- FALLING SHORT AGAIN: The Augusta GreenJackets suffered their second consecutive defeat at the hands of the Charleston RiverDogs at SRP Park on Saturday night by a score of 6-3. The GreenJackets took a brief lead at 2-1 following an RBI single by Brandol Mezquita and a solo homer by Brandon Parker but Charleston would take the lead for good in the next half inning and not look back as they now have a shot to earn a series split after dropping the first three games of the series.
- ANOTHER GOOD DAY FOR MEZQUITA: Brandol Mezquita finished Saturday's game with two more hits for his 20th multi-hit game of the season to up his hitting streak to 9 games in the process. Mezquita has driven in two runs in the last two games put his RBI total at 36, second-best on the team.
- COOL CAL: Cal Conley continued his productive week with another multi-hit performance on Saturday. Conley has reached base in every game this series and has scored four times. He is tied for second in the Carolina League with 46 runs scored this season.
- PROTECTING SRP PARK: With a win today, the GreenJackets will finish the first half with four series wins at SRP Park. The club owns a 22-13 mark at home this season with only Charleston holding a better home record.
- STRICKLAND SUNDAY: Sam Strickland makes his 2nd start of the season on Sunday after a solid outing in the opening game in relief on Tuesday.
