NEWS AND NOTES

FLIGHT CLUB: Brewers no. 5-rated prospect Jett Williams extended his hitting streak to six straight games with a leadoff single in the bottom of the first inning. The six-game streak is a season-long for Williams who had posted two five-game streaks earlier this season. During his current six-game streak, Williams is hitting .318 (7-for-22) with two doubles, four RBI, five walks, and seven runs scored. He has a hit in 14 of his last 20 games dating back to June 4, hitting .228 (18-for-79) with seven XBH and 15 RBI during the span.

BIG CHICKEN: Brewers no. 4 rated prospect Luis Lara ended a 42-game homerless drought with his two-run homer in the bottom of the third inning on Thursday night. The 21-year-old set his single-season career-high with five home runs through his first 26 Triple-A games and had seven on the year through 33 games on May 6 to lead the club and ranked T-10th in the International League. His eight home runs now rank fifth on the team, breaking a tie with Brock Wilken. Despite going homerless over his last 42 games, Lara hit .320 (49-for-153) with six doubles, two triples, and 20 RBI while carrying a .820 OPS. After another walk and stolen base on Thursday, Lara leads or ranks top 3 in the International League in: OBP (1st, .435), runs (1st, 64), AVG (2nd, .325), hits (2nd, 91), and walks (3rd, 52). His 23 stolen bases are ninth-most in the league.

JUST A PINCH OF SPICE: Nashville had just six pinch hit opportunities through the end of May (57 G) and have had three in the last two games. Ethan Murray is one of three Nashville players to have multiple pinch hit at-bats this season, joining Freddy Zamora and Greg Jones. Murray has one of the two hits for Nashville as a pinch-hitter this year and has reached base both times after drawing a walk on Thursday night. The Sounds are 2-for-9 with a triple and three strikeouts this season when sending a pinch hitter to the dish. Since the start of the 2021 season, the Sounds are 26-for-152 (.171 AVG) with two doubles, a triple, two home runs, and 13 RBI. The .171 AVG is the fifth lowest in Triple-A over the last six-plus seasons.

RISP-Y BUSINESS: After going 1-for-15 on Thursday night, Nashville is 1-for-20 with runners in scoring position over the last two games and have stranded 16 runners in back-to-back one-run losses. The Sounds rank 14th in the International League this season, hitting .251 as a team with RISP. Eddy Leonard and Luis Lara are two of 54 qualified players in Triple-A hitting above .300 this season with RISP. Leonard leads all Sounds, hitting .323 (21-for-65) with nine XBH and 33 RBI. Lara is hitting .306 (26-for-85) with two doubles and 28 RBI.

BULLPEN BULLIES: The unearned run allowed in the top of the 10th by Reiss Knehr in Thursday's extra-innings loss was the first run allowed by the Nashville bullpen over their last 27.0 IP since last Saturday against Gwinnett. During the span, Sounds relievers have combined for 23 strikeouts, four walks, and 18 hits allowed. Brewers no. 27-rated prospect Craig Yoho worked his 16th straight appearance with Nashville without an earned run allowed dating back to April 29 on Wednesday. During the streak, he has allowed just seven hits, with 25 strikeouts and four walks allowed. Blake Holub has gone straight appearances without an earned run dating back to May 21. He has gone 8.1 IP overall without an earned run allowed since May 17 (7 H, 8 K, BB). The Sounds bullpen currently leads all full-season minor league teams with a 3.54 ERA (154 ER/391.1 IP) this season.

STREAK-O-NOMICS: Tyler Black extended his on-base streak to 14 straight games after being hit by a pinch in the bottom of the seventh inning. His streak dates back to June 13 and is the longest active streak on the team. Ethan Murray has reached base safely in each of his last 11 games since June 17 and has a hit in six straight after drawing a pair of walks in both of his plate appearances on Thursday.

MULTIPLIED: Eddy Leonard recorded his 21st multi-hit game of the season after finishing last night 2-for-5. Greg Jones recorded his 10th multi-hit game of the season, and fourth in his last 15 G after going 2-for-5 with a RBI. Luis Lara tallied his eighth multi-RBI game of the season with his two-run home run in the third inning.
