

INDIANAPOLIS NEGRO LEAGUES OSCAR CHARLESTON COLORING PAGE

Indianapolis native Oscar Charleston's (pictured in the middle) baseball career started as a bat boy with the Indianapolis ABCs. In 1915, he became the ABCs' star center fielder and today is known as one of the greatest ballplayers of all time. In 1954, Charleston joined the Indianapolis Clowns as manager and led them to a Negro American League pennant.

Riley Children's Health
Indiana University Health