FROM THE CROWS NEST

Doubleheader Split.... The Bradenton Marauders and Lakeland Flying Tigers split a doubleheader on Friday with Lakeland taking game one 10-2, and Bradenton responding with a 4-3 walk-off win during game two. In game two, the Flying Tigers led 3-2 going into the bottom of the seventh, but the Marauders stormed back. Crisitan Jauregui tied the game with an RBI double and Tre Phelps won the game with an RBI single.

Two Birds with One Stone.... Brent Iredale smashed two home runs during yesterday's doubleheader and is now up to 14 on the season. The second home run of the day got the Marauders offense going with a solo blast in the bottom of the fourth to put Bradenton up 1-0. Iredale has reached a three-game hitting streak after a 1-for-16 spell going back to last weeks series against the Mighty Mussels. In the month of August, Iredale slashed .270/.418/.587 with five homers and 10 RBIs through 19 games played.

Castillo Gets the Ball.... RHP Carlos Castillo returns to LECOM Park, making his first rehab outing of the season with Single-A Bradenton. Castillo was a staple in the Marauders rotation during the 2025 season, going 4-4 with a 3.84 ERA over 23 outings. This season he began the year with High-A Greensboro and went 0-2 with a 6.00 ERA through 10 outings before landing on the injured list. Castillo has been out since June 4.

Tough Break.... The Marauders sit at 23-37 on the second half, which currently ranks as the second worst record the franchise has posted in the second half. At the top is 2018 when the Marauders finished 21-44 and 17.0 games back of Fort Myers who went 40-29. The worst record in franchise history dates back to 2024 when Bradenton finished the year 54-77.
