Hello and welcome to C's baseball.

On behalf of our entire organization, first off let me say thank you for allowing us into your wonderful community for the 2021 season. As much as we would love to be in front of our fans in Vancouver, BC, I feel we could not have picked a more wonderful community to call home for a short time.

I owe a huge thank you to Mike and Laura McMurray, KL Wombacher and the entire Hops organization. They are long time friends and were the first to extend the hand of friendship as we were facing border closures that put our entire 2021 season in danger. Another thank you to Scott Brucker from the City of Hillsboro for his assistance in making our relocation as easy as possible and to the entire staff at Ron Tonkin Field for all your hard work on our behalf, so thank you.

As we kick off our 2021 "Home" season, we are happy to have a place to play but I want to take a moment to thank all our faithful and diehard fans in Vancouver and throughout British Columbia and all of Canada. We miss you all and wish you could join us in Hillsboro, however, we will be back at the Nat as soon as possible.

We look forward to meeting you at Ron Tonkin Field this season and look forward to a great 2021 and Thank You once again for your hospitality.

Let's go C's!

ABOUT THE AQUASOX...

The Everett AquaSox are the Advanced-A affiliate of the Seattle Mariners. They play their home games at Funko Field in Everett, WA, 30 minutes north of Seattle. The franchise traces its history back to the Walla Walla, WA-based Blue Mountain Bears, who moved to Everett in 1984 and became the Everett Giants as San Francisco's Short-Season affiliate before signing a Player Development contract with the Mariners in 1995. That same year, the team debuted its new name: the AquaSox.

Funko Field - Everett, WA

GET TO KNOW YOUR C'S

CAMERON EDEN, OUTFIELDER

The team is off to a great start. What's been working for the C's so far?

Everyone sticks to their plan, their approach, and stays within themselves to work to their strengths. [Our recent success] is a little glimpse of what this team is capable of.

Speaking of approach, what's your gameplan when coming to the plate each game?

My approach is very middle of the field. I'm a line drive, gap to gap type of guy. I've been working with [Canadians hitting coach] Ryan Wright a lot, from the offseason to Spring Training to now. A lot has to do with my approach and looking for the right pitch to hit. I've been staying pretty small and hunting the pitch I want to hit early in the count then expanding from there. It's helped me quite a bit..

Another stolen base for Eden

Eden getting doused after a walk-off single May 16 versus Spokane

You came up with the game on the line on Sunday, May 16 against Spokane and tied the game in the 9th before winning it in the 11th. What was going through your mind?

I'm not gonna lie, it was pretty nerve-wracking. You don't want to be the last out, and you definitely don't want to lose. But especially in those situations, down 0-2 in the count, it turns into compete mode. You can't think a whole lot, your approach goes out of your mind and you just try to put the bat to the ball.

In that situation I went up there just trying to get the guy over to third. I got in a 2-0 count, which is a good hitters count, and looked to do some damage and score the run, which I was able to do. It was good to get the win, and the guys messed me up pretty good with the water afterward.

It's a weird year playing away from Vancouver all season. What's it been like for you and your teammates?

We all miss Vancouver. A lot of us have played there before, so first of all we really wish we were in Vancouver at Nat Bailey in front of the fans. It's been quite an adjustment. It's a little unique, being a "home" team away from home. The fan environment here isn't nearly as good as what it's like at The Nat, so we definitely miss that. I think as a team, we're all coming together to make it as normal as possible to call Hillsboro our "home."

GET TO KNOW YOUR C'S

CAMERON EDEN, OUTFIELDER

What did you do in the offseason to stay sharp after last year's MiLB season was cancelled?

It was tough to stay sharp, but I was very fortunate to have good facilities around me. Some of my teammates were working out in their garage, which is amazing. I think you have to self-motivate. The Blue Jays staff was great, reaching out to us often and helping out with whatever we needed. We all want it really bad, we all want to make the next level and we all want to win, so I think that motivated us to do what we needed to do to stay as ready as possible.

What would you like to improve on this season?

I still have a lot to improve on, especially producing more extra base hits. That comes and goes sometimes, so it's not something I want to abandon my current approach to achieve. But expanding my game to add more doubles, triples and home runs will help the team get some more wins for sure.

Eden in college at University of California, Berkeley before the Blue Jays drafted him in the 6th round of the 2019 Draft

Eden playing for the Brewster Whitecaps in the esteemed Cape Cod Baseball League

You lead the league in steals on a team that manager Donnie Murphy has described as "go-go-go." What is the gameplan on the bases for the Canadians?

Donnie is very big on being aggressive to take that extra 90 feet. That's the difference between winning and losing: going first to third or second to home or just stealing a bag. He's helped us out a lot understanding when to try and take a base, in what count, how to identify certain tells pitchers might have in order to get a better jump. I have a green light at all times, so I'm going to try and take as many as I can especially with the new High-A rule where pitchers have to fully disengage from the rubber.

The mood around the team seems relaxed and loose every day. Who is the clubhouse DJ?

[laughs] There are a couple of good candidates. Number one, Troy Watson. Don't tell him I said that! Then Spencer Horwitz and Phil Clarke. It's a great mix of music. Troy typically goes with that hard rap, always get the boys hyped. Spencer and Phil, they'll mix it up. Spencer will get some EDM going which always helps the vibes too.
