RHYMES WITH EASTER: Quinn Priester will make the third start of his rehab assignment and First Horizon Park debut with Friday's start against Norfolk. Priester started last Sunday's series finale in Charlotte and worked 2.1 hitless & scoreless innings with two strikeouts to help negate three walks and a hit batter. Working back from Right Thoracic Outlet Syndrome which landed him on the Brewers 15-day IL on March 22, Priester has walked six and hit two batters over his first 3.0 IP of rehab. His first two starts with Nashville were the first time he walked 3+ in consecutive games since May 2-7 of last year at the end of a stretch where he had 3+ walks in five consecutive games. After that May 7 start vs. Houston, he had just three games with 3+ walks over his final 25 games (20 GS) of the season (including postseason).

THROW-BROCK THURSDAY: Infielder Brock Wilken extended his on-base streak to 19 consecutive games by reaching base in both games of Thursday night's doubleheader. His 19-game on-base streak leads all Sounds hitters this season and is the fourth-longest active on-base streak in the International league. Wilken passed his career-high on-base streak of 18 consecutive games which he had with Double-A Biloxi last season from April 6-26. The Brewers no. 21-ranked prospect is tied for the third-longest on-base streak for a Nashville player over the last two seasons. Jimmy Herron posted a 19-game streak from May 10-June 4 last year, and Daz Cameron recorded the most recent Nashville on-base streak of 19+ games when he did it from July 10-August 7.

CROW-DOWN: Right-hander Coleman Crow earned his third win of the season in game two of Thursday night's doubleheader as he posted 5.2 scoreless innings on one hit, two walks and added seven strikeouts in the process. Crow's three wins are tied for the team lead along with Easton McGee through 30 games this season. The one-hit allowed was the fewest he has allowed in his Triple-A career and just the fourth time in his professional career when going 5+ innings. The last time he allowed one or fewer hits over 5+ IP came on June 7th of last year with Double-A Biloxi. Thursday night's scoreless appearance was the eighth of his professional career when going at least 5.0 IP.

MULTI-HIT FIRE: Outfielder Eddys Leonard tacked on his ninth multi-hit game of the season as he went 2-for-3 in the first game of Thursday night's doubleheader. The nine multi-hit games rank second on the team just behind Luis Lara (10). Leonard was the only Nashville player to record a multi-hit game between the two games on Thursday night. Leonard has his nine-game hitting streak snapped in Sunday's series finale against Charlotte but now has a hit in 15 of his last 17 games played dating back to April 9. Over the stretch, Leonard is hitting .361 (22-for-61) with five home runs, three doubles, and 14 RBI. He leads the Sounds with 12 total XBH on the season, two clear of Luis Lara.

WILK POWER: Brock Wilken clubbed his second Triple-A homer of the season to left field with a two-run shot that gave the Sounds their 2-0 lead in the bottom of the third inning in game two of Thursday night's doubleheader. It marked his first career homer at First Horizon Park and his first go-ahead homer of the year. Nine of Nashville's 24 total home runs on the season have given the Sounds the lead. He is tied with Jeferson Quero for the team lead with 17 RBI on the year and continues to hit the ball hard. Nine of his 16 total hits on the season have gone for extra bases.

FULL TANK: Left-hander Robert Gasser struck out five Tides' batters in the first game of Thursday night's doubleheader. Gasser made his first start at First Horizon Park since September 13, 2025, against the Gwinnett Stripers and worked 2.2 frames, allowed a run on four hits and fanned five in the process. The Brewers no. 16-rated prospect has thrived against the Tides this season having made two of his four starts this year against the Orioles Triple-A farm club. After tying his career-high with 11 strikeouts against the Tides on Opening Night in late March, Gasser has 16 strikeouts over 8.1 IP versus Norfolk in two appearances and 55 total across nine games and 39.0 IP against the Tides in his Triple-A career.
