LAST TIME OUT: Right-handed pitcher Coleman Crow fired 7.2 innings of shutout ball as Rocket City blanked Birmingham 4-0 Sunday evening at Regions Field. Crow allowed only four hits, walked one and struck out six to give the Trash Pandas their fifth win in six games over the Barons. Rocket City scored in the first on an RBI single from Orlando Martinez before a throwing error by Barons catcher Xavier Fernandez on a steal attempt of second from Torii Hunter Jr. in the second allowed Anthony Mulrine to score from third and give the Trash Pandas a 2-0 lead. The visitors added to their lead in the seventh on another RBI single from Martinez before the Rocket City rightfielder ripped his first homer as a Trash Panda in 2021. It was a solo-shot to right-center in the ninth to make the final 4-0. Martinez finished 3-5 with a homer, two singles and three RBI. Shortstop Jose Gomez chipped in with two more singles to aid Rocket City's cause.

LEAGUE EATS CROW: For his performance on 5/22, the Southern League tapped RHP Coleman Crow as its Pitcher of the Week after firing 7.2 shutout innings against the Barons. It was Crow's longest professional outing after firing six innings several times at High-A Tri-City last year. It was the fourth time this season the League recognized a Trash Panda for its weekly awards. Pitchers Brett Kerry and Chase Silseth won Pitcher of the Week Awards over consecutive weeks in April (weeks of 4/11 and 4/18), while outfielder Trey Cabbage won the Player of the Week Award for 4/11 as well. Cabbage also won the Southern League's Player of the Month Award for his work in the month of April.

ARMS RACE: At the 2021 MLB Draft, the Angels used all 20 of their selections on pitchers. Seven of those pitchers are currently with the Trash Pandas, led by first round pick and Angels No. 1 prospect Sam Bachman. Joining him in the rotation are second round selection Ky Bush, fifth round selection Brett Kerry, and newly promoted ninth round pick Braden Olthoff. In the bullpen are fourth round pick Luke Murphy, eighth-round selection Nick Jones, and 14th-rounder Eric Torres. Eleventh round selection Chase Silseth began the season in Rocket City before being promoted to the Angels for his MLB debut on 5/13 and 17th round pick Mason Erla made one start for Rocket City in April before being placed on the Injured List.

ON THE RUN: Rocket City has been off like a rocket on the basepaths, stealing 52 bases in only 39 games. In Birmingham, they collected eight stolen bases in 10 attempts over the first three games of the season, including the first eight attempts. The Trash Pandas have collected 11 more during the Pensacola series. They swiped five bags on 4/12 in the home opener. Outfielder Aaron Whitefield was especially lethal going 6-7 for the series and 13-15 for the year. His 13 stolen bases were tied for first in the Southern League before his promotion to Los Angeles. To show how aggressive they have been the Trash Pandas lead AA in most times caught stealing with 19.

GETTING RATIOED: The Trash Pandas have developed the best strikeouts to walk ratio in the League at 3.6:1 after taking the league lead in strikeout at 396, while issuing the fewest number of walks at 118. The numbers are consistent with last season when the Trash Pandas finished second in the Southern League in strikeouts with 1112, and finished third in walks allowed at 382.

TONIGHT'S STARTING PITCHER: RHP Brett Kerry will take the mound for Rocket City after an up-and-down outing against the Barons on 5/17. In that game he received a no-decision after retiring 15 of the first 18 men he faced before allowing two homers in the sixth, squandering a 4-0 lead, and departing down 5-4. He allowed four homers in the game on seven hits and allowed five ER but struck out six in 5.1 innings. On 5/3 against Chattanooga, Kerry tossed seven shutout innings and struck out six on only three hits in the 5-0 win. He was named the Southern League's Pitcher of the Week for 4/11-4/17. On 4/14, he struck out 12 Blue Wahoos in only five innings of work. This came only five days after he tossed five scoreless innings and struck out eight on no walks in the 4/8 season-opening win over Birmingham. Though he did not figure in the decision of either game, Kerry has been dominant. His first six outs against Birmingham came by way of strikeout. Against Pensacola, 12 out of 17 at-bats ended in a strikeout. He finally got his first decision as a Trash Panda with a win on 5/3 when he tossed seven shutout innings against Chattanooga on two hits. He has K'd 42 in only 29 innings of work while compiling a 2.48 ERA. Those 42 Ks are third in the Southern League. The right-hander from Clemmons, NC was drafted by the Angels in the 5th round of the 2021 draft out of South Carolina.

WHAT IS A TRASH PANDA?

The name was chosen in a name-the-team contest and is a reference to the area's association with the space industry and the determination and ingenuity of raccoons, aka trash pandas.

Trash Pandas, slang for raccoon, was included in the original 10 nominations following several Brandiose-led focus groups in Madison and Huntsville. The ballot descriptor read: Our community is known for engineering, and no creature in our galaxy is as smart, creative, determined and ingenious a problem solver - dedicated to the challenge at hand - as our local raccoons!

In July 2018, after the results from several focus groups in Madison and Huntsville, 10 names were selected, based on their uniqueness and how each name relates to the characteristics of the area: (Alphabetically) Army Ants, Comet Jockeys, GloWorms, Lunartics, Moon Possums, Puffy Head Bird Legs, Space Chimps, Space Sloths, ThunderSharks and Trash Pandas. The focus groups were led by San Diego-based Brandiose, the Minor League Baseball industry's premiere branding partner.

Over the next few weeks, two rounds of online voting took place. The first round narrowed the list to Comet Jockeys, Moon Possums, Space Chimps, ThunderSharks and Trash Pandas.

Trash Pandas won the final round with 44.75 percent of the vote to ThunderSharks 19.25 percent. Moon Possums was third (12.57 percent); Space Chimps fourth (12.05 percent); and Comet Jockeys fifth (11.38 percent).

By the way, Trash Pandas dominated both rounds.

More than 28,500 nominations and votes were recorded. According to Brandiose, this represented - by far - the largest community participation in a Name the Team contest in the history of Minor League Baseball.

The team name was announced in a local microbrewery in September 2018 with nearly 1,500 fans on hand. Trash Pandas was nominated by Matthew Higley of Lacey's Spring, Ala. He received two box seats for the first five seasons and will throw out the ceremonial first pitch at a Trash Pandas home game.

The regional identifier was also chosen by the community. Out of 13,559 votes cast, 67.4 percent chose Rocket City over North Alabama (18.09 percent) and Madison (14.51 percent).

NEW MiLB RULES FOR 2022

Press Release From Major League Baseball - March 14, 2022

Major League Baseball announced a variety of experimental playing rules that have been approved by the Competition Committee and the Playing Rules Committee for use during the 2022 Minor League season. Consistent with the preferences of fans, these rules are designed to improve the pace of play, create more action on the field, and reduce player injuries.

Many experimental rules were first tested on a limited basis in 2021. The use of the most promising rules has been expanded to additional levels of play, providing more players and fans with exposure to the rules and allowing the Competition Committee to better evaluate the impact of each on game play. Below is a summary of the experimental rules that will be tested during the 2022 Minor League season:

PITCH TIMER: On-field timers will be used at all full-season affiliates to enforce regulations designed to create a crisp pace of play, with batters required to be ready to hit and pitchers required to deliver the pitch within allotted periods of time. With runners on base, pitchers will have additional allotted time for each pitch but will risk automatic baserunner advancement if a third pick-off attempt or step-off within the same plate appearance is made without recording an out. These rules were used in tandem in the Low-A West and in the Arizona Fall League in 2021 and led to a significant improvement in pace of play and a reduction in average game time of more than 20 minutes.

LARGER BASES: The size of first, second and third base will be increased from 15 inches square to 18 inches square at all full-season affiliates to reduce player injuries. Bigger bases were used in 2021 at the Triple-A level and in the Arizona Fall League, and were associated with a decrease in the severity of base-related injuries. In addition, the reduction in distance between bases led to a modest increase in the rate of successful stolen base attempts.

DEFENSIVE POSITIONING: In Double-A, High-A and Low-A, the defensive team must have a minimum of four players on the infield, with at least two infielders completely on either side of second base. These restrictions on defensive positioning are intended to allow infielders to better showcase their athleticism, to increase batting average on balls in play, and to restore a more traditional set of aesthetics and outcomes on batted balls.

2022 GAME-BY-GAME RESULTS (ROCKET CITY)

TRASH TALK

THE KERRY FILE: RHP Brett Kerry gets the ball for the eighth time in 2022 in his 13th professional appearance (all starts) and his ninth Double-A start as Rocket City opens a six-game series against Tennessee. Last Tuesday, he gave up a season-high five runs on four homers at Birmingham before Rocket City rallied late for a 6-5 win. Previously, he didn't factor in the decision after throwing four innings as Rocket City eventually fell 4-2 at Pensacola on 5/10. Before that, Kerry earned his first professional win with a career-high seven shutout innings in a 5-0 Trash Pandas win over Chattanooga. On 4/26 against Birmingham, Kerry uncharacteristically struggled in the second inning, issuing two walks and giving up two runs before being pulled after just the two innings as the Trash Pandas eventually won 6-4. On 4/20, he left in line for a win after allowing four runs in six innings at Tennessee, but the Rocket City bullpen couldn't hold a 7-4 lead. In his first start following his 23rd birthday on 4/12, Kerry had a career night, recording 11 strikeouts in the first four innings in route to a career-high 12 over five innings on 4/14 against Pensacola in a no-decision. He earned Southern League Pitcher of the Week honors for his efforts to start the 2022 season. First, Kerry got the Opening Night start at Birmingham on 4/8 and was spectacular, pitching 5.0 scoreless innings with eight strikeouts as the Trash Pandas went on to win 8-2. The first six outs he recorded were all strikeouts as the Barons put runners on base but couldn't score. The Angels' 5th round draft pick in the 2021 draft out of South Carolina made his professional debut with Low-A Inland Empire and his first three starts (6.2 IP) were scoreless with one walk and 12 strikeouts in August before allowing two earned runs in 2.2 innings at Modesto on 9/4. He joined the Trash Pandas on 9/9 and made one Double-A start, firing 5.0 scoreless innings at Birmingham on 9/10. With that start against the Barons last September, Kerry became the second of the Angels' 2021 draft picks to reach Double-A, following 11th round pick Chase Silseth.

VS. TENNESSEE: Kerry will face the Smokies for the second time in his career tonight. In his third start of the season, Kerry left in line for the win after giving up four runs in six innings on 4/20 at Smokies Stadium. But the bullpen allowed six runs in the eighth, giving Tennessee a 10-7 win.

MORE NOTES

FIRST AWARD: On April 18, Kerry was named the first Southern League Pitcher of the Week for the 2022 season following two terrific starts in his first full pro season. In his first two starts, he racked up a Double-A best 20 strikeouts while allowing one run over 10.0 innings for a 0.90 ERA. His 12 strikeouts on 4/14 vs. Pensacola were a career high. The award is the first of Kerry's professional career and the fourth earned by a Rocket City pitcher after Kyle Tyler, Cooper Criswell, and Ryan Smith accomplished the feat during the Trash Pandas' inaugural season in 2021.

GETTING COCKY: Kerry began the 2021 season as a junior for the University of South Carolina and made 17 appearances (three starts) as the team's game-one starter and went 5-1 with a 2.15 ERA and four saves while striking out 84 in 54.1 innings. On May 15, he threw a complete-game shutout at Kentucky on 94 pitches while allowing just four hits with 10 strikeouts. He was named SEC Co-Pitcher of the Week for that performance. In his next start on May 21, Kerry struck out eight to over seven innings to earn another win. Kerry was also named to the 2020-21 SEC Spring Honor Roll. In 2020 for South Carolina, Kelly was 2-0 with a 3.60 ERA and one save in six appearances (two starts) while striking out 18 over 15 innings before the pandemic brought an abrupt end to the season. He struck out a season-high 12 over five innings over Holy Cross on February 15. Before that, he made 22 appearances as a freshman in 2019, going 4-1 with a 2.62 ERA and seven saves, holding opponents to a .200 batting average. He finished 10th in the SEC in ERA in conference games (2.95) and opponents batting average in SEC contests (.208).

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES: Attended Wesleyan Christian Academy in High Point, NC where he was a part of three straight state championship teams from 2016-18. In 2018, he was 10-1 with a 0.60 ERA while striking out 111 and walking just eight in 69.1 innings. He tied current San Diego Padre Wil Myers for career wins at WCA.
