About Last Week: The Loons lost their first series since the end of May dropping four-of-six on the road to the Lansing Lugnuts. It was also their first road series loss to a MWL Eastern Division opponent all year (4-0 prior). Great Lakes was held to a season-low 17 runs in the series while leading the league in batter strikeouts with 70.

Playoff Bound: The Great Lakes Loons have clinched a playoff spot by winning the first half in the Midwest League Eastern Division. The Loons came back from 8 1/2 games back with 14 to play, and clinched the spot a day early, gaining 9 1/2 games in the standings over a 13 game span. The Loons have won their second first-half title in franchise history (2019) and are in the postseason for the sixth time in the last nine years. It is the eighth playoff berth in franchise history.

She Talks Like June: In the month of June, the Loons had the best record in Minor League Baseball at 19-7. Great Lakes pitching racked up 300 strikeouts in the month, and held opponents to a .203 batting average, good for first and second in the Minors, respectively. Offensively, their .268 average and .827 OPS are fourth and second in High-A, respectively. 165 runs leads the MWL.

CYCLE: On June 16th, Alex De Jesus became the second Loon in franchise history to hit for the cycle and the first to do it at Dow Diamond. The 20-year-old started the game with a double, home run, and triple in the first five innings. He singled in the 7th inning and finished the game 4-for-6 in a 13-4 win over Wisconsin.

Got 'em Looking! The Loons pitching staff has racked up 899 strikeouts through 81 games this season. That's an average of 10.6 K/gm putting them on pace for 1,410 strikeouts this season, which would set the franchise record (1,256 - 2014).

Imanol Vargas: In his first 20 games, Vargas was hitting .167 with a .513 OPS. Since then (5/11), he has played in 52 games and leads the MWL in OBP (.483) and OPS (1.067).

Dodgers on the Farm: When combining the records of the MiLB affiliates with the MLB parent clubs record, the Dodgers organization has the best record in baseball at 297-216. Excluding rookie level affiliates, the Dodgers' system leads baseball at 250-175.

10K: Nick Nastrini (6/29) and Kyle Hurt (6/30) racked up a season-high 10 strikeouts on back-to-back nights. Nastrini's was the first 10 strikeout game for a Loons pitcher since 2019.

Run It Up: On June 28, the Loons scored a team-record 18 runs for the fourth time in franchise history. Great Lakes has hit that number twice in the last two years. Before September 7, 2021, the Loons hadn't scored 18 runs in a game since the 2009 season.

In the Rear View: Since a 5-10 start to the season, the Loons have gone 47-22. That's the best record in the Midwest League by 6.0 games (South Bend) and is the second best record in Minor League Baseball.

MWL Honors: Jorvit Vivas, Player of the Week (May 16-22)
Kyle Hurt, Pitcher of the Week (April 18-24), of the Month (June)
Jonny DeLuca, Player of the Week (2x, June 20-26, June 27-July 3)

Feeling Grand: In the span of four games (June 30-July 3), the Great Lakes Loons hit three grand slams, including two from Imanuel Vargas and the first walk-off grand slam in franchise history by Aldrich De Jongh. It is the fewest games between three grand slams in team history, surpassing the three the Loons hit in nine games last season. Great Lakes has now hit four slams this season, two short of the record six set by the 2021 Loons.

Double-Decker Salami Sandwich: Imanuel Vargas became the first Loon in franchise history to hit a grand slam in consecutive games, with a slam on June 30 and July 1 vs. Dayton. Vargas is the fourth Great Lakes player to hit two grand slams in the same season.

Thrice as Nice: On June 3rd, the Loons turned the 5th triple play in franchise history and the first since 7/31/12. It also marked the first time the Loons had turned three at Dow Diamond. The Loons took advantage of numerous base-running errors by the Fort Wayne TinCaps and converted the triple play 8-6-2-4-5-8 (Ismael Alcantara -> Eddys Leonard -> Ryan January -> Max Hewitt -> Jorvit Vivas -> Alcantara).

Pace of Play: Last year, the average 9-inning game in the Midwest League lasted 3 hours, 7 minutes. This season, the average game is being played in 2 hours, 31 minutes. The Loons last year played just 3 9-inning games in under 2:31. This season, they've played 20-of-67 9-inning games under 2:31.

Baseball is Like a Box of Chocolates: The Loons have lost a series 5-1 where they outscored their opponent 30-26 (@PEO in April) and won a series 5-1 in which they were outscored 25-24 (@WM in April).

Protected Pitchers: Loons starting pitchers have logged just 288.0 innings this year - the second-fewest in MiLB. The Dodgers' Single-A affiliate in Rancho Cucamonga has the fewest starter innings this year at 235.1.

Future Nostalgia: C Diego Cartaya, the No. 1 prospect in the Dodgers organization, was named to the roster for the 2022 All-Star Futures Game at Dodger Stadium, joining former Loons RHP Bobby Miller (Double-A Tulsa, LAD No. 2) and 3B Miguel Vargas (Triple-A OKC, LAD No. 5). Other current Midwest Leaguers to get the nod include Antoine Kelly (WIS/MIL), Pete Crow-Armstrong (SB/CHC), Robert Hassell III (FW/SD), Elly De La Cruz (DAY/CIN) and Denzel Clarke (LAN/OAK).

League Ranks:
Eddys Leonard - 11st 2B (.23), T3rd Hits (83), 2nd Runs (54)
Imanol Vargas - 1st OBP (.431), 1st BB (59), 3rd OPS (.912)
Jorvit Vivas - 8th OBP (.383), 5th Hits (81), 16th BB (46)

MANAGER

Austin Chubb

The Los Angeles Dodgers announced Austin Chubb will return as manager of the Great Lakes Loons in 2022. Last year, he became the Loons' ninth manager since the team's inaugural 2007 season, and this year becomes just the third to manage more than one season in Midland. In his first season at the helm of the Loons, Chubb led the team to a 63-57 record and amassed the best run differential in the High-A Central Eastern Division. Chubb is the only Loon to play for and now manage the club, with a brief stint as a player in 2015. Chubb, 32, enters his sixth season coaching in the Dodgers' organization. Los Angeles tabbed Chubb to manage the A-affiliate Rancho Cucamonga Quakes in 2020, before the season was cancelled. Chubb proved himself as a promising manager when he led the Dodgers' former Rookie-Advanced affiliate Ogden Raptors to a franchise-best 54-22 record in 2019, earning the Pioneer League Manager of the Year. Prior to Ogden, Chubb spent two seasons managing the Dodgers' Dominican Summer League club from 2016-2018. Before joining the Dodgers as a player, Chubb's road to Midland began when he was selected by the Washington Nationals in the 21st round of the 2012 draft after a collegiate career at Florida Southern. In 2012, Chubb served as a catcher for the rookie-level Gulf Coast League Nationals before joining the Auburn Doubledays in the New York-Penn League. Chubb would finish his Nationals journey after a 2014 season for the now-defunct Hagerstown Suns. Los Angeles signed Chubb to a minor league contract before 2015. A 2015 minor-league season saw Chubb appear in three different Dodger-affiliate jerseys, including Great Lakes, Oklahoma City, and Rancho Cucamonga. A native of Lake Mary, Fla., the right-handed catcher spent the most time with the Quakes, helping Rancho Cucamonga secure the 2015 California League Championship. Entering the 2022 season, Chubb has logged over seven years as either a player or coach within the Dodgers organization.

PITCHING COACH

David Anderson

David Anderson continues his rise through the ranks of the Dodgers organization as the pitching coach for the Loons in 2022. Anderson, 27, joined the L.A. system as a development coach in 2020, and was assigned as the pitching coach for the organization's Arizona Complex League team last season. He led his staff to the fourth-lowest ERA in the ACL at 4.06, the third-most strikeouts (617 in 488.0 innings pitched), and the second-best walks and hits per innings pitched. Anderson, a 2015 graduate of Muhlenberg College, got his start in coaching at his alma mater, serving as pitching coach for the NCAA Division III school in Allentown, Pa., for two years immediately after his graduation. After that, he became a volunteer assistant for Cornell in 2017 before landing at Atlanta's Emory University, serving as the school's pitching coach and recruiting coordinator. While in the college ranks, Anderson also got head coaching experience in summer collegiate ball as manager of the Watertown (N.Y.) Rapids of the Perfect Game Collegiate Baseball League in 2018, leading the team to a 26-21 record in its inaugural season. He then went on to manage the now-defunct Fayetteville (N.C.) SwampDogs of the Coastal Plain League in 2019. Anderson, a native of Syracuse, N.Y., tossed four seasons at Muhlenberg. As a junior in 2014, he posted a 3.14 ERA over 63.0 innings, all as a starter. He walked just seven batters that season while striking out 28. He served as team captain as a senior, and led the team that year in innings pitched and strikeouts. After college, Anderson tested the waters in independent baseball. He appeared 16 times for the Newburgh Newts of the North Country Baseball League, with a stellar 2.38 ERA and seven saves. He then threw to a 2.67 ERA with the Bridgeport Bluefish of the Atlantic League, an MLB Partner League.

HITTING COACH

Dylan Nasiatka

Dylan Nasiatka moves up to his third team in as many years in the Dodgers' organization, serving as the Loons' hitting coach in 2022. Nasiatka, 32, spent last year as the hitting coach of the Low-A Rancho Cucamonga Quakes, where he led the team to a league-high 6.75 runs per game. His hitters also paced the league in doubles, home runs, total bases, slugging percentage and OPS. The Bakersfield, Calif., native joined the Dodgers system prior to the 2020 season, for which he was assigned to be the hitting coach for the Ogden Raptors. Nasiatka earned a bachelor's degree from Cal State Bakersfield in kinesiology & exercise science in 2014, and achieved his master's degree in exercise science from California University of Pennsylvania the next year. Before joining the Dodgers' organization, Nasiatka worked as an assistant coach at Bakersfield College, a two-year school in his hometown, for seven seasons. Nasiatka played collegiate ball for three different schools, starting at Bakersfield College before moving to Hofstra and eventually South Carolina-Beaufort. He was a versatile player, with reps at catcher and on the infield. Nasiatka set a Bakersfield College record with a .473 batting average as a redshirt sophomore in 2010, belting 17 doubles, two home runs, and driving in 33 runs in 41 games. He was named a Junior College All-American by the American Baseball Coaches Association that season. In his lone season at Hofstra, he continued to rake, hitting .303 with 19 RBIs in 45 games, mostly as a designated hitter. He found more success at USCB, hitting .335 with 18 extra-base hits and 29 RBIs over 53 games.

BENCH COACH

Elian Herrera

Former Great Lake Loon and Los Angeles Dodger Elian Herrera returns to the Great Lakes Loons 2021 field staff in his second season as bench coach. Herrera, a four-year big leaguer, begins his fourth season as a coach within the Dodgers' organization. The second baseman played over 20 games with the Loons in a span of two separate seasons. Herrera was a member of the inaugural 2007 Great Lakes Loons, along with nine other future Major Leaguers. Herrera would return to the Loons for a portion of the start of the 2009 season. From 2012-2018, Herrera played in 324 games at the AAA level, holding a .310 batting average in nearly 1200 plate appearances. Herrera made his major league debut on May 15, 2012 at Dodger Stadium, in a game where Kirk Gibson managed the Arizona Diamondbacks vs Don Mattingly's Dodgers. Three other former Loons appeared in the 5-1 loss for the Dodgers: Javy Guerrero (RHP, '09), Dee Strange-Gordon (SS, '09), and Scott Van Slyke (OF, '07) Before joining the Loons staff last season, Herrera was the bench coach for the Rancho Cucamonga Quakes in 2019, helping lead the team to the playoffs after an 81-57 finish in the regular season, good for first in the South division of the California League.

ASSISTANT PITCHING COACH

Richard De Los Santos

Richard De Los Santos joins the Dodgers' organization for the first time as assistant pitching coach for the Loons in 2022. The 37-year-old had a nine-year minor league career as a right-handed pitcher, mostly in the Tampa Bay system. De Los Santos pitched in 36 games over three seasons for Triple-A Durham, racking up 99 strikeouts in 169 1-3 innings at MiLB's highest level. Over the course of his nine seasons in affiliated baseball, the Dominican Republic native struck out over 400 batters. De Los Santos played a portion of the 2005 season for the Southwest Michigan Devil Rays in Battle Creek, who would be purchased in 2006 by the Michigan Baseball Foundation and become the Loons in 2007.

Today's Loons Starting Pitcher

#35 RHP Nick Nastrini

6-3, 215 | 22yo | San Diego, CA | 4th Round, 2021 - LAD
THROWS: 4sFB, SL, CV, CH

This Year: On Opening Day roster. Loons #3 starter in their opening starting rotation. On June 28 vs. Dayton, tossed first 10-strikeout game by a Loons pitcher since August 2019.

652str/1054pit (61.9%), 37.8 GB%, 43.3 FB%, 35.7 K%, 11.8 BB%

Prospecting: MLB.com, #13. Baseball America, #16. Future Dodgers, #8. BA: "Nastrini entered his junior year at UCLA considered a potential first-round pick, but he suffered the yips."

Nastrini to Jim Callis (MLB.com): "It definitely tested me mentally. I was able to gain a lot of things in the mental aspect of the game. I learned a lot about that, which I'm very thankful to take a positive out of that negative outcome."

Stuff: Effectively uses his lead arm to create leverage and explode towards the plate. Changeup is currently the biggest work in progress to solidify him as a true four-pitch guy. Fastball works in the mid-90s. Upper-70s curveball. Low-mid-80s slider.

2021: Only logged 14.0 innings between the AZL & Low-A Rancho Cucamonga.

RC: 6 G, 13.0 IP, 3 ER, 30 K, 7 BB.

Draft: Selected by the Dodgers in the 4th round (131st overall) signing for an over-slot amount of $497,500.

College: Spent three years as a starter at UCLA posting a 4.73 ERA with 95 strikeouts over 66.2 career innings (Career: 12.8 K/9). After struggling with his command through five starts of his junior season (20 BBs in 25.1 IP), he was pulled from the Bruins starting rotation. He finished 2021 with 38 walks in 31.1 innings.

Summer Ball: Spent 2020 with the Santa Barbara Foresters in the California Collegiate League. Went 6-0 with a 1.71 ERA with 45 strikeouts in 31.2 innings helping to secure the 2020 National Baseball Congress World Series in Wichita, KS. Spent 2019 with Falmouth in the Cape Cod League. Spent 2018 with the Bellingham Bells of the West Coast League prior to beginning his college career.

Personal: Avid golfer. Asked the crowd while on-stage for an interview during a Loons pre-season ticket event if he could tag along with any members at the Midland Country Club this summer. Also says he tries to mirror his pitching style and tenacity to Nolan Ryan's.

This Year: On Opening Day roster.

Stuff: Good fastball/changeup combo. Spent this offseason trying to make his plate delivery quicker. Part of this progression is working on a lower leg lift. Dodgers would like to see Cole use his slider more - a pitch he'll routinely shake off of.

2021: Spent all year as a piggyback starter with the Loons.
GL: 26G/2GS, 72.2 IP, 3.34 ERA, 1.32 WHIP, 55 H, 27 ER, 41 BB, 68 K

2020: Made the decision to return to school after not being drafted the previous summer, but was cautioned by the UC Riverside administration that the baseball program may not make it through budget cuts going into 2021. Concerned about the idea of missing another full season, he decided to turn pro.

Family Business: Cole is the son of 4x All-Star, 2002 World Series Champion, and Angles all-time saves leader, Troy Percival. Because of this, Cole grew up a huge Angels fan.

College: Pitched in two seasons at his dad's alma mater UC Riverside (Highlanders). Cole's father, Troy, was his manager all three seasons he spent on campus. Cole missed the 2019 season due to an elbow injury that eventually needed a platelet-rich plasma injection. Finished the shortened 2020 season logging 22 innings with 19 Ks and 8 walks.

College: Started college career at North Carolina where he spent just one redshirt season before transferring to the State College of Florida - the same school attended by Manager Austin Chubb from 2009-10. Peto was tied to North Carolina as both his parents were Tar Heel fans and his Uncle worked on the Dean Smith radio show. Peto again transferred after his redshirt freshman year to Stetson University where he would pitch for two seasons and serve as a team captain. He saw Stetson as an opportunity to step into the role left by recent 1st rounder Logan Gilbert (SEA).

Draft(s): Drafted in the 30th round by the Los Angeles Angels out of high school in 2016 and drafted in the 29th round by the Tampa Bay Rays after his redshirt sophomore year in 2019. He turned down both offers and ultimately signed with the Dodgers for $70,000.

Prospecting: MLB.com, #1. Baseball America, #1. FanGraphs, #1.

Career: Signed on July 2, 2018 for $2.5 million as the #1 international prospect in his class.

2020: Spent the year as an 18-year-old at the alternate site and lived with OKC Dodgers manager Travis Barbary in South Carolina during the height of the pandemic. Despite knowing no english when signed as a 16-year-old, Cartaya became fluent during his time living with Barbary (the same thing happened with former Dodgers catching prospect Keibert Ruiz).

Getting Here: Started playing baseball when he was two years old and at 10 years old was playing third base for the Venezuelan national team for his age group. Despite playing 3B, he looked up to Salvador Perez and Joe Mauer. Cartaya made the switch to catching when he was 14.

Family: His mother is a former professional bodybuilder and was the physical trainer for the youth academy he trained at. To this day, she remains hard on him physically.

Hometown: Maracay is in north-central Venezuela near the Caribbean coast. Big leaguers from Maracay include Miguel Cabrera, Jose Altuve, and Bobby Abreu.
