SIX SHOOTER: Weber was the final piece of the puzzle in helping Amarillo have a franchise-first; it was the first time in Sod Poodles history that six different players all homered in the same game. The franchise-high for home runs hit in a game is seven which happened on June 5, 2021, at Frisco. Michael De La Cruz and Luis Angel Basabe each hit two as five different Sod Poodles hit home runs that night. Tuesday night was just the third time in team history that Amarillo had hit six home runs in a game. The first came on September 11, 2021. The second happened on Mother's Day in 2022 when Corbin Carroll, Dominic Fletcher, and Blaze Alexander each had multi-HR games.

MELLENDEZ MASH: Ivan Melendez hit his 19th home run of the season while collecting his 40th and 41st RBI of the year with a two-run shot to open the game's scoring. It was the first home run for Melendez since July 21st against Springfield. With the departure of Tim Tawa to Triple-A Reno before Tuesday's game against the Hooks, Melendez takes over as the active leader in the Texas League in home runs. It was the 31st home run of his Amarillo career as he and the guy behind him in the Sod Poodles order on Tuesday broke a three-way tie with Leandro Cedenro for the fourth-most home runs all-time by an Amarillo player.

BACK-TO-BACK, JACK: Caleb Roberts is the only player to be involved in both back-to-back home run instances the Sod Poodles have had this season. Roberts and Tawa were the first pair of teammates to do it for Amarillo this year when they did so on July 10th on the road in San Antonio. Roberts followed Melendez's lead on Tuesday night, hitting a solo home run off Miguel Ullola in the bottom of the second to put Amarillo up 3-0. The home run for Roberts helped him keep pace with Melendez in the all-time home run category. Both sit at 31 career home runs.

YUKE NUKE: A.J. Vukovich joined the home run party with a solo shot in the fifth. It was the 15th of his season, making him tied for the fifth-most in the Texas League this year. It was his 41st in his Sod Poodles career as he trails Tim Tawa by eight for the most ever by an Amarillo player. Vukovich also hit a home run in the series opener against San Antonio last week and has four in his last 11 games played. His 68 RBI on the year are tops in the Texas League and he sits T-3rd in XBH (40) and 7th in hits (104).

BOHEMIAN BLAST OFF: Kristian Robinson hit his seventh home run of the season and second in his last six games after also hitting one against San Antonio last Wednesday. Robinson has hit three of his seven home runs for the season in his last 17 games since the calendar turned to August. Robinson also ended the 2023 season with a flurry of home runs, hitting seven in his final 13 games of the season.

BATER TATERS: Matt Beaty was one of three players to have a multi-RBI game, finishing 2-for-4 with a home run and three RBI. It was Beaty's fifth home run with Amarillo and his first since July 9th on the road in San Antonio. He spent eight games with Triple-A Reno to begin the month. After his 12th multi-hit effort in 45 games played, Beaty is hitting .297 with five homers and five doubles with 20 RBI, 14 walks, and 18 strikeouts.

GRILLED TOTS: Andy Weber was the sixth and final Amarillo player to hit a home run on Tuesday night, hitting a three-run home run to right field in the bottom of the eighth. It was Weber's lone hit for the night as he finished 1-for-4 with three RBI and two runs scored. He now has three home runs in 25 games played for Amarillo with his last coming on August 6th at home against NW Arkansas.

RAY DAY: Dylan Ray earned his second win of the year on Tuesday night. Both wins for the D-backs' no. 16-rated prospect have come against Corpus Christi. Ray set his season high for strikeouts with eight on Tuesday night, topping the six that he previously had done twice, including in his first appearance against the Hooks back on August 2nd. Ray is now 2-0 with a 2.82 ERA in August. Over 22.1 IP after Tuesday night he has 24 strikeouts while allowing 16 hits and seven earned runs.

TAWABUNGA FOREVER: With his promotion to Triple-A Reno, Tim Tawa departs Amarillo as the franchise-leader in home runs (48), hits (265), doubles (50), XBH (101), total bases (465), walks (120), and runs (164). He ranks second in RBI (162) and sixth in stolen bases (25). Tawa played in 105 games with Amarillo this year, bringing his total for his Amarillo career up to 281 in the regular season and he played in all six games during the 2023 Texas League Playoffs. Tawa was the leader for Amarillo this season in AVG (.270), led the Texas League in home runs (21), was first on the team in SLG (.487), OPS (.827), hits (111), XBH (45), total bases (200), and runs scored (62). The super utility-man played every position for Amarillo except for catcher.

SUNDAY FUNDAY: The Sod Poodles salvaged a series split against San Antonio, coming back to win on Sunday 5-3. It was Amarillo's fifth win of the year on Sunday this season as the team is now 5-14 in such games and 2-8 in their last 10 Sunday games. The Sod Poodles overcame an early 3-0 deficit against the Missions, matching the most runs Amarillo has come back from to win a game this year which they have now done five times.

THE ARM BARN: Four different relievers were used in the win on Sunday in relief of Billy Corcoran. LHP Will Mabrey picked up his third win of the year with a clean sixth inning. RHP Conor Grammes and LHP Jake Rice earned earned holds after working a hitless seventh and eighth inning respectively. It was the fifth hold for both of them on the season. RHP Mitchell Stumpo collected his 10th save of the year after working the ninth. Stumpo's 10 saves are tied for the most in the D-backs farm system and T-3rd in the Texas League this year. He has 11 saves for his Amarillo career which is now T-4th all-time by an Amarillo pitcher along with Christian Montes De Oca. He sits two behind Kyle Backhus for the third-most by a Sod Poodles pitcher and three away from matching David Bednar for the second-most. Blake Rogers accumulated 26 during his Sod Poodles career.

K-ROBB: Kristian Robinson drew two more walks on Sunday against the Missions to bring his total on the year up to 53 to lead the team this year. In 16 games so far in August, Robinson has taken two free passes in a game six times and he has drawn 32 of his 53 walks for the season in his last 42 games played after 21 through his first 47 games. His keen eye at the plate has also seen his AVG rise since June 26th. Robinson was hitting .180 through his first 47 games and in the 43 since he his hitting .244.
