HE'S THE MANN: Southpaw Bruce Zimmermann will make his 20th start of the season to kick off the final home series of the year for Nashville. Zimmermann is coming off working six scoreless relief innings last Wednesday in Norfolk and set his season-high with eight strikeouts. He piggybacked off Robert Gasser and the two combined to toss the 15th shutout of the year for Nashville, setting the single-season franchise record for shutouts in a season.

STEW-WE-MAMA: Steward Berroa posted arguably his best game in a Sounds uniform on Sunday, going 2-for-5 with a homer and four RBI. It was a season-high in RBI and tied his single-game career-high for RBI, matching what he did on June 4, 2022, while playing for High-A Vancouver. Sunday was also his second multi-hit game in 19 games played since arriving in Nashville and he had reached base in three of the four games he has appeared in for Nashville this month.

LUIS ROCKS: Luis Urias has made a statement with his new team and it continued on Sunday, going 1-for-4 with a home run. During his first four games with the Sounds this season, he has collected a hit in three of them, going 6-for-15 (.400) with four RBI. Urias went four straight games with the Athletics in the Major Leagues without a hit before beginning his time with Nashville this year. In 2024, September was a good month for Urias as well, creating a .500 batting average and four extra-base hits over six games with the Seattle Mariners.

TUCKER TIME: Tucker Davidson made one of his best starts for the Nashville Sounds on Sunday against the Tides. Davidson punched out five batters and allowed three hits over 4.0 shutout innings. It is the first scoreless performance for the right-hander this season in his four starts since signing with the Brewers, and his first scoreless start since notching 5.0 scoreless frames in a start for Norfolk on June 30, 2024. Over his last two starts, Davidson has let up just two runs with 13 strikeouts over 9.0 innings. This comes after allowing nine runs over his first 4.1 innings with the team.

BLACK MEANS GO: Tyler Black set his season-high with three stolen bases on Sunday against Norfolk. He entered the day with 13 stolen bases in 50 games played and had not stolen more than one base in a game this season. His three steals are the most he had since also stealing three bases on July 25, 2024, vs. Charlotte. He's the fourth Nashville player with three steals in a game and the first since Steward Berroa on August 12 on the road in Durham.

RAZZLE DAZZLE: Daz Cameron swatted his team-leading 17th home run of the season to set his single-season career-high. Cameron bested the 16 home runs that he hit during the 2023 season while playing for Norfolk. In 2023 he hit his 16 home runs in 110 games played and reached 17 in just 51 games played for Nashville in 2025. Cameron got into a power run after returning to Nashville on July 10th on the road in Durham. Over his last 40 games since July 10, Cameron has hit 11 home runs with 31 RBI and 19 total XBH. Cameron began his Sounds tenure with a multi-HR game on April 11 vs. Memphis and hit six home runs through his first 11 games played with the Sounds after a early-season trad to the Brewers. After his three-hit night Saturday and pair of walks in the series finale Sunday, Cameron has reached base safely in each of his last 12 games dating back to August 21 and has three home runs and nine RBI during the span.

FIVE OH: With two more stolen bases on Saturday night, Jared Oliva reached 50 stolen bases on the season. His 50 steals are tops in the International League and second most in Triple-A this season behind Esteury Ruiz (57). With 12 games remaining in the 2025 season, Oliva is 4 steals shy of getting to third all-time for steals in a single season in Nashville Sounds history. He's got 11 steals over his last 13 games played for Nashville, and if he were to match his production over the final 12 games, Oliva would match Otis Nixon for the second-most steals in a season. Nixon owns the two best stolen bases seasons in Nashville history, stealing a team-best 72 bases in 1981 and then 61 bases in 1982.

STAYING AT THE QUALITY INN: Right-hander Garrett Stallings pitched his second straight quality start and fifth overall of the season with 6.0 IP and two runs allowed in Nashville's 7-6 win over Norfolk on Saturday night. His five quality starts are tied for the most on the Nashville pitching staff along with Bruce Zimmermann and it was the 24th overall by Nashville starters this year. The Sounds are now 20-9 when their starter works 6+ IP.
