GAME RECAP:

The Reading Fightin Phils dropped the opening contest against the Hartford Yard Goats, 4-0. The team combined for just three hits, but walked eight times to get shutout in game one of the series. Ali Castillo led off the game with a single, while Jonathan Guzman had the two other base knocks during the contest.

ERIKKKK:

Erik Miller holds a team best 1.74 ERA in 20.2 innings of work. Miller, who began the summer in Reading, has both started games and come out of the bullpen this season. He has allowed just eleven hits and four earned runs. The lefty has only walked nine batters to his 26 strikeouts. Batters hit just .162 against him.

THAT'S INTERESTING:

For the first time all season, the Fightins pitching staff did not issue a walk on Tuesday night. Three pitchers were used in the contest and the only free pass allowed was Braden Zarbnisky's hit by pitch. They combined for 10 strikeouts.

RUNS ALLOWED:

Reading has struggled giving up runs, bringing their run differential to -39 on the season. Overall, Reading has given up 248 runs and scored 209 runs. Often times the team is battling to get out of the first inning and is forced to play the contest from behind. However, they have only been shutout two times this season.

KEEP WALKING:

Josh Ockimey leads the Eastern League in walks with 40 on the season. He has played in 43 games this season so he is averaging about one a game. Last night, Ockimey took three more walks to up his OPB to .413, which is also ranks him fourth in the league in that category. Vito Friscia is fifth in the league in the base on balls count with 29 walks taken this season.

BIG LEAGUE CLUB WATCH:

The Philadelphia Phillies started off June hot with a 6-5 win over the San Francisco Giants. In his first game back in the majors, Nick Maton had three RBI including a two-run home run. Bryson Stott had two hits and his first big league stolen base. Aaron Nola got the win after pitching six innings of five run ball. He struck out five.

ON THIS DAY IN BASEBALLTOWN HISTORY:

June 2, 2010: At Detroit, former Reading Phillie Jason Donald, who had been in the Major Leagues less than a month, breaks up Armando Galarraga's perfect game with a 2-out infield single in the 9th inning. Replays show that umpire Jim Joyce's call was incorrect and that Donald should have been called out. Donald would later say, "I didn't know if I beat the throw or not. But given the circumstances, I thought for sure I'd be called out."
