NEWS AND NOTES

SKEE BALL: Brett Wichrowski will make his second career Triple-A start in Wednesday night's matchup against the Durham Bulls. In his first start with the Sounds, Wichrowski earned his first career Triple-A win against the Jacksonville Jumbo Shrimp last week (5.2 IP, 3 H, 3 ER, 3 K, 5 BB). The 23-year-old ranks T-2nd in winning percentage (.714), T-3rd in wins (5), 4th in strikeouts (55) and innings pitched (53.1) among qualified full season Milwaukee Brewers' minor league pitchers this season between his starts with Nashville and Double-A Biloxi. Wichrowski has posted a 10-12 record with a 4.21 ERA in 54 appearances (51 starts) in his three-year regular season minor league career, including nine career quality starts (all with Biloxi during the 2025 and 2026 seasons). He became the first Nashville pitcher to earn the win in his first start with the Sounds since Bowden Francis did it on May 31, 2021, on the road in Columbus.

BULL-IED: Brewers no. 16-rated prospect Tyson Hardin struck out a new career-high 11 batters on Tuesday night, retiring 18-of-the-21 batters he faced. Hardin ended his night allowing a run on three hits to go along with his third 6.0+ inning quality start with the Sounds, and fourth overall quality start this season. The 11 strikeouts ties for the most strikeouts on the team matching Robert Gasser, who fanned 11 Norfolk Tides batters in the season opener on March 27. Hardin is just the sixth player to record 11+ strikeouts at the Triple-A level this season and ties for the sixth-most strikeouts by a Nashville pitcher since 2021. Since 2005, the most strikeouts by a Sounds pitcher sits at 13 when Mike Fiers and Ben Mills did so during the 2014 season.

SMACK PRATT: Brewers no. 4-rated prospect Cooper Pratt went yard for his sixth homer of the season in the bottom of the fifth inning with a two-run homer into left field for the 7-0 Sounds lead. It marked his second two-run shot of the season and the fifth off a right-hander. Pratt's been on a tear during the 2026 season and ranks tied for first in triples (4) and ties for fourth in hits (51) amongst Milwaukee Brewers' minor league hitters. He also ranks tied for 1st in triples (4), tied for 2nd in hits (52), tied for 3rd in home runs (6), 3rd in batting average (.252) and 4th in RBI (31) on the team.

TWOS-DAY: Eddys Leonard and Cooper Pratt each recorded two-hit nights in Tuesday's win over Durham as Leonard went 2-for-4 with a triple, while Pratt went 2-for-4 with a two-run homer and marked his 16th multi-hit game of the season. It marked Leonard's first multi-hit game since May 16 against the Iowa Cubs when he clubbed his second grand slam of the season for the Sounds. Leonard ranks tied for second in doubles (12), tied for third in XBH (23), fourth in total bases (95), fifth in AVG (.289), tied for fifth in homers

(9) and tied for sixth in RBI (35) amongst Milwaukee Brewers' minor league hitters.

ON THE HORIZON: Akil Baddoo crushed his third homer of the season with the Sounds on a two-run blast to left field, giving Nashville the 2-0 lead in the bottom of the first inning. It marked his first career homer at First Horizon Park, his first two-run shot of the season, the third against a right-hander, and the third go-ahead homer. All three of his home runs this season have come against the Durham Bulls after recording a multi-HR game on the road in Durham on May 20. He set his season-high with his first 3-RBI game of the year and first since September 3, 2025 with the Toledo Mud Hens.

STANDING FIRM: The Nashville Sounds sit at the top of Triple-A in ERA (3.81) through 64 games of the season. The Sounds rank first in earned runs (231) in 546.0 IP and are tied for sixth in BAA (.242), while having the best home record amongst all 120 minor league teams (24-6). The 16 strikeouts in Tuesday's win marked the most in a game this season for the Sounds, and the most since posting 18 strikeouts last season against the Indianapolis Indians on May 31. Nashville's single-game high for strikeouts in a game remains at 19, something that has happened three separate time with the most recent one coming on May 11, 2023 against Gwinnett.
