LATE-GAME LAPSE LEADS TO LAKELAND LOSS:

Lakeland dropped a rain-shortened series with a 2-1 loss to the Dunedin Blue Jays on Sunday at home. Dunedin took the lead on a sacrifice fly in the second before the Flying Tigers countered with a run in the fifth courtesy of Nick Dumesnil's speed. He beat out a routine ground ball to reach base, stole second and scored on an RBI single from Anibal Salas. After allowing the go-ahead run to score in the top of the seventh, Lakeland squandered an excellent chance to tie the game in the bottom half. With two on and no outs, Michael Oliveto attempted to tag from second on a shallow fly ball but was thrown out at third, leading to the one-run defeat.

RETURN OF THE MAC:

Following a brief promotion to High-A, Zach MacDonald returned to Lakeland late last month and picked up right where he left off. He is hitting .412 with four homers, nine RBIs and six walks in eight games since rejoining the Flying Tigers. Dating back to his first stint with Lakeland, MacDonald has reached base in each of his last 14 starts. The outfielder is hitting .390 with six homers, 16 RBIs and 12 walks over that span. Overall, he leads the Florida State League with 19 home runs and sits 10th in the league with 54 RBIs.

A BATTLE WITH THE BUCCOS:

The Flying Tigers and Marauders have had a number of competitive series over the last few years. Heading into 2026, the teams had split each of the last four six-game series between the two sides. Following Bradenton's 5-1 series win at home in early May, Lakeland responded with a home series win of its own when the two teams met again later that month.

SALAS SHOWS OUT:

Following another multi-hit performance and the game-tying RBI single in the fifth on Sunday, Anibal Salas has emerged as one of Lakeland's most reliable hitters over the past few weeks. Following another multi-hit performance and the game-tying RBI single in the sixth, the outfielder has recorded an RBI in five of his last six starts. Over his last nine starts, he is hitting .500 with a .588 on-base percentage while collecting six RBIs and drawing six walks. He has also excelled against Bradenton this season, slugging .607 and reaching base at a .429 clip while driving in six runs over 10 games against the Marauders this year.

2025: A SEASON TO REMEMBER:

Lakeland looks to defend its 2025 Florida State League title as it returns home for the first time since last year's championship-clinching victory. The Flying Tigers steamrolled through both the regular season and postseason. They became the first team in the FSL's 106-year history to win the first and second half titles while also going undefeated in the postseason. Additionally, they were just the third club in league history to win both the first and second halves. With its postseason appearance last year, Lakeland has reached the playoffs in three consecutive seasons for the first time in 32 years.

TIGERTOWN IS TITLETOWN:

2025 marked Lakeland's first league title in 13 years. It was the club's fifth championship all-time, previously taking the league crown in 1967, 1977, 1992 and 2012. Two unrelated Lakeland teams (the Lakeland Highlanders and Pilots) won titles in 1924 and 1954, respectively.

MEET THE MARAUDERS:

Lakeland faces Bradenton this week for the third time in 2026. The Marauders took five of six in Bradenton in early May while the Flying Tigers took three of five at home later that month. After posting a 31-34 first-half record, the Pittsburgh Pirates Single-A affiliate has struggled in the second half, particularly on the road. The club entered the series on a nine-game road losing streak while having lost 10 of its last 12 games overall. They enter the week with the league's worst second-half record at 15-26 and carry a run differential of minus-62. The team has a promising crop of starters, including three of the organization's top 30 players in the current starting rotation, with another on the injured list. However, the relief pitching has been a major issue, surrendering a Minor League-leading 31 blown saves. After a hot start at the plate, the bats have cooled off as well, as the Marauders have scored the third-fewest runs among Single-A clubs this season.

ROSTER MOVES:

The Detroit Tigers have made the following roster moves affecting the Lakeland Flying Tigers:

- Lakeland Flying Tigers activated 3B Carson Rucker from 7-day injured list on August 5
- Detroit Tigers sent LHP Brant Hurter on a rehab assignment to Lakeland Flying Tigers on August 4
- SS Jack Goodman assigned to Toledo Mud Hens (AAA) from Lakeland Flying Tigers on August 4
- Lakeland Flying Tigers released RHP Andrew Pogue on August 3
- Lakeland Flying Tigers released C Sergio Tapia on August 3
- Erie SeaWolves (AA) sent OF Chris Meyers on a rehab assignment to Lakeland Flying Tigers on August 1
- Lakeland Flying Tigers released RHP Duque Hebbert on August 1
