Padres, Cantillo pitched to a 2.77 ERA in both Rookie and Double-A baseball last season. In his season opener against Reading, Cantillo went five innings of three-hit ball, allowing one earned run while striking out seven Fightin' Phils. Cantillo has not had an ERA higher than 2.77 in a season since 2017. He pitched nine quality starts for Class-A Fort Wayne in 2019, resulting in a 1.93 ERA, 0.87 WHIP, and striking out 128 batters.

BURNING RUBBER TO LEAD THE PACK

The 20 runs by Bowie in their win last night set the early high-water mark in baseball for runs in a game by a single team, majors or minors. The 20 runs scored by Bowie is the most since they also scored 20 in a 20-7 win against Hartford at Prince George's Stadium on July 21 last season. Prior to that, the previous high-mark came when Bowie scored 21 runs against Akron back in 2017. Bowie's win last night featured 26 runs, 11 different pitchers, and 383 total pitches thrown. The onslaught added nearly two runs to Akron's team ERA, knocking it from a 3.17 (3rd in the EL) to an even 5.00 (8th in the EL).

THE UPPER HALL

After batting sixth on Opening Day and taking the second game of the season off, Bowie outfielder Adam Hall has settled in to the leadoff role nicely for the Baysox. Among batters with at least ten plate appearances at the start of an inning in the Eastern League this season, Hall's .385 batting average is the second-highest, as well as his .625 BABIP. A slightly advanced statistic, BABIP calculates the batting average on balls only hit into the field of play, which excludes home runs and strikeouts. Hall is ranked as the Orioles #28 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #27 according to Baseball America. Also listed as the fastest baserunner in the organization by Baseball America.

HASKIN LEADS THE CHARGE

After missing three games from a hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13, Hudson Haskin returned last night to go 3-for-5 at the plate with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, first career grand slam, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. Haskin is ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. He was named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season, but did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August.

BACKED TO THE WALL

Bowie has not been afraid to make some noise when down to their final out. Thanks to an astonishing 18 runs scored with two outs in last night's win, the Baysox have vaulted to the lead in many batting categories with two outs. The Baysox 31 runs driven in is more than any team outside of Triple-A (which has played four more games) and more than any Major League team. The contact has not been as clear-cut, as the Baysox .397 OBP with two outs is only good for 10th in the minors. Bowie only managed a .308 OBP with two outs in 2021, among the bottom half in the League.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Garrett Stallings was a member of the Jose Iglesias trade to Angels in 2020. See Page 2 for more.

GROUND BALL HALL - Among qualified hitters in the Eastern League, Adam Hall has the highest rate of GB/FB, hitting 7x as many ground balls.

WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN - After a one-year pause, Minor League Baseball has reinstated the well-known league names across the country, putting Bowie back in the Eastern League

NEW RULES FOR ALL - In 2022, Double-A features larger bases (15 in. > 18 in.), new limits on pick off attempts (Two step-offs per PA), and a faster pitch clock

Career Notes

- Spent his time following the 2020 draft at the Angels alternate site at Long Beach State before being dealt to Baltimore the same December
- Orioles EVP/GM Mike Elias had targeted Stallings in the 2020 draft, but was taken earlier by the Angels.
- Threw two complete game shutouts in his junior season at Tennessee. He earned two SEC Pitcher of the Week awards, and was also named to the 2019 SEC All-Defensive team

What They're Saying:

Baseball America (2021): "Stallings is a polished righthander who mixes his pitches, limits his walks and lasts deep into his starts. His fastball sits 90-92 mph and his short, sharp mid-80s slider is his best secondary offering. Stallings mixes in an average low-80s changeup he commands well and a big, upper-70s curveball he is trying to throw for more strikes early in the count. He has a smooth, up-tempo delivery that is easy to repeat and allows him to command and sequence his four-pitch repertoire effectively. Stallings has a chance to move fast because of his command, advanced feel for pitching and business-like approach. His lack of a plus pitch limits his ceiling to a back-of-the-rotation starter."

Baysox Pitching Coach Josh Conway - Working with Stallings at Aberdeen in 2021: "He's a gamer. As far as the stuff goes, he's not going to blow up the radar gun, but he knows how to use what he's got....He's always in the zone.....a very efficient guy pounding the zone, coming right after you and basically daring you to hit him, which is nice. And he takes his strikeouts as needed. He found himself in a ton of 0-2, 1-2 counts this year, just being ahead of hitters, attacking guys in four pitches or less. Really had that mentality of, 'I'm just going to go right after you.' It was intriguing to see. He did a great job."

Notes by Outing^

4/13 @ BNG Allowed three baserunners in the first inning, but no runs across thanks to a double play. Struck out two batters in a perfect second inning, but allowed two runs across in the third on consecutive two-out doubles. Followed with a perfect fourth on a pop out and two ground outs. Bowie had an early three-run home run, Binghamton would tie the game, and Bowie would sneak a run across in the seventh to win.

Second pitch thrown in his Double-A career was served to left field for a solo home run by Binghamton's Ronny Mauricio. Loeplich would go on to allow a career-high three home runs to the Rumble Ponies in a 9-4 Bowie loss on 4/12. // In 2021, made 11 appearances for High-A Aberdeen, and three for Rookie-Level Orioles Black. // Made six appearances (four starts) with the Mesa Solar Sox in the Arizona Fall League in 2021. 2-1 / 8.38 ERA / 15 K / 18 BB / 19.1 IP // Traded to Baltimore on September 20, 2020 from Pittsburgh in exchange for cash and International bonus pool capacity. // Initially drafted in the 20th round of the 2018 draft by Pittsburgh out of Saint Mary's College of California // Torn meniscus in his left knee kept him from making his start in 2021 until late June // Only a part-time starter at Saint Mary's, made 11 starts in 38 career appearances // After initially being drafted as a reliever for the Pirates, began the transition into more starting roles in May 2019. Made 33 appearances out of the bullpen before making his first career start // Return to High-A after recovering from his torn meniscus was tough, allowed 17 earned runs over eight innings, including five home runs. Allowed only 18 earned runs over his following 38 innings to complete the season.

Took a blown save, but earned the Baysox first win of the season in their third game, thanks in part to a six-run seventh inning for Bowie. // In 2021, appeared in eight games for Bowie, and 22 games for Aberdeen. // His 30 appearances in 2021 were the seventh-most in the Orioles organization. // Prime numbers came after his promotion to Bowie, as he only allowed runs in one of his eight outings, and collected 12 strikeouts against no walks over his last six appearances. // Spent his freshman year at Wake Forest in the bullpen, but transitioned to a starting role for his sophomore and junior seasons before being drafted.

Player Notes

Made his Double-A debut against Akron on 4/19, and went 3-for-4 at the plate, including an RBI double in his first plate appearance, and a solo home run in his last PA in the eighth inning. Scored a career-high four runs and tied a career-high with three hits. Bowie won 20-6. // Added to the Bowie Roster from the FCL Orioles on April 16 to replace Toby Welk, who had colided with the left field wall while making the final out of Bowie's win over Binghamton the previous day. // In 2021, appeared in 49 game for Aberdeen, and 29 games for Delmarva. // Hit exactly .224 at both stops in 2021. // Played at least 15 games at all three outfield positions in 2021. // Was the starting center fielder for the Tar Heels in his two seasons at UNC.

Player Notes

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Ranked as the Orioles #3 prospect and Minor League Baseball's #64 overall prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline. Listed as #4 for the Orioles and #57 in MiLB by Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at third base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // 105 games in 2021 was tied for tenth-most in the Orioles system, 28 doubles was good for the second-most behind Robert Neustrom's 31, 17 home runs was sixth-most, and 74 RBI was fifth-most. // Appeared in all three games of the Double-A Northeast Championship Series against Akron, going 3-for-10 overall with a solo home run in game two. // Originally committed to Auburn, but signed for an above-slot $2.3M to join Baltimore. // In 2021, played 62 games at shortstop, and 35 games at third base. // Was named the Low-A East Offensive Player of the month in May 2021, when he hit .313 in 20 games with six home runs. // Started only 1-for-31 at High-A Aberdeen, but followed with a .325 mark over his next 20 games. // Orioles Director of Player Development Matt Wood: "It was a great experience for him to have to navigate those struggles and once he came out of them, he took off. He's got well-above-average power. He's just really young and just learning how to play."

Player Notes

Tough Luck: Was the only player not to reach base for Bowie in their 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, going 0-for-6 at the plate, tying a career-high three strikeouts, including a strikeout looking by Jonathan Englemann, Akron's outfielder. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at first base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Was promoted to Bowie, but missed the final month of 2021 due to a fractured thumb in mid-August, and did not appear in a game for the Baysox. // .536 SLG in 2021 was the best in the Orioles system among players with at least 300 PA. // Played 52 games in Aberdeen, 20 in Delmarva. Earned his promotion after hitting .324 with four home runs in the 20 games. // Spent first two seasons in college at Virginia Tech, but transferred to Radford for his final two seasons after a coaching change.

Ranked as the Orioles #15 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #16 according to Baseball America. // Only played 35 games in 2021 due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder in late June that required surgery. // Played 16 games with Bowie, 19 with Aberdeen. // Focused on building muscle during the lost 2020 season. Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical...this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #33 prospect entering the 2022 season according to Baseball America. Also listed as the best defensive outfielder in the organization. // 21 home runs in 2021 ranked fourth in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers, Adley Rutschman, and Patrick Dorrian. Despite the high home run number, his .768 OPS was only good for 39th in the organization. // When combined with his 24 stolen bases, Watson was the only player in the system with a 20-20 season in 2021, and the first since DJ Stewart in 2017. // First selected by Boston in the 40th round of the 2018 draft, but elected not to sign. // Played 49 games in Bowie, 56 in Aberdeen. In 2019, played 16 games in Delmarva, 20 in Aberdeen.

Player Notes

Collected two doubles in the first inning of Bowie's 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, also drew a career-high three walks during the 6 PA day. // Hit the Baysox first home run of the season in the second game of the year, a game-tying solo home run in the eighth inning against Richmond. Richmond scored seven runs in the following half inning. // Followed with a home run on the third day of the season, the third time in his career that he'd homered on consecutive days. He had homered on three consecutive days with High-A Aberdeen, and homered on consecutive days with Bowie against Somerset on 9/2 and 9/3/21. // Ranked as the Orioles #6 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline and Baseball America. Also listed as the best athlete and the best defensive infielder in the organization by Baseball America. // Played at least 20 games at Low-A, High-A, and Double-A in 2021, primarily with High-A Aberdeen, where he hit .286 with eight home runs in 62 games. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at shortstop by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Finished second in the system with a .380 OBP and 74 runs scored, while his 79 RBIs, 121 hits, 27 doubles and five triples ranked third and his .479 slugging percentage and .868 OPS ranked fourth. // Highest drafted shortstop in the history of Mississippi State, and the 17th player to be drafted in the first round. // Along with Justin Foscue (14th overall pick, Texas), became the second set of teammates chosen in the first round in program history, joining Will Clark and Rafael Palmeiro from the 1985 MLB Draft.

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their daughter Madilyn reside in Sarasota, FL.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
