LET'S HAVE A DAY: RHP Deivi Garcia is scheduled to take the mound for the sixth time (3rd start) as the Sounds and Bulls square off on Friday night at first Horizon Park. Garcia made two appearances last week in Charlotte, starting game one of the series and giving the Sounds five-innings of one run ball with four strikeouts. He followed that up with an inning of relief on Sunday in which he saw three un-earned runs come across on three hits. He enters the game T-5th on the staff in IP (13.1) and is T-6th in strikeouts with 11. Friday night will be the 10th time in his career facing Durham in his career after spending parts of the 2023-2024 seasons with Charlotte and Triple-A time with Scranton-Wilkes-Barre between 2019-2023 when he was in the Yankees organization. In his previous nine games against the Bulls, Garcia is 2-1 with a 3.21 ERA in 14.0 IP and has 18 strikeouts and nine walks.

THE W IN BIG WOO: Brandon Woodruff collected his first win since September 11, 2023, when he was with the Brewers against the Miami Marlins. In his third rehab start after missing all of 2024 recovering from shoulder surgery, Woodruff worked five scoreless innings in game one on Thursday night. Despite setting a high for innings during his rehab stint, Woodruff threw fewer pitches than his previous two appearances, needing only 61 to get through the fifth. 67% of his pitches were for strikes on Thursday.

JORGE AND JARED: Jorge Alfaro got the Sounds on the board with his fifth inning solo shot in game one on Thursday night. At the end of the game, it gave him four home runs over his last 12 at-bats over a four-game span dating back to the ninth inning last Saturday night in Charlotte. He had seven home runs in 64 combined games in 2023 between Triple-A Albuquerque, Jacksonville, and Worcester during his last affiliated season. Jared Oliva made it four-straight games with an XBH after his sixth-inning home run against the Bulls in game one. It was tied for the longest active streak in the league at the conclusion of the first game. Like Alfaro, Oliva has had a power surge as of late, hitting four home runs over his last eight games. Also similar to Alfaro, Oliva had seven home runs in 69 games with Double-A Arkansas in the Texas League last season. The pair are tied atop the club lead with six home runs, which is tied for the third-most in Triple-A and tied for the most in the International League.

LOS OR MORE: Brewers' no. 22-ranked prospect Carlos Rodriguez held Durham scoreless over 5.1 IP in game two on Thursday night. He entered the game tied for his most strikeouts through the first four starts of a season since the Brewers drafted him in the 6th round of the 2021 Draft out of Florida SouthWestern State. His eight strikeouts on Thursday night set his new single-game high in 2025, and tied for the most by a Sounds pitcher so far this year. The right-hander is second in the International League and Triple-A with his 33 strikeouts and owns the fourth-lowest ERA, after dropping it to 1.09 through his first five starts. He has not allowed more than two earned runs in any of his starts so far and has three starts of five-plus innings without allowing an earned run. His eight strikeouts are the most he has had in a game since August 16, 2024, when the Sounds were on the road in Durham.

STREAKIN': With his 1.2 IP Tuesday night without allowing a run, RHP Jesus Liranzo is up to six appearances since allowing a run which is the current clubhouse lead after the promotion of Cragi Yoho. Over his last 9.0 IP, Liranzo has allowed just four hits and has six strikeouts, three walks, and a hit batter. Opponents are hitting just .148 during this six game stretch. His six games are tied for the seventh-longest in the International League after the rest of the league wrapped up action on Wednesday.

TREYJA VU FOR DAZ: Daz Cameron brought his hot bat home with him from Charlotte. The reigning International League Player of the Week started his series with a three-hit night, going 3-for-4 with a home run, double, and both Nashville RBI in Wednesday's loss to the Bulls. His fifth inning solo home run was his third straight game leaving the yard, making him the first Nashville player to do so this season and the first since Wes Clarke from August 16-18, 2024, on the road against Durham. It's just the second time Cameron has hit a home run in three straight games in his professional career. His first was in 2023 when he was playing for the Norfolk Tides and he hit home runs in back-to-back games on the road in Charlotte on April 29-30 and then returned home to hit a home run on May 3 when Norfolk was hosting who else...the Durham Bulls.
