Twin Bill

The Fightin Phils remain on the road for a season-long two week, and 13-game road trip, at New Hampshire and Portland. The trip starts in New Hampshire for a seven-game series, continuing on Friday night. It is the eighth/ninth-of-18 match ups between the teams this season and third/fourth-of-seven at Delta Dental Stadium in Manchester, New Hampshire. Following this week, the Fisher Cats return to Reading from June 30-July 5 to finish the season series. New Hampshire leads the season series 4-3; after dropping three-of-five in Reading from Apr. 21-26, but winning the last two days to begin this week's series.

Game One Loss; Game Two Rained Out

The Reading Fightin Phils fell 3-2 to the New Hampshire Fisher Cats in game one of Wednesday's doubleheader before game two was postponed due to weather. Reading grabbed a 2-0 lead in the fourth inning when Aroon Escobar doubled home Bryan Rincon, who tripled earlier in the frame, before Austin Murr followed with an RBI single. New Hampshire answered immediately with a solo homer from Victor Arias in the bottom half. Braydon Tucker, activated from the injured list to start for Reading, tossed five innings of one-run ball while allowing four hits and striking out three. The Fisher Cats rallied in the sixth against Andrew Baker as Arias tripled and scored on a Jay Harry triple before Jackson Hornung delivered the go-ahead RBI single. Richard Gallardo earned the win after allowing two runs over six innings, while Yondrei Rojas closed out the seventh for the save. Baker took the loss for Reading. Following game one, the second game of the scheduled doubleheader was postponed due to weather and will be made up Friday as part of a doubleheader beginning at 4:05 p.m.

Makin' Moves

Entering the start of the series on Tuesday, the Phillies announced a variety of transactions to the Fightin Phils roster. Following a stellar start to the season, Levi Stoudt was promoted to Triple-A Lehigh Valley. Stoudt had not allowed an earned run over 10 appearances and 11.2 innings pitched. Additionally, Catcher Lou Albrecht will join the IronPigs, providing catching depth for the Triple-A club. Joining the Fightin Phils will be Cade Fergus for his second stint this season and Pitcher Jean Cabrera will re-join the R-Phils after the 24-year old made 26 starts with the Fightin Phils last year and posted a 3.81 ERA. Additionally, Ryan Dromboski was transferred back to High-A Jersey Shore, clearing way for Braydon Tucker's return from the injured list.

Money McFarlane

It was another stellar week for Phillies' No. 17 prospect Alex McFarlane against Somerset, as the 24-year old did not allow a run over three appearances and three innings of work. McFarlane has not allowed a run over his last seven outings (7.0 IP) and has not allowed a run in 12-of-13 appearances this season. He has also allowed one or zero hits in every appearance he's made this year. Amongst Eastern League pitchers with at least 10 appearances this season, McFarlane is second in ERA at 0.73 (1 ER, 12.1 IP), trailing only former Fightin Phil Levi Stoudt.

Tale of Two Halves for the Pitching Staff

Last week's series against Somerset was nearly a tale of two halves. Over the first three games of the series, Reading's pitching staff allowed 30-earned runs over 27 innings, which was a 10.00 ERA. Across the final three contests of the week, the staff surrendered just seven-earned run over 27 frames, good for a 2.33 ERA. If you factor out six-Somerset runs on Friday, the Fightin Phils pitching staff allowed just one-earned run over the final 18 innings of the series (0.50 ERA). Reading's defense helped a ton too, turning an Eastern-League best nine double plays on the week, including three twin killings on Sunday.

Hammering Homers

Last week's series against Somerset lived up to its billing, as the top-two home run hitting teams in the Eastern League combined for 20 long balls over six games, good for over three per game. Entering play on Friday, the Patriots still lead the league with 62 home runs and Reading sits in second with 51, while no other Eastern League squad has launched more than 47 so far this season. The Fightin Phils are currently pacing for 207 home runs this year, which comes after Reading hit 118 last season. The franchise record for single-season home runs is 185, hit by the 2016 team that featured Rhys Hoskins and Dylan Cozens.

Bring it Bryan

Bryan Rincon's excellent month of May continued on Wednesday with a triple and run scored. Over 11 games in May, Rincon is slashing .356/.420/.800 (1.220 OPS), along with 11 runs, three doubles, one triple, five home runs and 11 RBI. This came after he hit .222 (16-72) over 21 games in April. He has matched his total hit output already this month in 10-fewer games played than in April. For the month of May, Rincon holds the following Eastern League rankings: 8th AVG (.356), 2nd HR (5), T-7th RBI (11), 10th OBP (.420), T-2nd SLG (.800), 4th OPS (1.220), T-8th hits (16), T-1st XBH (9), 2nd TB (36) and T-5th Runs (11).

This Day in Baseballtown History

May 15, 2016: At Trenton, Ben Lively improves to 6-0 by tossing 7.0 shutout innings, allowing just 4 hits and 4 walks while fanning a career-high 12 batters in Reading's 7-2 win. Jake Fox is 3-for-5 with a HR, double, 4 RBIs and a run.

Calling the Cats

New Hampshire enters play today with a 21-11 record, which leads Hartford in the Northeast Division standings by five games. The Fisher Cats finished off a five-game series with Portland last week, winning four-of-five; as they were victorious in the first-four games and dropped the season-finale on Sunday. After this week, they remain at home next week and welcomes Hartford for a six-game series. The Fisher Cats roster features eight of the Blue Jays' top-30 prospects: Arjun Nimmala (3), Gage Stanifer (6), Victor Arias (12), Fernando Perez (16), Sean Keys (17), Javen Coleman (23), Cutter Coffey (25) and Adrian Pinto (29).

On the Bump for New Hampshire

Righty, and Toronto's No. 6 prospect, Gage Stanifer makes his seventh start of the season tonight for New Hampshire. So far, Stanifer is 1-2, with a 6.08 ERA (16 ER, 23.2 IP), along with 30 strikeouts (11.41 SO/9.0 IP). He earned his first Double-A win on May 7 at Portland, tossing five-shutout inning, along with three strikeouts. Righty Austin Cates gets the ball in game two of the doubleheader, making his second Double-A start. He allowed three runs over four innings at Portland on May 8 in his Fisher Cat debut. He began the season with Vancouver (A+), going 1-2, with a 3.38 ERA over five starts. Cates split his first pro season in 2025 between Dunedin (A) and Vancouver, combining to go 8-3, with a 3.12 ERA over 25 appearances/23 starts.

MLB/PHILADELPHIA
Record/Place: 21-23/T-2nd NL East
Last Game: 3-1, W at Boston
Today: 6:40 at Pittsburgh

Notes: Jesus Luzardo started and allowed no runs over six innings, along with four strikeouts. Jhoan Duran picked up his seventh save and struck out the side. Kyle Schwarber hit his 18th home run of the season, which leads all of baseball, in the series-clinching win at the Red Sox.

AAA/LEHIGH VALLEY
Record/Place: 20-22/T-7th International League East
Last Game: 6-3, W at Rochester
Today: 6:45 at Rochester

Notes: The bullpen trio of Michael Mercado, Nolan Hoffman and Seth Johnson combined to toss six-shut-out innings as the IronPigs got back in the win column. Otto Kemp had two doubled and Paul McIntosh had one. Stewart Berroa lifted his fourth home run of the season in the victory.
