DELMARVA (13-10)
SHOREBIRDS

MUDCATS SHUSH SHOREBIRDS AGAIN: The Delmarva Shorebirds were held in check just about all night against the Carolina Mudcats as the Milwaukee Brewers' affiliate topped them for the third time this week by a score of 7-1. After grabbing a first inning lead on an RBI single by Creed Willems, the Carolina pitching staff shut down Delmarva by allowing just one base runner from the third inning and on, including a stretch where the Mudcats retired 18 consecutive Shorebirds. Carolina scored seven unanswered runs with the last four being unearned as they guaranteed at least a series split after Friday's victory.

TODAY'S OPPONENT: Bradley Brehmer makes his fourth start of the season and fifth total appearance on Saturday night against Alexander Vallecillo for the Mudcats who has been off to a terrific start this season for the Mudcats as the right-hander has allowed just 2 total runs in 14 innings to earn him an ERA of 1.29 across four starts. Vallecillo tossed his longest start of the year last Saturday against the Kannapolis Cannon Ballers, covering five innings with six strikeouts and one hit allowed in a 1-0 victory.

FEELING YOUNG: Carter Young has started to get it going offensively for the Shorebirds after a slow start to the season. Young has a hit in five consecutive games and has driven in a run in four-straight after a leadoff home run on Thursday night. The infielder from Vanderbilt also has 13 walks which is third-best on the team.

GO LONG: Creed Willems continues his excellent season in Delmarva by going deep for the sixth time on Wednesday night to add his already impressive slugging percentage of .692 through 19 games. Willems has already passed his home run total from 2022 and is on pace to shatter all his offensive numbers from last season after just one month of action.

HITS IN BUNCHES: Stiven Acevedo has been a regular at collecting multi-hit games as he delivered his team-best, seventh following his career performance on Tuesday. Acevedo now has three 3-hit games, and four 2-hit games. He has collected at least one hit in 16/20 games this season.

PROCEED WITH CAUTION: The Delmarva catchers have been tough to run on this season for opposing base runners as they are tied for the Carolina League lead by catching 22 would be base stealers and have denied their opposition on 38% of their attempts through the first 23 games of the season.

MORE THAN DEFENSE: Adam Crampton has become more than a defensive specialist for the Shorebirds as's been hot at the plate over his last ten games with 12 hits in his last 33 at-bats with 3 doubles, 3 RBI, and 7 runs scored. His .375 average in that stretch is the best on the team.

TEACH ME HOW TO DOUGIE: Douglas Hodo has made become one of the most reliable bats in the Delmarva batting order over the last ten games as has the best batting average (.300) and OBP (.400) thanks to six walks in that span. The former Texas Longhorn picked up his first career triple on Wednesday night versus Carolina and has reached base in 13/16 games he's played in this season.

MUDCAT MATCHUP: The Shorebirds and Mudcats will face off in a series for the third consecutive season after the two franchises were in different leagues since their respective inceptions until 2021 when both were moved to the Carolina League. The Mudcats have been in the Carolina League since 2012 while Delmarva was formerly in the South Atlantic League. The Shorebirds hold the all-time series edge 14-10 with the two teams splitting their 12 games last season.
