LAST GAME

The Bowie Baysox held on for a one-run win over the Binghamton Rumble Ponies on Wednesday night at Mirabito Stadium in Binghamton, plating a go-ahead run in the seventh inning as part of a 4-3 win. Jordan Westburg clubbed his third home run of the season early, but the biggest contribution came out of the bullpen from Ryan Watson. The Bowie right-hander spun four perfect innings of relief to earn the win. Garrett Stallings took the mound for Bowie, and Binghamton put a scare on in the first inning with a trio of baserunners, but Stallings used a double play and a strikeout to keep the scoreboard clean. Westburg's three-run home run with two outs in the third inning proved critical, as Binghamton would claw back to tie against Stallings and Logan Gillaspie, before Gunnar Henderson delivered a two-out single in the seventh inning to push Bowie ahead for good.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

In the early goings of 2022, Binghamton has been hot on one end of the field, but not so hot on the other, leading to a 1-2 start. The Rumble Ponies .301 batting average is good for the second highest in the league, (Richmond hit .303 against Bowie in their Opening Weekend series) while their five home runs are tied for the most in the league. It was a slugfest for Binghamton against Hartford in their season-opening series, as the two teams exited the weekend ranked second and first in both slugging percentage and OPS, respectively. On the mound, Binghamton's 25 runs allowed is already the most in the league, but Bowie is not too far behind at 22. The two sides are having opposite issues with their pitching staffs, however, as Binghamton's starters have a 14.00 ERA, highest in the league, against Bowie's 3.18. From relievers, Bowie's 10.34 ERA is the highest in the league, nearly double Binghamton's 5.63.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Right-handed Jose Butto has dealt through the minor leagues, earning himself the No.12 ranking in the Mets prospect system. Butto was the opening day starter for the Rumble Ponies, pitching four innings of scoreless ball against Hartford. Last season, he pitched eight starts for Double-A Binghamton, finishing with a 3.12 ERA. To open the month of August, he pitched 20 2/3 innings of scoreless ball, boosting his stock. He last pitched against an Oriole affiliate in June of last season, pitching six innings of two-run ball against Aberdeen.

BACKED TO THE WALL

Bowie has not been afraid to make some noise when down to their final out. The Baysox have scored eight runs this season when there are two outs in an inning, including two multi-run innings. Bowie's big inning came with two outs last night, as the Baysox drew a walk and a single, setting up Jordan Westburg for a three-run home run on a full count offering, his third home run of the season. Bowie's .245 batting average with two outs is the third highest in the league.

SHIFT HIM THE OTHER WAY

Baysox infielder Joey Ortiz has been slapping the ball in the opposite direction plenty to start the season. Among qualified batters in the Orioles organization, Ortiz has the highest rate of balls hit to the opposite field, shooting 64.3% of his balls in play to the right side. In the Eastern League, that mark may only be good for the fourth-highest, but on further examination, Ortiz is the only batter of the group with a Line Drive Rate over 10%, with Ortiz sitting at 23.1%

WEST ROCKS THE EAST

Infielder Jordan Westburg launched a critical three-run home run on a 3-2 pitch with two outs to give Bowie a 3-0 lead. Already with three home runs on the year, it's a faster start for Westburg, as he needed 12 games last season before hitting his first home run with Bowie. In those first 12 game with Bowie in 2021, Westburg only went 6-for-45 at the plate (.133), but has already collected three hits this season. Westburg was named the Orioles Organization All-Star at shortstop by MiLB.com for his 2021 season, as he finished second in the system with a .380 OBP and 74 runs scored, while his 79 RBIs, 121 hits, 27 doubles and five triples ranked third and his .479 slugging percentage and .868 OPS ranked fourth.

STARTER SHORTAGES

Bowie pitching, along with the entire Eastern League, is still slowly stretching out its starting pitchers this season. Through the first five games of the season, Bowie is averaging slightly less than 4.1 innings of work from their starting pitchers. Bowie could potentially benefit from longer outings from their starters, as the starters' 3.98 ERA is over five earned runs lower than that of their relievers. Of the entire Eastern League, no team is seeing an average of five innings of work from their starting pitchers over the brief start of this season, and the league average is less than four innings.. Bowie, on average, is getting the fourth-longest outings from their starters.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Drew Rom begins the second turn through the rotation for Bowie. Career 6-1, 2.18 ERA in April and May See Page 2 for more.

HASKIN RAKIN - Outfielder Hudson Haskin's 1.901 OPS is the second highest in Minor League Baseball

WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN - After a one-year pause, Minor League Baseball has reinstated the well-known league names across the country, putting Bowie back in the Eastern League

NEW RULES FOR ALL - In 2022, Double-A will feature larger bases (15 in. > 18 in.) and new limits on pick off attempts (Two step-offs per PA).

Notes

- Will sometimes mix in a slider and two-seam fastball from a sidearm delivery.
- Gained 27 pounds between the start of spring training and Opening Day. "Just eating and lifting. Starting to focus now on making some muscle out of it"
- Picked up tips on his changeup from Orioles starter John Means when Means made a rehab start with Bowie in 2021: "I was kind of like the little kid, just nervous to talk to him. Eventually I got the nuts to ask him about his changeup. He was the nicest, most genuine guy. He told me how he throws it, how he grips it. He was awesome about it."
- Closed 2021 with 13 consecutive scoreless innings for Bowie after allowing at least one earned run in each of his previous seven outings, including all of his outings with Bowie.
- In 2021, Aberdeen averaged eight runs in games Drew appeared in, while Bowie only averaged 5.8 runs in the same games
- Major contributor for manager Kyle Moore with the Delmarva Shorebirds in 2019. Team finished with a 90-48 record, the best in Minor League Baseball. Rom was one of eight Shorebirds named to the South Atlantic League All-Star Game.

What They're Saying:

Matt Blood, Orioles Dir. of Player Development: "He throws a lot of strikes. He's deceptive, he's an uncomfortable at-bat for hitters and he's still pretty young, so we're excited about that."

MLB Pipeline: "Lean and projectable, Rom hides the ball well by creating deception with his 6-foot-2 frame. He releases from a three-quarters arm slot and uses his long stride and crossfire finish to create good extension, which allows his pitches to play up and miss barrels consistently. He is comfortable throwing either off-speed pitch in fastball counts as well as mixing up arm angles; he couples this unpredictability with a quick pace and moderate effort delivery that projects durability."

Baseball America: "Rom hasn't yet developed a standout pitch, but a varied mix and precocious pitchability have helped him carve up hitters at every level. He experimented with dropping his arm slot against lefties to create different action on his two-seam fastball. Rom knows how the pitches play off one another, and pitches backwards while taking advantage of his deception and angles."

Notes by Outing*

Apr 9 v RIC Bowie's Opening Day starter, was peppered with base hits over his three innings, six singles. Allowed three single over the first two innings, but did not allow a runner to reach third base. Once he reached the second trip through the order, Richmond started with two singles and two walks to eventually score three runs.

Player Notes

Second pitch thrown in his Double-A career was served to left field for a solo home run by Binghamton's Ronny Mauricio. Loeprich would go on to allow a career-high three home runs to the Rumble Ponies in a 9-4 Bowie loss on 4/12. // In 2021, made 11 appearances for High-A Aberdeen, and three for Rookie-Level Orioles Black. // Made six appearances (four starts) with the Mesa Solar Sox in the Arizona Fall League in 2021. 2-1 / 8.38 ERA / 15 K / 18 BB / 19.1 IP // Traded to Baltimore on September 20, 2020 from Pittsburgh in exchange for cash and International bonus pool capacity. // Initially drafted in the 20th round of the 2018 draft by Pittsburgh out of Saint Mary's College of California // Torn meniscus in his left knee kept him from making his start in 2021 until late June // Only a part-time starter at Saint Mary's, made 11 starts in 38 career appearances // After initially being drafted as a reliever for the Pirates, began the transition into more starting roles in May 2019. Made 33 appearances out of the bullpen before making his first career start // Return to High-A after recovering from his torn meniscus was tough, allowed 17 earned runs over eight innings, including five home runs. Allowed only 18 earned runs over his following 38 innings to complete the season.

Took a blown save, but earned the Baysox first win of the season in their third game, thanks in part to a six-run seventh inning for Bowie. // In 2021, appeared in eight games for Bowie, and 22 games for Aberdeen. // His 30 appearances in 2021 were the seventh-most in the Orioles organization. // Prime numbers came after his promotion to Bowie, as he only allowed runs in one of his eight outings, and collected 12 strikeouts against no walks over his last six appearances. // Spent his freshman year at Wake Forest in the bullpen, but transitioned to a starting role for his sophomore and junior seasons before being drafted.

Player Notes

After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to an career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #3 prospect and Minor League Baseball's #64 overall prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline. Listed as #4 for the Orioles and #57 in MiLB by Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at third base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // 105 games in 2021 was tied for tenth-most in the Orioles system, 28 doubles was good for the second-most behind Robert Neustrom's 31, 17 home runs was sixth-most, and 74 RBI was fifth-most. // Appeared in all three games of the Double-A Northeast Championship Series against Akron, going 3-for-10 overall with a solo home run in game two. // Originally committed to Auburn, but signed for an above-slot $2.3M to join Baltimore. // In 2021, played 62 games at shortstop, and 35 games at third base. // Was named the Low-A East Offensive Player of the month in May 2021, when he hit .313 in 20 games with six home runs. // Started only 1-for-31 at High-A Aberdeen, but followed with a .325 mark over his next 20 games. // Orioles Director of Player Development Matt Blood: "It was a great experience for him to have to navigate those struggles and once he came out of them, he took off. He's got well-above-average power. He's just really young and just learning how to play."

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #15 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #16 according to Baseball America. // Only played 35 games in 2021 due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder in late June that required surgery. // Played 16 games with Bowie, 19 with Aberdeen. // Focused on building muscle during the lost 2020 season. Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical....this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Player Notes

Ranked as the Orioles #33 prospect entering the 2022 season according to Baseball America. Also listed as the best defensive outfielder in the organization. // 21 home runs in 2021 ranked fourth in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers, Adley Rutschman, and Patrick Dorrian. Despite the high home run number, his .768 OPS was only good for 39th in the organization. // When combined with his 24 stolen bases, Watson was the only player in the system with a 20-20 season in 2021, and the first since DJ Stewart in 2017. // First selected by Boston in the 40th round of the 2018 draft, but elected not to sign. // Played 49 games in Bowie, 56 in Aberdeen. In 2019, played 16 games in Delmarva, 20 in Aberdeen.

Appeared in 106 games in 2021, good for ninth-most in the Orioles system, while his 13 home runs ranked 15th. // Split his defensive time evenly on both corners of the infield, with 41 games at both bases. Also played 13 games in the outfield. // A native of western Pennsylvania, Welk did not fully anticipate to play baseball at a high professional level, choosing Penn State-Berks for their engineering program, but was drafted after hitting 34 career home runs, collecting a .433 batting average, and only striking out only 31 times. // Named the D3baseball.com National Player of the Year in 2019. // Was the first player ever drafted out of Penn State-Berks. // Just after his call-up to Bowie, he stopped sitting on pitch types, and started looking for pitches in specific locations to swing at. The change in approach helped him hit 11 home runs in 70 games. // Played 70 games in Bowie, 36 in Aberdeen.

Player Notes

Hit the Baysox first home run of the season in the second game of the year, a game-tying solo home run in the eighth inning against Richmond. Richmond scored seven runs in the following half inning. // Followed with a home run on the third day of the season, the third time in his career that he'd homered on consecutive days. He had homered on three consecutive days with High-A Aberdeen, and homered on consecutive days with Bowie against Somerset on 9/2 and 9/3/21. // Ranked as the Orioles #6 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline and Baseball America. Also listed as the best athlete and the best defensive infielder in the organization by Baseball America. // Played at least 20 games at Low-A, High-A, and Double-A in 2021, primarily with High-A Aberdeen, where he hit .286 with eight home runs in 62 games. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at shortstop by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Finished second in the system with a .380 OBP and 74 runs scored, while his 79 RBIs, 121 hits, 27 doubles and five triples ranked third and his .479 slugging percentage and .868 OPS ranked fourth. // Highest drafted shortstop in the history of Mississippi State, and the 17th player to be drafted in the first round. // Along with Justin Foscoe (14th overall pick, Texas), became the second set of teammates chosen in the first round in program history, joining Will Clark and Rafael Palmeiro from the 1985 MLB Draft.

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their daughter Madilyn reside in Sarasota, FL.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
