Leading Off

Today, Reading and Hartford play the penultimate game of this home-opening, six-game homestand. Hartford took the first two contests, then Reading responded with a win Thursday, but Hartford won Friday to take a 3-1 series lead. Reading is looking to get its second win of the season and have a chance at least of a series split with the Yard Goats.

Shake the Dust Off

The R-Phils fell to Hartford 6-4 last night in a game that featured plenty of opportunities. Reading outhit Hartford 11-5, but stranded 11 runners on base, including leaving the bases loaded twice (6th and 9th innings). The R-Phils also committed a season-high four errors in the contest. Reading has now lost six of seven to open the 2023 season. The last time that happened was in 2006, when the R-Phils also started 1-6.

Wacky Numbers

When looking at Reading's early-season results, there are a lot of numbers that stand out. The R-Phils lead the entire Eastern League in hitting at .265, but ranks 10th in runs scored with 29, which is good for 4.1 per game. The R-Phils early-season achilles heal has been its pitching. Reading ranks in the bottom-half of the league in all major pitching categories through seven games.

Early Game Success

One part of the game the R-Phils have found success in has been the first inning. In the first inning of games, Reading is outscoring opponents by seven runs. But, over the rest of the game, opponents are out scoring the R-Phils by 16 runs. The third inning has been a struggle spot for Reading, as opponents are outscoring the R-Phils by six runs in the frame.

Around the Organization

The big club, Philadelphia Phillies, picked up their fifth win of the season last night in an 8-3 win over the Cincinnati Reds on the road. Bryson Stott and Alec Bohm each garnered hits to stay hot to open the season. Stott now has hits in 14-straight games. Elsewhere, Lehigh Valley fell to Durham 4-3 on the road last night. High-A Jersey Shore fell at home 9-5 to Greensboro last night. Finally, Clearwater fell 5-1 last night at home against the Fort Myers Might Muscles.

Looking Ahead

Following the next two games against Hartford, Reading will embark north to take on the Portland Sea Dogs up in Maine. Portland is rolling early in the season with a 6-1 record and have won three of four so far on the road at New Hampshire this week. Corey Rosier and Tyler Dearden pace Portland at the plate, both hitting over .400.

This Day in Baseballtown History

April 15, 2003: At Reading, Brian Hitchcox hits a 2-run home run with two outs in the bottom of the 9th to rally the R-Phils past Akron, 5-4. Reading trailed 4-0 in the 6th and 4-1 going into the bottom of the 8th.

The Goats

Hartford enters tonight's matchup 4-3 on the season after last night's victory. The Yard Goats dropped two of three games at home to the Bowie Baysox last weekend. After the series finale tomorrow, Hartford will return home to open a six-game home series against the Binghamton Rumble Ponies on Tuesday.

On the Mound for Hartford

Tonight's Hartford starter is righty Andrew Quezada. He is making his second start of the season after being roughed up by Bowie in just two innings last Friday. Quezada spent all of 2022 in high-A Spokane, where he went 9-4 with a 4.28 ERA over 21 games and 19 starts.

ON THE MOUND

They found a bargain later on in the period, in January of 2018, when they inked Rojas for just $10K. In each of his two years of full season ball, he's started slowly but finished well offensively, showing off his plus speed and defense at all stops. He made it to Double-A for the first time in 2022 and then finished with a strong performance in the Arizona Fall League before getting added to the 40-man roster. Rojas has shown he can be an impact player on both sides of the ball thanks to his near-top-of-the-scale speed. He's an elite baserunner, one who stole 62 bases in 67 tries last season and then went 13-for-13 in the AFL. His speed is an obvious asset in the outfield, where he is a premium defender in center field, one who could be a Gold Glove.
