ALL GAS NO BRAKES: On Sunday, Robert Gasser pitched in his fourth rehab start for Nashville, letting up two runs and striking out four over 4.2 frames. It's the longest outing he has tossed during his four appearances with the Sounds, and the most pitches (64) he has delivered in a start as well. Sunday's performance was the first time Gasser heaved more than 4.0 innings since his last start before going on the injured list for Tommy John Surgery on June 1, 2024, when Gasser allowed three runs over 5.0 frames against the Chicago White Sox.

BEEN THERE DUNN THAT: With an RBI double during Sunday's game, Oliver Dunn extended his hitting streak to three games and on-base streak to six games. This is Dunn's longest on-base streak since putting together an eight-game streak from July 26 - August 3. Dunn has posted seven on-base streaks of six or more games, including his season-high 11 which he earned from April 29 - May 9. In the second half of the season, the numbers have been better for Dunn, creating a slash line of .232/.331/.373 compared to his overall line of .204/.308/.331.

OLIVA SUDDEN: Jared Oliva stayed hot at the plate during Sunday's game with a solo homer to give him 10 on the season. His 10 home runs this season with Nashville are a new single-season career-high, surpassing the nine that he hit in 2018 with playing with Advanced-A Bradenton in the Pirates organization. Against the Bats last week, Oliva hit safely in four games he registered an at-bat in, and went 7-for-16 with a three-hit night on Friday. During his previous two stops in Triple-A, Oliva hit 10 combined home runs for Triple-A Indianapolis (2021-22) and added another eight in 2023 while playing for Triple-A Salt Lake.

QUERO BEAR: Jeferson Quero has arguably been playing the best baseball of his professional career over the last two weeks. Since the start of the Durham series on August 12, the Brewers' no. 4-rated prospect is hitting .382 (13-for-34) with three home runs, four doubles, a triple, and 13 RBI over his last nine games with seven runs scored and just six strikeouts.

ZAMORA THAT: Freddy Zamora extended his hitting streak to five games and on-base streak to eight with a single in the bottom of the third inning on Saturday night against Louisville. He also has recorded a hit in six of his last seven games. This is Zamora's longest hitting streak since he posted a five-game streak from July 19 - July 25. There have been seven separate hitting streaks from Zamora of four or more games, with the longest at eight from April 19 - May 8. Saturday games have been good for Zamora, as he owns a .372 AVG with a home run and nine RBI in 13 Saturday games this season.

IN THE WORDS OF DRAKE: Rhys Hoskins and Daz Cameron notched back-to-back homers in the bottom of the fourth during Saturday night's game. It's the first back-to-back homers from a Sounds lineup since Bobby Dalbec and Oliver Dunn recorded the feat on July 23 against the Charlotte Knights. It is also the sixth time this season that two players for the Nashville lineup earned back-to-back longballs. Cameron joined in his second one of the season on Saturday, having gone back-to-back with Dalbec on July 22 against the Knights. Hoskins notched his second home run of his current rehab assignment after also going deep against the Bats on August 19 for his first hit of his rehab with Nashville.

A TALE OF TWO PITCHERS: Brian Fitzpatrick and Craig Yoho have been consistent for the Sounds over the last two weeks. On Saturday, both pitchers tossed scoreless from the Nashville bullpen. Fitzpatrick totaled 2.2 scoreless frames with a season-high five strikeouts, while Yoho punched out two batters during the ninth. Over his last 7.2 innings, Fitzpatrick has not allowed an earned run, which goes all the way back to August 12. For Yoho, he's putting together another impressive scoreless streak, and currently has not allowed an earned run over his last five games and 5.1 innings of work.

STICK TO THE FUNDAMENTALS: Despite back-to-back losses to end the series against Louisville, the Sounds played another clean game defensively with zero errors against the Bats. Nashville has not committed an error defensively over their last seven games total and has recorded five double plays over that span. Overall, the Sounds have a .980 fielding percentage and have committed 84 errors in 123 games played. This ranks top 15 in the International League in fielding percentage and No. 10 for fewest errors committed.
