SOMERSET PATRIOTS NOTES

- The Somerset Patriots were defeated by the Hartford Yard Goats in the rubber match of their three-game series on Sunday afternoon by a final score of 16-5 in Hartford, CT.
- The result marks Somerset's first series loss against Hartford in five years as the Yankees' Double-A affiliate. The Patriots are now 52-22 all-time against the Yard Goats with a series record of 8-1-4.
- Six Somerset pitchers combined to strike out 17 batters in the nine-inning game, coming one shy of a franchise record.
 - Over their last two games, the Patriots pitching staff has combined for 33 strikeouts.
- The Patriots used a season-high five-run inning in the fifth to take a 5-4 lead, before the Yard Goats posted a 10-run bottom of the fifth immediately thereafter.
 - The 10 runs allowed in one inning are the most in Patriots Double-A franchise history, while the 16 total runs allowed were one shy of matching the franchise record.
- RHP Trent Sellers (3.0 IP, 2 H, 4 ER, 3 BB, 6 K, 1 HR) started for the Patriots in his Double-A debut.
 - After four of the first six batters reached (and scored) off of Sellers, he ended his outing by retiring the final seven batters he faced, including six strikeouts.
- RHP Zach Greene (1.0 IP, 2 K) pitched a perfect sixth inning in his first appearance since 2023, after missing all of 2024 due to injury.
- RHP Danny Watson (1.2 IP, H, 4 K) finished the game for Somerset by striking out four of six batters faced in his season debut.
- C Rafael Flores (1-for-4, 3 RBI, R, HR, K) homered for a second consecutive game in the fifth inning to give the Patriots a 5-4 lead.
 - Flores' homer traveled 428 feet and came off the bat with an exit velocity of 109 mph.
