

Concession Cashier: Cashiers are responsible for timely, efficient, and accurate cash and credit card transactions and reporting

Responsibilities:

- Develop and enforce standards for service, sanitation, and product and food quality
- Ensure all cash handling procedures are documented
- Ability to interact with co-workers in order to assure compliance with company service standards, inventory, and cash control procedures
- Responsible for the delivery of all orders taken
- Practice good standards for service, sanitation, and product and food quality
- Responsible for securing payment for all transactions taken
- Always provide exceptional customer service
- Perform other tasks as assigned by management

eligible for tips