LAST GAME

The Bowie Baysox walked off the Akron RubberDucks in ten innings on Thursday night, taking their third-straight game over the Southwest Division foe. An early pitching duel eventually saw a tight lead change in favor of Bowie, a late tying run by Akron, and Adam Hall's sacrifice fly with the bases loaded in the tenth inning to deliver Bowie the 3-2 win. Drew Rom tossed another four innings of strong ball, allowing only one run to lower his season ERA to an even 3.00. Joey Ortiz punched a two-RBI double to the left field corner in the sixth inning, and Bowie got a great day from their pen, as Tyler Burch, Adam Stauffer, and Logan Gillaspie combined to throw five innings of one-run ball.

TODAY'S OPPONENT

Akron has relied heavily on their pitching staff to bounce back from their own 2-3 start to open this series with a 5-4 record. Ending their homestand with a doubleheader against Reading, Akron allowed only one run in the 14 innings to sweep the twin bill. Entering this series, Akron's 3.17 ERA as a staff is the third-best in the Eastern League, and their 109 strikeouts lead the league. Offensively, Akron sits in the bottom half of the league in multiple categories, including only three home runs and 86 total bases, fewer than ten per game.

TODAY'S OPPOSING STARTER

Xzavion Curry enters his second season of minor league baseball as the Guardians' 23rd-ranked prospect. Shoulder inflammation delayed his minor league debut until May of last season, but he made up for it with the third-best K/BB (7.7), and sixth-best ERA (2.30) and walks per nine (1.5) in all the minor leagues. He started with Class-A Lynchburg where he made five starts, giving up only three earned runs in 25 1/3 innings. In High-A Lake County, he started 13 games while striking out 80 batters. He would make his Double-A debut against Somerset in his final start of the season, allowing two earned runs in 4 2/3 innings pitched. This season, he pitched 4 1/3 innings of scoreless ball against Erie in relief and followed that up with six earned in 4 2/3 innings against Reading. He last pitched against an Oriole affiliate on May 25th of last season, as he gave up three earned runs in 4 2/3 innings against Class-A Delmarva.

TUESDAY HELPED

Bowie currently has the best run differential in the Eastern League at +21, with big credit given to Bowie's 14-run win on Tuesday. The Baysox's +70 run differential in 2021 was only good for the third-highest mark in the league. Since April 11, Bowie's 6-2 record is the best in the League.

YOUNG GUNS

The Baysox have the fourth-youngest roster in the Eastern League, with the combination of their full roster averaging 23.9 years old. Their youth does not hurt them, as Bowie has a better record than the two teams younger than them, Altoona and New Hampshire. The oldest team in the Eastern League, Harrisburg, also owns the League's best record. Harrisburg's roster, on average, is 25.4 years old.

THE UPPER HALL

After batting sixth on Opening Day and taking the second game of the season off, Bowie outfielder Adam Hall has settled in to the leadoff role nicely for the Baysox. Hall has the most base hits to start an inning in the Eastern League this season with eight, including a single night for Bowie that eventually became a run. Hall is ranked as the Orioles #28 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #27 according to Baseball America. Also listed as the fastest baserunner in the organization by Baseball America.

FULLY ROTATING

Baysox pitching has hit its stride to help guide Bowie back atop the Southwest Division standings. Since April 11, the Baysox 6-2 record is the best in the league, thanks in part to their starting pitchers firing an overall 3.19 ERA, the third-best mark in the league. Since 4/14, Baysox starters have gone 3-0 with a 2.60 ERA and 26 strikeouts.

BACKED TO THE WALL

Bowie has not been afraid to make some noise when down to their final out. Over the three games of this series, Bowie has scored 22 of their 30 runs with two outs. The Baysox 35 runs driven in with two outs is more than any team outside of Triple-A (which has played four more games) and more than any Major League team. The Baysox also lead the Eastern League with an .858 OPS with two outs, after only managing a .696 OPS with two outs in 2021, among the bottom half in the League.

QUICK HITS

TODAY'S STARTING PITCHER- Brandon Young stranded six runners in five innings in last start. See Page 2 for more.

GROUND BALL HALL - Among qualified hitters in the Eastern League, Adam Hall has the highest rate of GB/FB, hitting over 6x as many ground balls.

WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN - After a one-year pause, Minor League Baseball has reinstated the well-known league names across the country, putting Bowie back in the Eastern League

NEW RULES FOR ALL - In 2022, Double-A features larger bases (15 in. > 18 in.), new limits on pick off attempts (Two step-offs per PA), and a faster pitch clock

Notes

- A two year starter at Louisiana-Lafayette, only appearing in four games in his COVID-shortened senior season before signing with Baltimore.
- Dominated batters in 2020, notching a 1.09 ERA in 24.2 innings, while striking out 37 and only walking nine.
- Worked to stretch himself out in 2021, not pitching five innings until his 10th professional appearance.
- With his shorter outings, averaged only about 3.2 innings of work per appearance.
- Practices gardening in the offseason, now at his new residence in Sarasota. Grew a set of habanero peppers this last offseason.

Notes by Outing*

Apr 9 v RIC Allowed a one-out single to Will Wilson in the first inning, but stranded him at second base. Let up two more base runners in the second inning, but did not allow either to reach third base. Only run allowed was a leadoff home run by Michael Gigliotti in the third inning. Walked two batters after the home run, but retired the next six to move to the fifth inning. Richmond loaded the bases with two single and a walk in the fifth to knock him out of the game, but Logan Gillaspie struck out two batters to strand the runners. Bowie eventually tied the game at two, but Richmond scored seven in the ninth.

Apr 15 @ BNG In each of his first three innings, Young allowed two batters to reach base with only one out, but worked through each inning cleanly, and then tossed a perfect fourth. After a leadoff single and double in the fifth, a groundout eventually pushed Binghamton's only run across. Bowie had given him all six runs early.

Second pitch thrown in his Double-A career was served to left field for a solo home run by Binghamton's Ronny Mauricio. Loeplich would go on to allow a career-high three home runs to the Rumble Ponies in a 9-4 Bowie loss on 4/12. // In 2021, made 11 appearances for High-A Aberdeen, and three for Rookie-Level Orioles Black. // Made six appearances (four starts) with the Mesa Solar Sox in the Arizona Fall League in 2021. 2-1 / 8.38 ERA / 15 K / 18 BB / 19.1 IP // Traded to Baltimore on September 20, 2020 from Pittsburgh in exchange for cash and International bonus pool capacity. // Initially drafted in the 20th round of the 2018 draft by Pittsburgh out of Saint Mary's College of California // Torn meniscus in his left knee kept him from making his start in 2021 until late June // Only a part-time starter at Saint Mary's, made 11 starts in 38 career appearances // After initially being drafted as a reliever for the Pirates, began the transition into more starting roles in May 2019. Made 33 appearances out of the bullpen before making his first career start // Return to High-A after recovering from his torn meniscus was tough, allowed 17 earned runs over eight innings, including five home runs. Allowed only 18 earned runs over his following 38 innings to complete the season.

Took a blown save, but earned the Baysox first win of the season in their third game, thanks in part to a six-run seventh inning for Bowie. // In 2021, appeared in eight games for Bowie, and 22 games for Aberdeen. // His 30 appearances in 2021 were the seventh-most in the Orioles organization. // Prime numbers came after his promotion to Bowie, as he only allowed runs in one of his eight outings, and collected 12 strikeouts against no walks over his last six appearances. // Spent his freshman year at Wake Forest in the bullpen, but transitioned to a starting role for his sophomore and junior seasons before being drafted.

Player Notes

Made his Double-A debut against Akron on 4/19, and went 3-for-4 at the plate, including an RBI double in his first plate appearance, and a solo home run in his last PA in the eighth inning. Scored a career-high four runs and tied a career-high with three hits. Bowie won 20-6. // Added to the Bowie Roster from the FCL Orioles on April 16 to replace Toby Welk, who had collided with the left field wall while making the final out of Bowie's win over Binghamton the previous day. // In 2021, appeared in 49 game for Aberdeen, and 29 games for Delmarva. // Hit exactly .224 at both stops in 2021. // Played at least 15 games at all three outfield positions in 2021. // Was the starting center fielder for the Tar Heels in his two seasons at UNC.

Player Notes

Missed three games after being hit by a pitch early in Bowie's 4-3 win at Binghamton on 4/13. Returned on 4/19 to go 3-for-5 at the plate against Akron with a career-high six RBI and a grand slam, his fourth home run, and the first grand slam of the season for the Baysox. // After the first weekend of the season, Haskin led all of Minor League Baseball with a slugging percentage of 1.583, thanks to a career-high three doubles on Opening Day, and a historic three home run day on the third day of the season. // Haskin's three home runs were just the sixth time in franchise history that a Baysox player collected three home runs in a game, and the first since Tucker Nathans on 5/13/17. // Haskin joked that the meal he had with infielder Gunnar Henderson at Olive Garden the night before was the lone difference in his usual routine, mentioning they shared a cheesecake. // Ranked as the Orioles #16 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #22 according to Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star in the outfield by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Did not get to see the full season due to a thumb fracture in late August. // Played 26 games at Aberdeen, 57 at Delmarva. // Despite only playing 83 games, his 22 steals were good for fifth-most in the organization while his .381 OBP was fourth-best among qualified hitters. // Split his power over the two halves of his season. He hit all five of his home runs in his first 41 games of the season, and none in the remaining 42 games, including his entire stint with Aberdeen. // Previously drafted by Oakland in the 2018 draft out of high school, but elected not to sign. // Graduated from Avon Old Farms School, a notable all-male boarding school in Connecticut with many notable alumni, including 2017 World Series MVP George Springer, World Series-winning pitching coach Juan Nieves, and Hockey Hall of Famer and Stanley Cup Champion Brian Leetch. // Broke Springer's school record for stolen bases at Avon Old Farms. // Swing draws comparisons to Hunter Pence, but eliminated a leg kick from his swing that was used throughout his time at Tulane.

Ranked as the Orioles #3 prospect and Minor League Baseball's #64 overall prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline. Listed as #4 for the Orioles and #57 in MiLB by Baseball America. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at third base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // 105 games in 2021 was tied for tenth-most in the Orioles system, 28 doubles was good for the second-most behind Robert Neustrom's 31, 17 home runs was sixth-most, and 74 RBI was fifth-most. // Appeared in all three games of the Double-A Northeast Championship Series against Akron, going 3-for-10 overall with a solo home run in game two. // Originally committed to Auburn, but signed for an above-slot $2.3M to join Baltimore. // In 2021, played 62 games at shortstop, and 35 games at third base. // Was named the Low-A East Offensive Player of the month in May 2021, when he hit .313 in 20 games with six home runs. // Started only 1-for-31 at High-A Aberdeen, but followed with a .325 mark over his next 20 games. // Orioles Director of Player Development Matt Boud: "It was a great experience for him to have to navigate those struggles and once he came out of them, he took off. He's got well-above-average power. He's just really young and just learning how to play."

Player Notes

Tough Luck: Was the only player not to reach base for Bowie in their 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, going 0-for-6 at the plate, tying a career-high three strikeouts, including a strikeout looking by Jonathan Englemann, Akron's outfielder. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at first base by MiLB.com for his 2021 season. // Was promoted to Bowie, but missed the final month of 2021 due to a fractured thumb in mid-August, and did not appear in a game for the Baysox. // .536 SLG in 2021 was the best in the Orioles system among players with at least 300 PA. // Played 52 games in Aberdeen, 20 in Delmarva. Earned his promotion after hitting .324 with four home runs in the 20 games. // Spent first two seasons in college at Virginia Tech, but transferred to Radford for his final two seasons after a coaching change.

Ranked as the Orioles #15 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline, #16 according to Baseball America. // Only played 35 games in 2021 due to a torn labrum in his left shoulder in late June that required surgery. // Played 16 games with Bowie, 19 with Aberdeen. // Focused on building muscle during the lost 2020 season. Baysox Manager Kyle Moore in 2021: "He's way more just mature and physical...this guy here has a chance to be an everyday shortstop in big leagues." // Orioles Manager David Hyde: "He's a really good defender. I've watched him here for up until major league camp the last few weeks. Love the way he plays defense, got great feet, great arm. It's accurate. Super active defensively. He's got really good instincts."

Ranked as the Orioles #33 prospect entering the 2022 season according to Baseball America. Also listed as the best defensive outfielder in the organization. // 21 home runs in 2021 ranked fourth in the Orioles system, behind only Kyle Stowers, Adley Rutschman, and Patrick Dorrian. Despite the high home run number, his .768 OPS was only good for 39th in the organization. // When combined with his 24 stolen bases, Watson was the only player in the system with a 20-20 season in 2021, and the first since DJ Stewart in 2017. // First selected by Boston in the 40th round of the 2018 draft, but elected not to sign. // Played 49 games in Bowie, 56 in Aberdeen. In 2019, played 16 games in Delmarva, 20 in Aberdeen.

Player Notes

Collected two doubles in the first inning of Bowie's 20-6 win over Akron on 4/19, also drew a career-high three walks during the 6 PA day. // Hit the Baysox first home run of the season in the second game of the year, a game-tying solo home run in the eighth inning against Richmond. Richmond scored seven runs in the following half inning. // Followed with a home run on the third day of the season, the third time in his career that he'd homered on consecutive days. He had homered on three consecutive days with High-A Aberdeen, and homered on consecutive days with Bowie against Somerset on 9/2 and 9/3/21. // Ranked as the Orioles #6 prospect entering the 2022 season according to MLB Pipeline and Baseball America. Also listed as the best athlete and the best defensive infielder in the organization by Baseball America. // Played at least 20 games at Low-A, High-A, and Double-A in 2021, primarily with High-A Aberdeen, where he hit .286 with eight home runs in 62 games. // Named the Orioles Organization All-Star at shortstop by MLB.com for his 2021 season. // Finished second in the system with a .380 OBP and 74 runs scored, while his 79 RBIs, 121 hits, 27 doubles and five triples ranked third and his .479 slugging percentage and .868 OPS ranked fourth. // Highest drafted shortstop in the history of Mississippi State, and the 17th player to be drafted in the first round. // Along with Justin Foscue (14th overall pick, Texas), became the second set of teammates chosen in the first round in program history, joining Will Clark and Rafael Palmeiro from the 1985 MLB Draft.

Coaching Staff

Manager: Kyle Moore

The 2022 season will be the 13th season for Moore in the Orioles organization. He played 29 games over two seasons (2010-11) before becoming a coach. He spent three seasons as a player/coach (2013 Frederick Keys, 2014 Bowie Baysox, 2015 Delmarva Shorebirds) before being named as the Shorebirds hitting coach in 2016 and the Keys hitting coach in 2017. Moore signed as a non-drafted free agent with the Orioles in 2010 after playing collegiately at the University of Alabama. As a high schooler, he starred at Edgewood Academy (AL), where he won three AISA state baseball championships. Kyle, his wife Whitney and their daughter Madilyn reside in Sarasota, FL.

Hitting Coach: Branden Becker

Becker was drafted by the Orioles in the 17th round of the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in 2015 and played parts of four seasons in the organization before retiring in May, 2019. He rejoined the Orioles as the Fundamentals Coach for the IronBirds for the 2020 season before it was canceled. He served as the Hitting Coach for the Complex League Orioles in 2021.

Pitching Coach: Josh Conway

Conway was selected in the fourth round of the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft by the Chicago Cubs out of Coastal Carolina. He played three seasons with the Cubs organization, making it to Double-A in 2016. The Smithburg, Md native returned to the Chanticleers to complete his undergraduate degree and served as a student assistant and assistant pitching coach before joining the Orioles.
