the team this season. James Cooper takes over as manager of the Renegades after two campaigns at the helm for Single-A Tampa. Hitting coach Tom Round Rock (AAA, TEX) the last two seasons.

SOCAL SOUTHPAW: Kyle Carr makes his first career Opening Day start on Friday night as a familiar face to those around the Renegades last season. He begins 2025 facing a team he saw four times last season in the Jersey Shore BlueClaws. The 2023 3rd round pick begins his second season with the Hudson Valley after making his professional debut in High-A last season. After starting slow in 2024, Carr looked like the pitcher the Yankees drafted, dominating post All-Star break. He was part of a combined no-hitter on July 19th, the third in franchise history. From July 19th until the end of the In Game 1 of the North Division Series against Greensboro, Lombard was regular season, Carr put together a 2.14 ERA in 42 innings across nine starts, recording a 0.84 WHIP and a .185 opposing average.

FAMILIAR FACES: The Renegades' Opening Day roster features 21 returning players from the 2023 and 2024 SAL North Division Championship teams. This includes six pitchers from the 2024 Hudson Valley bullpen that had the best ERA (3.06) in High-A and second-best in all of MiLB. Among position players, Josh Moylan, Omar Martinez, Anthony Hall, and Kiko Romero were all in the 2024 Opening Day lineup last April. Jace Avina, a key part of the offense for much of the season, also joined the squad in mid-April. The Renegades also have late-season additions George Lombard Jr., Jackson played a key role in 2024's postseason run.

STAR-STUDDED: To begin the 2025 season, the Renegades have six of pitchers. Yankees No. 2 prospect and 100th-ranked MLB prospect George

THERE'S ALWAYS THIS YEAR: The Hudson Valley Renegades have won the the second straight year, and will make his first career Opening Day start High-A East/South Atlantic League North Division Championship in three of on Friday. The Renegades also welcome the Yankees' top two picks from the four years they have competed in the league ('21, '23 & '24), but are still the 2025 Draft in pitchers Ben Hess and Bryce Cunningham, making their looking for their first championship at the level. The 'Gades have advanced professional debuts. Elmer Rodriguez-Cruz, the Yankees No. 8 prospect who was acquired in an offseason trade with the Boston Red Sox, starts his New York career with the Gades'. Dominican Carlos Lagrange (Yankees No. 19 prospect) will also make his High-A debut.

> Renegades, as the two squads played 24 games last year. Hudson Valley finished with a 14-10 record against their SAL North counterparts, including a 10-2 record at home and a 4-8 record on the road. In 2025, these two games again play 24 more games. The first nine games of the Renegades' 27 games will take place against Jersey Shore at Heritage Financial Park. They will then travel to ShoreTown Ballpark on three separate occasions

+ Had the fifth-known no-hitter in AL, NL and MiLB history to end in a HOME BODIES: Hudson Valley completed their 2024 regular season with a 47-19 (.712) record at Heritage Financial Park this season, the best home record of any team in Minor League Baseball this season. The 'Gades home record was 12th-best among MiLB teams since 2005, with the 2011 San Antonio Missions (AA, SD) having set the standard with a 55-15 (.786) mark.

> THE 'PEN IS MIGHTIER: The Renegades bullpen collectively sported a 3.06 ERA (186 ER/547.1 IP) in 2024, the best mark in High-A and second-best in the minors. They return six arms from that dominant bullpen in 2025, looking to continue their success

NEW TEACHERS: Hudson Valley welcomes an entirely new coaching staff to THIS GUY IS GROSZ: Josh Grosz was instrumental for the Renegades in the last two months of 2024, and starts the 2025 season with Hudson Valley. After a spot start in May where he struggled, Grosz was dominant DeAngelis joins Cooper from Tampa, working for the third straight season n his second stint with the Renegades. In six starts, he allowed just seven with Cooper. Pitching coach Demetre Kokoris begins his first season in earned runs in 35.2 frames, good for a 1.77 ERA. Opponents hit only .138 the Yankees organization, previously serving as bullpen coach for Triple-A against him during the stretch. Between June 28 and Sept. 17, when he spent time with both Tampa and Hudson Valley, Grosz was charged with just nine earned runs in 64 innings, a 1.26 ERA during that stretch.

> YOUTH RULES: George Lombard came alive at the plate over the last three weeks of the 2024 season, and is looking to carry over that success into 2025. He already showed off his potential during spring training in big league camp, hitting home runs in back-to-back games in early March. In his final 13 regular season games with Hudson Valley in 2024, the Yankees No. 2 prospect slashed .333/.419/.481 with eight doubles and a .900 OPS. 3-for-5 with three doubles and three RBIs, becoming the first Renegade to have three doubles in a game since 2022. The Top 100 prospect will look to take the next step in his development as a 19-year-old this season.

> MISSING HOME: While being the best team at home in MiLB last season, the Renegades struggled mightily on the road last year. The Renegades finished 26-39 away from Heritage Financial Park in the regular season, the third-most road losses in the South Atlantic League. Last year, the Renegades played their first nine games on the road. This season, they begin with nine of 15 at Heritage Financial Park.

Castillo, Brendan Jones, and Coby Morales back on the roster, all of whom played a key role in 2024's postseason run. STARTING OFF RIGHT: Starting pitching was excellent down the stretch in 2024, and figures to be even better in 2025. The rotation will display as many as five top-20 Yankees prospects. Behind returners Kyle Carr and Josh Grosz as well as a series of newcomers, the Renegades will look to duplicate the top 20 prospects in the New York Yankees system, which includes five or improve on the success of last year's group. From July 28th through the end of the postseason, a Renegades starting pitcher allowed more than Lombard Jr. is back with the Renegades to play shortstop, and No. 20 two earned runs in a start only three times, a stretch of 43 games. In that Yankees prospect Kyle Carr is on Hudson Valley's Opening Day roster for span, Hudson Valley starters had a 2.46 ERA in 175.1 IP with a 1.07 WHIP.

La Jolla, Calif. | 2nd season | Palomar College |

LAST TIME OUT: For the second straight start, one rough inning doomed Carr last Thursday night against Asheville, as the lefthander allowed four runs in the top of the third, ultimately shortening his start to four innings in an eventual 5-4 Hudson Valley win in 10 innings. Carr allowed only one earned run among the four, giving up four hits while walking two and striking out four. Carr lowered his season ERA to 4.76 with the performance, his last start of the regular season.

KEEPING IN IN THE PARK: During his first professional season in 2024. Carr was one of the best pitchers in Minor League Baseball at preventing home runs, allowing only five on the season across 140.0 innings. That total was the second-fewest in the Yankees system, and the fourth-fewest allowed among left-handed pitcher in MiLB in 2024 (min. 100.0 IP). Carr didn't allow a long ball over his final 45.0 innings of the season, and he posted a 49.7% groundball rate, the second-best mark in the SAL (min. 100.0 IP).

INJURIES IN SAN DIEGO: Carr spent two years playing at the University of San Diego before transferring to Palomar for 2023. buring that time he struggled with injuries including Tommy John surgery in October 2020, and a broken hand and torn right shoulder labrum in 2022. Carr to the San Diego Union-Tribune: "I struggled with injuries and school at USD. And they were related. As I fought my way through the injuries, I let my schoolwork slip. And you can't do that in college. You have to stay on top of your classes. I didn't do that. I loved the coaches and players at USD. [USD head coach] Brock Ungricht is one of the really good guys, my favorite all-time coach. I felt I let him down."
