NEWS AND NOTES
WELCOME TO HIT CITY: Left-hander Colton Gordon will make his organizational debut on the mound Saturday night with Nashville after being acquired by Milwaukee on July 15 from Houston. Gordon has made 59 appearances with Triple-A Sugar Land since 2023, owning a 21-9 career record in Triple-A with a 3.85 ERA across 285.0 IP. Gordon made his MLB debut last season with the Astros, appearing in 20 games (14 GS) and went 6-4 with a 5.34 ERA. His six wins in 2025 were tied for the seventh most among qualified rookies in the American League and he ranked third in winning percentage (.600) and finished 10th in GS. He makes his Sounds debut after having won each of his last four starts for Sugar Land, including six shutout innings on July 10 vs. Albuquerque. All three of his quality starts this season have been six shutout inning performances. His six wins this year were tied for the seventh-most in the Pacific Coast League and tied for 11th in Triple-A along with new teammate Reis Knehr. NUKE ADAMS: Luke Adams belted his 12th homer of the season with a solo shot to left field in the bottom of the second inning Friday night. The 12 homers for Adams are the most on the current active roster this season and a new single-season career-high with a single affiliate, passing the three other times he finished with 11 homers for Double-A Biloxi (2025), High-A Wisconsin (2024) and Single-A Carolina (2023). His 15 home runs in the minors this year are the most	in a season during his five year professional career and are tied for the fifth-most in the farm system this season along with Eric Bitonti (WIS). His second inning solo blast marked his first career hit against the Tides in nine at-bats in his first year of Triple-A ball. FEELIN' 22: Tyler Black extended his on-base streak to 22 consecutive games with an infield hit in Friday night's game against the Tides. He has a .297 batting average (22-for-74), nine extra-base hits, 16 RBI and added 22 runs since June 13. The 22 consecutive games are the longest-active on-base streak on the team and is the eighth longest-active on-base streak in the International League. Black currently has the third longest on-base streak for the Sounds this season behind Cooper Pratt (25) and Brock Wilken (30). He is tied for the 11th-best on-base streak for the Sounds since 2021 and is riding an eight-game hit streak since game two of the doubleheader vs. Jacksonville on July 4. HARD WAY: Tyson Hardin tossed his fifth quality start of the season for the Sounds and sixth overall this year on Friday night. He went 6.0 innings, allowed a run on three hits and struck out two, facing 22 total batters. It marked his 12th career quality start in his three-year career. Hardin is tied for fifth in the International League this season in quality start and tied for ninth at the Triple-A level. It's the first time	Hardin has allowed less than two runs in a start of at least 5.0 IP since June 9 vs. Durham. FAR IT HAS GONE: Brewers no. 8-rated prospect Jeferson Quero clubbed his 11th homer of the season for the Sounds, giving Nashville the 2-1 lead in the bottom of the fourth inning on Friday night. The homer marked his fifth solo shot, a team-leading nine home runs off right-handed pitchers and the sixth at First Horizon Park. It was his first home run since June 30 vs. Jacksonville, while he extended his hit streak to five consecutive games and an on-base streak to eight consecutive games. Quero is currently hitting .264 (75-for-284), with 25 extra-base hits this season for the Sounds. The 75 hits are tied for the ninth-most among Brewers' minor league hitters, and he ranks 10th in homers. BAM BAM ZAM: Freddy Zamora hit his third home run of the season and first since May 30 vs. Gwinnett with his ninth inning solo shot to close out the series against Charlotte on July 12. He also drew a pair of walks to reach base three times on the day. Zamora has nine career Triple-A home runs with Nashville since making his Sounds debut in 2024 and seven of the nine have come on the road. Sunday's solo blast was the 25th of his minor league career in game number 459 since being taken in the 2nd round of the 2020 MLB Draft out of the University of Miami.
