1979-1995

The dream of one native son that began decades ago has not only become a reality, but is about to enter its 26th season in 2025. The story of the Altoona Curve begins in 1979. Area native Bob Lozinak, a successful McDonald's franchisee, knew his hometown was a baseball haven and always dreamed of what it would be like to have a professional sports team in his hometown. He had a chance to make a dream of many come to fruition, so as the 1970s were about to come to a close, a series of meetings and preliminary discussions took place to put the plan into motion. However, there was enough opposition that thwarted the idea as an initial fear from natives was that a professional team would hurt the successful youth teams in the region. Professional baseball, for the time being, was put on the back burner.

In the meantime, that same year, Bob and his family went across the country and bought what became one of the most successful franchises in the entire country - the Albuquerque Dukes (AAA - Dodgers)

Fast-forward 16 years.

Like many other decisions in baseball, the latest round of major league expansion had a domino effect on the minor leagues. In 1995, Arizona and Tampa Bay were awarded major league franchises to play their inaugural season in 1998. To keep pace, baseball's rookie level added two teams in 1996. The following year, Class 'A' and Class 'AAA' each increased by two teams.

That left only Class 'AA' in need of expansion to match the number of teams in the big leagues. In 1997, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues decided the Eastern League would receive the two new franchises to start play in 1999. Erie was an easy first choice of the NAPBL's expansion committee. After all, the SeaWolves had established short-season attendance records in the new Jerry Uht Park as part of the New York-Penn League from 1995-98. The awarding of the second franchise wasn't easy. For months, it seemed Springfield, Mass. would land the team. However, an inability to finalize land and stadium finance deals left the NAPBL looking for another option. Enter Altoona. City native Bob Lozinak and a group of Pennsylvania lawmakers put together an 11th-hour stadium financing package and site plan. The proposal was presented to the expansion committee at an October 5, 1997 meeting in Las Vegas. It received unanimous approval and Double-A baseball was on its way to Altoona.

Ballpark groundbreaking ceremonies took place on March 7, 1998 and the franchise was officially awarded the following month. In June of that year, the team selected "Curve" as its nickname. The combination railroad/baseball moniker beat out several choices like "Lake Monsters," "Ridge Runners" and, believe it or not, "Fish"!

The next step for the Curve was affiliating with a major league team. Erie seemed to have an inside track on becoming the Pirates' new Double-A club, as the SeaWolves had served as Pittsburgh's short-season club from 1995-98. However, after a series of meetings with potential major league parent clubs, the Curve landed the coveted affiliation with the Pirates. The September 1998 announcement took the franchise to another level as the U.S. Route 22 pairing seemed an ideal fit. Central Pennsylvania fans, with their strong Pirates' roots, could now cheer for the Bucs' top prospects on their way to Pittsburgh.

The long-awaited first game in Curve history took place on April 9, 1999 in Reading, Pa. The game against the Phillies' affiliate was suspended by rain and completed the next day as part of a doubleheader. For the record, the Curve lost their first contest, 6-2, but recorded their first win hours later with a 6-4 decision in game two.

Finally, the Curve christened Blair County Ballpark on April 15 with a triumph over the Bowie Baysox. A crowd of 6,171 attended the history-making contest despite cold, rainy weather and nearly a one-hour delay. The 1999 Curve went 67-73 on the field and finished last in the Eastern League's Southern Division. Pitcher Bronson Arroyo won 15 games, tied for the most in the league and still the most in a single season for a Curve pitcher. Outfielder Adam Hyzdu cemented himself as the Curve's first star, hitting .316 with 24 home runs. Third baseman Kevin Haverbusch was the Curve's lone representative at the Double-A All-Star Game in Mobile, Ala.

On July 5, 1999, catcher Yamid Haad became the first Curve alum to reach the Majors, debuting with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

323,932 fans flocked to Blair County Ballpark during the inaugural season.

In the fall of 2006, the franchise won two prestigious awards, most notably the John H. Johnson President's Trophy, which is given annually to Minor League Baseball's top club on the basis of long-time franchise stability, contributions to and promotion of the baseball industry and the financial success of the team. Also, the Curve were honored by Baseball America as the 2006 winner of the Double-A Bob Freitas Award.

On the field, the 2006 Curve posted a 75-64 record under first-year manager Tim Leeper and reached the Eastern League postseason

In 2000, the Curve posted a 74-68 record, their first winning season, and saw 333,968 fans at Blair County Ballpark. Adam Hyzdu returned for a second season with the Curve, hitting 31 homers and driving in 106 runs, both still good for single-season franchise records. Following the final game of the season on September 4, 2000, the Curve retired Hyzdu's number 16. Hyzdu is still tied for the most homers in a Curve career with 55, and he is the only player in team history to play 142 games in a season.

In 2001, Dale Sveum became the second manager in the team's history. Attendance continued to climb, with 348,316 fans attending games at Blair County Ballpark. The team finished the year 63-79.

After three remarkable seasons, the Lozinak family sold the franchise to a group headed by Pittsburgh attorney Chuck Greenberg on April 2, 2002. Among the limited partners in Greenberg's collective: Pittsburgh Penguins' owner, star center and NHL Hall of Famer Mario Lemieux; Pittsburgh Steelers' all-pro running back Jerome Bettis; Altoona-based businessmen Steve Sheetz and Don Devorris. Todd Parnell was tabbed as the team's new General Manager.

On August 5, 2002 the Curve announced a new four-year affiliation agreement with Pittsburgh, securing one of baseball's strongest affiliations through 2006. Despite the ownership change, the Curve franchise enjoyed its most successful season to that point, drawing 363,871 fans to Blair County Ballpark.

Between the 2002 and 2003 seasons, Blair County Ballpark underwent its first major capital expansion project, as a new third-base Picnic Area, left-field Party Deck and outfield reserved seating section were constructed. The additions of the new areas brought the seating capacity of the ballpark to just over 7,200 and created enough room to hold nearly 10,000 fans on any night.

During the 2003 season, the Curve, led by third-year manager Dale Sveum, took the franchise to new heights on the field, posting a 78-63 regular season record and securing the club's first-ever Eastern League postseason berth. The Curve lost to the eventual E.L. Champion Akron Aeros three-games-to-one in the first round of the playoffs. The playoff run helped fuel yet another franchise attendance record as 365,376 fans came through the gates at BCB.

In 2004, the Curve, managed by Tony Beasley, finished with a league-best 85-56 record and not only returned to the playoffs, but took the next step and advanced to the Eastern League Championship Series for the first time in club history before losing to the New Hampshire Fisher Cats.

The '04 season also turned out to be a banner year at the gates as the Curve added a fifth consecutive franchise attendance record after drawing 394,062 fans to Blair County Ballpark. Among those fans who attended Curve home games in 2004 was Vice President Dick Cheney, who attended the club's Fourth of July game against Harrisburg. Following the season, Curve General Manager Todd Parnell was honored as the Eastern League Executive of the Year, while the franchise was presented the prestigious Larry MacPhail Trophy symbolizing the top promotional effort, both on and off the field, in all of baseball.

The 2005 edition of the Curve reached postseason play in dramatic fashion, sweeping a four-game road series from Bowie during the final weekend of the season to reach the playoffs for a third consecutive season. Despite losing in the first round of the playoffs, the Curve won big earlier in the season when the franchise was named the host of the 2006 E.L. All-Star Game.

Altoona would have a banner year in 2006. The highlight of the season, and arguably the top moment in the first eight seasons of Curve baseball, came on July 12th when Altoona played host to the 2006 Eastern League All-Star Game. A then Blair County Ballpark-record crowd of 9,308 were on hand to witness Curve All-Star Brett Roneberg take home MVP honors in a 5-3 win for the Southern Division All-Stars.

2007 for the fourth straight season, ultimately losing in a back-and-forth Divisional Series to the Akron Aeros.

The 2007 season proved to be a year in which the Curve continued their winning ways, as the club marched on to its sixth consecutive winning season. That season, plenty of the Pirates' top prospects passed through Blair County Ballpark. In addition to third-baseman Neil Walker and outfielder Andrew McCutchen, first basemen Steve Pearce enjoyed one of the finest seasons in club history en route to being named the 2007 Topps Minor League Player of the Year.

In 2008, the Curve celebrated their storybook 10th anniversary season by welcoming back plenty of former stars, including Adam Hyzdu and Josh Bonifay, among many others. The Curve also unveiled their 10th Anniversary All-Time team.

On June 17, Jimmy Carter, the 39th President of the United States, and his wife, Rosalynn, attended the Curve versus Reading game while on a fishing trip in nearby Huntingdon. Carter sported a black Curve jersey and watched the game with friends and family members in luxury suite 410.

As for the team, though, the Curve underachieved as they suffered their first losing season since 2001, finishing with a mark of 65-77 and a fifth place finish in the Eastern League's Southern Division.

However, 2008 will be remembered not for what happened during the season, but rather what happened following the season. On Dec. 1, 2008, President and Managing Partner, Chuck Greenberg announced that his group was selling the Curve back to original owner and visionary, Bob Lozinak. Greenberg announced that he was forming a sports consultation service and that many members of the Curve upper management would join his endeavor, including General Manager Todd Parnell.

Shortly after the announcement of the sale, it was made public that David Lozinak would be appointed as the team's Chief Operating Officer, overseeing the day-to-day functions of the ball club.

The final block to the organization's new foundation was laid on December 5, 2008 when the Lozinak Family announced that they would bring back an old friend to steer the Curve into the future – Rob Egan. Egan was the original play-by-play broadcaster for the team from 1999-2004. He left baseball for four years, but returned to the minors to become just the fourth General Manager in the club's 11-year history.

On December 30, 2008, Minor League Baseball approved the sale of the Curve from Greenberg's group back to Lozinak and the second chapter of the Lozinak era officially began.

The 2009 season saw the Altoona Curve stumble under first-year manager Matt Walbeck as the team got off to a franchise worst 0-8 start and was never able to recover, finishing the year 62-80. However, the team did see one of the most prospect-laden lineups ever assembled in team history. As Pirates General Manager Neal Huntington traded away many valuable players at the major league level, an influx of talent came back in return. However, no one expected the fanfare that Pirates' 2008 top draft pick and top-rated prospect Pedro Alvarez would get when it was learned the New York native was being promoted from Lynchburg (A) on June 23. A throng of media attention ensued, and Alvarez lived up to all his hype.

The third baseman hit .333 with 13 home runs and 40 RBI in just 60 games with the Curve. He was named the 2009 Curve M.V.P. not only for those staggering numbers, but primarily for the impact he had in the team's overall success. In games in which Alvarez played, the Curve were 34-26 (.567) while going just 26-51 (.338) in games when Alvarez did not play.

An outstanding partnership with the Pittsburgh Pirates became even stronger during the 2009 season when, on May 23, the Curve and Pirates signed a four-year extension to their Player Development Agreement, which extended through the 2014 season.

With a solid affiliation under their belt, the Curve embarked on what was their most magical season on the field in Altoona in 2010. From the outset, the 2010 Curve had the swagger and winning attitude that would carry the club to its second division title and its first-ever Eastern League Championship.

The cast of the 2010 club pretty much came as a cohesive unit from High-A Lynchburg, where they won the Mills Cup (Carolina League championship) in 2009. On Opening Day 2010, Altoona was greeted by a prospect-laden roster that included four of the Pirates Top-10 prospects according to Baseball America and eight of the Top-30 overall prospects. It was also a roster that had veteran talent, and it proved to be the perfect mix to get Altoona off to a nearly perfect start as the club started the season 7-1, a drastic turnaround after starting 2009, 0-8.

Included in those first eight games was one day where everything seemed to fall into place for a memorable afternoon at BCB. After the first three games of the season were played under dreary cold conditions, mother nature opened the skies for a perfect

Stephen Strasburg brought the sports world's eyes to Altoona on April 11, 2010 when he made his professional debut

67-degree day on April 11th when the national spotlight turned to Altoona for the first professional start of Harrisburg Senators phenom Stephen Strasburg. More than 70 media members from around the country and upwards of 7,800 people came to watch the professional debut of the heralded Strasburg on the picture-perfect day in Curve, Pa. The game was also carried live on ESPN360.com and had parts of it aired on ESPNNews. It was the first of two national exposure days for Blair County Ballpark and the city of Altoona during 2010 as Andy Pettitte later started against Altoona in the first game of the Eastern League Championship series. Pettitte's start brought MLB Network and some of the New York spotlight to BCB as Pettitte's Thunder met the Curve for the first time in a playoff series.

All told, Altoona finished the regular season 82-60 to win its second division title and first since 2004. The 82 wins were second most in franchise history behind the 2004 club's 85 victories under manager Tony Beasley. After dispatching of Harrisburg three games to one in the divisional round, the Curve forged on to the ELCS to meet Trenton.

Pettitte's Thunder did take Game One but Altoona once again sprung back to take the final three games of the series. Curve closer Daniel Moskos was able to get the final out via the strikeout at Waterfront Park in Trenton on September 18th to bring the first-ever E.L. Championship to Altoona.

A few short months after the first-ever E.L. title was won, the Curve as a franchise took another step forward by unveiling the team's new logo set, which paid homage to the railroad engineers that helped put Altoona on the map.

Armed with a fresh new look for 2011, the Curve were also given a makeover in the coaching staff assignments as P.J. Forbes became the sixth manager in Altoona Curve history. Forbes, who had piloted the Reading Phillies of the Eastern League for three seasons from 2006-08, was coming off of back-to-back playoff appearances with High-A Lynchburg and High-A Bradenton in 2009 and 2010 (he led the '09 Hillcats to a Mills Cup title) before joining Altoona.

The 2011 Curve didn't get off to as fast of a start as the 2010 championship-winning club but did come out and compete on a nightly basis. A strange streak occurred during the season's first month as Altoona went on an unprecedented streak of 19-straight games of alternating wins and losses. The streak ran from April 10th through May 1st and was snapped on May 2nd, when Altoona won its second-straight game.

Despite the streak and an eventual 64-77 finish to the season, many positive things happened on the field in 2011 and they began with center fielder Starling Marte. Marte, a native of Santo Domingo, D.R., was on the Curve roster from the get-go in 2011 and never ceased to impress. The 22-year-old proceeded to tear through the Eastern League en route to an Eastern League batting title and Eastern League Rookie of the Year honors. It was the first time in franchise history that a member of the Curve had won the Rookie of the Year award and it was also the first time that an active Curve player won the batting title (Jeff Keppinger won it in 2004 but spent the final months of the season as a Binghamton Met).

The speedy outfielder also set a few Curve single-season records along the way in 2011, posting franchise bests in outfield assists (18) and hits (178). In addition to his other accolades, Marte was both a mid-season and post-season E.L. All-Star, an XM Futures Game Selection, Eastern League August Player of the Month and a Topps Double-A All-Star.

Season 13 in Curve, Pa. also saw nine different former Curve players make their Major League debuts. Many of the nine played for the 2010 Eastern League Championship club (Mike Crotta, Daniel Moskos, Josh Harrison, Tony Watson, Chase d'Arnaud, Jared Hughes and Jeff Locke) while some were first-year Curve players that cracked the Pirates' 25-man roster (Eric Fryer and Aaron Thompson).

Off the field, the Curve received much national notoriety for the first-ever, on-field reversible cap, which was introduced in 2011. The cap featured the new Curve engineer on the regular side and a "Rally Cap" on the inside fashioned after rally mascot Al Tuna. The Curve's Summer Cruise Night Series, which combined a cruise giveaway with the stupendous films of Tom Cruise, was also a finalist for a Golden Bobblehead for one of the best promotions in Minor League Baseball. Average attendance at Blair County Ballpark also rose for the first time since it climbed from 2005 to the 2006 seasons.

The offseason leading into the club's 14th year of existence was also no quiet one as the Curve forged a partnership with Peoples Natural Gas that renamed the ballpark Peoples Natural Gas Field. The partnership not only included a naming-rights deal but spurred economic development at the park and surrounding areas with the use of green energy.

Altoona's 2012 season began on April 5 with a very special announcement from Pirates President Frank Coonely, who announced to the Opening Night crowd that the Pittsburgh Pirates would be returning to Altoona for the first time since 2000 to play an exhibition game before the 2013 season. On the diamond, the Curve had an up-and-down season under P.J. Forbes, who directed the Curve for a second straight season. An end-of-the-season winning streak propelled the Curve above the .500 mark and the team finished 72-70, but missed out on the E.L. playoff picture.

The 2012 season may be remembered as the season where fans in Curve, Pa. had the opportunity to see two future aces in the making with top prospects Gerrit Cole and Jameson Taillon both making their way to Double-A during the season. Cole, the first-overall pick in the 2011 draft, reached Altoona on June 20 and made his debut at home while Taillon debuted almost exactly two months later on the road in Trenton. It was the first time that both the No. 1 and No. 2 prospects in the organization according to Baseball America were in Altoona at the same time since Andrew McCutchen and Neil Walker were in Curve uniforms for the 2007 season.

Other standouts on the field for the Curve included shortstop Brock Holt, who went on to make his Major League debut later in the season with the Pirates. Holt stayed in Altoona until the beginning of August before he received his first promotion to Triple-A. After putting on a hitting clinic with Altoona, Holt lampooned International League pitching to earn his call up to Pittsburgh. The Texas native hit well enough with Altoona before his promotion and had enough at-bats to still hang on to win the Eastern League batting title, marking the second-straight season a Curve batter won the crown.

Holt was part of 11 more former Curve players to make their debuts in the major leagues in 2012, bringing the overall number to 101 in 14 seasons. Another former Curve player who made a splash in the bigs in 2012 was Marte, who homered in his first at bat as a member of the Pirates in Houston on July 26.

Gerrit Cole was the top pick in the 2011 MLB Draft before joining the Curve in 2012

After being nominated for a Golden Bobblehead in 2011, the Curve franchise won a Golden Bobblehead in 2012 in the "Best Charity Promotion or Event" category for its efforts with Curve, Pa. Blue Out Saturdays, which aimed at raising awareness and funds for Prevent Child Abuse, Pennsylvania. The club, which partnered with six other teams across the state of Pennsylvania, wore Blue jerseys in support of the cause for each Saturday home game and also helped raise funds through the sale of special Blue-Out T-shirts and wristbands as well as text-to-donate programs. All told, the Curve's efforts, plus those of the other six participating teams, raised over $11,000 from the season-long efforts.

Fast forward to March of 2013 and the second-ever exhibition game between the Curve and Pirates. Despite snow the Monday before the game, the temperatures warmed up and the Curve welcomed a franchise-record 10,116 fans to watch the Pirates and Curve play their first exhibition game since 2000. Just like in 2000, fans were treated to a Curve victory, this time by a score of 8-6. Former Curve OF Starling Marte had himself a day, hitting a grand slam while going 2-for-3.

A pair of big announcements also came with the Pirates-Curve Exhibition that day. The first announcement being that the Curve and Pirates had extended their Player Development Contract a season early and extended it through the 2018 season. The agreement between the Curve and Pirates secured the affiliation through 2018, the 20th year as parent and affiliate. It was then revealed a short time later that the Eastern League All-Star Game was returning to Blair County with the Curve poised to host the 2014 game at Peoples Natural Gas Field.

Altoona's regular-season had its ups and downs and the team finished with a record of 63-79 under first-year manager Carlos Garcia. Despite the record, fans were treated to some of the best prospects in the Pirates system throughout the season that included RHP Jameson Taillon, OF Gregory Polanco, RHP Nick Kingham and SS Aten Hanson. Taillon, who had a cup of tea with the Curve in 2012, spent a majority of 2013 with the club before a promotion to Triple-A in August while Polanco joined the team in June and also went to Indianapolis during the month of August. Kingham joined the club midway through the year and finished the campaign with the Curve. Hanson did the same but did not join the team until late July after beginning the year with Bradenton.

One couldn't talk about the 2013 Curve season without talking about the performance of outfielder Alex Dickerson, who was in his first season at the Double-A level. Dickerson, a native of Poway, Calif., had a slow start to the year before lighting the world on fire from June until the end of the season. He went on to hit .288 for the season with 36 doubles, three triples, 17 home runs and 68 RBI in 126 games en route to being named the Eastern League Rookie of the Year. He was the second Curve player to ever win the award and the second in the last three seasons after Starling Marte won it in 2011.

The 2013 campaign also saw the club's second ever no-hitter come to fruition when Ethan Hollingsworth, Jason Townsend, Jhonathan Ramos and Ryan Beckman combined on a nine-inning no-no on July 25, 2013 in Manchester, N.H. versus the Fisher Cats. It had been over 10 years since the Curve threw a no-hitter, which occurred in 2002 when Adrian Burnside, Neal McDade and Chris Spurling accomplished the feat.

In 2014, the Curve hosted the league's annual All-Star Game with the Eastern League All-Star Stop presented by UPMC Health Plan for the second time in franchise history. Over 6,000 fans packed into Peoples Natural Gas Field to watch the league's brightest stars for the game itself on July 16 while nearly 11,000 total across the two-days' worth of events filled PNG Field. During the first day of events, the Curve dedicated one seat in the lower seating bowl a POW/MIA Chair, never to be inhabited in memory of those soldiers that have not yet returned home.

Following up the dedication of the POW/MIA chair, the Curve hosted its version of a home run derby with the Ghostman Games &

Hitting Challenge. In a competition of four players, the Curve's very own Willy Garcia won the event for the Western Division with a home run that sailed into the night sky out in left field.

On the field, the Curve struggled to a 61-81 record but the season saw Garcia set a new single-season franchise record with 19 outfield assists. Catcher Elias Diaz led the club offensively, hitting .328 with six home runs and 54 RBI through his 91 games, while right-hander Adrian Sampson aced the pitching staff, posting a 10-5 record with a 2.55 ERA in 24 starts. Both players represented the Curve in the All-Star Stop. The team also set a franchise-record for steals in a single season with 159, besting the 155-mark of the 2005 Curve.

Sampson, who was both a mid-season and post-season All-Star, also came within two outs of the franchise's first nine-inning no hitter by a single pitcher. The feat was thwarted, however, by Bowie's Mike Yastrzemski when he sliced a double down the left-field line. It was the only hit Sampson permitted on the evening and the game on July 18 still went down as the first one-hitter by a single pitcher in Curve franchise history. Even cooler, he did it with his mom in attendance for the game just a few days shy of her birthday.

At the end of the year, Curve General Manager Rob Egan was presented with the Eastern League Executive of the Year Award at the Winter Meetings in San Diego, the second-ever member of the Altoona front office to receive the award.

In 2015, the Curve played their first season under the direction of manager Tom Prince. A former Major League catcher, Prince guided the Curve to their first playoff appearance since 2010 with a 74-68 record with a roster including top prospects Josh Bell, Tyler Glasnow and Chad Kuhl. Although the team was eliminated by Bowie in the Division Series, the Curve had one of their most successful seasons in recent years. Twelve players were promoted to Triple-A for the first time in their careers, with two of them in Double-A, winning the Curve's second Eastern League title in 2016. By season's end, he and his club replicated that feat in Double-A, winning the Curve's second Eastern League title on September 4, the last day of the regular season, with a walk-off home run by Mitchell Tolman in the bottom of the 12th inning against the Harrisburg Senators.

The Curve rode the momentum into the playoffs, and they began postseason play with one of the most dominating pitching performances in team history. Pirates' top pitching prospect Mitch Keller took the mound in Game 1 of the Western Division Series at Bowie on September 8 and threw a complete-game shutout on just 90 pitches, allowing only one hit.

With wins in the next two games against the Baysox, the Curve advanced to face the Trenton Thunder in the Eastern League Championship Series, a team that won 92 games during the regular season. Starting pitchers Brandon Waddell and J.T. Brubaker led the Curve to road wins in the first two games in the best-of-five series. The Curve returned home for Game 3 on September 14 with a chance to clinch with Keller on the mound.

The Thunder plated a pair of early runs to take a 2-0 lead, but the Curve rallied in the fifth inning. Jerrick Suiter got the Curve on the board with a bases-loaded walk and Jin-De Jhang followed with a two-out, bases-clearing triple to give the Curve a 4-2 lead. Keller settled in to strike out eight batters over 7.1 innings en route to winning the Eastern League Postseason Most Valuable Player Award.

Closer Tate Scioneaux took the mound for the Curve in the ninth inning and struck out the side in order to close out the game and the championship for the Curve, who became just the third E.L. team since 1983 to sweep all six of their postseason games.

Prior to the 2018 season, the Curve made some fresh updates to the ballpark that included a brand new, state-of-the-art video board, upgraded broadcasts and televisions, a new playing surface, new on-field caps and a new alternate red jersey.

The team honored their growing history throughout 2018 with a season-long celebration of 20 Seasons of Curve Baseball in Altoona reaching the Majors before the end of the year. The franchise also saw its highest attendance total in nine seasons. The season culminated with the Curve earning the Eastern League's nomination for the John H. Johnson President's Award, the top honor in Minor League Baseball.

Joey Cora took over as the Curve's manager in 2016, leading the team back to the postseason in what would be his only season with Altoona. The Curve were eliminated in the Western Division Series by the eventual-league-champion Akron RubberDucks. Outfielder Austin Meadows, who was named by Baseball America as the Eastern League's most exciting player, turned heads early in the season when he went on a franchise-record 24-game hitting streak prior to his promotion to Triple-A.

In 2016, 14 former Curve players made their MLB debuts, the most in a single season since the franchise was founded. Nine of those players debuted with the Pirates: Alen Hanson, Jameson Taillon, Jacob Stallings, Adam Frazier, Chad Kuhl, Steven Brault, Tyler Glasnow, Josh Bell and Max Moroff.

Following the season, the Pirates announced that Cora would be the new major league third base coach. 2015 Curve manager Tom Prince was also added to the big league coaching staff, taking over as Clint Hurdle's new bench coach. Changes also came to the Altoona front office. After eight seasons as general manager and 14 overall seasons with the Curve, Rob Egan left to take the same job with the Triple-A Charlotte Knights. The Curve announced former front office staff member Derek Martin as the new general manager in the fall of 2016.

During the 2017 preseason, new stadium updates and upgrades were made to Peoples Natural Gas Field, beginning with the demolition of the original box office and construction of a brand new one. The stadium also received new field lights, becoming one of the first two Eastern League parks to upgrade to LED lighting. New netting was also installed behind home plate to improve fans' views and provide more protection.

Indiana, Pa. native Michael Ryan was named as Curve manager prior to the season after leading the A-Adv. Bradenton Marauders to the Florida State League title in 2016. By season's end, he and his club replicated that feat and welcomed back former stars Adam Hyzdu and Jack Wilson. The team also unveiled their Fans' Choice All-Time Curve Team Bobblehead Series, a set of 11 bobblehead giveaways, to honor the 20th season.

Entering the season, MLB.com ranked the Altoona roster as one of "the Minors' 10 most talented teams" while 12 of MLB.com's Preseason Top 30 Pirates prospects spent time with the Curve during the season: Mitch Keller, Ke'Bryan Hayes, Cole Tucker, Bryan Reynolds, Taylor Hearn, Luis Escobar, Nick Kingham, Will Craig, Stephen Alemas, Jason Martin, Nick Burdi and Brandon Waddell.

Keller, the Pirates top overall prospect by both Baseball America and MLB Pipeline entering the 2018 season, followed up a strong 2017 postseason and cemented his name as one of the best pitchers in Curve history. Keller went 9-2 with a 2.72 ERA in 14 starts and threw eight, one-hit shutout innings in his final Curve start on June 25 vs. Harrisburg before he was promoted to Triple-A Indianapolis. In 22 combined starts (regular season and playoffs) with the Curve, Keller went 13-4 with a 2.63 ERA.

First baseman Will Craig was the 2018 Altoona Curve MVP and played the hero in the 2018 Eastern League All-Star Classic in Trenton. With the game tied 4-4 after nine innings, a swing-off between Craig and Zach Green of Reading replaced extra innings with Craig coming out on top. Craig led the Eastern League with 102 RBIs in the regular season to become just the second Curve hitter to eclipse 100 RBIs in a single season, joining the legendary Adam Hyzdu. A first round pick by the Pirates in the 2016 draft, Craig also clubbed 20 homers during a season in which he was an Eastern League Mid-Season and Post-Season All-Star.

Third baseman Ke'Bryan Hayes played one of the best defensive seasons the Eastern League has ever seen. The Pirates first-round draft choice in 2015 won back-to-back Rawlings MiLB Gold Glove Awards as the best defensive third baseman in the minors with a .974 fielding percentage at A-Adv. Bradenton in 2017 and turned around in 2018 with a .978 mark in Altoona. Hayes' .978 fielding percentage at third base ranked as the highest ever recorded at the position in the Eastern League with data only available dating back to 1959.

As a team, the Curve trailed Akron by seven games entering play on August 1 before surging back over the final month of the season. With a record of 78-60, the Curve captured a second straight division title by one game over Akron, matched a team record with a fourth consecutive playoff berths (2003-06) and earned back-to-back division crowns for the first time in team history.

However, Akron eliminated the Curve from postseason play in four games during the Western Division Series. The RubberDucks took the first two games in Akron, but the Curve did not go quietly once the series shifted to Altoona. Akron jumped out to a 5-0 lead in Game 3 at PNG Field and were on the brink of sweeping their way to the ELCS. In the bottom of the fifth, however, the Curve scored their first run and managed to load the bases for Cole Tucker, who delivered one of the most electrifying moments in the Curve's 20-year history. In an 0-2 count, Tucker crushed a grand slam into the left field bleachers and tied the game, 5-5. Altoona rallied for three more runs in the eighth and went on to force a fourth game with an 8-5 victory. Unable to harness that momentum the next day, the Curve lost Game 4 to the 'Ducks, 9-0, to close out the team's 20th season.

A few days later on September 12 in St. Louis, the Pittsburgh Pirates lineup was composed completely of Curve alumni for the first time ever. Pirates Manager Clint Hurdle went with the following at Busch Stadium against the Cardinals: 2B Adam Frazier, CF Starling Marte, 1B Josh Bell, RF Jordan Luplow, 3B Kevin Kramer, LF Pablo Reyes, SS Kevin Newman, C Jacob Stallings and P Jameson Taillon.

In 2018, 14 former Curve players made their MLB debuts and matched the 2016 total for the most in a single season over the first 20 years of the franchise's history. Just as it was in 2016, nine of those players debuted with the Pirates: Clay Holmes, Nick Kingham, Austin Meadows, Tanner Anderson, Alex McRae, Kevin Newman, Pablo Reyes, Kevin Kramer and Nick Burdi.

The 2019 season brought change to the Eastern League with the move to a split-season playoff format for the first time since the Curve joined the Double-A circuit. Instead of a full-season champion and wild card team from each division deciding the playoff field, the league would crown a divisional champ for each of the 70-game halves with those teams squaring off in the opening rounds of the postseason.

After reaching the playoffs in each of the previous four seasons, the Curve finished with a losing record, 69-71, for the first time since 2014. The ballclub was a streaky bunch that started 5-0, tying a franchise record. At the end of May, the team was five games under .500 and rebounded to 10 games over by the All-Star Break. The Curve stumbled after the break as well and entered the final series of the year with a 69-67 record before losing the final four contests.

Michael Ryan returned for his third season as manager and stamped his name into the record books. He became the winningest manager in team history when he led the team to his 214th regular-season win as Altoona's skipper on August 18 to pass Dale Sveum and Tim Leeper's 213 managerial victories. Ryan finished the season with a 221-197 record.

Young pitching talent dominated throughout the league in 2019. Eight no-hitters were pitched league-wide, the second-most in league history. The Curve were no-hit twice during the season while Curve pitchers fired a league-best and team record 18 shutouts. The league batting average finished at .238, the lowest since 1971, while the batting champ, Portland's C.J. Chatham at .297, finished under .300 for just the second time in league history. Runs were hard to come by with a league average of 3.92 runs per game, the lowest since 1990.

One of the brightest performances in the league occurred at Peoples Natural Gas Field on April 29, 2019. Casey Mize, the first overall pick in the 2018 draft by Detroit, was promoted to Erie and fired a no-hitter against the Curve in his Double-A debut. He required just 98 pitches, struck out seven and accounted for the first individual, nine-inning no-hitter ever pitched at PNG Field.

By season's end, attendance at PNG Field was up for a third straight season with the highest total since 2008 as 308,464 fans enjoyed Curve baseball in 2019.

After the season, Curve owner Bob Lozinak was honored at the 2019 Winter Meetings in San Diego as the King of Baseball, which recognizes a veteran of professional baseball every year for longtime dedication and service to the game.

The 2020 season promised to be another season filled with outstanding on-field performances, however, the Curve weren't able to take the field in the midst of the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Miguel Perez was named the 12th manager of the Altoona Curve on February 17, 2021 after Dave Turgeon was tabbed to lead the team for the canceled 2020 season. Perez was the first former Curve player to be named Manager of the team after suiting up in Altoona in 2008, 2009, 2012 and 2013; totaling 92 games. Perez also played in the Eastern League for the Akron Aeros (2010) and Harrisburg Senators (2011).

Roansy Contreras struck out 11 batters in his Pirates organizational debut on May 4, 2021 against Bowie

The Curve finally returned to PNG Field on May 4, 2021 when top Pirates pitching prospect Roansy Contreras, acquired from the New York Yankees in a five-player deal that sent former Curve pitcher Jamison Taillon to New York, delivered a blazing fastball for a strike to Bowie's Terrin Vavra. It ended a string of 610 days without Curve Baseball and 614 at PNG Field.

In a scheduling oddity, with all 55 teams in the affiliated minors beginning play on the same day, Altoona-Bowie and Portland-New Hampshire both threw the first pitches of the 2021 minor league season at 6:03 p.m.

The Curve began the season with eight of Pittsburgh's top-30 prospects and four members of their 40-man roster in Rodolfo Castro, Roansy Contreras, Oneil Cruz and Max Kranick. Castro made his major league debut in April before joining Altoona for Opening Day and each player would end up suiting up for the Pirates before the 2021 campaign wrapped up.

With several top prospects across the diamond, Altoona raced out to a 27-18 start and were within a half game of first place on June 25 before the injury bug caught both ace pitcher Roansy Contreras and infielder Oneil Cruz in early July. Altoona finished the season with a 58-59 record in fifth place in the Southwest Division.

On the infield, Altoona began the season with a top infield prospect at each position with 3B Rodolfo Castro, SS Oneil Cruz, 2B Ji-Hwan Bae and 1B Mason Martin. Cruz, a 6'7" shortstop would go on to become the tallest player to ever start a game at shortstop in the Major Leagues when he made his debut on October 2 at PNC Field against the Cincinnati Reds. Over the final two games of the season, Cruz went 3-for-9 with a home run and three runs batted in.

Mason Martin finished fourth in the AA-NE League with 22 home runs, the most by a Curve batter since 2005 when Jose Bautista (23) and Josh Bonifay (25) were circling the bases at PNG Field. Martin recorded just the ninth 20-homer season in franchise history.

In the outfield, the Curve received steady production in right field from Cal Mitchell and in left field from Canaan Smith-Njigba before the outfield group received a pair of late-season additions, thanks in part to the Pirates' activity at the trade deadline. Jack Suwinski joined the Curve in late-July from the San Diego Padres organization in the Adam Frazier trade and Matt Fraizer, the High-A East's leading hitter, rounded out a powerful and patient group. On the mound, Altoona saw 12 dominating starts from Roansy Contreras around a stint on the injured list. Contreras struck out ten batters in a game three times, matching Ian Snell (2004) for the most double-digit strikeout games in a season in franchise history. Contreras made his major league debut in Pittsburgh on September 29 with three scoreless innings.

Johnstown, PA native Trey McGough earned the Curve's Pitcher of the Year award pitching in the same ballpark he attended games at as a kid. McGough who regularly pitched in front of dozens of family members and friends, recorded a 3.41 ERA in 18 starts. McGough finished the season strong recording 15.2 consecutive scoreless innings across his final three starts, including seven scoreless innings in the final game of the season at PNG Field, a 5-2 Curve victory.

Endy Rodriguez joined the 2022 Curve in early-August and quickly established himself as one of the Eastern League's best.

Luis Ortiz became the first Curve Pitcher to throw two immaculate innings in the same season. He earned the team's Pitcher of the Year Award for the 2022 season.

The 2022 Curve took to the field with a prospect-packed lineup of position players and pitchers. The result was an endless parade of franchise records falling and several players moving on to make their major league debut in Pittsburgh. 13 Curve Alumni made their MLB debut during the 2023 season with the Pirates led by OF Jack Suwinski, who was recalled directly from the Altoona roster with teammate Tucupita Marcano and smashed 19 home runs in 106 games with Pittsburgh; including a three-homer game at PNC Park on Father's Day which finished with a walk-off bomb from the 2021-22 Curve outfielder.

Altoona put together their first winning season since 2018 with a 71-66 record that saw the team finish with a 38-30 record in the second half of the season, just 2.5 games back of a playoff spot.

The 2022 Curve set a host of franchise records including: Most home runs in a season (143), most home runs hit in home games (74), most players with 20+ HR (2 players - Andres Alvarez and Aaron Shackelford), matched for 4th time in franchise history), most stolen bases in a season (162), most lead-off home runs hit in a season (6), most strikeouts in a season (batting, 1,254), fewest complete games thrown in a season (0), most strikeouts in a season (pitching, 1,247), most wild pitches thrown (98), most starting pitchers used (matched, 22), and most consecutive games with a home run (12). Altoona also matched or set several single-game records including runs scored in a game (5/19 vs. Richmond, 19), hits in an inning (matched, 6/2 vs. Bowie, 9), most triples in a game (matched, 6/2 vs. Bowie, 3), and most home runs allowed in an inning (4, 4th inning on 4/13 vs. Richmond).

Among Eastern League teams, Altoona finished the season tied for first in batting average (.248), second in the league in reliever ERA (3.84) and third in runs scored (681).

Aaron Shackelford led Pirates minor leaguers with 26 home runs, passing Josh Bonifay for the second-highest single-season total in franchise history. Utility man Andres Alvarez recorded the first 20/20 season in Altoona with 20 home runs and 21 stolen bases across 110 games in a lineup that was hammered by injuries throughout the season.

The #1 overall selection in the 2021 draft, catcher Henry Davis, arrived in Altoona in early-May and promptly announced his presence with a massive 2-run home run in his team debut on May 10 against Somerset. Davis' season in Altoona was limited to 31 games because of injury and as the season ticked into the second half, the Curve added another top prospect to the lineup in Endy Rodriguez. Rodriguez dominated in a 31-game run with Altoona to wrap up the regular season, batting .356 with 14 doubles and eight home runs with 32 runs batted in.

On the mound, Quinn Priester, Mike Burrows and Luis Ortiz headlined one of the league's top pitching staffs. Priester recorded a 2.87 ERA in 15 starts, the 4th-best mark among qualified Double-A pitchers since his debut on June 19, while Burrows pitched to a 2.94 ERA in 12 starts to begin the season before a promotion to Triple-A Indianapolis. Ortiz, however, made the most progress during the season eventually earning the Curve's Pitcher of the Year Award. Twice during the season, Ortiz fired an immaculate inning, setting down the side in order with three strikeouts on nine pitches, all strikes. His 126 strikeouts in 24 appearances, 23 starts, were the fourth-most in a season in franchise history and he went on to make his major league debut on September 13 at Cincinnati with 5.2 scoreless innings. J.C. Flowers and Tahnaj Thomas took home the team's Fireman of the Year Award, Andres Alvarez earned the team's Unsung Hero Award and Jared Triolo was named Most Valuable Player.

Celebrating 25 years of memories in Curve, PA the 2023 season in Altoona saw the Curve finish with a 67-68 record, the second time in three seasons following the cancelled 2020 campaign that the Curve finished their season exactly one game under .500.

Peoples Natural Gas Field hosted 308,003 fans, an average of 4,597, in 67 openings. It was the highest attendance mark for the Curve since the 2019 season and it was the 12th time in 24 seasons of play that more than 300,000 fans came through the gates at PNG Field. The Curve stand at 1,699 wins in franchise history, setting up the potential 1,700th win on Opening Day in 2024.

Altoona set their franchise record in several categories in 2023 including: Lowest Team Batting Average (.236), Fewest Triples (19), Most Stolen Bases (163), Fewest Saves (26), Most Hit by Pitch (Pitching, 88). 2023 was the second straight season that Altoona set their franchise record in stolen bases after picking up 162 swipes in 2022.

On an individual basis, RHP Aaron Shortridge made 27 starts, tied for the most in a season with nine other pitchers. He also became the 5th Curve pitcher in franchise history to win 5 games in a calendar month when he turned in a 1.91 ERA in the month of August. INF Tsung-Che Cheng matched the franchise record on July 5 against Erie with 4 Stolen Bases in a game, while Dylan Shockley matched the franchise record with four runners caught stealing on May 12 against Akron.

Additionally, the 2023 season also saw the Largest Margin of Victory and Largest Shutout Victory in franchise history on May 25 against Hartford with a 16-0 win. As well, the Curve allowed a home run in a record 13 straight games from June 7-21. On an unseasonably warm day at Erie on April 12th, the Curve matched the record for Most Home Runs in a Game with six home runs when Lolo Sanchez, Mason Martin 2x, Henry Davis, Matt Fraizer and Andres Alvarez each homered.

With RHP Paul Skenes making his Double-A debut on Saturday, August 26, the Curve welcomed the largest crowd in franchise history with 10,164 fans at Peoples Natural Gas Field. The attendance total surpassed the Pirates-Curve Exhibition game on March 30, 2013 (10,116) and is the largest crowd in the Eastern League since July 27, 2013 when the Portland Sea Dogs hosted the Harrisburg Senators in front of 16,674 fans at Fenway Park.

Paul Skenes became the fifth No.1 Overall selection to play for the Curve on August 26, 2023, joining RHP Bryan Bullington, RHP Gerrit Cole, and C Henry Davis as the only ones to do it in franchise history.

Altoona won a wild back-and-forth affair, 9-8, against the Akron RubberDucks in Skenes' lone start at PNG Field. He walked two batters and allowed three ground ball hits and hit his pitch limit in the first inning. To lead the comeback effort OF Matt Gorski picked up three hits, including a game-tying double in the ninth inning. Joe Perez reached in all five of his plate appearances (including hitting his sixth home run in 13 games with Altoona) and Carter Bins sent the record crowd home happy with a walk-off infield single that ricocheted off the pitcher with the bases loaded and two out in the ninth inning.

While Skenes was one of the major late-season headlines in the 25th year of Curve baseball, C Henry Davis was one of the minor leagues biggest headlines in April and May. Davis, the No.1 Overall selection in 2021, returned from a wrist injury that plagued his 2022 season and became one the most impactful hitters in the month of May. Davis was third among all Double-A players in OPS (on-base plus slugging percentage) with a .980 mark when he was promoted to Triple-A Indianapolis on June 5th. Davis picked up a hit in 17-of-22 games played in May and recorded his first two career multi-homer games in an Altoona uniform. He went on to make his major league debut with the Pirates on June 19 and played in 62 games through the rest of the season.

While Davis was one of the great on-field stories of the Curve's 2023 season, perhaps nothing will ever measure up to the story that Drew Maggi told baseball fans. Originally drafted by the Pirates in 2010 and an Eastern League All-Star for the Curve in 2014, Maggi made his major league debut after a 13-year minor league career and 1,154 minor league games for the Pirates, Angels, Dodgers, Indians, Twins and Phillies. In three games for the Pirates before his return to Altoona, he went 2-for-6 with a double and a run batted in. Maggi became the 198th alumni in franchise history to reach MLB when he pinch-hit for the Pirates on Wednesday, April 26 against the LA Dodgers.

The Curve saw their 200th alumni in franchise history, LHP Joe Jacques, make his major league debut during the 2023 season, one of 15 alums to major their major league debut. INF Drew Maggi, C/OF Henry Davis, and RHP Kyle Nicolas all suited up for the Curve as minor leaguers and debuted during the season, while INF Liover Peguero suited up everyday for the Curve into early-July and settled into a regular role with the Pirates for the final two months of the season. Peguero was named the team's Most Valuable Player at the end of the season.

Pitching was one of the major themes of the Curve's 2023 season as top prospects like RHP Jared Jones, LHP Anthony Solometo, RHP Bubba Chandler, and RHP Braxton Ashcraft rounded out a solid rotation with RHP Aaron Shortridge and RHP Sean Sullivan. Jones, who was named the Pitcher of the Year, allowed two runs or fewer in each of his ten starts with Altoona to begin the season. When Jones was promoted to Triple-A, Solometo arrived in his place and became the youngest pitcher to reach the Eastern League in 2023, doing so at 20 years, 6 months and 15 days when he made his debut on June 17 at Somerset. Solometo was the 13th player in franchise history to suit up for the Curve under the age of 21 and slots in as the 5th-youngest player in the team's history.

LHP Nick Dombkowski and RHP Cameron Junker were named co-Firemen of the Year as the most valuable members of the team's pitching staff and INF Claudio Finol took home the team's Unsung Hero Award.

Altoona had several players finish the season ranked in the top ten in the Eastern League in hitting and pitching categories. OF Matt Fraizer ranked sixth in the league in hits (110) and sixth in runs (67), while OF Connor Scott finished the year tied for fourth in triples (4). On the mound, RHP Aaron Shortridge ranked first in the league in wins (11), tied for first in games started (27), tied for first in complete games (2), and second in innings pitched (138.1). RHP Sean Sullivan ranked sixth in the league in ERA (3.88), sixth in WHIP (1.27) and eighth in the league in batting average against (.245). RHP Cameron Junker finished the year second in appearances (45).

Led by former Arizona Diamondbacks catcher, Manager Robby Hammock, the Curve embarked on their 2025 campaign with an impressive rotation of starting pitching talent. Highlighted by top prospects Bubba Chandler, Braxton Ashcraft, Sean Sullivan, Anthony Solometo and eventually Thomas Harrington; Altoona's staff became one of the most formidable rotations among all minor league clubs.

However, a leaky bullpen, and an inconsistent offense limited the Curve 62-76 record, the third time in four seasons that the team finished with a record below .500.

Bubba Chandler was named Altoona's 2024 Pitcher of the Year after recording a 3.60 ERA in 19 games, 16 starts. Chandler also earned the save for the National League in the Sirius/XM Futures Game, the 22nd Curve player to appear in the annual exhibition. (Rob Lynn)

The group of ace pitchers, Ashcraft, Chandler and Harrington wrote their names into the Curve record books, combining for six games of at least 10 strikeouts during the calendar season. Prior to 2021, the team had never had more than three 10-strikeout games in a season, a franchise record that fell in late-June when Chandler struck out 11 Akron RubberDucks at PNG Field; a second straight start in which he struck out at least ten hitters. Thomas Harrington was named the Eastern League's Pitcher of the Month in July after recording two more 10-strikeout games and leading all Double-A arms with a 0.70 ERA and 32 strikeouts. Harrington, who was promoted to Triple-A on August 4, was the first Curve player to earn a monthly honor since Barrett Barnes in 2016.

While pitching was central to the 2024 season in Altoona, the team's struggles early in the season wrote a story of its own. With an offense struggling to hit with men in scoring position and an inconsistent bullpen, the team saw a 4-2 start ruined by a stretch of losing 19-of-20 games from April 13 to May 5. The 15-game losing streak from April 19 to May 5 saw the team lose in every conceivable fashion, from critical errors at inopportune moments late in games, to a brutal stretch of hitting with men in scoring position. The streak saw Altoona swept in a 6-game series for the first time since the adoption of the 6-game scheduling in 2021. The streak finally ended on the strength of a brilliant bullpen performance from starter Bubba Chandler on Sunday, May 5 in Harrisburg. Having built a 6-2 lead, Chandler remained ready in the bullpen for his second appearance of the week and tossed three scoreless innings to secure his first career save and ended the longest losing streak by an Eastern League Club since Richmond dropped 15 during the 2015 season.

Braxton Ashcraft struck out 12 batters for the Curve on June 6 at Richmond, his final outing before a promotion to Triple-A Indianapolis. (Rob Lynn)

The team's play picked up in the month of June with the additions of Charles McAdoo, Luis Peralta and Jaden Woods; each of whom had a critical role in stabilizing an unstable team. McAdoo, Pittsburgh's 13th round draft pick in 2023, hammered Eastern League pitching at a similar pace to what he did with Greensboro in the South Atlantic League to help the team to a 14-12 record in the calendar month. From June 16 - July 13, Altoona went 22-9 and won five-of-six games from an opponent twice. The team's resurgence was short-lived, however, coming out of the All-Star break, Altoona dropped 8-of-9 games on their road trip to Somerset and Erie. Offense was the main culprit with the team averaging just 2.3 runs per game and batting .167 with runners in scoring position. Additionally, the Pirates made two Trade Deadline deals that sent McAdoo to Toronto for INF Isiah Kiner-Falefa and Peralta was sent to Colorado for LHP Jalen Beeks which shortened the team's depth dramatically.

Five alumni went on to make their major league debut during the 2024 season, beginning with RHP Jared Jones (2023, 3/30/24 - PIT), RHP Paul Skenes (2023, 5/11/24 - PIT), C Grant Koch (2021-22, 5/29/24 - PIT), LHP Luis Peralta (2024, 8/24/24 - COL) and RHP Mike Burrows (2022, 9/28/24 PIT)

Altoona welcomed five Pirates on Major League rehab during the season. 2021 No. 1 Overall selection Henry Davis joined the Curve for a handful of games in late-June while pitchers Ryan Borucki and David Bednar rehabbed in the same game on July 9, marking the seventh time in franchise history that two Pirates rehabbed in the same game for the Curve. Borucki returned for additional appearances later in the week-long series with Richmond and after the trade deadline both INF Isiah Kiner Falefa and 2022 Curve catcher Endy Rodriguez rehabbed with the team.

The season closed on a high note when Termarr Johnson joined the Curve on August 27. At 20 years, 2 months and 16 days, Johnson became the third-youngest player to suit up for the Curve, behind Jose Tabata and Andrew McCutchen and reached base safely in 9-of-14 games with the Curve

BOB & JOAN LOZINAK • FOUNDED MEMBERS

Bob and Joan Lozinak, both Altoona natives who always had dreams of bringing professional baseball to their hometown, were finally able to realize that dream in 1999. The original owners of the franchise from 1999-2001, Bob and Joan along with their three sons, Mike, David and Steve, reacquired their hometown team on December 30, 2008.

Bob and Joan sold the club to Diamond Baseball Holdings in July of 2023, during the 25th year of operations. In all, the Lozinaks owned the Curve for 18 years.

The Lozinaks had visions of bringing professional baseball to Altoona in the late 1970s, but public opposition thwarted the idea. They then proceeded to buy the Triple-A Albuquerque Dukes from former Los Angeles Dodgers owner Peter O'Malley and over the next 20 years (1979-2000), the Dukes captured six Pacific Coast League titles and numerous awards for club operations. Lozinak is among only a handful of minor league baseball owners to have been awarded the prestigious John H. Johnson Trophy twice. The Johnson Trophy is awarded annually to the top franchise in Minor League Baseball in the U.S. and Canada. The Dukes were presented the honor in both 1984 and 1991. Additionally, Albuquerque also captured the Larry McPhail Trophy for the country's top promotional effort in 1987. Lozinak sold the Dukes in 2000 so he could focus his efforts on his new franchise, the Altoona Curve.

After selling the Curve in 2002, the family purchased the West Tenn Diamond Jaxx and enjoyed Double-A affiliations in the Southern League with both the Chicago Cubs and the Seattle Mariners before the team was sold in the early months of the 2008 season.

Bob was born in Altoona on June 4, 1937. His college education was halted by five years of service in the Army during the 1960s. Lozinak completed Officer Candidate's School in Lawton, Okla. and was honorably discharged as a 1st Lieutenant. Upon his departure from the Army, Lozinak returned to finish his education at St. Francis College in Loretto, Pa. and graduated with a bachelor's degree in history.

After college, Bob and Joan became McDonald's franchisees in 1969 and their role as an owner-operator continues with stores in Hartford County, Maryland. Since the purchase of their first McDonald's franchise, Joan has been actively involved in many phases of the operation of the restaurant, whether it means balancing the restaurant budget or appearing at numerous functions within the community.

Joan, a graduate of Altoona Catholic High School, currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Bishop Guilfoyle Catholic High School in Altoona. She is actively involved in long-term planning, policy development, financing, capital improvements, public relations and marketing, development and alumni relations and budgetary management. Joan has always been actively involved in the Catholic church serving as either a Eucharistic Minister or singing in the choir.

Bob and Joan Lozinak were inducted to the Blair County Sports Hall of Fame on April 23, 2016.

After Bob's 40th season in baseball in 2019, Minor League Baseball honored the Curve owner with one of the industry's highest individual awards and crowned Lozinak the King of Baseball for his lifetime of dedication and service to the game. He received the award on December 8, 2019 at the Winter Meetings in San Diego.

The couple can often be found somewhere inside Peoples Natural Gas Field on game days enjoying Curve baseball with fellow fans and enjoying the fun, affordable family atmosphere they always dreamed of providing through the game of baseball in their hometown.

NATE BOWEN • GENERAL MANAGER

On October 6, 2021, Nate Bowen was named the sixth general manager in franchise history. Bowen enters his 11th season as a member of the front office staff in Altoona, joining the club as the Communications and Broadcasting Assistant in 2013 before rising through the ticket sales department until he was named Assistant General Manager in the fall of 2018.

"Nate has been an integral part of our team here for a long time. He has helped our organization in countless ways throughout his career, and we all think that he is ready for this next challenge," said Curve Chief Operating Officer, David Lozinak at the time of the hire. "Nate has extensive experience in all aspects of our operation, so he's just not a pretty voice that most people have heard on the radio; he's an extremely intelligent individual that is well-versed in minor league baseball."

Bowen served parts of five seasons in the Curve broadcast booth that included the 2017 Eastern League Championship clincher, the 2014 Eastern League All-Star Game as well as the Pirates vs. Altoona Curve exhibition game at PNC Field in 2013. He has also held broadcasting and media relations roles with the Northwest Arkansas Naturals (AA - Texas League), Durham Bulls (AAA - International League), and the Princeton Rays (Rookie - Appalachian League). He began his broadcasting career at Baldwin-Wallace University in 2005 and served as the broadcaster for the Division III school's football, basketball, and baseball teams through the 2009 season. In addition to being a play-by-play broadcaster, he co-founded The Morning Buzz, a daily morning show on the campus radio station WBWC 88.3 FM the Sting. Following graduation, Bowen served as the lead broadcaster for AM 1330 WELW in the Cleveland, Ohio area for local high school and college sports.

An active member of the community, Bowen serves on the board of directors for Family Services Inc., is a board member of the Hollidaysburg Lions Club and is a member of the Blair County Chamber of Commerce's Small Business and Public Policy Committees.

Bowen resides in Hollidaysburg with his wife, Jess, who serves as the Curve's Director of Corporate Partnerships, and their daughter Avery Jo. During the offseason he serves as a play-by-play voice for several Altoona area high schools on Talk Radio 98.5 WRTA and enjoys rooting for Buffalo and Ohio sports teams, traveling, and running.

A native of Fremont, Ohio, Bowen enjoys rooting for Buffalo and Ohio sports teams, traveling, and running. He earned a bachelor's degree in Broadcasting/Mass Communications/Public Relations from Baldwin-Wallace University in 2009.

MICHELLE GRAVERT • ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Hired as the Team's Director of Merchandise in November of 2015, Michelle Gravert was named Assistant General Manager following the 2022 season, the first woman to hold the title in the team's history.

Gravert oversees the team's merchandise and retail operations and takes an active role in the development and execution of the team's strategic plan. A graduate of Saint Ambrose University in Davenport, Iowa, Gravert began her minor league baseball career in 2011 with the Princeton Rays (Rookie, Rays) and three seasons in the merchandise and community affairs departments with the Bowling Green Hot Rods (Single-A, Rays).

A native of Davenport, Iowa, Gravert resides in Duncansville. In her free time she enjoys going to a variety of sporting events, baking, crafting and traveling. Gravert is an active member of the community, volunteering with the Mountain Lion Backpack program, The Girl Scouts of America, the Alzheimer's Association and Discovery Garden.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The name "Curve" was officially chosen as the team nickname on July 2, 1998. The name was selected by fans in a name the team contest. Other finalists included "Fish", "Ridge Runners" and "Lake Monsters." Curve was selected for two reasons: one for the baseball connotation but also as a tribute to the historic Horseshoe Curve, located just outside the city of Altoona. The landmark Horseshoe Curve was built in the 1850s as a means to make it easier for incoming trains to navigate through the Allegheny Mountains. The first train went around "the Curve" in 1854.

BIG COUNTRY'S BIG MONTH

In August 2004, Curve first baseman Brad Eldred went on a tear unlike any other in team history. For the month, he exploded for 14 home runs and 50 RBIs in 27 games while batting .340. Both totals are single-month club records. His 50 RBIs are believed to be a minor league record and were just three short of Major League Baseball's record for most RBIs in a month (53 by Hack Wilson in 1930 and Joe DiMaggio in 1939). Over the course of the month, Eldred clubbed two grand slams and had 10 games of three RBIs or more, including two six-RBI performances. He was Eastern League Player of the Month and he went on to earn Pirates Minor League Player of the Year with 38 total home runs, 137 RBIs, 38 doubles and batted .301 with A-Adv. Lynchburg and Altoona.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

Andy Fox was named the 16th manager of the Altoona Curve on January 31, 2025, taking over for Robby Hammock.

Fox's coaching career has seen him serve in several roles with the Rangers, Mariners, Marlins and Red Sox. His journey began as the Manager for the Texas Rangers with their Single-A affiliate in Clinton in 2006 where he spent one season. Fox was slated to manage Single-A Spokane for the Rangers in 2007, but was hired on March 24th of that year as the Florida Marlins First Base and Infield Coach following the retirement of Perry Hill. Fox worked with the Marlins across the 2007-09 campaigns aiding them to two winning seasons under Fredi Gonzalez and mentoring young major league stars Hanley Ramirez, Dan Uggla and Jorge Cantu. In 2010, he joined the Mariners as their Hitting Coach for their Double-A affiliate in West Tennessee.

Fox joined the Red Sox in 2011 as the team's infield Coordinator, a role he held until 2021. In his coordinator role, Fox oversaw the development of several future major league All-Stars including Rafael Devers, Xander Boegarts and Mookie Betts. Fox earned two additional World Series Championship rings as an instructor in 2013 and 2018 with Boston.

PLAYING CAREER

A former major league utilityman, Fox was drafted in the second round (45th overall) out of Christian Brothers High School in Sacramento and played parts of nine major league seasons: totaling 776 games.

Fox was known best for his versatility on the diamond, appearing at every position except for pitcher and catcher during his major and minor league career with the New York Yankees, Arizona Diamondbacks, Florida Marlins, Montreal Expos and Texas Rangers. Fox earned a pair of World Series Championship rings during his playing career with the Yankees in 1996 and Marlins in 2003.

Fox's playing career ended following the 2005 season with the LA Angels Triple-A affiliate in Salt Lake. Fox batted .239 in his major league career and stole 74 bases in 99 attempts.

CURVE CUTS: Jack Thomas Brannigan... Was ranked No. 164 among the Top 250 draft prospects by MLB Pipeline (No. 168 by Baseball America)... Attended Marist HS (IL), same high school as former Pirate/Curve LHP Tom Gorzelanny... His father ('90), grandfather ('61) and uncle ('86) all attended Notre Dame, his father (track & field) and grandfather (baseball) competing athletically... Three times in his career at Notre Dame he successfully stole home... Was also an occasional pitcher during his collegiate career totaling a 6.94 ERA (18 ER / 23.1 IP) in his three seasons with the Irish, struck out 28 batters in 14.2 IP during his junior campaign... Had his fastball clocked at 100 mph on more than one occasion as a pitcher in college... Was drafted as an infielder, but has been told by the Pirates that the door is open to working as a two-way prospect as RHP in addition to his work as a position player... Told Jason Mackey of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette in October of 2023 at Fall League: "It's one of those things that sounds really cool, then once you start to break it down, you realize it's a lot of work to do both. They said the door is open in the future. Hopefully the hitting goes well, and maybe in the future we'll circle back to the pitching stuff"... Played mostly SS as an amateur but settled in at 3B during his freshman season at Notre Dame due to team needs... Finished his degree in Finance after the 2022 season at Notre Dame... Also told Jason Mackey of the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette that he would likely work as a Financial Advisor if he wasn't playing baseball professionally...

IT KEEPS GOING & GOING...

The longest game in Altoona Curve history took place on July 13, 2000 in Norwich, Conn, when Altoona outlasted the Navigators, 6-5, in 19 innings. The game took six hours and 17 minutes to play. With the score tied 2-2, the Curve scored four times in the top of the 19th inning before they withstood a three-run comeback attempt in the bottom half of the frame to earn the win.

CRAZY 8s

In 2010, Curve outfielder Alex Presley had an unprecedented day at the plate on May 24 in Akron. The Monroe, La. native exploded for eight RBI to surpass Curve legend Adam Hyzdu for the most RBI in one game in franchise history. That feat was duplicated in 2013 by another Curve OF in Alex Dickerson, who tied the mark on July 26 in Manchester, N.H. against the Fisher Cats. Dickerson was 3-for-6 that day with a home run and two runs scored. It was part of a big weekend in Manchester as it came one night after the Curve threw the second combined no-hitter in franchise history.

GOING, GOING, GONE

Led by Aaron Shackelford's 26 home runs, the 2022 Altoona Curve set a new franchise record with 143 home runs in 137 games; Shackelford's total was the most among Pirates minor league players and the second-highest in franchise history. Andres Alvarez added 20 home runs of his own as part of the first 20/20 season in franchise history, matching the franchise record for most players with 20 or more home runs in a season (two). Blake Sabol (14) and Liover Peguero (10) also reached double-digits in homers during the 2022 season. Connor Scott set the record with a two-homer game in the penultimate game of the season against Reading on Saturday, September 17.

Blake Stein, RHP (2004)	6-7
Tyler Sample, RHP (2014-15)	6-7
Duke Welker, RHP (2011-12)	6-7

TALLEST POSITION PLAYERS BY PRIMARY POSITION

C Jacob Stallings (2012, '15)	6-5
1B Will Matthiessen (2022)	6-7
2B Shelby Ford (2008-11)	6-3
3B Neil Walker (2006-07, '13)	6-3
SS Oneil Cruz (2019)	6-7
LF/RF Todd Dunn (1999)	6-5
CF Gregory Polanco (2013)	6-5

The shortest player in Curve history was infielder Andy Wilson, listed at 5-foot-6, who played seven games for the Curve in 2005. After Elvis Escobar converted from outfielder to left-handed pitcher in 2018, Escobar's 5-foot-8 measurements made him the shortest Curve pitcher on record followed by Alonso Beltran (1999), Wilson Guzman (2000) and Elicer Navarro (2013) at 5-foot-9.

It didn't take long for the city of Altoona to show the critics who said the area was too small to support a professional baseball team that it has as knowledgeable and caring fans as anywhere minor league baseball is played. It didn't take Adam Hyzdu long to discover that fact either.

HISTORY RECORDS

When the minor league veteran signed as a free agent with the Pirates shortly after being released by the Red Sox organization early in the 1999 season, Curve fans were just getting used to their new team and its beautiful new ballpark. Few probably even knew the names of the players they were cheering for. But soon, everyone knew about Hyzdu.

He was the club's Most Valuable Player during the inaugural 1999 season, batting .316 with 24 home runs and 78 RBI in just 91 games, before earning a late-season promotion to Triple-A. Most people thought they had seen the last of Hyzdu in a Curve uniform.

However, after a less-than-intent look from the Pirates in major league spring training, and much to the surprise of the fans of Altoona, Hyzdu returned to the Curve for the 2000 season. Although perhaps initially upset about returning to the Double-A level for the fifth time in his career, Hyzdu tore up Eastern League pitching and in return won the hearts of Curve fans. In 142 games for the 2000 Curve, he batted .290 with team records for home runs (31) and RBI (106) and earned the Eastern League's Most Valuable Player Award. By the middle of the season, the entire city of Altoona was campaigning for Hyzdu's promotion to the major leagues.

And just when it appeared as though Adam Hyzdu's 11th season as a professional baseball player would end without a major league at-bat, he had the week of his life. On September 4th, following a season-ending loss to Akron, his number 16 jersey was retired by the Curve--an honor not normally bestowed upon a minor league baseball player. Then, just four days later, Hyzdu received the call he had been waiting for--he was heading to the major leagues with the Pittsburgh Pirates! He singled in his first major league at-bat on September 8th and 12 days later hit his first major league home run against the Philadelphia Phillies at Veterans Stadium.

After returning to the minor leagues to open 2001, he was recalled by the Pirates in May and spent the majority of the season with the major league club. On July 4th that season, in his hometown of Cincinnati, Hyzdu hit two homers against the Reds, bringing his baseball playing career full circle from the days when he was belting home runs at Moeller High School.

After spending parts of the 2002 and 2003 seasons with Pittsburgh, Hyzdu left the Pirates' organization to join the Boston Red Sox system in 2004. After hitting .301 with 29 homers and 79 RBI for Triple-A Pawtucket, Adam was rewarded with a September call-up to the playoff-bound Boston Red Sox and had a chance to remain with the club as the Sox did the unthinkable and won the franchise's first World Series title since 1918.

In 2005, despite spending most of the season in the minor leagues with both the Padres and Red Sox organizations, Hyzdu appeared in 29 big league games between San Diego and Boston, marking the sixth season in which he had seen action in the major leagues. 2005 also brought a milestone in Adam's career as he appeared in a major league postseason game for the first time.

The 2006 season saw Hyzdu appear for his fourth major league team as he played in two games for the Texas Rangers after signing with the club as a minor league free agent in November 2005. Hyzdu spent the 2007 season in Japan before announcing his retirement at the end of the year, capping off an 18-year playing career.

EASTERN LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIPS since 1999

Akron.....	6	New Britain*.....	1
Trenton.....	4	New Haven.....	1
New Hampshire.....	3	Norwich.....	1
Altoona.....	2	Portland.....	1
Erie.....	2	Reading*.....	1
Binghamton.....	1	Somerset.....	1

Reading & New Britain were declared co-champions in 2001 due to a stoppage of play in professional baseball

Since the Eastern League adopted its current postseason format in 1983, only four teams have swept their way through all six playoff games: the Albany-Colonie Yankees in 1991, the Trenton Thunder in 2013, the Altoona Curve in 2017 and the New Hampshire Fisher Cats in 2018. The Eastern League was known as the Double-A Northeast League for the 2021 season.

PIRATES' LONGEST, UNINTERRUPTED AFFILIATIONS

The Curve have been the Double-A affiliate of the Pittsburgh Pirates since the franchise started play in 1999. The relationship officially began on September 15, 1998 with the announcement of the first Player Development Contract between the two organizations. Located just 85 miles (as the crow flies) from PNC Park, Altoona's 26-year relationship with the Pirates is the longest-running, uninterrupted minor league affiliate in the 140-year history of the Pittsburgh Pirates. In December of 2020, the two teams announced the extension of their relationship through a brand new 10-year Player Development License created by Major League Baseball. Below is a complete list of Pirates minor league affiliations to last ten seasons or longer.

CLUB	YEARS	CLASS	LEAGUE	CLUB	YEARS	CLASS	LEAGUE
Altoona Curve	26 (1999-pres.)	AA	Eastern	Columbus Jets	14 (1957-1970)	AAA	International
Indianapolis Indians	20 (2005-pres.)	AAA	International	Albany Senators	11 (1940-1950)	A	Eastern
Salem Rebels/Pirates	17 (1964-1980)	A	Carolina	Augusta Pirates/GreenJackets	11 (1988-1998)	A	South Atlantic
Bradenton Marauders	16 (2010-pres.)	A	Florida State Lg	Hickory Crawdads	10 (1999-2008)	A	South Atlantic
Lynchburgh Hillcats	15 (1995-2009)	A-Adv.	Carolina	West Virginia Power	10 (2009-2018)	A	South Atlantic

Salem, Va. is the only city to host a Pirates affiliate for more total seasons than Altoona. Salem was an affiliate at three different levels for 28 years combined over two different stints (1964-80 & 1990-94). The Salem Rebels (renamed the Pirates in 1972 after Pittsburgh's 1971 World Series title) were the Rookie-level affiliate from 1964-67, then moved up to full-season Class A in 1968 and remained through 1980. After three years as an affiliate of the San Diego Padres and three more with the Texas Rangers, Salem returned to Pirates affiliation in 1987 and were re-named the Buccaneers. The Carolina League became Class A-Advanced in 1990 and Salem remained an affiliate through 1994 before the Pirates moved on to Lynchburg prior to the 1995 campaign.

“A minor league ballpark is one thing. An amusement park is another. But tucked in the Allegheny Mountains is a place where there’s really no difference.”
-- USA Today, August 8, 2002

Opened on April 15, 1999, Peoples Natural Gas Field is widely considered by fans, players, baseball executives and media as one of the finest minor league baseball facilities in America. Located just off Interstate 99 in Altoona, the ballpark features a beautiful brick exterior and the design is modeled after a railroad roundhouse to tie in the industry which helped found the city of Altoona and is still very much present to this day. The inside of Peoples Natural Gas Field features more than 7,200 fixed seats between two levels. The double-deck layout of the seating section allows for expansive lower and upper concourses, giving fans plenty of space to walk around the ballpark without having to fight through a stationary crowd of people. The “Skyliner” roller coaster from neighboring Lakemont Park and the scenic Allegheny Mountains add to the overall beauty of Peoples Natural Gas Field.

PNG FIELD GROUND RULES

- Backstop Area: Everything behind the plate is live. The cables holding the net behind home plate are dead.
- Dugout Areas: A player may lean over the dugout railing to make a catch but may not step down onto the dugout step. Anything in the photo wells at the end of the dugouts is dead. The runners will advance at the umpire's discretion.
- Outfield Area: Anything over the yellow line on the outfield fence or the batter's eye is a home run. The tarp may be leaned on but a player may not elevate himself onto the tarp. Everything in the bullpen is live unless the ball gets lodged. In this case, the player should raise his hands.
- Left Field: Any ball that hits the top of the fence and bounces over is a home run. Any ball that hits the tall wall below the yellow line and bounces into the bleachers results in a home run.

Best Time to Contact in Person

NIGHT GAME: Before 1:00 p.m.

DAY GAME: Before 10:00 a.m.

MORNING GAME: Day before

SEASON CREDENTIALS: Season credentials for the 2025 season will only be issued to legitimate news gathering organizations and individuals that cover the Curve on a daily basis. The Curve will contact media outlets on an individual basis regarding season-long credentials. Other media organizations that would like to request a season credential can do so by sending that request on company letterhead as an email attachment to JMozes@altoonacurve.com or via phone (814-283-3180).

DAILY CREDENTIALS: Daily credentials will be issued to those individuals or organizations who do not qualify for season credentials, including freelance writers and weekly and monthly publications. Daily credentials will also be issued to radio and TV stations when the need arises for extra pre/postgame personnel and to newspaper reporters providing extra coverage. The Curve Media Relations Department should be notified at least 24 hours in advance of the game in which daily credentials are being requested. Requests should be emailed or communicated by phone. Once approved, the credentials can be picked up at the Media/Handicap Gate.

CREDENTIAL PICKUPS: Season Credentials can be picked up on Media Day, Tuesday, April 1 or Opening Day, Friday, April 4. Media can make other arrangements with the Curve Media Relations Department to pick up credentials after that date. Daily credentials will only be available for pickup on the day they are issued at the front desk in the office.

MEDIA ENTRANCE TO PEOPLES NATURAL GAS FIELD: Media picking up daily credentials should pick up their credential at the front desk located beneath the Big Blue Flame at the front of Peoples Natural Gas Field. Media may enter through any gate at the ballpark and must have their credential displayed at all times.

OTHER ACCEPTABLE CREDENTIALS: The Curve will also honor credentials from the Pittsburgh Pirates, National and American Leagues, the Baseball Writers Association of America and Minor League Baseball.

PRESS BOX SPACE: Though Peoples Natural Gas Field's press box is spacious, the Curve still give preferred seating to those media outlets that cover the club most frequently. If your media organization has special space requirements, please contact the Curve Media Relations Department at least 24 hours prior to those dates.

PHOTO WELLS: Photo wells are located at the end of both dugouts. Photographers are welcome to use this space throughout the course of the game. Photographers are not permitted in the actual dugout area or on the field once the game begins. Please wait until the end of the inning to move to and from these areas.

PARKING: Media members holding season credentials are permitted to park their vehicles in the VIP parking lot by presenting their credentials to the attendant. Please be aware that parking is available on a first-come, first-serve basis. Those holding daily credentials that need to be picked up at the Media/Handicap gate will have their name placed on a VIP parking list, as long as they give at least 24 hours notice.

INTERVIEW POLICY: The Curve Media Relations Department will be glad to assist members of the media in procuring interviews with Curve players and coaching staff members. Media members wishing to do an off-site interview or a feature story should contact the Curve at least 48 hours in advance to the scheduled interview time. The media is asked to be respectful of the players' pregame schedule when requesting an interview with a player. No one will be permitted to interview starting pitchers on the day of their start.

CLUBHOUSE POLICIES AND FIELD ACCESS: In accordance with the regulations designated by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Major League Baseball, both clubhouses will open to credentialed media from 3.5 hours prior to game time until 60 minutes before game time. Following the game, the clubhouses will be closed for a period of 10 minutes to allow the team ample time to return to the clubhouse. The clubhouse areas are also closed when the teams are on the field, unless previously approved by the Curve Media Relations Department. Clubhouses are also closed between games of a doubleheader.

FIELD ACCESS: Credentialed media are permitted access to the field and dugout areas, but are not permitted to cross the foul lines, particularly when the team is taking batting practice. Media must leave the field and dugout areas no later than 30 minutes prior to game time.

LIVE VIDEO: Live video must be shot from a minimum of 12 feet away from the bullpen at PNG Field. Live video cannot exceed more than five minutes at a time during batting practice and must be taken from the seating bowl. Live video is not permitted inside the Curve clubhouse at any time. Live social media interviews will not be permitted at any time.

The Curve are pleased to partner with the Altoona-Blair County Airport and Contour Airlines for the 2025 season as the title sponsor of the Altoona Curve Radio Network. The Blair County Airport Curve Radio Network, flown by Contour Airlines will be heard throughout the season on the flagship radio station of the Curve, Talk Radio 98.5 FM and 1240 AM WRTA.

Continuing a successful partnership, the Curve will be heard all season long on the Flagship home of the Curve Radio Network on Talk Radio 98.5 FM and 1240 AM WRTA. The multi-year agreement runs through the 2025 season. The Curve and Lightner Communications continue their relationship this year with all 138 regular-season games airing on Talk Radio 98.5 FM and 1240 AM WRTA in the Altoona area. Lightner Communications will stream all games live on WRTA.com. 1230 AM WCRO in Johnstown has joined as a network affiliate for select games throughout the 2025 season.

The Curve and Lightner Communications will also continue their cross-promotional and marketing relationships from past seasons in 2025. Popular on-air personalities from the Lightner Communications family of stations (Q94, Mix 94.7, Talk Radio WRTA, JACK-FM, 96.1 Hank FM, The Train WTRN) will be on hand throughout the season at Peoples Natural Gas Field for remote broadcasts and to take part in contests and in-game events.

All 138 games will be available to out-of-market listeners via AltoonaCurve.com and on mobile devices (iPhone/Android) with the MiLB First Pitch app. Curve fans can also watch all games free on the Bally Sports Live app or with a paid annual subscription to MLB.TV. Visit MLB.TV for more information on annual subscriptions. Pregame coverage of each game begins 15 minutes prior to first pitch with a postgame show following the final out.

JON MOZES • FIFTH SEASON

@spelledwithaZ

Jon Mozes is in his 13th season calling professional baseball and fifth with the Curve after spending six seasons as a member of the broadcast team for the Trenton Thunder (Double-A, NYY).

Mozes served as the lead voice for the 2018 Eastern League All-Star Classic and was on the call when the Thunder secured their fourth Eastern League Championship in franchise history in 2019. In addition to his role in the broadcast booth, Jon took a leadership role in the development of the Thunder's marketing and promotional plans, overseeing all team communications and was a member of the team's corporate sales department.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Mozes was a radio voice for professional baseball teams in Abilene, TX and Gary, IN after graduating from the University of New Haven in 2012 with a degree in Sport Management and a minor in Communications.

Off the diamond, Mozes is the voice of Princeton University Women's Basketball and was on the call as the Tigers secured NCAA Tournament victories in 2022 and 2023. He is also a radio and ESPN+ broadcast talent for Temple University, the University of Delaware and Rider University.

Mozes was raised and currently resides in Philadelphia, PA.

PRESTON SHOEMAKER • FIFTH SEASON

@Prestonshoe21

Preston Shoemaker returns to the broadcast booth for a fifth season, serving as the team's Assistant, Director of Communications and Broadcasting. The Hollidaysburg native joined the broadcast booth in 2021 and grew up attending Curve games as a season ticket holder. Shoemaker is the only Blair County native to broadcast games for the Curve and maintains the team's website, contributes to team marketing efforts in addition to his role in the broadcast booth.

Shoemaker, who is a 2022 graduate of Penn State University, served as the Sports Director for Penn State's student radio station CommRadio for four years. He has called games for Saint Francis University, Big Ten Network+, Penn State Athletics, and more, working on a wide variety of different sports. He also serves as a rotating public address announcer at Penn State and freelanced as a writer for the Associated Press at the Little League World Series and Super Bowl LVI while in college.

NATIONAL TELEVISION

The nation's eyes turned to Blair County Ballpark on April 11, 2010 when Washington Nationals prospect Stephen Strasburg made his professional debut in front of a record crowd at Blair County Ballpark. The game, which was broadcast on ESPN360.com and had live look-ins taken by ESPNEWS, brought a crowd of 7,887 to BCB on Sunday afternoon. It was the largest single-game crowd to take in a Curve game in the month of April in franchise history. The Curve were again featured on national television on September 14, 2010 for Game 1 of the Eastern League Championship Series, when Yankees pitcher Andy Pettitte made a rehab start for the Trenton Thunder at BCP and MLB Network carried live look-ins of the game. Curve second baseman Chase d'Arnaud homered off Pettitte to lead off the bottom of the first, but the Thunder went on to win the game in 10 innings. On June 21, 2015, a game between the Curve and Harrisburg Senators was broadcast live to American Sports Network affiliates around the U.S. as part of their Minor League Baseball Sunday Showcase series. The game was called by Brett Dolan and former big leaguer Brian McRae and featured live interviews in the broadcast booth with Curve owner Bob Lozinak and General Manager Rob Egan. The Curve went on to defeat the Senators, 7-3.
