HARD TIMES: Brewers no. 16-rated prospect Tyson Hardin will make his eighth Triple-A start on Friday night. The right-hander has already tossed four quality starts in Triple-A, including six shutout innings with two hits allowed against Gwinnett on May 28.

BROCKET MAN: Brewers no. 19-rated prospect Brock Wilken recorded his sixth home run of the season and third in his last five games with a solo blast in the bottom of the third inning. After hitting just two home runs in his first 51 games this season through the end of May, Wilken has produced four in 14 games in the month of June alone. His 19 XBH this season ranks fourth on the club behind Eddy Leonard (25), Jeferson Quero (21), and Jett Williams (21). With 38 hits on the year, he has now produced an XBH half of time he has recorded a hit this season.

TRIPLE DOUBLE: The Sounds turned three double plays on Thursday night to help strand five Gwinnett base runners and hold the Striper to 0-for-4 with runners in scoring position. The three double plays are the most the Sounds have turned in a game this season and most since turning three on September 6 last season on the road in Norfolk. All three of the double plays turned on Thursday night were of a different variety. The Sounds posted six games with 3+ double plays last season, including a season-high five on April 4 at Gwinnett. June 25 is the latest in terms of date it has taken Nashville to turn 3+ double plays in a game since at least 2005.

DEUCE: Sounds pitchers held Gwinnett to just two hits on Thursday night, the fewest in a game this season. It's the fewest amount of hits allowed for Nashville in a game since holding Gwinnett to two hits on September 9 last season. Thursday night was the ninth time the Sounds have held Gwinnett to two or fewer hits since 2021; 8th in a 9.0 IP game. Over the same span, Nashville has recorded 18 total games with two or fewer hits allowed, and Charlotte is the only team Nashville has done it to more than once (2x: July 25, 2025 vs. CLT & August 30, 2025 vs. CLT).

ZERO, NADA, ZILCH: Thursday night was the fourth shutout win of the season for Nashville and first since blanking Gwinnett on May 28 at First Horizon Park. The Sounds set a franchise record and led all of Triple-A with 16 shutouts in 2025 to finish with the fourth-most shutouts in the minors. By June 25 of last season, the Sounds had already recorded 12 shutouts on their way to setting the record. The four shutouts this season are tied for the eighth-most in the International League with no team currently having more than five. Nashville has blanked the Stripers 15 times since 2021, with Memphis next on the list with eight.

REISS'S PIECES: Reiss Knehr earned the win on Thursday night to improve to 6-0 this season. His six-game winning streak is tied for the longest active streak in Triple-A along with Trent Denholm (COL) and is tied for second in the minors behind Dominic Niman (TB) and Kade Anderson (SEA) who each have a seven-game winning streak. Kneher's six wins are already tied for the most in any single-season of his minor league career, matching the six wins he posted in 2021 with Double-A San Antonio. He also earned his only Major League win that season with San Diego to reach seven total wins in 2021 to set his overall career high. He has earned seven straight wins without a loss dating back to May 9, 2025, with Triple-A El Paso.

LORE-A: Brewers no. 5-rated prospect Luis Lara finished Wednesday night 1-for-2 with a pair of walks and a RBI. His first inning single was his seventh straight at-bat with a hit. His 33 RBI ranks fourth on Nashville's current active roster, while he leads in hits (83) and runs (59) among full season Brewers minor league hitters. He is hitting .323 (83-for-257) with 18 XBH in 70 games played this season. Lara currently leads the International League in OBP (.434) and ranks second in AVG and runs scored (59), tied for second in walks (48), ranks fourth in hits and is T-10th in stolen bases (20).
