THE KEY: Tate Kuehner will get the start in Wednesday night's game against the Durham Bulls. Kuehner made his Triple-A debut at Durham Bulls Athletic Park with Nashville on August 13 last year and suffered the loss despite allowing just one earned (solo HR) on six hits over 5.1 IP with four strikeouts and a walk. After allowing two runs on as many hits over 1.2 IP last Friday night in his 50th career minor league start against the I-Cubs, the left-hander enters his start sitting at 1-2 with a 5.73 ERA over 37.2 IP this season (7 GS).

FITZ-MAGIC: Southpaw Brian Fitzpatrick made his return back to the Sounds and appeared in Tuesday's 6-5 comeback win, earning his second victory of the season with Nashville. Fitzpatrick extended his Triple-A streak without an earned run to 11 consecutive games on the year and 11.1 IP. His 11 games without allowing an earned run are tied for the second-longest active streak in Triple-A and tied for sixth amongst full season minor league pitchers. The 11 games are tied for the sixth most for any Nashville pitcher since 2005. Before he was optioned back to Nashville, Fitzpatrick made a brief stint with Milwaukee and posted a 1.59 ERA in four relief outings in 5.2 innings of work and struck out four batters from April 29-May 14. The one earned run he allowed on May 3 on the road in Washington is the only earned run he has allowed in the 2026 calendar year, including 6.2 IP in spring training with the Brewers.

FIRST BIG BLAST: Freddy Zamora clubbed his first home run of the season with a three-run blast to left field, tying the game in the top of the ninth inning on Tuesday. It was his second hit of the day as he earned his third multi-hit game of the season and his first since March 28, ending a 22-game span between multi-hit games. It was his first home run since September 11, 2025 against Gwinnett Last season, ending a 30-game homerless drought. The 2025 Fan Favorite of the Year hit four home runs to go with 46 RBI, hitting a .257 (87-for-339) and 19 doubles last year. He owns a career .247 batting average (377-for-1529), 101 XBH, and 189 RBI in his six-year minor league career.

ON-LARA: Luis Lara, the Brewers no. 5-rated prospect (MLB Pipeline), extended his on-base streak to nine consecutive games, which marks a new season-long for the speedy outfielder after getting a base hit in the opening frame. Lara continues to lead in runs (40), ranks second in hits (55) and is tied for third in stolen bases (17) in the International League. He ranks second on the team in batting average (.313) in road games behind Eddys Leonard (.338) (min. 20 games). He has been on an absolute tear for the Sounds this season and has posted a .337 batting average (55-for-163), good for the seventh-best in the IL and ranks 3rd in the league in OBP (.449), and 10th in OPS (.952).

STREAKY VIBES: Nashville extended its winning streak to eight consecutive games on Tuesday with their win over the Durham Bulls. The eight straight wins are the most in the minors currently and is Nashville's longest winning streak since also winning eight games from July 1-9, 2022. The eight consecutive wins are tied for the fourth-longest streak for Nashville since the start of the 2005 season. The Sounds have a chance to tie the nine-straight wins the 2016 team posted from May 23-31, 2016, on Wednesday. The Sounds have posted three different 15-game winning streaks in franchise history, with their last coming May 18-June 3, 2021.

FLIPPED THE SWITCH: The Nashville Sounds completed a four-run comeback in the ninth inning with a 6-5 win over the Durham Bulls, fueled by Freddy Zamora's three-run blast to left field. This four-run comeback is tied for the largest comeback win this season with the last time coming against the Charlotte Knights on April 5 at First Horizon Park. Nashville has now won two straight games when trailing after the 8th inning after starting the season 0-15 when entering the ninth trailing.

WE BRING THE BROOMS: The Sounds walked off the I-Cubs for the second time in the series last week en route to the series sweep with a 4-3 win in Sunday's series finale. Sundays win marked Nashville's first six-game sweep since 2023 when the Sounds swept the Gwinnett Strippers from June 13-18.
