Hello and welcome to C's baseball.

On behalf of our entire organization, first off let me say thank you for allowing us into your wonderful community for the 2021 season. As much as we would love to be in front of our fans in Vancouver, BC, I feel we could not have picked a more wonderful community to call home for a short time.

I owe a huge thank you to Mike and Laura McMurray, KL Wombacher and the entire Hops organization. They are long time friends and were the first to extend the hand of friendship as we were facing border closures that put our entire 2021 season in danger. Another thank you to Scott Brucker from the City of Hillsboro for his assistance in making our relocation as easy as possible and to the entire staff at Ron Tonkin Field for all your hard work on our behalf, so thank you.

As we kick off our 2021 "Home" season, we are happy to have a place to play but I want to take a moment to thank all our faithful and diehard fans in Vancouver and throughout British Columbia and all of Canada. We miss you all and wish you could join us in Hillsboro, however, we will be back at the Nat as soon as possible.

We look forward to meeting you at Ron Tonkin Field this season and look forward to a great 2021 and Thank You once again for your hospitality.

Let's go C's!

ABOUT THE INDIANS...

The Spokane Indians are the Advanced-A affiliate of the Colorado Rockies. They play their home games at Avista Stadium, 369 miles from Hillsboro and 671 kilometers (416 milies) from Vancouver. The franchise dates back to 1903 when it was it was in the Pacific National League (a precursor to the Pacific Coast League of today) and was also a charter member of the Northwest League. Their longest affiliation was with the Dodgers (1958-1972) and count Tommy Lasorda, Duke Snider, Don Newcombe, Ron Cey, Bill Buckner, Steve Garvey and more among alumni.

RYAN GOLD, CATCHER/1ST BASE

How does an early lead affect the team's mentality?

It's always great to have a lead before we take the field. It calms me down a lot as a catcher and helps us stay with our game plan and not overthink. Help the pitcher attack the zone quicker and get quick outs. Our pitchers do a great job calling their game and executing the plans we have for each team. It makes everything easier and flows a lot better. It keeps us up and wanting to get more and more.

Spokane is in town this week. What's the game plan?

We know that we can put up some crooked numbers against this team as long as we don't try and do too much.

The goal is to just pass the bat along. Work some good at-bats, get on base, hustle and do your job. All I'm trying to do is put the ball in play and get an RBI. Put good wood on it and try to put the ball in play.

Gold after yet another double

Gold making a play at home plate

As a catcher, how do you deal with umpires who make bad calls?

Honestly, it starts off with knowing your umpire. We have these umpiring crews a lot this year and we know the zone might be iffy. Not everyone is perfect and we're all human; it's not like we always get hits or make plays in the field. You have to keep perspective. Some calls are worse than others but you take them as they come. Move forward, don't dwell on it; otherwise things will keep going down hill. You'd expect both sides to get calls but sometime it doesn't work out that way. You do what you can with what you get and go from there. We play our game and do whatever we have to do to keep scoring runs. The only way to get passed it is to grind out more at-bats, get some pitches to hit up in the one and don't leave it up to the umpire. Put it in your own hands and whatever happens, happens.

RYAN GOLD, CATCHER/1ST BASE

You've been a regular started this year. How does that create confidence as a player?

It's always nice knowing you're going to be in the lineup the next day. Good game or bad, you know you will be in there so you start game planning for the next game against whoever is pitching. I've never really had that in my career so I'm very thankful for the opportunity to play every day. It gives you that much more confidence in yourself. Even if you have a bad day, your name is going to be in the lineup. It's a big boost to your confidence when you're trusted to get the

You grew up in three different places. How did that prepare you for life in Minor League Baseball?

I'm very thankful for where I've been and how it's shaped me into the man I am today. You may not be where you want to be, but you're supposed to be where you're supposed to be. That mentality helps you stay in the moment and give you perspective. Once you get used to it, it makes everything a lot easier. The transition from place to place seems like nothing. Moving around a lot in my life helped me to get use to uncomfortable situations in pro

Gold with Bluefield in 2017

Gold in high school in South Carolina

You were committed to Coastal Carolina before deciding to become a pro and sign with the Jays out of high school in South Carolina. What was the thought process behind that?

I was loving the fact that I could possibly get drafted out of high school. This is always what I wanted to do. Having the opportunity to get drafted as a senior in high school was important, regardless of where I was slotted. College seemed like a safe option, but on the third day of the draft the Jays called and they wanted to take me. I called my college coach [at Coastal Carolina] and the conversation didn't go how I thought it was going to do. That conversation made it easier to choose the path I'm on right now. Glad I chose the way I did and it's been working out
