APPLE SLICES

ON THE ROAD AGAIN: After playing 15 of their last 18 games at home, the TinCaps hit the road for their next nine contests. Following this three-game weekend series in Eastlake, Fort Wayne will embark on their longest trek of the season to Cedar Rapids, where they will square off with the Kernels next week.

THE RETURN OF EL MUTANTE: TinCap shortstop Leo De Vries is back with the team out of the break following his appearance in the Futures Game last Saturday in Atlanta. De Vries was the fourth active TinCaps player to appear in the Futures Game. The Padres' current No. 2 prospect, catcher Ethan Salas, represented Fort Wayne last season. Outfielder Robert Hassell III became the first to represent Fort Wayne in 2022, and Jackson Merrill played in the 2023 event. The TinCaps are one of only two teams at the High-A level to have had a player selected for this showcase each year since 2022. De Vries has reached base in 16 of his last 17 games, and has 8 multi-hit affairs in those 17 games, including a walk-off single against Great Lakes on June 28.

LENGTHY LOWE: TinCap right-hander Isaiah Lowe is making his third start of the month on Friday. He has gone five or more frames in each of his first two outings in July, which is something he has only done in back-to-back starts one other time this season. Lowe allowed both runs in his appearance last week against Quad Cities in the first inning, where he then bounced back and tossed four scoreless frames to conclude his start in what became a come-from-behind victory for Fort Wayne.

FIRING FERNANDO: TinCaps reliever Fernando Sanchez has not allowed a run in three of his last four outings. The southpaw worked two frames in last Friday night's win and picked up the victory in relief of Isaiah Lowe. Sanchez lowered his season ERA to 2.37 across 20 appearances. He spent time with Double-A San Antonio, where he pitched in three games for the Missions at the end of April and in early May. Among arms with 25 innings or more, Sanchez ranks fifth in the Midwest League in ERA (2.73) and third in WHIP (1.22) since returning to the TinCaps on May 14.

NOBODY BETTER THAN BUTTERS: TinCaps infielder Brandon Butterworth put together the performance of his career last Saturday, going 4-for-5 with two singles, two home runs, and three RBI. His second long ball acted as the go-ahead run in the eighth inning. It is his first multi-home run game of his pro career and just his second four-hit game. The 22-year-old is second in High-A and is third in Minor League Baseball with 18 hits in July. He leads the team with 20 multi-hit games this season, leads the MWL with seven triples, is tied for 2nd in extra-base hits (33), and ranks fourth in total bases (137).

SINCE JUNE 14: Since June 14 (25 games), Butterworth has hits in 18 games, multiple hits in 8. He leads the MWL with 15 extra-base hits, tied for 1st with 3 3B, ranks 2nd with 7 HR, 3rd with 20 RBI, and is 7th in .992 OPS.

KATCHING KARP: After a 1-for-10 start to last week's series, TinCaps outfielder Braedon Karpathios finished the set 8-for-13, which includes the first four-hit performance of his pro career on Saturday. The 22-year-old is tied for ninth in the MWL in home runs (11), nine of which have gone to the opposite field. He is also 10th in walks (50) and leads the team with 45 RBI, including 10 multi-RBI games. He also leads the team with eight outfield assists.

HIT PARADE: Saturday's 16 hits for Fort Wayne are tied for the second-most in a game this season. The 'Caps recorded 17 hits in a 10-0 shutout win against Dayton on June 21 and smacked 16 in their 15-14 win over Lansing on April 22.

QUALITY: Following six scoreless innings from starter Ian Koenig on Tuesday and seven scoreless by Miguel Mendez, the TinCaps have completed eight quality starts in their last 20 games dating back to June 20. It is tied for the third-most quality starts in the stretch in Minor League Baseball. The Charleston Riverdogs (10) are the only team with more.

HOLDING CHARGE: Out of the All-Star Break, the TinCaps are one game above Great Lakes for the second-half East Division playoff spot. Fort Wayne has not made the Midwest League playoffs since winning the second-half title in 2023.

BEAT THE STREAK: Fort Wayne reliever Garrett Hawkins has not allowed a run in his last 27 innings dating back to April 23. It is the longest consecutive scoreless inning streak in Major or Minor League Baseball this season and the second longest in the last six. It is the longest for a TinCap since Colby Blueberg in 2015. The 21 consecutive outings without a run is now the longest stretch in MiLB and tied with Minnesota Twins' left-hander Danny Coulombe and San Francisco Giants' flamethrower Camilo Doval, who have each also gone 21 outings without a run. Hawkins has a 1.70 ERA and a 0.81 WHIP while opponents are batting just .135 against him this season.

ACROSS THE STREAK: Across those innings, Hawkins has struck out 35, with his fastball topping 98 mph and opponents hitting .143 against him. He is tied for 3rd in the league in wins (6), 5th in saves (6), tied for 5th in appearances (27), and tied for 4th amongst Midwest League relievers with 50 strikeouts, while ranking 5th in K% (35.5). After 702 days without a professional appearance, Hawkins moved to the TinCaps bullpen after beginning his career as a starter.

260 TO THE SUMMER CLASSIC: Four former Fort Wayne TinCaps, Max Fried (2013 & 2014), MacKenzie Gore (2018, 2021), Andrés Muñoz (2017) and Fernando Tatis Jr. (2017) were selected to the 2025 MLB All-Star Game presented by Mastercard (July 15 at 8 p.m. ET on FOX) at Truist Park, the home of the Atlanta Braves. North Side High School alum and current Detroit Tiger Zach McKinstry was also added to the American League roster as a reserve.

NOBODY WALKS LIKE ROSMAN: Since May 25, TinCaps third baseman Rosman Verdugo leads all of affiliated baseball (MLB and MiLB) in walks. The No. 24 Padres prospect has 39 free passes in the last 37 games, which includes four three-walk showings. Across the stretch, he has walked 24.7% of the time. Verdugo has 18 walks in his last 20 games. The 20-year-old is now 3rd in the Midwest League with 54 walks, and is second on the team with 10 home runs.

THROUGH SIX INNINGS: The Fort Wayne TinCaps are 35-2 this season when leading after six innings. After starting off a perfect 24-0, the 'Caps fell for the first time on Tuesday, June 10, against the South Bend Cubs. The run has been helped out by five relievers with sub-3.00 ERAs.

HE GETS ON BASE: Utility-man Ryan Jackson has reached in 21 of his last 22 games, reaching in the first 16 games that he played with Fort Wayne. Jackson began the year on a 34-game on-base streak with Single-A Lake Elsinore, the 11th largest streak in MiLB this season. Across both levels, Jackson is tied with Aaron Judge for third in all of affiliated baseball (MLB and MiLB) in walks (69). The USC product trails just Juan Soto, Rafael Devers while being three ahead of Roman Anthony.

MUTANTE MADNESS: No. 1 Padres prospect Leo De Vries has reached base in 15 of his last 16 games. De Vries has 7 multi-hit affairs in those 16 games, including a walk-off single against Great Lakes on June 28 and another two-hit showing on Thursday. Since June 21, he is slashing .305/.446/.475 with five doubles, a triple, a home run, 13 RBI and 14 walks.

COMEBACK 'CAPS: The TinCaps came from behind in all four wins of two weeks ago's series against Great Lakes. Behind a pair of walk-offs and seven unanswered runs on Thursday, Fort Wayne has come from behind in 20 of 43 wins this season. 10 of those came in their first 13 wins. They have come back from as large as seven runs.

PADRES PROSPECT: No. 10 (MLB.com)

SCOUTING GRADES: Fastball: 55 | Slider: 60 | Changeup: 45 | Control: 50 | Overall: 45

SCOUTING REPORT (MLB.com): "Throwing from the lower range of a three-quarters delivery, Lowe ran his fastball to 97 mph last season and generally sat 92-95. There was some tailing action on the pitch as he tended to land it up and armside. His 79-82 mph slider played well nicely off the heat, dropping just as it reached the plate to fool batters to his glove side. The slider had a 44 percent whiff rate on its own. An 85-87 mph changeup didn't get much chase outside of the zone."

DRAFTED: 11th Round, 330th Overall, 2022 (San Diego Padres)... signing for $400K... Was driving with his parents to Winston-Salem when a Padres scout (Jake Koenig) convinced him to sign, so after an emotional moment at a gas station, they turned around.

2025 TINCAPS HITTERS

11 SEAN BARNETT DH/RHP 6'2, 200 R/R AGE: 22 FROM: FRENTON, MO

PADRES PROSPECT: No. 28 (MLB.com) || SCOUTING GRADES: Hit: 40 | Power: 55 | Run: 45 | Arm: 60 | Field: 50 | Overall: 40
Fastball: 60 | Slider: 55 | Control: 50 | Overall: 40

SCOUTING REPORT (MLB.com): "Barnett only hit and played corner outfield with Single-A Lake Elsinore after joining the organization, but he pitched in late workouts and turned more than a few heads on the mound...fastball up to 97 and averaged closer to the mid-90s. slider sat upper-80s with a hard cutter-like break, and that pitch could easily be a weapon, too. The ball comes out of his 6-foot-2 frame easily, and his delivery isn't overcomplicated. With his position-player background and athleticism, he could get to average control with the right professional instruction...many in the organization prefer Barnett's work on the mound, but the Padres will still give him a chance to DH part-time to begin his first full season. His power is undeniable from the right side, but he really struggled against non-fastballs in the California League last year. Had Barnett shown this level of stuff more consistently, some believe he would have gone several rounds earlier as a pitcher alone, and that's likely where his future lies."

DRAFTED: 11th Round, 330th overall, 2024 (San Diego Padres), signed for $175,000

COLLEGE: Attended DII Wingate Univervsity in Wingate, North Carolina, just outside of Charlotte. Stepped on campus as a two-way but exploding offensively as a junior in 2024. His 26 homers were second-most for that level of collegiate baseball, while his .739 slugging percentage placed 32nd among qualifiers. He posted a .349 average and 1.138 OPS over his 59 games with the Bulldogs while also making six appearances out of the bullpen, striking out seven and walking six over five frames. In total, Barnett pitched in 32 1/3 innings, striking out 32 in 32 appearances.

2024 Single-A Lake Elsinore: After being drafted, Barnett appeared in 12 regular season games for the Storm, making his debut on Aug. 20. Barnett began his career on a six-game hit streak hitting .280 with four extra-base hits. A part of the postseason roster, Barnett went 6-18 (.333) with 7 RBIs in the Storm's run to the California League Championship Series.

PADRES PROSPECT: No. 1 (MLB.com) // No. 3 in MLB Top 100 (MLB.com)

SIGNED: Top prospect in 2024 international signing class signed on January 15 for a $4.2 million signing bonus...second straight year Padres have grabbed top international prospect

GRADES: Hit: 60 | Power: 55 | Run: 55 | Arm: 50 | Field: 55 | Overall: 60

SCOUTING REPORT (MLB.com): "De Vries already shows an exquisite knowledge of the zone and will take his walks like he's a player many years older. An agile runner and efficient on the basepaths. He has the range and hands to handle shortstop well, and even though his arm strength is closer to average and he got some looks at second base in the Fall League, the Padres plan to keep him at shortstop exclusively moving forward. De Vries plays like a prospect hungry for challenges and that should serve him well heading into his age-18 season. He's proven to be a better slugger from the right side early in his career -- seven of his 11 homers came from the right despite getting 162 fewer plate appearances there -- but he has enough bat speed from the left that splits aren't a major concern."

2024: Youngest active player in minor league baseball to begin season. Struggled to begin the season hitting .196/.319/.291 through the end of June. Also missed two weeks due to shoulder injury.

"Obviously, for me, the first time playing professional ball and going through a slump like that, that's something I wasn't used to,"

Tore it up in July hitting .318/.442/.694 w/ 15 extra-base hits and 18 RBI. Walked as much as he struck out (18-18) including a 9-game hitting streak to begin the month. Shoulder-injury shut him down in mid-August

ARIZONA FALL LEAGUE: Youngest player in the Fall League, youngest to hit a home run since Bryce Harper in 2010. Home run traveled 415 feet at 104.4 mph. One of five 18-year-olds to hit an AFL home run. Top exit velo of fall was 109.9 mph

Teammate Harry Gustin: "That guy wants to win more than anybody. He's a great teammate to have. I would not like to face him."

2	KAI ROBERTS	OF	6'4, 205	L/R	AGE: 24	FROM: LEHI, UTAH

PADRES PROSPECT: No. 23 (MLB.com) || SCOUTING GRADES: Hit: 45 | Power: 45 | Run: 70 | Arm: 50 | Field: 60 | Overall: 40
SCOUTING REPORT (MLB.com): "Roberts cuts a stunning figure in the field at 6-foot-5, 205 pounds, and he moves exceptionally well for that size, notching 60-yard dashes in the 6.5-second range. He was a perfect 14-for-14 in steal attempts during that short run in the California League, and the Padres don't have much doubt that his speed will continue to play as he reaches higher levels. With those wheels, Roberts is a comfortable fit in center field and has just enough arm for the position, too. That said, the left-handed hitter hasn't been a huge power threat despite his size, though San Diego officials were intrigued by the good weight he put on during in his first offseason. He struggled to make contact against sliders and changeups as a senior and will need his speed to help run high BABIPs that can make up for some of the contact issues. Roberts already enters his first full season at age 24 and doesn't have a long runway, but his best skills could be useful in the Majors in short order."
HIGH SCHOOL: Skyridge High School in Lehi, Utah where he was coached by his father, Ryan Roberts... first team all-state as well as second-team all-state...career batting average of .370
PERSONAL: Father spent time in the St. Louis Cardinals organization... Mother starred in volleyball at Idaho State... Sister, Rylin, is a an All-Conference outside hitter on the Weber State volleyball team.
COLLEGE: Pac-12 All-Conference Team Senior Season... One of two Utes to start all 55 games, CF throughout the season... One of the Pac-12's most improved players from the 2023 season, raising his batting average nearly 100 points (.266 to .356) and SLG from .393 to .562, to go with career-highs of 83 hits, 21 doubles, seven HR and 58 RBI... Set both the Utah single-season (33) and career (66) records for stolen bases... Led the Pac-12 and ranked 10th nationally with 33 stolen bases; his 13 swipes in conference play was also a league-best... His .355 batting average in conference play ranked 7th... PADRES PROSPECT: No. 24 (MLB.com) || SCOUTING GRADES: Hit: 45 | Power: 40 | Run: 40 | Arm: 50 | Field: 50 | Overall: 40
SCOUTING REPORT (MLB.com): "Watch Verdugo hit, and you can see why the Padres have pushed him so far. He doesn't overly complicate matters with his setup from the right side, keeping things nice and quiet until he unleashes quick hands through the zone for a sound swing. He showed a better understanding of the strike zone between his first full season and his second, cutting down his chase by a good margin, but he still struggled to make consistent contact. When he did, he got under the ball too much. Without significant strength, many of his batted balls were catchable flies rather than stung line drives."
