Duck tales of 2025: The Akron RubberDucks finished the regular season 77-60, which was the third best record in the Eastern League. Despite finishing the overall regular season 17 games over .500 the RubberDucks did not qualify for the Eastern League playoffs after going 34-35 in the second half of the season, which was 5 games back of Altoona. Akron missed the first half playoff spot by just a game and a half being eliminated from the division race by Erie on the second to last day of the first half. Akron's 77 wins were second to only the Guardians' 88 victories for most in the organization in 2025.

Tonight's starter: Khal Stephen gets the Opening Day nod for the RubberDucks on Thursday. The right-hander was acquired by the Guardians at the 2025 trade deadline from the Blue Jays in exchange for Shane Bieber. Stephen made four starts with Akron after the trade going 0-1 with a 6.35 ERA, however he allowed six runs in one start and one run or less in each of the other three. The Mississippi State product pitched at Single-A, High-A and Double-A last year in his pro debut season.

Coach D in Year 3: Greg DiCenzo returns for his third season at the helm in Akron. DiCenzo has led Akron to a 157-118 record in his first two seasons including a postseason appearance in 2024. DiCenzo joins Joel Skinner, Brad Komminsk, Dave Wallace and Rouglas Odor as the only managers in franchise history to manage three or more seasons. Pitching coach Michael Poole, hitting coach Jordan Becker and athletic trainer Derrick Diaz return for a third season alongside DiCenzo in 2026.

Rounding out the staff: The RubberDucks coaching staff features eight new members. Angus Adams, Cole Nieto, Yan Rivera, Gustavo Nava, Laura Gutierrez-Sogel, Jack Baldwin, Andie McGregor and Ryan Chambliss join Akron in 2026. All are making their Double-A coaching debuts.

New name, same home: For the first time since opening in 1997, the ballpark in downtown Akron has a new name. Canal Park has become 7 17 Credit Union Park starting this season. It is the first naming rights deal in ballpark history.

Long long story: Akron has gone an impressive 374-296 since the start of the 2021 season including finishing above .500 in four of those five seasons. Despite the great overall success Akron is just 2-3 in Opening Day games since 2021. Historically, Akron is 19-17 overall on Opening Day and 6-6 when opening the season at home. Akron has not won on Opening Day at home since 2021 and have dropped 3 out of its last 4 Opening Days in Akron.

His 22 home runs between Akron and Lake County led the Guardians organization. Velazquez's strong 2026 earned him a Spring Training Invitee to Guardians MLB camp. He hit .313 during his time in MLB camp.

A Place in the World: Two members of the 2026 RubberDucks were featured on the big stage of the World Baseball Classic. Dylan DeLucia represented Team Italy. He hit .259 with 17 doubles, four triples, two home runs and 37 RBI with the Ducks over those 77 games, but he was most impressive in September batting .349/.429/.419 in 11 games picking up 15 hits and scoring eight runs. Genao's strong career numbers earned him a spot on the Guardians 40-man roster in November. He is one of two MLB top 100 prospects on the RubberDucks roster to open 2026 along with Ralph Velazquez. Genao is ranked No. 64 and Velazquez is No. 86 in all of MLB according to MLB Pipeline.

We Are the RubberDucks

On October 29, 2013, then team owner Ken Babby and general manager Jim Pfander stood before a capacity audience at the Akron Civic Theater and announced that the team would be known henceforth as the Akron RubberDucks. In addition to being symbolic of the fun, family-friendly brand of entertainment offered by minor league baseball, the name also honors Akron's long history as the "Rubber Capital of the World." Brandiose Marketing of San Diego, California designed the team logo, colors, and various marks and insignias. Please note that for print coverage, RubberDucks is spelled as one word with a capital "D." In broadcast coverage, referring to the team as "the 'Ducks" is an acceptable variation of the team's nickname.
